

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE LEBANON AND SYRIA (ASSET-FREEZING) REGULATIONS 2012

2012 No. 1517

1. This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Treasury and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.
2. Purpose of the instrument
  - 2.1 These Regulations provide for criminal penalties for breach of EU financial sanctions contained in Council Regulation (EC) No. 305/2006 of 21 February 2006 imposing restrictive measures against certain persons suspected of involvement in the assassination of former Lebanese Prime Minister Rafiq Hariri ('the Council Regulation'). The Council Regulation gives effect to United Nations Security Council Resolution 1636 (2005). The Lebanon and Syria (United Nations Measures) Order 2005 (S.I. 3432/2005), which made provision for financial sanctions under the UN Security Council Resolution, is revoked.
3. Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments
  - 3.1 None.
4. Legislative Context
  - 4.1 The Treasury are in the process of creating and updating enforcement frameworks for various EU sanctions regimes. These Regulations are made as part of this exercise, and are laid at the same time as Regulations putting in place penalties for breach of EU sanctions regimes in relation to other countries (Belarus, Democratic Republic of Congo, Eritrea, Iraq, Liberia, Republic of Guinea and Sudan).
  - 4.2 In 2005 the United Nations Security Council adopted Resolution 1636 which required Member States to freeze the funds, other financial assets and economic resources of those registered by the UN Sanctions Committee as having been identified by an independent Commission or by the Government of Lebanon as persons suspected of involvement in the assassination of former Lebanese Prime Minister Rafiq Hariri and others on 14th February 2005. No persons have so far been identified by the Commission or the Government of Lebanon.
  - 4.3 Annex I to the Council Regulation is intended to contain a list of persons who are registered by the UN Sanctions Committee in relation to whom the prohibitions in the Council Regulation are to be applied. The list may be amended from time to time by the European Commission so as to reflect changes in the persons registered by the Sanctions Committee.

4.4 Accordingly, it is necessary that these Regulations include ambulatory references to ensure that at such time as names are included in Annex I the penalties and other provisions in these Regulations apply to those persons, and that the Regulations remain applicable to any persons listed in Annex I as amended from time to time. Any changes to the lists of designated persons will be published in the Official Journal, and will also appear on the Treasury's website and in a notice sent out electronically to subscribers to the Treasury's Asset Freezing Unit mailing list.

4.5 An Explanatory Memorandum on the draft Council Common Position 2005/888/CFSP, concerning specific restrictive measures against certain persons suspected of involvement in the assassination of former Lebanese Prime Minister Rafiq Hariri was submitted for Parliamentary Scrutiny in November 2005. The House of Commons European Scrutiny Committee cleared the document as "not legally or politically important" in their report published on 12 December 2005.

5. Territorial Extent and Application

5.1 This instrument applies to all of the United Kingdom and, outside the United Kingdom, to British citizens and those with a UK connection.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

6.1 As the instrument is subject to negative resolution procedure and does not amend primary legislation, no statement is required.

7. Policy background

- What is being done and why

7.1 These Regulations provide for penalties for breach of the asset freezing measures contained in the Council Regulation. The Treasury consider that such penalties should be criminal, in line with those in place for breaches of other EU sanctions regimes. Criminal penalties are appropriate to enforce sanctions regimes because international financial sanctions are aimed at threats to international peace and security and the abuse of human rights. The consequences of a breach of any sanctions regime may be very serious and criminal penalties provide a better, more dissuasive, deterrent than civil penalties.

7.2 The Regulations:

- define a designated person as being a person listed in Annex I to the Council Regulation;
- define the scope of the prohibitions that apply to the freezing of funds and economic resources and also to the making available of funds and economic resources to, or for the benefit of, a designated person;

- provide penalties for breaches of the prohibitions;
- provide a mechanism for granting licences and create an offence where a person knowingly or recklessly provides false information or documents to obtain a licence or fails to comply with a condition of a licence;
- include provisions for the gathering and sharing of information and create an offence for failing to comply with or obstructing the Treasury's exercise of these powers;
- revoke the Lebanon and Syria (United Nations Measures) Order 2005.

7.3 No criminal penalty is included for breach of the requirement in regulation 8(3) for financial institutions to inform the Treasury when they credit a frozen account. The Treasury considers that any such breaches are appropriately dealt with in the context of the supervision of financial institutions by the Financial Services Authority, which has a range of enforcement powers under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c.8).

- Consolidation

7.4 There are currently no plans to consolidate the relevant legislation.

8. Consultation outcome

8.1 No consultation has been carried out in relation to this instrument.

9. Guidance

9.1 Guidance on the asset freezing measures in relation to Lebanon and Syria is available on the Treasury's website. The Treasury's Asset Freezing Unit operates a free subscription email service alerting subscribers on changes to the asset freezing regime, and on other financial sanctions measures. A dedicated telephone line and email address are available for the financial sector and any other persons to submit queries on the asset freezing regime.

10. Impact

10.1 The impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies is negligible, because these Regulations do not themselves impose requirements, but only put in place penalties in relation to activities which are prohibited by the directly effective Council Regulation.

10.2 The impact on the public sector is also negligible.

10.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument, because any impact results from the Council Regulation rather than these Regulations which only provide for enforcement powers.

11. Regulating small business

11.1 The legislation applies to small business.

11.2 To minimise the impact of the requirements on firms employing up to 20 people, the Treasury work with the financial sector on the requirements for complying with the asset freezing measures set out in the Council Regulation and similar EU legislation. The Treasury have provided detailed guidance to assist business in complying with these measures.

12. Monitoring & review

12.1 The EU monitors and reviews its financial sanctions measures. The Treasury will review the penalties for breach of the restrictions imposed by the Council Regulation if it is amended or repealed.
