The Explosives Regulations 2014

PART 2

AUTHORISATIONS

Prohibition concerning the acquisition and supply of fireworks

- 9.—(1) No person may—
- (a) acquire more than 50 kilograms of fireworks unless that person (“Person A”), or another person on behalf of Person A, holds a valid licence for the storage of those fireworks; or
 - (b) sell or otherwise transfer to any person (“Person B”) more than 50 kilograms of fireworks unless Person B shows to the person selling or otherwise transferring the fireworks a valid licence for the storage by Person B of those fireworks.
- (2) This regulation does not apply to a person who is transporting fireworks on behalf of another person.
