EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order repeals the requirement that penalty notices for disorder must be in a form prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State. The repeal does not alter the information which section 3 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 (c.16) provides must be stated on the penalty notice when issued to a person, nor the provisions for prescribing by statutory instrument the amount of the penalty which may be levied under section 3 of that Act.

The Order is made under the provisions of the Legislative and Regulatory Reform Act 2006 (c.51) to remove a burden resulting from legislation, namely the element of section 3 of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 (c. 16) that requires the form of a penalty notice for disorder to be prescribed by regulations. It makes a consequential revocation of the regulations that have prescribed the forms of penalty notice.
