- (f) a statement as to whether the work-seeker is entitled to receive notice of termination of the contract between the work-seeker and the agency and, if so, a statement of the length of the notice.

(2) In the case of an agency which is to provide the work-seeker with work-finding services to which regulation 26(5) applies, before first providing any such work-finding services to the work-seeker, the terms to be agreed, in addition to the terms in paragraph (1), are—

- (a) that an agency shall not charge a fee permitted under regulation 26(5) to the work-seeker until the period referred to, as the case may be, in sub-paragraph (d) or (e) of regulation 26(5), during which the work-seeker may withdraw or cancel, has elapsed;
- (b) that the work-seeker has the right without detriment or penalty to cancel or withdraw from the contract with immediate effect by informing the agency of such cancellation or withdrawal during the period referred to, as the case may be, in sub-paragraph (d) or (e) of regulation 26(5);
- (c) that an agency shall not include information about the work-seeker in a publication until—

 - (ii) at the same time, the agency shall inform the work-seeker of the right to object, its effect and the time limit for exercising that right; and
 - (iii) for the period referred to in paragraph (5)(f) of regulation 26, the work-seeker is entitled to object to any aspect of the information relating to the work-seeker by informing the agency of the objection;
- (e) in a contract to which sub-paragraph (d) applies, that where the work-seeker informs the agency of an objection, the agency shall not charge a fee or include the information in a publication until the work-seeker's reasonable requirements have been addressed (even if addressing the requirements takes longer than the period referred to in paragraph (5)(f) of regulation 26);
- (f) in a contract to which sub-paragraph (d) applies, that where an agency makes available to the work-seeker a copy of the information referred to in that sub-paragraph—

- (g) that the work-seeker is entitled to receive a full refund of the fees paid if the publication including, or proposed to include, the work-seeker's information is not produced and made available to potential hirers within 60 days from the date on which payment is made by the work-seeker.

(3) Any reference in paragraph (2) to the inclusion of information about a work-seeker in a publication, includes the inclusion of a photographic image or audio or video recording of the work-seeker in a publication.

(5) An agency shall ensure that—

- (a) all terms in respect of which the agency has obtained the work-seeker's agreement are recorded in a single document or, where this is not possible, in more than one document; and
- (b) copies of all such documents are given at the same time as each other by the agency to the work-seeker before the agency provides any services to the work-seeker to which the terms contained in such documents relate.

(6) An agency may not vary any terms set out in any document issued in accordance with paragraph (5), unless the work-seeker agrees to the variation.

(7) If the agency and the work-seeker agree to any variation in the terms set out in any of the documents referred to in paragraph (5), the agency shall as soon as possible, and in any event no later than the end of the fifth business day following the day on which the agency and the work-seeker agree to the variation, give to the work-seeker a single document or, where this is not possible, more than one document containing details of the terms as agreed to be varied and stating the date on or after which it is agreed that the varied terms are to take effect.

(8) An agency may not make the continued provision of any services by it to a work-seeker conditional on the agreement by the work-seeker to any such variation.”.
