The Consular Marriages and Marriages
under Foreign Law (No. 2) Order 2014

PART 2

Consular marriages

Oath before marriage

8. Before a marriage is solemnized under this Order, each of the parties entering into the marriage must appear before a registration officer and sign, in a book kept by a registration officer for the purpose, a declaration—

- (a) that he or she believes —
  - (i) where the relevant part of the United Kingdom is England and Wales, that there is no impediment to the marriage such that the marriage would be void under section 1 of the Marriage Act 1949(1) or other lawful hindrance;
  - (ii) where the relevant part of the United Kingdom is Scotland, that there is no impediment to the marriage such that the marriage would be void under section 2 of the Marriage (Scotland) Act 1977(2) (marriage of related persons) or other lawful hindrance;
- (b) that both of the parties have for a period of 21 days ending on the day on which the declaration is made had their usual residence within the consular district of the registration officer; and
- (c) where either party is under the age of 18 and the relevant part of the United Kingdom is England and Wales—
  - (i) that any consent to the marriage which is required in respect of that party has been obtained;
  - (ii) that the necessity of obtaining any such consent in respect of that party has been dispensed with; or
  - (iii) that the party is either a widow or a widower or surviving civil partner or that there is no person having authority to give any such consent.
