

SCHEDULE 1

Consequential provisions – primary legislation

PART 2

Provisions consequential upon transfer of functions from agricultural land tribunals for areas in England

Agriculture Act 1947

191. For section 75 (provisions as to land lying partly in one area and partly in another) and the heading to that section substitute—

“Provisions where some land is in Wales and some is in England and transfer of proceedings

75.—(1) Where any land lies partly in Wales and partly in England, for the purposes of anything required or authorised to be done by or before the appropriate tribunal in relation to that land, the land shall be deemed to be situated entirely in the place where the greater part of the land lies.

(2) Tribunal Procedure Rules may make provision for the transfer of proceedings to or from the First-tier Tribunal where, after the making of the application, section 42 of the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986 (procedure where deceased held more than one holding) applies to the determination of associated applications.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), “appropriate tribunal” means—

- (a) where the land (or the greater part of the land) is in England, the First-tier Tribunal;
and
- (b) where the land (or the greater part of the land) is in Wales, the Agricultural Land Tribunal.”
