The application by the court of the overriding objective	rule 1.3

The overriding objective

- 1.1.—(1) The overriding objective of this new code is that criminal cases be dealt with justly.
- (2) Dealing with a criminal case justly includes—
- (a) acquitting the innocent and convicting the guilty;
 - (b) dealing with the prosecution and the defence fairly;
 - (c) recognising the rights of a defendant, particularly those under Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights;
 - (d) respecting the interests of witnesses, victims and jurors and keeping them informed of the progress of the case;
 - (e) dealing with the case efficiently and expeditiously;
 - (f) ensuring that appropriate information is available to the court when bail and sentence are considered; and
 - (g) dealing with the case in ways that take into account—
 - (i) the gravity of the offence alleged,
 - (ii) the complexity of what is in issue,
 - (iii) the severity of the consequences for the defendant and others affected, and
 - (iv) the needs of other cases.

The duty of the participants in a criminal case

- 1.2.—(1) Each participant, in the conduct of each case, must—
- (a) prepare and conduct the case in accordance with the overriding objective;
 - (b) comply with these Rules, practice directions and directions made by the court; and
 - (c) at once inform the court and all parties of any significant failure (whether or not that participant is responsible for that failure) to take any procedural step required by these

Rules, any practice direction or any direction of the court. A failure is significant if it might hinder the court in furthering the overriding objective.

(2) Anyone involved in any way with a criminal case is a participant in its conduct for the purposes of this rule.

The application by the court of the overriding objective

1.3. The court must further the overriding objective in particular when—

- (a) exercising any power given to it by legislation (including these Rules);
- (b) applying any practice direction; or
- (c) interpreting any rule or practice direction.

When the Rules apply

2.1.—(1) In general, the Criminal Procedure Rules apply—

- (a) in all criminal cases in magistrates' courts and in the Crown Court; and
- (b) in all cases in the criminal division of the Court of Appeal.

(2) If a rule applies only in one or two of those courts, the rule makes that clear.

(3) The Rules apply on and after 5th April, 2010, but unless the court otherwise directs they do not affect—

- (a) a right or duty existing under The Criminal Procedure Rules 2005; or
- (b) the application of Part 29, Part 34 or Part 35 of The Criminal Procedure Rules 2005 in a case in which an application or notice under the Part concerned has been served before that date.

[Note. The rules replaced by the first Criminal Procedure Rules (The Criminal Procedure Rules 2005) were revoked when those Rules came into force by provisions of the Courts Act 2003, The Courts Act 2003 (Consequential Amendments) Order 2004(1) and The Courts Act 2003 (Commencement No. 6 and Savings) Order 2004(2). The first Criminal Procedure Rules reproduced the substance of all the rules they replaced.]

Definitions

2.2.—(1) In these Rules, unless the context makes it clear that something different is meant:

‘business day’ means any day except Saturday, Sunday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday or a bank holiday;

‘court’ means a tribunal with jurisdiction over criminal cases. It includes a judge, recorder, District Judge (Magistrates’ Court), lay justice and, when exercising their judicial powers, the Registrar of Criminal Appeals, a justices’ clerk or assistant clerk;

‘court officer’ means the appropriate member of the staff of a court;

‘justices’ legal adviser’ means a justices’ clerk or an assistant to a justices’ clerk;

‘live link’ means an arrangement by which a person can see and hear, and be seen and heard by, the court when that person is not in court;

‘Practice Direction’ means the Lord Chief Justice’s Consolidated Criminal Practice Direction, as amended; and ‘public interest ruling’ means a ruling about whether it is in the public interest to disclose prosecution material under sections 3(6), 7A(8) or 8(5) of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996⁽³⁾.

(2) Definitions of some other expressions are in the rules in which they apply.

References to Acts of Parliament and to Statutory Instruments

2.3. In these Rules, where a rule refers to an Act of Parliament or to subordinate legislation by title and year, subsequent references to that Act or to that legislation in the rule are shortened: so, for example, after a reference to the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996⁽⁴⁾ that Act is called ‘the 1996 Act’; and after a reference to The Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Defence Disclosure Time Limits) Regulations 1997⁽⁵⁾ those Regulations are called ‘the 1997 Regulations’.

The glossary

2.4. The glossary at the end of the Rules is a guide to the meaning of certain legal expressions used in them.

(b) by a person with the corporation’s written authority, where that party is a corporation;

(c) with the help of a parent, guardian or other suitable supporting adult where that party is a defendant—

(i) who is under 18, or

(ii) whose understanding of what the case involves is limited.

(2) Anyone with a prosecutor’s authority to do so may, on that prosecutor’s behalf—

rule 3.11

The scope of this Part

3.1. This Part applies to the management of each case in a magistrates' court and in the Crown Court (including an appeal to the Crown Court) until the conclusion of that case.

[Note. Rules that apply to procedure in the Court of Appeal are in Parts 65 to 73 of these Rules.]

The duty of the court

3.2.—(1) The court must further the overriding objective by actively managing the case.

(2) Active case management includes—

- (a) the early identification of the real issues;
- (b) the early identification of the needs of witnesses;
- (c) achieving certainty as to what must be done, by whom, and when, in particular by the early setting of a timetable for the progress of the case;
- (d) monitoring the progress of the case and compliance with directions;
- (e) ensuring that evidence, whether disputed or not, is presented in the shortest and clearest way;
- (f) discouraging delay, dealing with as many aspects of the case as possible on the same occasion, and avoiding unnecessary hearings;
- (g) encouraging the participants to co-operate in the progression of the case; and
- (h) making use of technology.

(3) The court must actively manage the case by giving any direction appropriate to the needs of that case as early as possible.

The duty of the parties

3.3. Each party must—

- (a) actively assist the court in fulfilling its duty under rule 3.2, without or if necessary with a direction; and
- (b) apply for a direction if needed to further the overriding objective.

Case progression officers and their duties

3.4.—(1) At the beginning of the case each party must, unless the court otherwise directs—

- (a) nominate an individual responsible for progressing that case; and
- (b) tell other parties and the court who he is and how to contact him.

(2) In fulfilling its duty under rule 3.2, the court must where appropriate—

- (a) nominate a court officer responsible for progressing the case; and
- (b) make sure the parties know who he is and how to contact him.

(3) In this Part a person nominated under this rule is called a case progression officer.

(4) A case progression officer must—

- (a) monitor compliance with directions;
- (b) make sure that the court is kept informed of events that may affect the progress of that case;

- (c) make sure that he can be contacted promptly about the case during ordinary business hours;
- (d) act promptly and reasonably in response to communications about the case; and
- (e) if he will be unavailable, appoint a substitute to fulfil his duties and inform the other case progression officers.

The court's case management powers

3.5.—(1) In fulfilling its duty under rule 3.2 the court may give any direction and take any step actively to manage a case unless that direction or step would be inconsistent with legislation, including these Rules.

(2) In particular, the court may—

- (a) nominate a judge, magistrate or justices' legal adviser to manage the case;
- (b) give a direction on its own initiative or on application by a party;
- (c) ask or allow a party to propose a direction;
- (d) for the purpose of giving directions, receive applications and representations by letter, by telephone or by any other means of electronic communication, and conduct a hearing by such means;
- (e) give a direction without a hearing;
- (f) fix, postpone, bring forward, extend or cancel a hearing;
- (g) shorten or extend (even after it has expired) a time limit fixed by a direction;
- (h) require that issues in the case should be determined separately, and decide in what order they will be determined; and
- (i) specify the consequences of failing to comply with a direction.

(3) A magistrates' court may give a direction that will apply in the Crown Court if the case is to continue there.

(4) The Crown Court may give a direction that will apply in a magistrates' court if the case is to continue there.

(5) Any power to give a direction under this Part includes a power to vary or revoke that direction.

(6) If a party fails to comply with a rule or a direction, the court may—

- (a) fix, postpone, bring forward, extend, cancel or adjourn a hearing;
- (b) exercise its powers to make a costs order; and
- (c) impose such other sanction as may be appropriate.

[Note. Depending upon the nature of a case and the stage that it has reached, its progress may be affected by other Criminal Procedure Rules and by other legislation. The note at the end of this Part lists other rules and legislation that may apply.]

See also rule 3.10.

The court may make a costs order under—

- (a) section 19 of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985(13), where the court decides that one party to criminal proceedings has incurred costs as a result of an unnecessary or improper act or omission by, or on behalf of, another party;

- (c) section 19B of that Act(15), where the court decides that there has been serious misconduct by a person who is not a party.

Under some other legislation, including Parts 33, 34 and 35 of these Rules, if a party fails to comply with a rule or a direction then in some circumstances—

- (a) the court may refuse to allow that party to introduce evidence;
- (b) evidence that that party wants to introduce may not be admissible;
- (c) the court may draw adverse inferences from the late introduction of an issue or evidence.

- (b) the court gave it at a hearing in his absence; or
- (c) circumstances have changed.

(2) A party who applies to vary a direction must—

- (a) apply as soon as practicable after he becomes aware of the grounds for doing so; and
- (b) give as much notice to the other parties as the nature and urgency of his application permits.

Agreement to vary a time limit fixed by a direction

3.7.—(1) The parties may agree to vary a time limit fixed by a direction, but only if—

- (a) the variation will not—
 - (i) affect the date of any hearing that has been fixed, or
 - (ii) significantly affect the progress of the case in any other way;
- (b) the court has not prohibited variation by agreement; and
- (c) the court's case progression officer is promptly informed.

(2) The court's case progression officer must refer the agreement to the court if he doubts the condition in paragraph (1)(a) is satisfied.

Case preparation and progression

3.8.—(1) At every hearing, if a case cannot be concluded there and then the court must give directions so that it can be concluded at the next hearing or as soon as possible after that.

(2) At every hearing the court must, where relevant—

- (a) if the defendant is absent, decide whether to proceed nonetheless;
- (b) take the defendant's plea (unless already done) or if no plea can be taken then find out whether the defendant is likely to plead guilty or not guilty;
- (c) set, follow or revise a timetable for the progress of the case, which may include a timetable for any hearing including the trial or (in the Crown Court) the appeal;
- (d) in giving directions, ensure continuity in relation to the court and to the parties' representatives where that is appropriate and practicable; and
- (e) where a direction has not been complied with, find out why, identify who was responsible, and take appropriate action.

(3) In order to prepare for a trial in the Crown Court, the court must conduct a plea and case management hearing unless the circumstances make that unnecessary.

 - (ii) significantly affect the progress of the case in any other way.

(3) The court may require a party to give a certificate of readiness.

Conduct of a trial or an appeal

3.10. In order to manage a trial or an appeal—

- (a) the court must establish, with the active assistance of the parties, what disputed issues they intend to explore; and
- (b) the court may require a party to identify—
 - (i) which witnesses that party wants to give oral evidence,
 - (ii) the order in which that party wants those witnesses to give their evidence,

- (vi) what written evidence that party intends to introduce,
- (vii) what other material, if any, that person intends to make available to the court in the presentation of the case,
- (viii) whether that party intends to raise any point of law that could affect the conduct of the trial or appeal, and
- (ix) what timetable that party proposes and expects to follow.

[Note. See also rule 3.5.]

3.11.—(1) The case management forms set out in the Practice Direction must be used, and where there is no form then no specific formality is required.

(2) An applicant who wants the court to exercise its power to punish that person for contempt of court must comply with the rules in Part 62 (Contempt of court).

Disobedience to a disclosure order or to a customer information order is an offence: see sections 359 and 366 of the 2002 Act.

Under section 342 of the 2002 Act, subject to the exceptions for which that section provides it is an offence to make a disclosure likely to prejudice an investigation or to interfere with documents relevant to it.]

When this Part applies

7.1.—(1) This Part applies in a magistrates’ court where—

The Act’s title was amended by section 59(5) of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 to, the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4).

- (a) a prosecutor wants the court to issue a summons or warrant under section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(76);
- (b) a public prosecutor—
 - (i) wants the court to issue a warrant under section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, or

- (c) a person who is in custody is charged with an offence.

(2) In this Part, 'public prosecutor' means one of those public prosecutors listed in section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.

[Note. Under section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, on receiving a formal statement (described in that section as an 'information') alleging that someone has committed an offence, the court may issue—

- (a) a summons requiring that person to attend court; or
- (b) a warrant for that person's arrest, if—
 - (i) the alleged offence must or may be tried in the Crown Court,
 - (ii) the alleged offence is punishable with imprisonment, or
 - (iii) the person's address cannot be established sufficiently clearly to serve a summons or requisition.

The powers of the court to which this Part applies may be exercised by a single justice of the peace.

Under section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, a public prosecutor listed in that section may issue a written charge alleging that someone has committed an offence, and a requisition requiring that person to attend court. Section 30 of that Act(78) contains other provisions about written charges and requisitions.

A person detained under a power of arrest may be charged if the custody officer decides that there is sufficient evidence to do so. See sections 37 and 38 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984(79).]

Information and written charge

7.2.—(1) A prosecutor who wants the court to issue a summons must—

- (76) 1980 c. 43; section 1 was amended by section 68 of, and paragraph 6 of Schedule 8 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), sections 43 and 109 of, and Schedule 10 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39) and sections 31, 331 and 332 of, and Schedule 7 and paragraphs 7 and 8 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). It was amended by section 50 of, and paragraph 130 of Schedule 4 to, the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11) and section 59 of, and paragraph 196 of Schedule 4 to, the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (c. 15).
 - (78) 2003 c. 44; section 30 was amended by article 3 of, and paragraphs 45 and 46 of the Schedule to S.I. 2004/2035.

Section 38 was amended by section 108(5) of, and paragraph 53 of Schedule 13 to, the Children Act 1989 (c. 41); section 59 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), sections 24, 28 and 168(2) of, and paragraph 54 of Schedule 10 to, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), section 57 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (c. 43), sections 5, 304 and 331 of, and paragraph 44 of Schedule 32, and paragraph 5 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and section 23 of, and paragraphs 1 and 3 of Schedule 1 to, the Drugs Act 2005 (c. 17).

 - (b) a public prosecutor must issue a written charge,
- not more than 6 months after the offence alleged.
- (6) Where an offence can be tried in the Crown Court then—
- (a) a prosecutor must serve an information on the court officer or present it to the court; or
 - (b) a public prosecutor must issue a written charge,
- within any time limit that applies to that offence.

[Note. In some legislation, including the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, serving an information on the court officer or presenting it to the court is described as 'laying' that information.]

The time limits for serving or presenting an information and for issuing a written charge are prescribed by section 127 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(80) and section 30(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(81).

Part 2 contains rules allowing someone with a prosecutor's authority, on that prosecutor's behalf, to—

- (a) serve on the court officer or present to the court an information; or
- (b) issue a written charge and requisition.

See Part 3 for the court's general powers of case management, including power to consider applications and give directions for (among other things) the amendment of an information or charge and for separate trials.

See also Part 44 (Breach, revocation and amendment of community and other orders in a magistrates' court). Rule 44.2(2) (Application by responsible officer) applies rules 7.2 to 7.4 to the procedure with which that rule deals.

The Practice Direction sets out forms of information for use in connection with this rule.]

 - (b) is shown not to have been received by the addressee.
- (9) A summons or requisition issued to a defendant under 18 may require that defendant's parent or guardian to attend the court with the defendant, or a separate summons or requisition may be issued for that purpose.

[Note. Part 18 contains other rules about warrants.]

Section 47 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980⁽⁸²⁾ and section 30(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 make special provision about time limits under other legislation for the issue and service of a summons or requisition, where service by post is not successful.

Section 34A of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933⁽⁸³⁾ allows, and in some cases requires, the court to summon the parent or guardian of a defendant under 18.]

(2) A magistrates' court inquiring into an offence in committal proceedings to which this rule applies shall cause the charge to be written down, if this has not already been done, and read to the accused and shall then ascertain whether he wishes to submit that there is insufficient evidence to put him on trial by jury for the offence with which he is charged.

(3) If the court is satisfied that the accused or, as the case may be, each of the accused does not wish to make such a submission as is referred to in paragraph (2) it shall, after receiving any written evidence falling within section 5A(3) of the 1980 Act, determine whether or not to commit the accused for trial without consideration of the evidence, and where it determines not to so commit the accused it shall proceed in accordance with rule 10.3.

Consideration of evidence at committal proceedings

10.3.—(1) This rule does not apply to committal proceedings where under section 6(2) of the Magistrates' Courts Act of 1980⁽⁹¹⁾ a magistrates' court commits a person for trial without consideration of the evidence.

(2) A magistrates' court inquiring into an offence as examining justices, having ascertained—

- (a) that the accused has no legal representative acting for him in the case; or
- (b) that the accused's legal representative has requested the court to consider a submission that there is insufficient evidence to put the accused on trial by jury for the offence with which he is charged, as the case may be,

shall permit the prosecutor to make an opening address to the court, if he so wishes, before any evidence is tendered.

(3) After such opening address, if any, the court shall cause evidence to be tendered in accordance with sections 5B(4), 5C(4), 5D(5) and 5E(3) of the 1980 Act⁽⁹²⁾, that is to say by being read out aloud, except where the court otherwise directs or to the extent that it directs that an oral account be given of any of the evidence.

(4) The court may view any exhibits produced before the court and may take possession of them.

- (b) where the accused has not made any such submission but the court is nevertheless minded not to commit him for trial.

(7) After hearing any submission made in pursuance of paragraph (5) or (6) the court shall, unless it decides not to commit the accused for trial, cause the charge to be written down, if this has not already been done, and, if the accused is not represented by counsel or a solicitor, shall read the charge to him and explain it in ordinary language.

[Note. On the coming into force of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003, committal for trial will be abolished and cases triable either way will be sent to the Crown Court under sections 51 and 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, in the same way as cases triable only on indictment.]

Objection to committal statements being read at trial

10.4.—(1) This rule applies where—

(2) Such a party must serve notice of objection—

- (a) on each other party and on the Crown Court officer;
- (b) not more than 14 days after the defendant is committed for trial.

Notice of a decision in proceedings under the 1987 or 1991 Acts shall be in the form set out in the Practice Direction.

Such an application shall be in writing, and in proceedings under the 1987 or 1991 Acts shall be in the form set out in the Practice Direction.

(2) The application shall be sent to the Crown Court officer and shall be accompanied by a copy of any statement or other document, and identify any article, on which the applicant for dismissal relies.

- (b) not later than 14 days after the day on which notice of transfer was given under the 1991 Act; or
- (c) not later than 14 days after the day on which documents required by paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to the 1998 Act were served

unless the time for making the application is extended, either before or after it expires, by the Crown Court; and rule 13.2(4) and (5) shall apply for the purposes of this paragraph as if references therein to giving notice of intention to make an oral application were references to making a written application under this rule.

(3) An application under paragraph (1) or (2) shall be served on the Crown Court officer in writing and, in the case of an application under paragraph (2), shall state whether the leave of the judge is sought to adduce oral evidence and, if so, shall indicate what witnesses it is proposed to call. Where leave is sought to adduce oral evidence under paragraph 5(4) of Schedule 6 to the 1991 Act, the application should confirm in relation to each such witness that he is not a child to whom paragraph 5(5) of that Schedule applies. Such an application in proceedings under the 1987 or 1991 Acts shall be in the form set out in the Practice Direction.

Such a notice in proceedings under the 1987 or 1991 Acts shall be in the form set out in the Practice Direction.

(5) Where, having received the material specified in rule 13.2 or, as the case may be, rule 13.3, the prosecution proposes to adduce in reply thereto any written comments or any further evidence, the prosecution shall serve any such comments, copies of the statements or other documents outlining the evidence of any proposed witnesses, copies of any further documents and, in the case of an application to dismiss charges transferred under the 1991 Act, copies of any video recordings which it is proposed to tender in evidence, on the Crown Court officer not later than 14 days from the date of receiving the said material, and shall at the same time serve copies thereof on the applicant for dismissal and any other person to whom the notice of transfer relates or with whom the applicant is jointly charged. Service and signature of indictment

14.1.—(1) The prosecutor must serve a draft indictment on the Crown Court officer not more than 28 days after—

- (a) service on the defendant and on the Crown Court officer of copies of the documents containing the evidence on which the charge or charges are based, in a case where the defendant is sent for trial;

- (3) Unless the Crown Court otherwise directs, the court officer must—
- (a) sign, and add the date of receipt on, the indictment; and
 - (b) serve a copy of the indictment on all parties.

[Note. In some other legislation, serving a draft indictment on the Crown Court officer is described as “preferring a bill of indictment”. Under section 2(1) of the Administration of Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1933, a draft indictment (“bill of indictment”) becomes an indictment when it is so served (“preferred”).]

See Part 3 for the court’s general powers of case management, including power to consider applications and give directions for (among other things) the amendment of an indictment and for separate trials under section 5 of the Indictments Act 1915.

A magistrates’ court may send a defendant for trial in the Crown Court under section 51 or 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(128). Under section 51D of that Act(129) the magistrates’ court must notify the Crown Court of the offence or offences for which the defendant is sent for trial. Paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to that Act(130), and The Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (Service of Prosecution Evidence) Regulations 2005(131), deal with the service of prosecution evidence in a case sent for trial.

The procedure for applying for the permission of a High Court judge to serve a draft indictment is in rules 6 to 10 of The Indictments (Procedure) Rules 1971. See also direction IV.35 of the Practice Direction.

The Court of Appeal may order a retrial under section 8 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968(132) (on a defendant’s appeal against conviction) or under section 77 of the Criminal Justice Act to the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), Schedule 1 to the Statute Law (Repeals) Act 1993, paragraph 17 of Schedule 1 to the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25), paragraph 5 of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37), paragraph 34 of Schedule 3 and Part 4 of Schedule 37 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and paragraph 1 of the Schedule to, S.I. 2004/2035.

(128) 1998 c. 37; section 51 is substituted by paragraphs 15 and 18 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), with effect from a date to be appointed and that amendment is in force for certain purposes; S.I. 2005/950. It was amended by paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 to the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4). Section 51A was inserted by paragraphs 15 and 18 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) for certain purposes, and will be inserted for remaining purposes with effect from a date to be appointed. It was amended by section 49 of, and paragraph 5 of Schedule 1 to, the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 (c. 38).

(129) 1998 c. 37; section 51D was inserted by section 41 of, and paragraphs 15 and 18 of Schedule 3 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and amended by section 59 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 to, the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4). It was commenced, in part, on 4th April 2005 by article 2 of, and paragraph 29 of Schedule 1 to, S.I. 2005/950.

(130) 1998 c. 37; paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 was amended by section 67 of, and paragraph 106 of Schedule 15 to, the Access to Justice Act 1999 (c. 22), and is further amended by paragraphs 15 and 20 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), with effect from a date to be appointed.

(131) S.I. 2005/902.

(132) 1968 c. 19; section 8 was amended by Section 12 of, and paragraph 38 of Schedule 2 to, the Bail Act 1976 (c. 63), section 56 of, and Part IV of Schedule 11 to, the Courts Act 1971 (c. 23), section 65 of, and paragraph 36 of Schedule 3 to, the Mental Health (Amendment) Act 1982 (c. 51), section 148 of, and paragraph 23 of Schedule 4 to, the Mental Health

2003(133) (on a prosecutor's application for the retrial of a serious offence after acquittal). Section 8 of the 1968 Act, and rules 41.14 and 41.15, require the arraignment of a defendant within 2 months.

When it comes into force, Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 will abolish committal for trial under section 6 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(134), and transfer for trial under section 4 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987(135) (serious fraud cases) or under section 53 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991(136) (certain cases involving children).]

(2) The prosecutor must help the court to assess the suitability of an address proposed as a condition of residence.

[Note. Under section 4 of the Bail Act 1976(193), the general rule, subject to exceptions, is that a defendant must be granted bail. Schedule 1 to the Act sets out some of the exceptions. Paragraph 5 of that Schedule allows a court to withhold bail if satisfied that it has not been practicable, for want of time since the institution of the proceedings, to obtain sufficient information for it to take the decisions required by that Schedule.]

Grant of bail subject to electronic monitoring requirements

19.26.—(1) This rule applies where the court imposes electronic monitoring requirements (where available) as a condition of bail.

- (c) notify the monitor of any subsequent—
 - (i) variation or termination of the electronic monitoring requirements, or
 - (ii) fixing or variation of the date on which the defendant must surrender to custody.

[Note. Under section 3(6ZAA) of the Bail Act 1976(194), the conditions of bail that the court may impose include requirements for the electronic monitoring of a defendant's compliance with other bail conditions, for example a curfew. Sections 3AA and 3AB of the 1976 Act(195) set out conditions for imposing such requirements.]

(193) 1976 c. 63; section 4 was amended by section 154 of, and paragraph 145 of Schedule 7 to, the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (c. 43), section 168 of, and paragraphs 32 and 33 of Schedule 10 to, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), section 58 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (c. 43), sections 198 and 220 of, and Schedule 4 to, the Extradition Act 2003 (c. 41), section 304 of, and paragraphs 20 and 22 of Schedule 32 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), section 42 of, and paragraph 34 of Schedule 13 to, the Police and Justice Act 2006 (c. 48) and sections 6 and 148 of, and paragraphs 23 and 102 of Schedule 4 and Part 1 of Schedule 28 to, the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4).

Section 3AB was inserted by section 51 of, and paragraphs 1 and 4 of Schedule 11 to, the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4).

Under section 3AC of the 1976 Act(196), where the court imposes electronic monitoring requirements they must provide for the appointment of a monitor.]

- (a) discloses prosecution material to the defendant; or
 - (b) serves on the defendant a written statement that there is no such material to disclose.
- (2) The prosecutor must at the same time so inform the court officer.

Prosecutor's application for public interest ruling

22.3.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) without a court order, the prosecutor would have to disclose material; and
 - (b) the prosecutor wants the court to decide whether it would be in the public interest to disclose it.
- (2) The prosecutor must—
- (a) apply in writing for such a decision; and
 - (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer,
 - (ii) any person who the prosecutor thinks would be directly affected by disclosure of the material, and
 - (iii) the defendant, but only to the extent that serving it on the defendant would not disclose what the prosecutor thinks ought not be disclosed.

(201) 1996 c. 25.

(202) 1996 c. 25; section 3 was amended by section 82 of, and paragraph 7 of Schedule 4 to, the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (c. 23) and section 32 and section 331 of, and paragraphs 20 and 21 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

- (3) The application must—
- (a) describe the material, and explain why the prosecutor thinks that—
 - (i) it is material that the prosecutor would have to disclose,
 - (ii) it would not be in the public interest to disclose that material, and

 - (c) explain why, if no part of the application is served on the defendant.
- (4) Where the prosecutor serves only part of the application on the defendant, the prosecutor must—
- (a) mark the other part, to show that it is only for the court; and
 - (b) in that other part, explain why the prosecutor has withheld it from the defendant.
- (5) Unless already done, the court may direct the prosecutor to serve an application on—
- (a) the defendant;
 - (b) any other person who the court considers would be directly affected by the disclosure of the material.
- (6) The court must determine the application at a hearing which—
- (a) will be in private, unless the court otherwise directs; and
 - (b) if the court so directs, may take place, wholly or in part, in the defendant’s absence.
- (7) At a hearing at which the defendant is present—
- (a) the general rule is that the court will receive, in the following sequence—
 - (i) representations first by the prosecutor and any other person served with the application, and then by the defendant, in the presence of them all, and then
 - (ii) further representations by the prosecutor and any such other person in the defendant’s absence; but
 - (b) the court may direct other arrangements for the hearing.
- (8) The court may only determine the application if satisfied that it has been able to take adequate account of—
- (a) such rights of confidentiality as apply to the material; and
 - (b) the defendant’s right to a fair trial.
- (9) Unless the court otherwise directs, the court officer—
- (a) must not give notice to anyone other than the prosecutor—
 - (i) of the hearing of an application under this rule, unless the prosecutor served the application on that person, or
 - (ii) of the court’s decision on the application;
 - (b) may—
 - (i) keep a written application or representations, or
 - (ii) arrange for the whole or any part to be kept by some other appropriate person, subject to any conditions that the court may impose.

[Note. 22.5.—(1) This rule applies where the defendant—

- (a) has served a defence statement given under the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996; and

- (b) the prosecutor.

(3) The application must—

- (a) describe the material that the defendant wants the prosecutor to disclose;
- (b) explain why the defendant thinks there is reasonable cause to believe that—
 - (i) the prosecutor has that material, and
 - (ii) it is material that the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 requires the prosecutor to disclose; and
- (c) ask for a hearing, if the defendant wants one, and explain why it is needed.

(4) The court may determine an application under this rule—

- (a) at a hearing, in public or in private; or
- (b) without a hearing.

(5) The court must not require the prosecutor to disclose material unless the prosecutor—

- (a) the defendant wants the court to review that decision; or
 - (b) the Crown Court reviews that decision on its own initiative.
- (2) Where the defendant wants the court to review that decision, the defendant must—
- (a) serve an application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) the prosecutor; and

- (5) The court may direct—
- (a) the prosecutor to serve any such application on any person who the court considers would be directly affected if that material were disclosed;
 - (b) the prosecutor and any such person to serve any representations on the defendant.

[Note. Under section 17 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996, a defendant may use disclosed prosecution material—

- (a) in connection with the case in which it was disclosed, including on an appeal;*

- (c) with the court's permission.*

Under section 18 of the 1996 Act, the court can punish for contempt of court any other use of disclosed prosecution material. See also section 19 of the 1996 Act.

Where Schedule 3 to the Contempt of Court Act 1981 applies, it modifies the provisions of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 to which it refers, so that the court can act on its own initiative against a person accused of contempt.]

Summary of disclosure requirements of Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996

The Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 came into force on 1st April, 1997. It does not apply where the investigation began before that date. With effect from 4th April, 2005, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 made changes to the 1996 Act that do not apply where the investigation began before that date.

In some circumstances, the prosecutor may be required to disclose material to which the 1996 Act does not apply: see sections 1 and 21(209).

(208) 1981 c. 49; Schedule 3 has been amended, but the amendment is not relevant to these rules.

(209) 1996 c. 25; section 1 was amended by section 119 of, and paragraph 125 of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) and sections 41 and 332 of, and paragraph 66(1) and (2)(b) of Schedule 3 and Part 4 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). It is amended by section 9 of the Sexual Offences (Protected Material) Act 1997 (c. 39) and sections 41 and 332 of, and paragraph 66(1) and (2)(a) of Schedule 3 and Part 4 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), with effect from a date to be appointed. It has been further amended in respect of certain proceedings only, by section 119 of, and paragraph 125(a) of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37). Section 21 was amended by section 41 of, and paragraph 66 of Schedule 3 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

Part I of the 1996 Act contains sections 1 to 21A. Part II, which contains sections 22 to 27, requires an investigator to record information relevant to an investigation that is obtained during its course. See also The Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Code of Practice) (No. 2) Order 1997(210) and The Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Code of Practice) Order 2005(211).

Prosecution disclosure

Where the investigation began between 1st April, 1997, and 3rd April, 2005, sections 3 and 7 of the 1996 Act require the prosecutor—

- (a) to disclose material not previously disclosed that in the prosecutor's opinion might undermine the case for the prosecution against the defendant—
 - (i) in a magistrates' court, as soon as practicable after the defendant pleads not guilty, and
 - (ii) in the Crown Court, as soon as practicable after the case is committed or transferred for trial, or after the evidence is served where the case is sent for trial; and
- (b) as soon as practicable after service of the defence statement, to disclose material not previously disclosed that might be reasonably expected to assist the defendant's case as disclosed by that defence statement; or in either event
- (c) if there is no such material, then to give the defendant a written statement to that effect.

Where the investigation began on or after 4th April, 2005, sections 3 and 7A of the 1996 Act(212) require the prosecutor—

- (a) to disclose prosecution material not previously disclosed that might reasonably be considered capable of undermining the case for the prosecution against the defendant or of assisting the case for the defendant—
 - (i) in a magistrates' court, as soon as practicable after the defendant pleads not guilty, or
 - (ii) in the Crown Court, as soon as practicable after the case is committed or transferred for trial, or after the evidence is served where the case is sent for trial, or after a count is added to the indictment; and in either case
- (b) if there is no such material, then to give the defendant a written statement to that effect; and after that
- (c) in either court, to disclose any such material—
 - (i) whenever there is any, until the court reaches its verdict or the prosecutor decides not to proceed with the case, and
 - (ii) in particular, after the service of the defence statement.

Defence disclosure

The defendant's duty to serve a defence statement in a case in the Crown Court is imposed by section 5 of the 1996 Act(213). The defendant's opportunity to do so in a magistrates' court, and the duty to serve any such statement within the time prescribed, is provided for by section 6 of the Act.

The time for service of a defence statement is prescribed by section 12 of the 1996 Act and by The Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Defence Disclosure Time Limits) Regulations 1997(214). It is—

- (a) in a magistrates' court, not more than 14 days after the prosecutor discloses material under section 3 of the 1996 Act, or serves notice that there is no such material to disclose;
- (b) in the Crown Court, not more than 14 days after—
 - (i) service of copies of the documents containing the evidence, in a case in which the defendant is sent for trial,
 - (ii) service of the draft indictment, in any other case, or
 - (iii) the prosecutor discloses material under section 3 of the 1996 Act, or serves notice that there is no such material to disclosewhichever of those three events happens last.

The requirements for the content of a defence statement are set out in—

- (a) section 5 of the 1996 Act, where the investigation began between 1st April, 1997 and 3rd April, 2005;
- (b) section 6A of the 1996 Act(215), where the investigation began on or after 4th April, 2005. See also section 6E of the Act(216).

Where the investigation began between 1st April, 1997 and 3rd April, 2005, the defence statement must—

- (a) set out in general terms the nature of the defence;
- (b) indicate the matters on which the defendant takes issue with the prosecutor, and, in respect of each, explain why;
- (c) if the defence statement discloses an alibi, give particulars, including—
 - (i) the name and address of any witness whom the defendant believes can give evidence in support (that is, evidence that the defendant was in a place, at a time, inconsistent with having committed the offence),
 - (ii) where the defendant does not know the name or address, any information that might help identify or find that witness.

Where the investigation began on or after 4th April, 2005, the defence statement must—

(213) 1996 c. 25; section 5 was amended by sections 331 and 332 of, and paragraphs 20 and 23 of Schedule 36 and Part 3 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). It was further amended by section 119 of, and paragraph 126 of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) and sections 33 and 41 of, and paragraph 66 of Schedule 3 and Part 4 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) in respect of certain proceedings only. It is further amended by sections 33, 41, and 332 of, and paragraph 66 of Schedule 3 and Part 4 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), with effect from a date to be appointed.

(214) S.I. 1997/2680.

(215) 1996 c. 25; section 6A was inserted by section 33 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and amended by section 60 of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4).

(216) 1996 c. 25; section 6E was inserted by section 36 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

- (a) set out the nature of the defence, including any particular defences on which the defendant intends to rely;
- (b) indicate the matters of fact on which the defendant takes issue with the prosecutor; and, in respect of each, explain why;
- (c) set out particulars of the matters of fact on which the defendant intends to rely for the purposes of the defence;
- (d) indicate any point of law that the defendant wants to raise, including any point about the admissibility of evidence or about abuse of process, and any authority relied on; and
- (e) if the defence statement discloses an alibi, give particulars, including—
 - (i) the name, address and date of birth of any witness whom the defendant believes can give evidence in support (that is, evidence that the defendant was in a place, at a time, inconsistent with having committed the offence),
 - (ii) where the defendant does not know any of those details, any information that might help identify or find that witness.

Under section 11 of the 1996 Act, if a defendant—

- (a) fails to disclose what the Act requires;
- (b) fails to do so within the time prescribed;
- (c) at trial, relies on a defence, or facts, not mentioned in the defence statement; or
- (d) at trial, introduces alibi evidence without having given in the defence statement—
 - (i) particulars of the alibi, or
 - (ii) the details of the alibi witness, or witnesses, required by the Act,

then the court or another party at trial may comment on that, and the court may draw such inferences as appear proper in deciding whether the defendant is guilty.

Under section 6E(2) of the 1996 Act, if before trial in the Crown Court it seems to the court that section 11 may apply, then the court must warn the defendant.

When this Part applies

28.1.—(1) This Part applies in magistrates' courts and in the Crown Court where—

 - (ii) section 2 of the Criminal Procedure (Attendance of Witnesses) Act 1965, or

- (b) the court considers the issue of such a summons, warrant or order on its own initiative as if a party had applied; or
- (c) one of those listed in rule 28.7 wants the court to withdraw such a summons, warrant or order.

(2) A reference to a 'witness' in this Part is a reference to a person to whom such a summons, warrant or order is directed.

[Note. See section 2D of the Criminal Procedure (Attendance of Witnesses) Act 1965 for the Crown Court's power to issue a witness summons on the court's own initiative.]

Issue etc. of summons, warrant or order with or without a hearing

28.2.—(1) The court may issue or withdraw a witness summons, warrant or order with or without a hearing.

(2) A hearing under this Part must be in private unless the court otherwise directs.

[Note. If rule 28.5 applies, a person served with an application for a witness summons will have an opportunity to make representations about whether there should be a hearing of that application before the witness summons is issued.]

(218) 1980 c. 43; section 97 was amended by sections 13 and 14 of, and paragraph 7 of Schedule 2 to, the Contempt of Court Act 1981 (c. 47), section 31 of, and paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to, the Criminal Justice (International Co-operation) Act 1990 (c. 5), sections 17 and 65 of, and paragraph 6 of Schedule 3 and Part I of Schedule 4 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), section 51 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25) and section 169 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (c. 15).

- (a) identify the proposed witness;
- (b) explain—
 - (i) what evidence the proposed witness can give or produce,

28.4.—(1) An application in writing under rule 28.3 must be in the form set out in the Practice Direction, containing the same declaration of truth as a witness statement.

(2) The party applying must serve the application—

- (a) in every case, on the court officer and as directed by the court; and
- (b) as required by rule 28.5, if that rule applies.

[Note. Declarations of truth in witness statements are required by section 9 of the Criminal Justice Act 1967(221) and section 5B of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(222). Section 89 of the 1967 Act(223) makes it an offence to make a written statement under section 9 of that Act which the person making it knows to be false or does not believe to be true.]

Application for summons to produce a document, etc.: special rules

28.5.—(1) This rule applies to an application under rule 28.3 for a witness summons requiring the proposed witness—

(b) the court is satisfied that it has been able to take adequate account of the duties and rights, including rights of confidentiality, of the proposed witness and of any person to whom the proposed evidence relates.

(5) This rule does not apply to an application for an order to produce in evidence a copy of an entry in a banker's book.

[Note. Under section 2A of the Criminal Procedure (Attendance of Witnesses) Act 1965(224), a witness summons to produce a document or thing issued by the Crown Court may require the witness to produce it for inspection by the applicant before producing it in evidence.]

Application for summons to produce a document, etc.: court's assessment of relevance and confidentiality

28.6.—(1) This rule applies where a person served with an application for a witness summons requiring the proposed witness to produce in evidence a document or thing objects to its production on the ground that—

(a) it is not likely to be material evidence; or

(b) even if it is likely to be material evidence, the duties or rights, including rights of confidentiality, of the proposed witness or of any person to whom the document or thing relates, outweigh the reasons for issuing a summons.

(2) The court may require the proposed witness to make the document or thing available for the objection to be assessed.

(3) The court may invite—

(a) the proposed witness or any representative of the proposed witness; or

(b) a person to whom the document or thing relates or any representative of such a person, to help the court assess the objection.

Application to withdraw a summons, warrant or order

28.7.—(1) The court may withdraw a witness summons, warrant or order if one of the following applies for it to be withdrawn—

(a) the party who applied for it, on the ground that it no longer is needed;

(224) 1965 c. 69; section 2A was substituted, together with sections 2, 2 B, 2D and 2E, for existing section 2 by section 66(1) and (2) of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25).

- (b) the witness, on the grounds that—

 - (iii) even if he can, his duties or rights, including rights of confidentiality, or those of any person to whom the evidence relates, outweigh the reasons for the issue of the summons, warrant or order; or
- (c) any person to whom the proposed evidence relates, on the grounds that—
 - (i) he was not aware of any application for it, and
 - (ii) that evidence is not likely to be material evidence, or
 - (iii) even if it is, his duties or rights, including rights of confidentiality, or those of the witness, outweigh the reasons for the issue of the summons, warrant or order.
- (2) A person applying under the rule must—
 - (a) apply in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so, explaining why he wants the summons, warrant or order to be withdrawn; and
 - (b) serve the application on the court officer and as appropriate on—
 - (i) the witness,
 - (ii) the party who applied for the summons, warrant or order, and
 - (iii) any other person who he knows was served with the application for the summons, warrant or order.

[Note. See sections 2B, 2C and 2E of the Criminal Procedure (Attendance of Witnesses) Act 1965(225) for the Crown Court's powers to withdraw a witness summons, including the power to order costs.]

Court's power to vary requirements under this Part

- 28.8.—(1) The court may—
- (a) shorten or extend (even after it has expired) a time limit under this Part; and
 - (b) where a rule or direction requires an application under this Part to be in writing, allow that application to be made orally instead.
- (2) Someone who wants the court to allow an application to be made orally under paragraph (1) (b) of this rule must—
- (a) give as much notice as the urgency of his application permits to those on whom he would otherwise have served an application in writing; and
 - (b) in doing so explain the reasons for the application and for wanting the court to consider it orally.

(225) 1965 c. 69; sections 2B, 2C and 2E were substituted with section 2 and 2A, for the existing section 2 by section 66(1) and (2) of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25) and amended by section 109 of, and paragraph 126 of Schedule 8 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39).

 - (i) as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event
 - (ii) not more than 14 days after the defendant pleads not guilty; and
- (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party.

[Note. See also rule 29.10 (content of application for a special measures direction), rule 29.15 (content of application for a defendant's evidence direction) and rule 29.19 (content and conduct of application for a witness anonymity order).]

The Practice Direction sets out a form for use in connection with an application under rule 29.10 for a special measures direction.]

Decisions and reasons

29.4.—(1) A party who wants to introduce the evidence of a witness who is the subject of an application, direction or order must—

- (a) inform the witness of the court's decision as soon as reasonably practicable; and
- (b) explain to the witness the arrangements that as a result will be made for him or her to give evidence.

(2) The court must announce, at a hearing in public before the witness gives evidence, the reasons for a decision—

- (a) to give, make, vary or discharge a direction or order; or
- (b) to refuse to do so.

[Note. See sections 20(5), 33A(8) and 33BB(4) of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999.]

Court's power to vary requirements under this Part

29.5.—(1) The court may—

- (a) shorten or extend (even after it has expired) a time limit under this Part; and
- (b) allow an application or representations to be made in a different form to one set out in the Practice Direction, or to be made orally.

(2) A person who wants an extension of time must—

- (a) apply when serving the application or representations for which it is needed; and
- (b) explain the delay.

Custody of documents

29.6. Unless the court otherwise directs, the court officer may—

- (a) keep a written application or representations; or

- (b) arrange for the whole or any part to be kept by some other appropriate person, subject to any conditions that the court may impose.

Declaration by intermediary

29.7.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) a video recorded interview with a witness is conducted through an intermediary;
 - (b) the court directs the examination of a witness or defendant through an intermediary.
- (2) An intermediary must make a declaration—
- (a) before such an interview begins;
 - (b) before the examination begins (even if such an interview with the witness was conducted through the same intermediary).
- (3) The declaration must be in these terms—

“I solemnly, sincerely and truly declare [or I swear by Almighty God] that I will well and faithfully communicate questions and answers and make true explanation of all matters and things as shall be required of me according to the best of my skill and understanding.”

SECTION 3: SPECIAL MEASURES DIRECTIONS

[Note. The rules in Section 2 (general rules) also apply.]

Exercise of court’s powers

29.8. The court may decide whether to give, vary or discharge a special measures direction—

- (a) at a hearing, in public or in private, or without a hearing;
- (b) in a party’s absence, if that party—
 - (i) applied for the direction, variation or discharge, or
 - (ii) has had at least 14 days in which to make representations.

Special measures direction for a young witness

29.9.—(1) This rule applies where, under section 21 or section 22 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(234), the primary rule requires the court to give a direction for a special measure to assist a child witness or a qualifying witness—

- (a) on an application, if one is made; or
 - (b) on the court’s own initiative, in any other case.
- (2) A party who wants to introduce the evidence of such a witness must as soon as reasonably practicable—
- (a) notify the court that the witness is eligible for assistance;
 - (b) provide the court with any information that the court may need to assess the witness’ views, if the witness does not want the primary rule to apply; and
 - (c) serve any video recorded evidence on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party.

(234) 1999 c. 23; sections 21 and 22 are amended by sections 98, 100 and 178 of, and Part 3 of Schedule 23 to, the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25), with effect from a date to be appointed.

[Note. Under sections 21 and 22 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, a ‘child witness’ is one who is under 17 (under 18, when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force), and a ‘qualifying witness’ is one who was a child witness when interviewed.

Under those sections, the ‘primary rule’ requires the court to give a direction—

- (a) for the evidence of a child witness or of a qualifying witness to be admitted—
 - (i) by means of a video recording of an interview with the witness, in the place of examination-in-chief, and*
 - (ii) after that, by live link; or
- (b) (when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force) if one or both of those measures is not taken, for the witness while giving evidence to be screened from seeing the defendant.*

The primary rule always applies unless—

- (a) (when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force) the witness does not want it to apply, and the court is satisfied that to omit a measure usually required by that rule would not diminish the quality of the witness’ evidence; or*
- (b) the court is satisfied that to direct one of the measures usually required by that rule would not be likely to maximise so far as practicable the quality of the witness’ evidence. (In the case of some sexual and other offences, until the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force this exception does not apply.)]*

Content of application for a special measures direction

29.10. An applicant for a special measures direction must—

- (a) explain how the witness is eligible for assistance;
- (b) explain why special measures would be likely to improve the quality of the witness’ evidence;
- (c) propose the measure or measures that in the applicant’s opinion would be likely to maximise so far as practicable the quality of that evidence;
- (d) report any views that the witness has expressed about—
 - (i) his or her eligibility for assistance,
 - (ii) the likelihood that special measures would improve the quality of his or her evidence, and
 - (iii) the measure or measures proposed by the applicant;
- (e) in a case in which a child witness or a qualifying witness does not want the primary rule to apply, provide any information that the court may need to assess the witness’ views;
- (f) in a case in which the applicant proposes that the witness should give evidence by live link—
 - (i) identify someone to accompany the witness while the witness gives evidence,
 - (ii) name that person, if possible, and
 - (iii) explain why that person would be an appropriate companion for the witness, including the witness’ own views;
- (g) in a case in which the applicant proposes the admission of video recorded evidence, identify—
 - (i) the date and duration of the recording,
 - (ii) which part the applicant wants the court to admit as evidence, if the applicant does not want the court to admit all of it;

- (h) attach any other material on which the applicant relies; and
- (i) if the applicant wants a hearing, ask for one, and explain why it is needed.

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of application for use in connection with this rule.]

Application to vary or discharge a special measures direction

29.11.—(1) A party who wants the court to vary or discharge a special measures direction must—

- (a) apply in writing, as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so; and
- (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party.

(2) The applicant must—

- (a) explain what material circumstances have changed since the direction was given (or last varied, if applicable);
- (b) explain why the direction should be varied or discharged; and
- (c) ask for a hearing, if the applicant wants one, and explain why it is needed.

[Note. Under section 20 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, the court can vary or discharge a special measures direction—

- (a) on application, if there has been a material change of circumstances; or*
- (b) on the court's own initiative.]*

Application containing information withheld from another party

29.12.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) an applicant serves an application for a special measures direction, or for its variation or discharge; and
- (b) the application includes information that the applicant thinks ought not be revealed to another party.

(2) The applicant must—

- (a) omit that information from the part of the application that is served on that other party;
- (b) mark the other part to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and
- (c) in that other part, explain why the applicant has withheld that information from that other party.

(3) Any hearing of an application to which this rule applies—

- (a) must be in private, unless the court otherwise directs; and
- (b) if the court so directs, may be, wholly or in part, in the absence of a party from whom information has been withheld.

(4) At any hearing of an application to which this rule applies—

- (a) the general rule is that the court will receive, in the following sequence—
 - (i) representations first by the applicant and then by each other party, in all the parties' presence, and then

- (ii) further representations by the applicant, in the absence of a party from whom information has been withheld; but
- (b) the court may direct other arrangements for the hearing.

[Note. See section 20 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999.]

Representations in response

29.13.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to make representations about—

- (a) an application for a special measures direction;
- (b) an application for the variation or discharge of such a direction; or
- (c) a direction, variation or discharge that the court proposes on its own initiative.

(2) Such a party must—

- (a) serve the representations on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party;
- (b) do so not more than 14 days after, as applicable—
 - (i) service of the application, or
 - (ii) notice of the direction, variation or discharge that the court proposes; and
- (c) ask for a hearing, if that party wants one, and explain why it is needed.

(3) Where representations include information that the person making them thinks ought not be revealed to another party, that person must—

- (a) omit that information from the representations served on that other party;
- (b) mark the information to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and
- (c) with that information include an explanation of why it has been withheld from that other party.

(4) Representations against a special measures direction must explain—

- (a) why the witness is not eligible for assistance; or
- (b) if the witness is eligible for assistance, why—
 - (i) no special measure would be likely to improve the quality of the witness' evidence,
 - (ii) the proposed measure or measures would not be likely to maximise so far as practicable the quality of the witness' evidence, or
 - (iii) the proposed measure or measures might tend to inhibit the effective testing of that evidence.

(5) Representations against the variation or discharge of a special measures direction must explain why it should not be varied or discharged.

[Note. Under sections 21 and 22 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, where the witness is a child witness or a qualifying witness the special measures that the court usually must direct must be treated as likely to maximise so far as practicable the quality of the witness' evidence, irrespective of representations to the contrary.]

29.14. The court may decide whether to give, vary or discharge a defendant's evidence direction—

- (2) The applicant must—
 - (a) on an application to discharge a live link direction, explain why it is in the interests of justice to do so;
 - (b) on an application to discharge a direction for an intermediary, explain why it is no longer necessary in order to ensure that the defendant receives a fair trial;
 - (c) on an application to vary a direction for an intermediary, explain why it is necessary for the direction to be varied in order to ensure that the defendant receives a fair trial; and

[Note. See sections 33A(7) and 33BB of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999.]

29.18.—(1) The court may decide whether to make, vary or discharge a witness anonymity order—

(a) at a hearing (which will be in private, unless the court otherwise directs), or without a hearing (unless any party asks for one);

(b) in the absence of a defendant.

(2) The court must not exercise its power to make, vary or discharge a witness anonymity order, or to refuse to do so—

(a) before or during the trial, unless each party has had an opportunity to make representations;

(b) on an appeal by the defendant to which applies Part 63 (appeal to the Crown Court) or Part 68 (appeal to the Court of Appeal about conviction or sentence), unless in each party's case—

(i) that party has had an opportunity to make representations, or

(ii) the appeal court is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to communicate with that party;

(c) after the trial and any such appeal are over, unless in the case of each party and the witness—

(i) each has had an opportunity to make representations, or

(3) Where an application includes information that the applicant thinks might reveal the witness' identity, the applicant must—

- (c) with that information include an explanation of why it has been withheld.

(4) Where a party applies to vary or discharge a witness anonymity order after the trial and any appeal are over, the party who introduced the witness' evidence must serve the application on the witness.

[Note. Under sections 91, 92 and 93 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009, the court can vary or discharge a witness anonymity order—

- (a) on an application, if there has been a material change of circumstances since it was made or previously varied; or
- (b) on the court's own initiative, unless the trial and any appeal are over.]

Representations in response

29.22.—(1) This rule applies where a party or, where the case is over, a witness, wants to make representations about—

- (a) an application for a witness anonymity order;

 - (c) with that information include an explanation of why it has been withheld.
- (4) Representations against a witness anonymity order must explain why the conditions for making the order are not met.
- (5) Representations against the variation or discharge of such an order must explain why it would not be appropriate to vary or discharge it, taking account of the conditions for making an order.
- (6) A prosecutor's representations in response to an application by a defendant must include all information available to the prosecutor that is relevant to the conditions and considerations specified by sections 88 and 89 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009.

Summary of eligibility for measures to which this Part applies

Special measures direction

Under section 16 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(239), a witness is eligible for the assistance of a special measures direction given under section 19 of that Act if—

- (a) the witness is under 17 (under 18, when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force); or
- (b) the witness has—
 - (i) a mental disorder, or a significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning,
 - or*
 - (ii) a physical disability or disorder

and the court considers that the completeness, coherence and accuracy (the 'quality') of evidence given by the witness is likely to be diminished by reason of those circumstances.

Under section 17 of the 1999 Act, a witness is eligible for such assistance if—

- (a) the court is satisfied that the quality of evidence given by the witness is likely to be diminished because of his or her fear or distress in connection with giving evidence, taking account particularly of—
 - (i) the circumstances of the offence,
 - (ii) the witness' age, social and cultural background, ethnic origins, domestic and employment circumstances, religious beliefs or political opinions,
 - (iii) any behaviour towards the witness on the part of the defendant, the defendant's family or associates, or any other potential defendant or witness, and
 - (iv) the witness' own views;

- (b) the witness is the complainant in respect of a sexual offence, and has not declined such assistance; or
- (c) (when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force) the offence is one of a list of offences involving weapons, and the witness has not declined such assistance.

Section 28 of the 1999 Act (video recorded cross-examination or re-examination) is not yet in force. With that exception, all the special measures listed in rule 29.1 potentially are available where the witness is eligible for assistance under section 16 of the Act. Those numbered (i) to (v) are available where the witness is eligible for assistance under section 17.

As a general rule, but with exceptions, the court must give a special measures direction—

- (a) under section 21 or 22 of the 1999 Act, where the witness—
 - (i) is under 17 (under 18, when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force), or
 - (ii) was under that age when interviewedwhether or not an application for a direction is made;
- (b) (when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force) under section 22A of the 1999 Act, where an application is made in the Crown Court for the evidence of a witness who is the complainant of a sexual offence to be admitted by means of a video recording of an interview with the witness in the place of examination-in-chief.

Defendant's evidence direction

Under section 33A of the 1999 Act, the court can allow a defendant to give evidence by live link, or (when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force) under section 33BA can allow a defendant to give evidence through an intermediary, if—

- (a) the defendant—
 - (i) is under 18, and the defendant's ability to participate effectively as a witness giving oral evidence is compromised by his or her level of intellectual ability or social functioning; or
 - (ii) suffers from a mental disorder or some other significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning and cannot participate effectively as a witness giving oral evidence for that reason;
- (b) the use of a live link—
 - (i) would enable the defendant to participate more effectively, and
 - (ii) is in the interests of justice;
- (c) the examination of the defendant through an intermediary is necessary to ensure that the defendant receives a fair trial.

Witness anonymity order

Under section 86 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009, a witness anonymity order is an order that specifies measures to be taken to ensure that the identity of a witness is not disclosed, such as withholding the witness' name from materials disclosed to a party to the proceedings, the use of a pseudonym, the screening of the witness from view, the modulation of the witness' voice, and the prohibition of questions that might reveal his or her identity. Before making such an order, the court must—

- (a) be satisfied that three conditions prescribed by the Act are met (section 88 of the 2009 Act); and
- (b) have regard to considerations specified by the Act (section 89 of the 2009 Act).

 - (ii) the potential effect of not doing so at all, or of refusing to answer a question while doing so;
 - (e) the defendant may introduce evidence;
 - (f) a party may introduce further evidence if it is then admissible (for example, because it is in rebuttal of evidence already introduced);
 - (g) the prosecutor may make final representations in support of the prosecution case, where—
 - (i) the defendant is represented by a legal representative, or
 - (ii) whether represented or not, the defendant has introduced evidence other than his or her own; and [Note. See section 9 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(304).

Under section 37(3) of the Mental Health Act 1983(305), if the court is satisfied that the defendant did the act or made the omission alleged, then it may make a hospital order without convicting the defendant.

Under section 35 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994(306), the court may draw such inferences as appear proper from a defendant's failure to give evidence, or refusal without good cause to answer a question while doing so. The procedure set out in rule 37.3(3)(d) is prescribed by that section.

The admissibility of evidence that a party introduces is governed by rules of evidence.

Part 50 contains rules about civil behaviour orders after verdict or finding.]

Evidence of a witness in person

37.4.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to introduce evidence by calling a witness to give that evidence in person.

(2) Unless the court otherwise directs—

(a) a witness waiting to give evidence must not wait inside the courtroom, unless that witness is—

(i) a party, or

(ii) an expert witness;

(b) a witness who gives evidence in the courtroom must do so from the place provided for that purpose; and

(c) a witness' address must not be announced unless it is relevant to an issue in the case.

(3) Unless other legislation otherwise provides, before giving evidence a witness must take an oath or affirm.

(4) In the following sequence—

(a) the party who calls a witness must ask questions in examination-in-chief;

(b) every other party may ask questions in cross-examination;

(c) the party who called the witness may ask questions in re-examination;

(d) at any time while giving evidence, a witness may refer to a record of that witness' recollection of events, if other legislation so permits;

Sections 1, 3, 5 and 6 of the Oaths Act 1978(311) provide for the taking of oaths and the making of affirmations, and for the words that must be used. Under sections 55 and 56 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, a person may give evidence without taking an oath, or making an affirmation, where that person (i) is under 14 or (ii) has an insufficient appreciation of the solemnity of the occasion and of the particular responsibility to tell the truth which is involved in taking an oath.

The questions that may be put to a witness—

- (a) by a party are governed by rules of evidence, for example—
 - (i) the rule that a question must be relevant to what is in issue,
 - (ii) the rule that the party who calls a witness must not ask that witness a leading question about what is in dispute, and
 - (iii) the rule that a party who calls a witness may contradict that witness only in limited circumstances (see section 3 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1865)(313);
- (b) by the justices' legal adviser or the court are in their discretion, but that is subject to—
 - (i) rules of evidence, and
 - (ii) rule 1.3 (the application by the court of the overriding objective).

Under sections 34, 35 and 36 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(314), a defendant who is not represented may not cross-examine a witness where—

- (a) the defendant is charged with a sexual offence against the witness;
- (b) the defendant is charged with a sexual offence, or one of certain other offences, and the witness is a child; or
- (c) the court prohibits the defendant from cross-examining the witness.

Part 31 contains rules relevant to restrictions on cross-examination.

Under section 139 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(315), a witness may refresh his or her memory by referring to a record made before the hearing, either contained in a document made or verified by the witness, or in the transcript of a sound recording, if—

- (a) the witness states that it records his or her recollection of events at that earlier time; and
- (b) that recollection is likely to have been significantly better when the record was made than at the time of the hearing.

In some circumstances, a witness may give evidence in accordance with special measures directed by the court under section 19 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act

(310) 1898 c. 36; section 1 was amended by section 1 of the Criminal Evidence Act 1979 (c. 16), section 78 of, and Schedule 16 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48), sections 80(9) and 119(2) of, and Schedule 7 to, the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (c. 60), sections 31 and 168 of, and paragraph 2 of Schedule 10, and Schedule 11 to, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), section 67 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 4, and Schedule 6 to, the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 (c. 23) and sections 331 and 332 of, and paragraph 80 of Schedule 36, and Part 5 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

- (5) With the defendant's agreement, the court may deal with the case in the same way as under paragraph (4) where the defendant—

 - (c) pleads guilty there and then.

[Note. The procedure set out in this rule is prescribed by sections 12 and 12A of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(322). Under section 12(1)(a), the Secretary of State can specify offences to which the procedure will not apply. None has been specified.

Under section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(323) a justice of the peace may issue a summons requiring a defendant to attend court to answer an allegation of an offence.

(322) 1980 c. 43; section 12 was amended by section 45 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 5 to, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts (Procedure) Act 1998 (c. 15), section 109 of, and paragraph 203 of Schedule 8 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39) and sections 308 and 332 of, and Part 12 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). Under section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(324) a public prosecutor listed in that section may issue a written charge alleging an offence and a requisition requiring a defendant to attend court. Part 7 contains relevant rules.

The Practice Direction sets out forms of notice for use in connection with this rule.]

Application to withdraw a guilty plea

- 37.9.—(1) This rule applies where the defendant wants to withdraw a guilty plea.
- (2) The defendant must apply to do so—
- (a) as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the reasons for doing so; and
 - (b) before sentence.
- (3) Unless the court otherwise directs, the application must be in writing and the defendant must serve it on—
- (a) the court officer; and
 - (b) the prosecutor.
- (4) The application must—
- (a) explain why it would be unjust not to allow the defendant to withdraw the guilty plea;
 - (b) identify—
 - (i) any witness that the defendant wants to call, and
 - (ii) any other proposed evidence; and
 - (c) say whether the defendant waives legal professional privilege, giving any relevant name and date.

Procedure if the court convicts

- 37.10.—(1) This rule applies if the court convicts the defendant.
- (2) The court—
- (a) may exercise its power to require—
 - (i) a statement of the defendant’s financial circumstances,
 - (ii) a pre-sentence report; and
 - (b) may (and in some circumstances must) remit the defendant to a youth court for sentence where—
 - (i) the defendant is under 18, and
 - (ii) the convicting court is not itself a youth court.
- (3) The prosecutor must—
- (a) summarise the prosecution case, if the sentencing court has not heard evidence;
 - (b) identify any offence to be taken into consideration in sentencing;
 - (c) provide information relevant to sentence; and
 - (d) where it is likely to assist the court, identify any other matter relevant to sentence, including—

(324) 2003 c. 44; section 29 has been brought into force for certain purposes only (see S.I. 2007/1999, S.I. 2008/1424 and S.I. 2009/2879). It was amended by section 50 of, and paragraph 130 of Schedule 4 to, the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11) and section 59 of, and paragraph 196 of Schedule 4 to, the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (c. 15).

- (i) aggravating and mitigating factors,
 - (ii) the legislation applicable, and
 - (iii) any guidelines issued by the Sentencing Guidelines Council, or guideline cases.
- (4) The defendant must provide information relevant to sentence, including details of financial circumstances.
- (5) Where the defendant pleads guilty but wants to be sentenced on a different basis to that disclosed by the prosecution case—
 - (a) the defendant must set out that basis in writing, identifying what is in dispute;
 - (b) the court may invite the parties to make representations about whether the dispute is material to sentence; and
 - (c) if the court decides that it is a material dispute, the court will—
 - (i) invite such further representations or evidence as it may require, and
 - (ii) decide the dispute.
- (6) Where the court has power to order the endorsement of the defendant's driving licence, or power to order the disqualification of the defendant from holding or obtaining one—
 - (a) if other legislation so permits, a defendant who wants the court not to exercise that power must introduce the evidence or information on which the defendant relies;
 - (b) the prosecutor may introduce evidence; and
 - (c) the parties may make representations about that evidence or information.
- (7) Before the court passes sentence—
 - (a) the court must—
 - (i) give the defendant an opportunity to make representations and introduce evidence relevant to sentence, and
 - (ii) where the defendant is under 18, give the defendant's parents, guardian or other supporting adult, if present, such an opportunity as well; and
 - (b) the justices' legal adviser or the court must elicit any further information relevant to sentence that the court may require.
- (8) If the court requires more information, it may exercise its power to adjourn the hearing for not more than—
 - (a) 3 weeks at a time, if the defendant will be in custody; or
 - (b) 4 weeks at a time.
- (9) When the court has taken into account all the evidence, information and any report available, the general rule is that the court will—
 - (a) pass sentence there and then;
 - (b) explain the sentence, the reasons for it, and its effect, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary); and
 - (c) consider exercising any power it has to make a costs or other order.
- (10) Despite the general rule—
 - (a) the court must adjourn the hearing if—
 - (i) the case started with a summons or requisition, and the defendant is absent, and
 - (ii) the court considers passing a custodial sentence, or

- (iii) the court considers imposing a disqualification (unless it has already adjourned the hearing to give the defendant an opportunity to attend);
- (b) the court may exercise any power it has to—
 - (i) commit the defendant to the Crown Court for sentence (and in some cases it must do so), or
 - (ii) defer sentence for up to 6 months.

[Note. See sections 9, 10 and 11 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(325), and sections 143, 158, 164, 172 and 174 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(326).

Under section 11(3A) of the 1980 Act, a custodial sentence passed in the defendant's absence does not take effect until the defendant is brought before the court.

Under sections 57D and 57E of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(327), the court may require a defendant to attend a sentencing hearing by live link.

Under section 162 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(328), the court may require a defendant who is an individual to provide a statement of financial circumstances if the defendant—

- (a) serves notice of guilty plea, where rule 37.8 applies; or
- (b) is convicted.

Under section 20A of the Criminal Justice Act 1991(329), it is an offence for a defendant knowingly or recklessly to make a false or incomplete statement of financial circumstances, or to fail to provide such a statement, in response to a request by a court officer on behalf of the court.

Under section 156 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(330), the general rule (subject to exceptions) is that the court must obtain and consider a pre-sentence report—

- (a) where it is considering a custodial sentence or a community sentence;
- (b) where it thinks the defendant may pose a significant risk of causing serious harm to the public by further offending.

Under section 159 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(331), where the court obtains a written pre-sentence report about a defendant who is under 18, it may direct that information in it must be withheld, if it would be likely to create a risk of significant harm to the defendant.

Under that legislation, in some circumstances the court has discretion not to make such an order.

The evidence that may be introduced is subject to rules of evidence.

In addition to the specific powers to which this rule applies, the court has a general power to adjourn a trial: see rule 37.2.

Under section 1 of the 2000 Act(335), if (among other things) the defendant consents, the court may defer sentence for up to 6 months, for the purpose of allowing it to take account of the defendant's conduct after conviction, or any change in the defendant's circumstances.]

Procedure where a party is absent

37.11.—(1) This rule—

- (a) applies where a party is absent; but
- (b) does not apply where the defendant has served a notice of guilty plea under rule 37.8 (written guilty plea: special rules).

(2) Where the prosecutor is absent, the court may—

- (a) if it has received evidence, deal with the case as if the prosecutor were present; and
- (b) in any other case—
 - (i) enquire into the reasons for the prosecutor's absence, and
 - (ii) if satisfied there is no good reason, exercise its power to dismiss the allegation.

(3) Where the defendant is absent—

- (a) the general rule is that the court will proceed as if the defendant—
 - (i) were present, and
 - (ii) had pleaded not guilty (unless a plea already has been taken)

(332) 2000 c. 6; section 8 was amended by section 41 of, and paragraph 74 of Schedule 3 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and article 2 of, and paragraph 62 of the Schedule to S.I. 2005/886).

- and the court must give reasons if it does not do so; but
- (b) the general rule does not apply if the defendant is under 18;
 - (c) the general rule is subject to the court being satisfied that—
 - (i) any summons or requisition was served on the defendant a reasonable time before the hearing, or
 - (ii) in a case in which the hearing has been adjourned, the defendant had reasonable notice of where and when it would resume;
 - (d) the general rule is subject also to rule 37.10(10)(a) (restrictions on passing sentence in the defendant's absence); and
 - (e) the hearing must be treated as if it had not taken place at all if—
 - (i) the case started with a summons or requisition,
 - (ii) the defendant makes a statutory declaration of not having found out about the case until after the hearing began, and
 - (iii) the defendant serves that declaration on the court officer not more than 21 days after the date of finding out about the case, unless the court extends that time limit.
- (4) Where the defendant is absent, the court—
- (a) must exercise its power to issue a warrant for the defendant's arrest, if it passes a custodial sentence; and
 - (b) may exercise its power to do so in any other case, if it does not apply the general rule in paragraph (3)(a) of this rule about proceeding in the defendant's absence.

[Note. See sections 11, 14, 15 and 16 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(336).

Under section 27 of the 1980 Act, where a magistrates' court dismisses an allegation of an offence classified as one that can be tried either in a magistrates' court or in the Crown Court (in other legislation, described as triable either way), that dismissal has the same effect as an acquittal in the Crown Court.

Under section 14(3) of the 1980 Act, a single justice of the peace may extend the time limit for serving a declaration to which rule 37.11(3)(e) applies.

Under section 11 of the 1980 Act, the court may pass a custodial sentence in the defendant's absence if the case started with the defendant's arrest and charge (and not with a summons or requisition). Section 11(3A) requires that, in that event, the defendant must be brought before the court before being taken to a prison or other institution to begin serving that sentence. Under section 7(1) of the Bail Act 1976(337), the court has power to issue a warrant for the arrest of a defendant released on bail who has failed to attend court when due to do so.

Under section 13 of the 1980 Act(338), the court has power to issue a warrant for the arrest of an absent defendant, instead of proceeding, where—

- (a) the defendant's arrest and charge, or
 - (b) a summons or requisition, if—

- (i) the court is satisfied that that summons or requisition was served on the defendant a reasonable time before the hearing, or
 - (ii) the defendant was present when the hearing was arranged; and
- (2) the offence is punishable with imprisonment; or
- (3) the defendant has been convicted and the court considers imposing a disqualification.

The Practice Direction sets out a form of declaration for use in connection with rule 37.11(3)(e) (ii).]

Provision of documents for the court

- 37.12.—(1) This rule applies where a party—
- (a) introduces in evidence any document; or
 - (b) relies on any other document in the presentation of that party’s case.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise directs, that party must supply sufficient copies of such a document for—
- (a) each other party;
 - (b) the court; and
 - (c) the justices’ legal adviser.

Place of trial

- 37.13.—(1) Unless the court otherwise directs, the hearing must take place in a courtroom provided by the Lord Chancellor.
- (2) Where the hearing takes place in Wales—
- (a) any party or witness may use the Welsh language; and
 - (b) if practicable, at least one member of the court must be Welsh-speaking.

[Note. See section 3 of the Courts Act 2003(339) and section 22 of the Welsh Language Act 1993(340).

In some circumstances the court may conduct all or part of the hearing outside a courtroom. The members of the court may discuss the verdict and sentence outside the courtroom.]

Duty of justices’ legal adviser

- 37.14.—(1) A justices’ legal adviser must attend, unless the court—
- (a) includes a District Judge (Magistrates’ Courts); and
 - (b) otherwise directs.
- (2) A justices’ legal adviser must—
- (a) give the court legal advice; and
 - (b) if necessary, attend the members of the court outside the courtroom to give such advice; but
 - (c) inform the parties of any such advice given outside the courtroom.
- (3) A justices’ legal adviser must—
- (a) assist an unrepresented defendant;

(339) 2003 c. 39.
(340) 1993 c. 38.

- (b) assist the court by—
 - (i) making a note of the substance of any oral evidence or representations, to help the court recall that information,
 - (ii) if the court rules inadmissible part of a written statement introduced in evidence, marking that statement in such a way as to make that clear,
 - (iii) ensuring that an adequate record is kept of the court’s decisions and the reasons for them, and
 - (iv) making any announcement, other than of the verdict or sentence.
- (4) Where the defendant has served a notice of guilty plea to which rule 37.8 (written guilty plea: special rules) applies, a justices’ legal adviser must read aloud to the court—
 - (a) the material on which the prosecutor relies to set out the facts of the offence and to provide information relevant to sentence (or summarise any written statement included in that material, if the court so directs); and
 - (b) any written representations by the defendant.

[Note. Section 28 of the Courts Act 2003(341) provides for the functions of a justices’ legal adviser. See also section 12 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(342).]

Duty of court officer

37.15. The court officer must—

- (a) serve on each party notice of where and when an adjourned hearing will resume, unless—
 - (i) the party was present when that was arranged, or
 - (ii) the defendant has served a notice of guilty plea to which rule 37.8 applies, and the adjournment is for not more than 4 weeks;
- (b) if the reason for the adjournment was to postpone sentence, include that reason in any such notice to the defendant;
- (c) unless the court otherwise directs, make available to the parties any written report to which rule 37.10 applies;
- (d) where the court has ordered a defendant to provide information under section 25 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988(343), serve on the defendant notice of that order unless the defendant was present when it was made;
- (e) serve on the prosecutor—
 - (i) any notice of guilty plea to which rule 37.8 applies, and
 - (ii) any declaration served under rule 37.11(3)(e) that the defendant did not know about the case;
- (f) record in the magistrates’ court register the court’s reasons for not proceeding in the defendant’s absence where rule 37.11(3)(a) applies; and
- (g) give the court such other assistance as it requires.

Behaviour orders: general rules

50.2.—(1) The court must not make a behaviour order unless the person to whom it is directed has had an opportunity—

- (a) to consider what order is proposed and why; and
- (b) to make representations at a hearing (whether or not that person in fact attends).
- (2) That restriction does not apply to making an interim behaviour order.
- (3) But an interim behaviour order has no effect unless the person to whom it is directed—
 - (a) is present when it is made; or
 - (b) is handed a document recording the order not more than 7 days after it is made.

[Note. The Acts listed in the note to rule 50.1 impose requirements specific to each different type of behaviour order. Not all allow the court to make an interim behaviour order.]

(2) A party who wants the court to take account of any particular evidence before making that decision must—

(a) serve notice in writing on—

- (i) the court officer, and
- (ii) every other party,

as soon as practicable (without waiting for the verdict); and

(b) in that notice identify that evidence and attach any written statement that has not already been served.

[Note. If a party relies on hearsay evidence, see also rules 50.6, 50.7, and 50.8.]

Application to vary or revoke behaviour order

- (6) Where a person applies under this rule to a magistrates' court—
- (a) the application must be by complaint; and
 - (b) the court officer must give notice by summons of any hearing.

[Note. The legislation that gives the court power to make a behaviour order may limit the circumstances in which it may be varied or revoked and may require a hearing.

If a party relies on hearsay evidence, see also rules 50.6, 50.7 and 50.8.]

Notice of hearsay evidence

- 50.6.—(1) A party who wants to introduce hearsay evidence must—
- (a) serve a notice in writing on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) every other party directly affected; and

Rules 50.6, 50.7 and 50.8 broadly correspond with rules 3, 4 and 5 of The Magistrates' Courts (Hearsay Evidence in Civil Proceedings) Rules 1999(389), which apply in civil proceedings in magistrates' courts. Rule 3 of the 1999 Rules however includes a time limit, which may be varied by the court, or a justices' clerk, of 21 days before the date fixed for the hearing, for service of a hearsay notice.]

- (4) But the court must not—not more than 7 days after service of that hearsay evidence notice; and

- (b) in the notice, identify any statement or other material on which that party relies.
- (3) The party who served the hearsay notice—
 - (a) may call that person to give oral evidence instead; and
 - (b) if so, must serve a notice of intention to do so on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) every party on whom he served the hearsay notice
not more than 7 days after service of the notice under paragraph (2).

[Note. Section 5(2) of the Civil Evidence Act 1995 describes the procedure for challenging the credibility of the maker of a statement of which hearsay evidence is introduced. See also section 6 of that Act. The 1995 Act does not allow the introduction of evidence of a previous inconsistent statement otherwise than in accordance with sections 5, 6 and 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1865(390).]

(2) Where payment of any sum or instalment of any sum adjudged to be paid by the conviction or order of a magistrates' court is made to any person other than the court officer, that person, unless he is the person to whom the court has directed payment to be made or, in the case of a child, is the person with whom the child has his home, shall, as soon as may be, account for and, if the court officer so requires, pay over the sum or instalment to the court officer.

(3) Where payment of any sum adjudged to be paid by the conviction or order of a magistrates' court, or any instalment of such a sum, is directed to be made to the court officer for another court, the court officer for the court that adjudged the sum to be paid shall pay over any sums received by him on account of the said sum or instalment to the court officer for that other court.

- (c) may where it is directed to the constables of a police area, instead of being executed by any of those constables, be executed by any person under the direction of a constable.

(2) The warrant shall authorise the person charged with the execution of it to take as well any money as any goods of the person against whom the distress is levied; and any money so taken shall be treated as if it were the proceeds of the sale of goods taken under the warrant.

(3) The warrant shall require the person charged with the execution to pay the sum to be levied to the court officer for the court that issued the warrant.

(4) A warrant to which this rule applies may be executed by the persons to whom it was directed or by any of the following persons, whether or not the warrant was directed to them—

(5) A person executing a warrant of distress shall—

(ii) otherwise, state where the warrant is and what arrangements may be made to allow the person against whom distress is levied to inspect it;

(b) explain, in ordinary language, the sum for which distress is levied and the reason for the distress;

(c) where the person executing the warrant is one of the persons referred to in paragraph (4) (b) or (c) above, show the person against whom distress is levied a written statement under section 125A(4) of 125B(4) as appropriate; and

Provided that with the consent in writing of the person against whom the distress is levied the distress may be sold before the beginning of the said period.

(8) The clerk of the court which issued the warrant may, on the application of the person charged with the execution of it, extend the period within which the distress must be sold by any number of days not exceeding 60; but following the grant of such an application there shall be no further variation or extension of that period.

(9) The said distress shall be sold by public auction or in such other manner as the person against whom the distress is levied may in writing allow.

(10) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding provisions of this rule, the said distress shall not be sold if the sum for which the warrant was issued and the charges of taking and keeping the distress have been paid.

(11) Subject to any direction to the contrary in the warrant, where the distress is levied on household goods, the goods shall not, without the consent in writing of the person against whom the distress is levied, be removed from the house until the day of sale; and so much of the goods shall be impounded as is in the opinion of the person executing the warrant sufficient to satisfy the distress, by affixing to the articles impounded a conspicuous mark.

(12) The person charged with the execution of any such warrant as aforesaid shall cause the distress to be sold, and may deduct out of the amount realised by the sale all costs and charges incurred in effecting the sale; and he shall return to the owner the balance, if any, after retaining the amount of the sum for which the warrant was issued and the proper costs and charges of the execution of the warrant.

(13) The person charged with the execution of any such warrant as aforesaid shall as soon as practicable send to the court officer for the court that issued it a written account of the costs and charges incurred in executing it; and the court officer shall allow the person against whom the distress was levied to inspect the account within one month after the levy of the distress at any reasonable time to be appointed by the court.

(14) If any person pays or tenders to the person charged with the execution of any such warrant as aforesaid the sum mentioned in the warrant, or produces a receipt for that sum given by the court officer for the court that issued the warrant, and also pays the amount of the costs and charges of the distress up to the time of the payment or tender or the production of the receipt, the person as aforesaid shall not execute the warrant, or shall cease to execute it, as the case may be.

(2) Where a person having custody of a defaulter receives payment of any sum he shall note receipt of the sum on the warrant of commitment.

(3) Where the magistrates' court officer for a court other than the court enforcing payment of the sums receives payment of any sum he shall inform the magistrates' court officer for the other court.

(3) Where a court officer receives a copy of a transfer of fine order (whether made in England and Wales, or in Scotland or in Northern Ireland) specifying his court as the court by which payment of the sum in question is to be enforceable, he shall thereupon, if possible, deliver or send by post to the offender notice in writing.

(4) Where under a transfer of fine order a sum adjudged to be paid by a Scottish court or by a Northern Irish court is enforceable by a magistrates' court—

(2) The register must include details of any variation or setting aside of a registration under rule 57.5 and of any execution issued on a registered order.

(3) If the person who applied for registration of an order which is subsequently registered notifies the Crown Court that the court which made the order has varied or discharged the order, details of the variation or discharge, as the case may be, must be entered in the register.

Statements of truth

57.7.—(1) Any witness statement required to be served by this Part or by Parts 58, 59, 60 or 61 must be verified by a statement of truth contained in the witness statement.

⁽⁴³⁷⁾S.I. 2002/3133.

(2) A statement of truth is a declaration by the person making the witness statement to the effect that the witness statement is true to the best of his knowledge and belief and that he made the statement knowing that, if it were tendered in evidence, he would be liable to prosecution if he wilfully stated in it anything which he knew to be false or did not believe to be true.

(3) The statement of truth must be signed by the person making the witness statement.

(4) If the person making the witness statement fails to verify the witness statement by a statement of truth, the Crown Court may direct that it shall not be admissible as evidence.

Use of witness statements for other purposes

57.8.—(1) Except as provided by this rule, a witness statement served in proceedings under Part 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 may be used only for the purpose of the proceedings in which it is served.

Exceptions to procedure for expert evidence

57.10.—(1) If a party has reasonable grounds for believing that the disclosure of any evidence in compliance with rule 57.9 might lead to the intimidation, or attempted intimidation, of any person on whose evidence he intends to rely in the proceedings, or otherwise to the course of justice being interfered with, he shall not be obliged to comply with those requirements in relation to that evidence, unless the Crown Court orders otherwise.

(2) Where, in accordance with paragraph (1), a party considers that he is not obliged to comply with the requirements imposed by rule 57.9 with regard to any evidence in relation to any other party, he must serve notice in writing on that party stating—

- (a) that the evidence is being withheld; and

- (b) the reasons for withholding the evidence.

Service of documents

57.11.—(1) Part 4 and rule 32.1 (notice required to accompany process served outside the United Kingdom and translations) shall not apply in restraint proceedings and receivership proceedings.

(2) Where this Part or Parts 58, 59, 60 or 61 requires service of a document, then, unless the Crown Court directs otherwise, the document may be served by any of the following methods—

 - (c) if a solicitor is acting for the party to be served—
 - (i) by delivering the document at, or sending it by first class post to, the solicitor's business address, or
 - (ii) where the solicitor's business address includes a numbered box at a document exchange, by leaving the document at that document exchange or at a document exchange which transmits documents on every business day to that document exchange, or
 - (iii) if the solicitor has indicated that he is willing to accept service by facsimile transmission, by sending a legible copy of the document by facsimile transmission to the solicitor's office.
- (3) A document shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been served—
- (a) in the case of service by first class post, on the second business day after posting;
 - (b) in the case of service in accordance with paragraph (2)(c)(ii), on the second business day after the day on which it is left at the document exchange; and
 - (c) in the case of service in accordance with paragraph (2)(c)(iii), where it is transmitted on a business day before 4 p.m., on that day and in any other case, on the next business day.
- (4) An order made in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings may be enforced against the defendant or any other person affected by it notwithstanding that service of a copy of the order has not been effected in accordance with this rule if the Crown Court is satisfied that the person had notice of the order by being present when the order was made.

Service by an alternative method

57.12.—(1) Where it appears to the Crown Court that there is a good reason to authorise service by a method not otherwise permitted by rule 57.11, the court may make an order permitting service by an alternative method.

(2) Where a document is to be served outside England and Wales it may be served by any method permitted by the law of the country in which it is to be served.

(3) Nothing in this rule or in any court order shall authorise or require any person to do anything in the country where the document is to be served which is against the law of that country.

(4) Where this Part requires a document to be served a certain period of time before the date of a hearing and the recipient does not appear at the hearing, the hearing must not take place unless the Crown Court is satisfied that the document has been duly served.

Certificates of service

57.14.—(1) Where this Part requires that the applicant for an order in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings serve a document on another person, the applicant must lodge a certificate of service with the Crown Court within seven days of service of the document.

(2) The certificate must state—

- (b) the date of service; and
- (c) if the document is served under rule 57.12, such other information as the court may require when making the order permitting service by an alternative method.

(3) An exception to a restraint order may be made subject to conditions.

(4) The Crown Court must not require the applicant for a restraint order to give any undertaking relating to damages sustained as a result of the restraint order by a person who is prohibited from dealing with realisable property by the restraint order.

(5) The Crown Court may require the applicant for a restraint order to give an undertaking to pay the reasonable expenses of any person, other than a person who is prohibited from dealing with realisable property by the restraint order, which are incurred in complying with the restraint order.

(447) 2002 c. 29; section 42 was amended by sections 74(2) and 92 of, and paragraphs 1 and 23 of Schedule 8, and Schedule 14 to, the Serious Crime Act 2007 (c. 27).

(2) The application may be made without notice if the application is urgent or if there are reasonable grounds for believing that giving notice would cause the dissipation of realisable property which is the subject of the application.

(3) The application must be in writing and must be supported by a witness statement which must—

- (a) give the grounds for the application;
- (b) where the application is for the inclusion of further realisable property in the order give full details, to the best of the witness's ability, of the realisable property in respect of which the applicant is seeking the order and specify the person holding that realisable property; and

Order for costs

61.19.—(1) This rule applies where the Crown Court is deciding whether to make an order for costs in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings.

(2) The court has discretion as to—

- (a) whether costs are payable by one party to another;
- (b) the amount of those costs; and
- (c) when they are to be paid.

(3) If the court decides to make an order about costs—

- (a) the general rule is that the unsuccessful party will be ordered to pay the costs of the successful party; but
- (b) the court may make a different order.

(4) In deciding what order (if any) to make about costs, the court must have regard to all of the circumstances, including—

- (a) the conduct of all the parties; and
- (b) whether a party has succeeded on part of an application, even if he has not been wholly successful.

(5) The orders which the court may make include an order that a party must pay—

- (a) a proportion of another party's costs;
- (b) a stated amount in respect of another party's costs;
- (c) costs from or until a certain date only;
- (d) costs incurred before proceedings have begun;
- (e) costs relating to particular steps taken in the proceedings;
- (f) costs relating only to a distinct part of the proceedings; and
- (g) interest on costs from or until a certain date, including a date before the making of an order.

(6) Where the court would otherwise consider making an order under paragraph (5)(f), it must instead, if practicable, make an order under paragraph (5)(a) or (c).

(7) Where the court has ordered a party to pay costs, it may order an amount to be paid on account before the costs are assessed.

[Note. See section 52 of the Senior Courts Act 1981(461).]

(461) 1981 c. 54; section 52 was amended by section 31 of, and Part II of Schedule 1 to, the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985 (c. 23), section 4 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 (c. 41), article 3 and paragraphs 11 and 12(a) of the Schedule to S.I. 2004/2035 and section 59 of, and paragraph 26 of Schedule 11 to, the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4). The Act's title was amended by section 59(5) of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 to, the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4).

Assessment of costs

61.20.—(1) Where the Crown Court has made an order for costs in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings it may either—

- (a) make an assessment of the costs itself; or
- (b) order assessment of the costs under rule 76.11.

(2) In either case, the Crown Court or the assessing authority, as the case may be, must—

- (a) only allow costs which are proportionate to the matters in issue; and
- (b) resolve any doubt which it may have as to whether the costs were reasonably incurred or reasonable and proportionate in favour of the paying party.

(3) The Crown Court or the assessing authority, as the case may be, is to have regard to all the circumstances in deciding whether costs were proportionately or reasonably incurred or proportionate and reasonable in amount.

(4) In particular, the Crown Court or the assessing authority must give effect to any orders which have already been made.

(5) The Crown Court or the assessing authority must also have regard to—

- (a) the conduct of all the parties, including in particular, conduct before, as well as during, the proceedings;
- (b) the amount or value of the property involved;
- (c) the importance of the matter to all the parties;
- (d) the particular complexity of the matter or the difficulty or novelty of the questions raised;
- (e) the skill, effort, specialised knowledge and responsibility involved;
- (f) the time spent on the application; and
- (g) the place where and the circumstances in which work or any part of it was done.

Time for complying with an order for costs

61.21. A party to restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings must comply with an order for the payment of costs within 14 days of—

- (a) the date of the order if it states the amount of those costs;
- (b) if the amount of those costs is decided later under rule 76.11, the date of the assessing authority's decision; or
- (c) in either case, such later date as the Crown Court may specify.

Application of costs rules

61.22. Rules 61.19, 61.20 and 61.21 do not apply to the assessment of costs in proceedings to the extent that section 11 of the Access to Justice Act 1999 applies and provisions made under that Act make different provision.

(3) Any such application shall be sent to a court officer for the magistrates' court whose decision is questioned.

(2) A case may be stated on behalf of the justices whose decision is questioned by any 2 or more of them and may, if the justices so direct, be signed on their behalf by the justices' clerk.

(3) An application to refer a point of law must give reasons why that point ought to be considered by the Supreme Court.

(4) An application must include or attach any application for the following, with reasons—

- (a) an extension of time within which to make the application for permission or for a reference;
- (b) bail pending appeal;
- (c) permission to attend any hearing in the Supreme Court, if the appellant is in custody.

(5) A written application must be in the form set out in the Practice Direction.

[Note. In some legislation, including the Criminal Appeal Act 1968, permission to appeal is described as ‘leave to appeal’.

Under the provisions listed in the note to rule 74.1, except section 36(3) of the Criminal Justice Act 1972 (Attorney General’s reference of point of law), an appellant needs permission to appeal or to refer a sentencing case. Under those provisions, the Court of Appeal must not give permission unless it first certifies that—

- (a) a point of law of general public importance is involved in the decision, and
- (b) it appears to the court that the point is one which the Supreme Court ought to consider.

If the Court of Appeal gives such a certificate but refuses permission, an appellant may apply for such permission to the Supreme Court.

Under section 36(3) of the Criminal Justice Act 1972 an appellant needs no such permission. The Court of Appeal may refer the point of law to the Supreme Court, or may refuse to do so.

For the power of the court or the Registrar to shorten or extend a time limit, see rule 65.3. The time limit in this rule—

- (a) for applying for permission to appeal under section 33 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968 (28 days) is prescribed by section 34 of that Act(583). That time limit may be extended but not shortened by the court. But it may be extended on an application by a prosecutor only after an application to which Part 41 applies (retrial after acquittal for serious offence).
- (b) for applying for permission to refer a case under section 36(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (Attorney General’s reference of sentencing decision: 14 days) is prescribed by paragraph 4 of Schedule 3 to that Act. That time limit may be neither extended nor shortened.
- (c) for applying for permission to appeal under article 12 of The Criminal Justice Act 2003 (Mandatory Life Sentence: Appeals in Transitional Cases) Order 2005 (28 days) is prescribed by article 13 of that Order. That time limit may be extended but not shortened.
- (d) for applying for permission to appeal under article 15 of The Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (Appeals under Section 74) Order 2006 (28 days) is prescribed by article 16 of that Order. That time limit may be extended but not shortened.
