2014 No. 1894

The Diseases of Swine Regulations 2014

PART 8

Inspection, enforcement and miscellaneous provisions

Notices following a contravention of movement controls

35.—(1) If a pig has been moved to any premises in contravention of any provision of these Regulations or any licence or notice served under these Regulations, an inspector may serve a notice on the occupier of those premises requiring—

- (a) that pig, or any other pig on the premises, to be detained on the premises; or
- (b) any pig on the premises to be moved to other premises specified in the notice.

(2) If a pig has been moved to other premises under such a notice, an inspector may serve a notice on the occupier of those other premises imposing such movement restrictions relating to any pig on those premises as the inspector considers necessary to reduce the risk of spreading disease.
