The Marine Licensing (Exempted Activities) Order 2011

PART 2

Exempt activities – general provisions

Exemption from need for marine licence

- 4.—(1) A marine licence is not needed for an activity that is an exempt activity.
- (2) An activity is an exempt activity to the extent that—
- (a) it is an activity to which this article applies<sup>(1)</sup>, and
  - (b) where the application of this article to an activity is subject to a condition specified in Part 3, that condition is satisfied in relation to that activity.
- (3) But this is subject to paragraph (4) and article 5.
- (4) Nothing in this Order makes an activity an exempt activity to the extent to which the carrying on of the activity is contrary to international law.
