The Teachers' Disciplinary (England) Regulations 2012

Publication of prohibition orders

15.—(1) The Secretary of State must publish the information set out in paragraph (2) in relation to a teacher to whom a prohibition order relates—

- (a) on a website which the Secretary of State maintains on the internet; or
- (b) in such other manner as the Secretary of State sees fit.

(2) The information to be published is—

- (a) the teacher's name, date of birth and Teacher Reference Number⁽¹⁾;
- (b) the name of the institution at which the teacher was last employed or engaged to carry out teaching work or if the teacher was employed by a local authority, the name of the local authority;
- (c) the dates on which the prohibition order was made and takes effect; and
- (d) the reasons for making the order.

(1) The Teacher Reference Number is a unique identifying number issued to each teacher by the Department for Education when they enter initial teacher training.
