The Criminal Procedure Rules 2010

PART 65

APPEAL TO THE COURT OF APPEAL: GENERAL RULES

Abandoning a ground of appeal or opposition

65.14.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to abandon—

- (a) a ground of appeal identified in an appeal notice; or
- (b) a ground of opposition identified in a respondent's notice.

(2) Such a party must give written notice to—

- (a) the Registrar; and
- (b) every other party,

before any hearing at which that ground will be considered by the court.
