The Criminal Legal Aid (Determinations by a Court and Choice of Representative) Regulations 2013

PART 2

Determinations by a Court under section 16 of the Act

Withdrawal of determinations by the court

9.—(1) The court before which any criminal proceedings other than those listed in regulation 9(a), (b) and (d) to (i) of the General Regulations are taking place may withdraw a determination under section 16 of the Act that an individual qualifies for representation where—

- (a) the individual declines to accept the determination in the terms which are offered;
 - (b) the individual requests that the determination is withdrawn; or
 - (c) the provider named in the representation order which recorded the original determination declines to continue to represent the individual.
- (2) Where the court withdraws a determination—
- (a) the court must provide written notification of the withdrawal to the individual in whose favour the original determination was made and to the provider named in the representation order which records the determination; and
 - (b) the Director must provide written notification of the withdrawal to any advocate instructed in the proceedings.
