The Diseases of Swine Regulations 2014

PART 8

Inspection, enforcement and miscellaneous provisions

Review of the Regulations in England

- 44.—(1) Before the end of each review period, the Secretary of State must—
- (a) carry out a review of these Regulations in England;
 - (b) set out the conclusions of the review in a report; and
 - (c) publish the report.
- (2) In carrying out the review in England the Secretary of State must, so far as is reasonable, have regard to how—
- (a) Council Directive 92/119/EEC,
 - (b) Council Directive 2001/89/EC, and
 - (c) Council Directive 2002/60/EC,
- are implemented in other member States.
- (3) The report must in particular—
- (a) set out the objectives intended to be achieved by the regulatory system established by these Regulations;
 - (b) assess the extent to which those objectives are achieved; and
 - (c) assess whether those objectives remain appropriate and, if so, the extent to which they could be achieved with a system that imposes less regulation.
- (4) The first review period is the period of five years beginning with the date on which these Regulations come into force.
- (5) Each subsequent review period is a period of five years beginning with the date on which the report of the preceding review was published.
