The Air Navigation (Overseas Territories) Order 2013

PART 9

AIR OPERATOR CERTIFICATION

Police air operations

95.—(1) A flight by an aircraft in the service of a police authority for the Territory is, for the purposes of this Order, deemed to be a commercial air transport flight.

(2) If any passenger is carried on such a flight it is deemed to be for the purpose of commercial air transport of passengers.

(3) Save as otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of this Order and of any regulations made under this Order must be complied with in relation to a flight in the service of a police authority as if that flight were for the purpose of commercial air transport.

(4) An aircraft registered in the Territory must not fly on any flight in the service of the police authority otherwise than under and in accordance with either the terms of an air operator's certificate granted to the operator under article 94(2) or a police air operator's certificate granted to the operator under paragraph (5).

(5) The Governor must grant a police air operator's certificate upon being satisfied that the applicant is competent to secure that the operation of aircraft of the types specified in the certificate will be as safe as is appropriate when flying on flights of the description and for the purposes specified, having regard in particular to the applicant's—

- (a) previous conduct and experience;
- (b) equipment;
- (c) organisation and staffing; and
- (d) maintenance and other arrangements.
