2014 No. 2383

The Tuberculosis (England) Order 2014

Notification of intended slaughter of bovine animals

15.—(1) Where the Secretary of State intends to cause a bovine animal to be slaughtered, an inspector must serve a notice on the keeper of the animal informing the keeper of the intended slaughter and requiring the keeper to detain the animal pending such slaughter, or its removal for such slaughter, on a part of the premises isolated as far as practicable from other animals as specified in the notice.

(2) Where a notice has been served under paragraph (1), a person must not move the animal, other than to slaughter, except under the authority of a licence issued by an inspector.
