These Regulations, which come into force on 19th November 2012, amend the Police Act 1997 (Criminal Records and Registration) (Isle of Man) Regulations 2011 (“the 2011 Regulations”).

Regulation 2 amends regulation 8 of the 2011 Regulations in order to replace the reference to the National Policing Improvement Agency (“NPIA”) with a reference to the Secretary of State. The NPIA is being phased out and the Home Office has now taken over the function of running the Police National Computer (“PNC”). It is the names database of convictions, cautions, warnings and reprimands which is held on the PNC which is prescribed as “central records” for the purposes of section 113A(6) of the Police Act 1997.
