The Family Procedure Rules 2010

PART 10

APPLICATIONS UNDER PART 4 OF THE FAMILY LAW ACT 1996

Power to adjourn the hearing for consideration of the penalty

10.14. The High Court or a county court may adjourn the hearing for consideration of the penalty to be imposed for any contempt of court found proved and such a hearing may be restored if the respondent does not comply with any conditions specified by the court.

(Rules made under section 144 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 contain an equivalent power for magistrates' courts.)
