TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The Additional Statutory Paternity Pay
(Adoptions from Overseas) Regulations 2010

Made - - - - 6th April 2010
Coming into force - - 9th April 2010

The Secretary of State makes the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 171ZEB(1), (2) and (3), 171ZEC(1) and (3), 171ZED(2) and (3), 171ZEE(2), (4) and (7), 171ZG(3), 171ZJ (3), (4), (7) and (8) and 175(4), of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992⁽¹⁾, and with the concurrence of the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs in so far as such concurrence is required.

This instrument contains only regulations made by virtue of, or consequential upon, sections 7 to 10 of the Work and Families Act 2006 and is made before the end of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of those enactments⁽²⁾.

In accordance with section 176(1) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, a draft of these Regulations was laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Additional Statutory Paternity Pay (Adoptions from Overseas) Regulations 2010 and come into force on 9th April 2010.

(1) 1992 (c. 4). Part 12ZA of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 was inserted by section 2 of the Employment Act 2002 (c. 22). Sections 171ZEA to 171ZEE were inserted by the Work and Families Act 2006 (c. 18). Part 12ZA is, by regulations made under section 171ZK, namely the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 (Application of Parts 12ZA and 12ZB to Adoptions from Overseas) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/499), applied to cases which involve adoption, but not the placement of a child for adoption under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, with the modifications prescribed by those Regulations. The sections cited in the preamble that are so modified are sections 171ZEB(2) and 171ZEE(4). Relevant amendments were made to S.I. 2003/499 by S.I. 2010/153.

(2) See section 173(5) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 (c. 5). Pursuant to section 172 of that Act, where the Secretary of State proposes to make regulations under the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, the Secretary of State is required to refer such proposals, normally in the form of draft regulations, to the Social Security Advisory Committee. This requirement does not apply where the regulations are contained in a statutory instrument made before the end of a period of six months beginning with the coming into force of the enactments by virtue or as a consequence of which the regulations are being made.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, made under provisions inserted into the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 (c. 4) (“the 1992 Act”) by the Work and Families Act 2006 (c. 18), make provision relating to additional statutory paternity pay in respect of adoptions from overseas. An adoption from overseas is defined in the Regulations as an adoption of a child who enters Great Britain from outside the United Kingdom in connection with or for the purposes of adoption which does not involve the placement of the child for adoption under the law of any part of the United Kingdom.

These Regulations should be read in conjunction with the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 (Application of Parts 12ZA and 12ZB to Adoptions from Overseas) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/499), which provide for the provisions of Part 12ZA of the 1992 Act to have effect, with prescribed modifications, in relation to cases which involve adoption, but not the placement of a child for adoption under the law of any part of the United Kingdom.

Regulation 3 sets out the extent to which and the manner in which the Additional Statutory Paternity Pay (General) Regulations 2010 apply to adoptions from overseas.

Regulation 4 is an application provision: there is an entitlement to additional statutory paternity pay where the relevant provisions of Part 12ZA of the 1992 Act (as modified) and the provisions of the Regulations are satisfied.

Regulation 5(2) sets out the conditions regarding relationship with a child and the adopter (which where two people are adopting together is the person who will be taking adoption leave in respect of the child) which the applicant for additional statutory paternity pay must satisfy in order for his or her entitlement to arise. Regulation 5(3) sets out the conditions which the applicant must satisfy as regards employment before the expected week of the child’s entry into Great Britain and employment in the period immediately preceding the period in respect of which additional statutory paternity pay will be payable. Regulation 6 sets out conditions which the adopter must satisfy and these include the requirement that he or she has returned to work. Regulation 7 concerns the period in respect of which additional statutory paternity pay is payable. In broad terms (and subject to various conditions set out in regulation 7 and at section 171ZEE of the 1992 Act, as modified), the applicant may choose the dates on which this period is to begin and end. Regulation 8 provides for the process of applying for additional statutory paternity pay and sets out various requirements as to information and evidence which the applicant must provide to his or her employer.

Provision is also made for the payment of additional statutory paternity pay in connection with the adoption of a child from overseas where the adopter dies. Regulation 7(4) and (5) applies to a case in which the adopter dies after the beginning of the period in respect of which additional statutory paternity pay is payable. It allows for a longer period in many such cases. Regulations 9 and 10 concern cases where the period in respect of which additional statutory paternity pay is payable has not already commenced when the adopter dies. Regulation 9 concerns the various conditions which must be satisfied by the applicant in such circumstances and, also, the different pay period which will invariably apply in such cases.

Regulation 11 provides for the exceptional circumstances in which additional statutory paternity pay (in connection with the adoption of a child from overseas) will be payable to a person even though he is working, albeit for another employer. Regulation 12 sets out what is meant by an adopter’s “returning to work”.
