The Regional Flood and Coastal Committees
(England and Wales) Regulations 2011

PART 7

Transitional provisions

Continuation of terms for members of new Committees

34. If a person who was originally appointed as a member or chair of an old Committee continued as a member or chair of a transitional Committee and is appointed as a member or chair of a new Committee—

- (a) the terms of appointment of the person as a member or chair of the old Committee continue to have effect for so long as the person holds office in the new Committee;
- (b) any arrangement under the 1995 Act for payment of the member continues for so long as the person holds office in the new Committee; and
- (c) for the purpose of calculating the period of office under regulation 17, the date the person was appointed as a member or chair of the old Committee is taken to be the date of appointment to the new Committee.
