“Applications by AIFMs from third countries

<sup>F35</sup>(2) . . . . .

(3) In the case of an applicant for Part 4A permission whose registered office is in a third country, the regulator must not give the Part 4A permission unless, in addition to the conditions specified in regulation 5(3) being met—

(b) the applicant has appointed a legal representative who—

(i) is the point of contact for the FCA <sup>F37</sup>... and investors in relation to the AIFs managed or to be managed by the applicant;

(ii) is sufficiently equipped to perform the compliance function [<sup>F38</sup>pursuant to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, these Regulations, and any EU tertiary legislation made under the directive which forms part of EU retained law] in relation to those AIFs; and

(iii) if an individual, is domiciled in the United Kingdom, or if not an individual, has a registered office or a branch in the United Kingdom;

[<sup>F39</sup>(c) appropriate co-operation arrangements are in place between the FCA, the competent authority in relation to any EEA AIF managed by the applicant and the supervisory authorities of the third country in which the applicant has its registered office, in order to ensure an efficient exchange of information that enables the FCA to carry out its duties in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, these Regulations, and any EU tertiary legislation made under the directive which forms part of EU retained law;]

(d) the third country in which the applicant has its registered office is not listed as a Non-Cooperative Country and Territory by the Financial Action Task Force;

(e) the third country in which the applicant has its registered office has signed an agreement with the United Kingdom, which fully complies with the standards laid down in Article 26 of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development's Model Tax Convention on Income and on Capital and ensures an effective exchange of information on tax matters, including any multilateral tax agreements; and

(f) the effective exercise by the FCA [<sup>F40</sup>of its supervisory functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, these Regulations and any EU tertiary legislation made under the directive which forms part of EU retained law] is not prevented by the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of a third country which apply to the applicant, nor by limitations in the supervisory and investigatory powers of that country's supervisory authorities.

(4) Notwithstanding regulation 5(3)(b), the regulator may give the Part 4A permission to an applicant whose registered office is in a third country if the regulator is satisfied that—

(a) it is impossible for the applicant to comply with an implementing provision applicable to a full-scope UK AIFM which has its registered office in a third country because of a mandatory provision in the law that applies to the applicant or a third country AIF that the applicant intends to market in [<sup>F41</sup>the United Kingdom or in Gibraltar],

(b) the law that applies to the applicant or the third country AIF provides for a rule that is equivalent to that implementing provision, has the same regulatory purpose as that provision and offers the same level of protection to the investors of the AIFs managed by the applicant or, as the case may be, the investors of that AIF, and

(c) the applicant or, as the case may be, the AIF complies with that equivalent rule.

(6) In the case of an applicant whose registered office is in a third country, the application is complete if, in addition to containing the information mentioned in regulation 5(8), it contains—

(b) a list of any implementing provisions with which it is impossible for the applicant to comply because of a mandatory provision in the law that applies to the applicant or a third country AIF that the applicant intends to market in [<sup>F44</sup>the United Kingdom or in Gibraltar], or confirmation that there are no such provisions;

(c) if any provision is included in a list provided under sub-paragraph (b), written evidence that—

(i) the law that applies to the applicant or the third country AIF provides for a rule that is equivalent to the provision;

(ii) the equivalent provision has the same regulatory purpose as the provision included in the list provided under sub-paragraph (b);

(iii) the equivalent provision offers the same level of protection to the investors of the AIFs managed by the applicant or, as the case may be, the investors of the third country AIF; and

(iv) the applicant or, as the case may be, the third country AIF complies with that equivalent rule, such evidence being based on regulatory standards developed by [<sup>F45</sup>the FCA];

(d) if evidence is provided under sub-paragraph (c), a legal opinion in support of the evidence on the existence of the relevant mandatory provision, and a description of the regulatory purpose of and the nature of the investor protection pursued by the equivalent rule;

(e) the name of the legal representative of the applicant and the place where the legal representative has its registered office or a branch (in the case of a legal person) or where he or she is domiciled (in the case of an individual).”.

(7) For regulation 10(2)(c) (small registered UK AIFMs) substitute—

“(c) either—

(i) in the case of an AIFM with its registered office in the United Kingdom, grounds do not exist which would permit or require a court to make a disqualification order within the meaning of section 1(1) of the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 <sup>F47</sup> against an individual responsible for the management or operation of the AIFM; or

(ii) in the case of an AIFM with its registered office in a third country, such grounds would not exist if the AIFM were a company incorporated in the United Kingdom.”.

(8) For regulation 29(1) (depositary liability: general provisions) for the words from “in relation to” to the end substitute—

“in relation to—

(a) the depositary of a UK AIF managed by a full-scope UK AIFM or [<sup>F48</sup>a Gibraltar AIFM]; or
