2. These Regulations apply where the investment bank is a limited liability partnership subject to the following modifications.

3.—(1) Those provisions of the Insolvency Act, as applied and modified by regulation 15 of these Regulations, shall apply in respect of an investment bank formed as a limited liability partnership subject to sub-paragraph (2).

(2) Those provisions of the Insolvency Act set out in the Table in sub-paragraph (3) shall also apply with the modifications set out in sub-paragraph (3).

(3) The modifications are—

- (a) those contained in regulation 5(2) of the 2001 Regulations (not including those in regulation 5(2)(f)); and
- (b) any other modification set out in the Table.

Table: Applied provisions of the Insolvency Act (General provisions and Schedule B1)

Provision of the Insolvency Act	Subject	Modification or comment
Section 74	Liability as contributories of present and past members	The following is substituted for section 74— “74 (1) This section applies when a limited liability partnership goes into special administration, every present and past member of the limited liability partnership is liable to contribute to its assets as follows. (2) Where a member has agreed with the other members or with the limited liability partnership, that that member be liable to contribute to the assets of the limited liability partnership in the event that that body goes into liquidation or special administration, that member is liable, to the extent that they have so agreed, to contribute— (a) to its assets to any amount sufficient for payment of its debts and liabilities; (b) to the expenses of the special administration;

ground for believing that the limited liability partnership—

(i) was at the time of the withdrawal unable to pay its debts, or

(ii) would become so unable to pay its debts after the assets of the limited liability partnership had been depleted by that withdrawal taken together with all other withdrawals (if any) made by any members contemporaneously with that withdrawal or in contemplation when that withdrawal was made.

(3) Where this section has effect in relation to P, the court, on the application of the administrator, may declare that P is to be liable to make such contribution (if any) to the limited liability partnership's assets as the court thinks proper.

(4) The court shall not make a declaration in relation to P the amount of which exceeds the aggregate of the amounts or values of all the withdrawals referred to in subsection (2) made by P within the period of two years referred to in that subsection.

(5) The court shall not make a declaration under this section with respect to P unless P knew or ought to have concluded that after each withdrawal referred to in subsection (2) there was no reasonable prospect that the limited liability partnership would avoid going into an insolvency procedure under the Insolvency Act or special administration.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5) the facts which P ought to know or ascertain and the conclusions which P ought to reach are those which would be known, ascertained, or reached by a reasonably diligent person having both:

(a) the general knowledge, skill and experience that may reasonably be expected of a person carrying out the same functions as are carried out by P in relation to the limited liability partnership; and

(b) the general knowledge, skill and experience that P has.

(8) In this section “member” includes a shadow member.

(9) This section is without prejudice to section 214.”.

Section 215 Proceedings under (a) In subsection (1) omit the word “or” between the words “213” and “214” and insert after “214” “ or 214A ”.
