EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Consular Fees Order 2011 (“the 2011 Order”). Whereas previously delivery costs were included within “direct costs” as defined in article 2 of the 2011 Order, this Order amends the 2011 Order so as to make specific provision in respect of delivery costs. The effect of these changes will be to increase the delivery fees in respect of some applications and reduce them in respect of others. The average increase per applicant is £9.82.

Article 2(3) inserts new paragraphs BA to BC in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the 2011 Order. Paragraph BA provides that the fee for arranging delivery of a passport (whether 32 or 48 page) will generally be £9.70 (sub-paragraph (e)). However there are four particular circumstances where a different fee is prescribed; where the applicant is a member of the Armed Forces (or a dependant of such a member) and the passport is sent to a British Forces Post Office address the fee is £5.47 (sub-paragraph (c)); where the applicant is a diplomat or an official in the Diplomatic Service (or a dependant of such a person) and the passport is sent to a British Forces Post Office address the fee is £5.77 (sub-paragraph (a)); where the applicant is such a person and the passport is sent to a United Kingdom address (other than a British Forces Post Office address) the fee is £5.47 (sub-paragraph (b)); where the delivery is by diplomatic channels the fee is £11.41 (sub-paragraph (d)).

Paragraph BB prescribes a fee of £10.16 for the return of supporting documents accompanying an application; a single fee is payable for documents relating to up to four applications.

Paragraph BC prescribes a fee of £13.31 for forwarding an application to a Regional Passport Processing Centre for consideration; up to four applications will attract a single fee.

Article 2(2) amends references to “direct costs” in paragraphs A and B of Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the 2011 Order to make it clear that this does not include delivery costs, where such costs are provided for in new paragraphs BA to BC.

Article 3 contains a supplemental saving provision. This provides that the amendments made by the Order will not apply where the relevant passport would be printed abroad.
