 - 2.2 Imarat Kavkaz (IK), or the Caucasus Emirate, is a terrorist organisation which seeks a Sharia based Caliphate across the North Caucasus. It regularly uses terrorist tactics and has carried out attacks against Russian state and civilian targets. The organisation claimed responsibility for the January 2011 suicide attack on Domedodevo airport in Moscow, that killed 35 including one British national, and a suicide attack on the Moscow Metro in March 2010 that killed 39. Since then there has been continued activity by Imarat Kavkaz, including renewed threats over summer 2013 of activity in Russia, including against sporting events. The organisation is currently designated by the US and also by the UN under the Al Qa'ida sanctions regime.

7. Policy background

7.1 Section 3 of the Terrorism Act 2000 provides a power to proscribe, by order, an organisation which commits or participates in acts of terrorism, prepares for, promotes or encourages terrorism or is otherwise concerned in terrorism. Section 21 of the Terrorism Act 2006 amended the grounds for proscription in section 3 of the Terrorism Act 2000 to include organisations which unlawfully glorify the commission or preparation of acts of terrorism.

7.2 The Secretary of State has regard to additional factors in deciding, as a matter of discretion, whether or not to proscribe an organisation. These are:

- The nature and scale of the organisation’s activities;
- The specific threat that it poses to the UK;
- The specific threat that it poses to British nationals overseas;
- The extent of the organisation’s presence in the UK; and
- The need to support international partners in the fight against terrorism.

7.3 An organisation is proscribed in the UK as soon as the order comes into force. It is a criminal offence for a person to belong to, or invite support for, a proscribed organisation. It is also a criminal offence to arrange a meeting to support a proscribed organisation; or to wear clothing or carry articles in public which arouse reasonable suspicion that an individual is a member or supporter of a proscribed organisation.

7.4 A proscribed organisation, or any person affected by the proscription of the organisation, may apply to the Secretary of State for deproscription and, if the Secretary of State refuses that application, the applicant may appeal to the Proscribed Organisations Appeal Commission.
