When the Rules apply

- 2.1.—(1) In general, Criminal Procedure Rules apply—
- (a) in all criminal cases in magistrates’ courts and in the Crown Court;

- (b) in extradition cases in the High Court; and
 - (c) in all cases in the criminal division of the Court of Appeal.
- (2) If a rule applies only in one or some of those courts, the rule makes that clear.
- (3) These Rules apply on and after 5th October, 2015, but—
- (a) unless the court otherwise directs, they do not affect a right or duty existing under the Criminal Procedure Rules 2014(a); and
 - (b) unless the High Court otherwise directs, Section 3 of Part 50 (Extradition – appeal to the High Court) does not apply to a case in which notice of an appeal was given before 6th October, 2014.
- (4) In a case in which a request for extradition was received by a relevant authority in the United Kingdom on or before 31st December, 2003—
- (a) the rules in Part 50 (Extradition) do not apply; and
 - (b) the rules in Part 17 of the Criminal Procedure Rules 2012(b) (Extradition) continue to apply as if those rules had not been revoked.

[Note. The rules replaced by the first Criminal Procedure Rules (the Criminal Procedure Rules 2005(c)) were revoked when those Rules came into force by provisions of the Courts Act 2003, the Courts Act 2003 (Consequential Amendments) Order 2004(d) and the Courts Act 2003 (Commencement No. 6 and Savings) Order 2004(e). The first Criminal Procedure Rules reproduced the substance of all the rules they replaced.]

The rules in Part 17 of the Criminal Procedure Rules 2012 applied to extradition proceedings under the Backing of Warrants (Republic of Ireland) Act 1965(f) or under the Extradition Act 1989(g). By section 218 of the Extradition Act 2003, the 1965 and 1989 Acts ceased to have effect when the 2003 Act came into force. By article 2 of the Extradition Act 2003 (Commencement and Savings) Order 2003(h), the 2003 Act came into force on 1st January, 2004. However, article 3 of that Order(i) provided that the coming into force of the Act did not apply for the purposes of any request for extradition, whether made under any of the provisions of the Extradition Act 1989 or of the Backing of Warrants (Republic of Ireland) Act 1965 or otherwise, which was received by the relevant authority in the United Kingdom on or before 31st December, 2003.]

(2) In the courts to which these Rules apply—

- (b) a reference to the Criminal Procedure Rules may be abbreviated to ‘CrimPR’; and

GENERAL RULES

When this Part applies

3.1.—(1) Rules 3.1 to 3.12 apply to the management of each case in a magistrates' court and in the Crown Court (including an appeal to the Crown Court) until the conclusion of that case.

(2) Rules 3.13 to 3.26 apply where—

- (a) the defendant is sent to the Crown Court for trial;
- (b) a High Court or Crown Court judge gives permission to serve a draft indictment; or
- (c) the Court of Appeal orders a retrial.

[Note. Rules that apply to procedure in the Court of Appeal are in Parts 36 to 42 of these Rules.]

A magistrates' court may send a defendant for trial in the Crown Court under section 51 or 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(a). See Part 9 for the procedure on allocation and sending for trial.

Under paragraph 2(1) of Schedule 17 to the Crime and Courts Act 2013(b) and section 2 of the Administration of Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1933(c), the Crown Court may give permission to serve a draft indictment where it approves a deferred prosecution agreement. See Part 11 for the rules about that procedure and Part 10 for the rules about indictments.

The procedure for applying for the permission of a High Court judge to serve a draft indictment is in rules 6 to 10 of the Indictments (Procedure) Rules 1971(d). See also the Practice Direction.

The Court of Appeal may order a retrial under section 8 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968(e) (on a defendant's appeal against conviction) or under section 77 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(f) (on a prosecutor's application for the retrial of a serious offence after acquittal). Section 8 of the 1968 Act, section 84 of the 2003 Act and rules 27.6 and 39.14 require the arraignment of a defendant within 2 months.]

- (g) encouraging the participants to co-operate in the progression of the case; and
- (h) making use of technology.

(3) The court must actively manage the case by giving any direction appropriate to the needs of that case as early as possible.

The court may make a costs order under—

- (b) the court gave it at a hearing in that party’s absence; or
- (c) circumstances have changed.

(2) A party who applies to vary a direction must—

- (a) apply as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so; and
- (b) give as much notice to the other parties as the nature and urgency of the application permits.

Agreement to vary a time limit fixed by a direction

3.7.—(1) The parties may agree to vary a time limit fixed by a direction, but only if—

- (a) the variation will not—
 - (i) affect the date of any hearing that has been fixed, or
 - (ii) significantly affect the progress of the case in any other way;
- (b) the court has not prohibited variation by agreement; and
- (c) the court’s case progression officer is promptly informed.

- (a) apply when serving the application or representations for which it is needed; and
- (b) explain the delay.

Case preparation and progression

3.9.—(1) At every hearing, if a case cannot be concluded there and then the court must give directions so that it can be concluded at the next hearing or as soon as possible after that.

(2) At every hearing the court must, where relevant—

- (a) if the defendant is absent, decide whether to proceed nonetheless;
- (b) take the defendant’s plea (unless already done) or if no plea can be taken then find out whether the defendant is likely to plead guilty or not guilty;
- (c) set, follow or revise a timetable for the progress of the case, which may include a timetable for any hearing including the trial or (in the Crown Court) the appeal;
- (d) in giving directions, ensure continuity in relation to the court and to the parties’ representatives where that is appropriate and practicable; and
- (e) where a direction has not been complied with, find out why, identify who was responsible, and take appropriate action.

(3) In order to prepare for the trial, the court must take every reasonable step—

- (a) to encourage and to facilitate the attendance of witnesses when they are needed; and
- (b) to facilitate the participation of any person, including the defendant.

(4) Facilitating the participation of the defendant includes finding out whether the defendant needs interpretation because—

- (a) the defendant does not speak or understand English; or
- (b) the defendant has a hearing or speech impediment.

(5) Where the defendant needs interpretation—

- (a) the court officer must arrange for interpretation to be provided at every hearing which the defendant is due to attend;
- (b) interpretation may be by an intermediary where the defendant has a speech impediment, without the need for a defendant’s evidence direction;
- (c) on application or on its own initiative, the court may require a written translation to be provided for the defendant of any document or part of a document, unless—
 - (i) translation of that document, or part, is not needed to explain the case against the defendant, or
 - (ii) the defendant agrees to do without and the court is satisfied that the agreement is clear and voluntary and that the defendant has had legal advice or otherwise understands the consequences;
- (d) on application by the defendant, the court must give any direction which the court thinks appropriate, including a direction for interpretation by a different interpreter, where—
 - (i) no interpretation is provided,
 - (ii) no translation is ordered or provided in response to a previous application by the defendant, or
 - (iii) the defendant complains about the quality of interpretation or of any translation.

(6) Facilitating the participation of any person includes giving directions for the appropriate treatment and questioning of a witness or the defendant, especially where the court directs that such questioning is to be conducted through an intermediary.

(7) Where directions for appropriate treatment and questioning are required, the court must—

- (a) invite representations by the parties and by any intermediary; and
- (b) set ground rules for the conduct of the questioning, which rules may include—

- (i) a direction relieving a party of any duty to put that party's case to a witness or a defendant in its entirety,
- (ii) directions about the manner of questioning,
- (iii) directions about the duration of questioning,
- (iv) if necessary, directions about the questions that may or may not be asked,
- (v) where there is more than one defendant, the allocation among them of the topics about which a witness may be asked, and
- (vi) directions about the use of models, plans, body maps or similar aids to help communicate a question or an answer.

[Note. Part 18 (Measures to assist a witness or defendant to give evidence) contains rules about an application for a defendant's evidence direction under (among other provisions) sections 33BA and 33BB of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(a).

See also Directive 2010/64/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20th October, 2010, on the right to interpretation and translation in criminal proceedings(b).

Where a trial in the Crown Court will take place in Wales and a participant wishes to use the Welsh language, see rule 3.26. Where a trial in a magistrates' court will take place in Wales, a participant may use the Welsh language: see rule 24.14.]

Readiness for trial or appeal

3.10.—(1) This rule applies to a party's preparation for trial or appeal, and in this rule and rule 3.11 'trial' includes any hearing at which evidence will be introduced.

(2) In fulfilling the duty under rule 3.3, each party must—

- (a) comply with directions given by the court;
- (b) take every reasonable step to make sure that party's witnesses will attend when they are needed;
- (c) make appropriate arrangements to present any written or other material; and
- (d) promptly inform the court and the other parties of anything that may—
 - (i) affect the date or duration of the trial or appeal, or
 - (ii) significantly affect the progress of the case in any other way.

(3) The court may require a party to give a certificate of readiness.

Conduct of a trial or an appeal

3.11. In order to manage a trial or an appeal, the court—

- (a) must establish, with the active assistance of the parties, what are the disputed issues;
- (b) must consider setting a timetable that—
 - (i) takes account of those issues and of any timetable proposed by a party, and
 - (ii) may limit the duration of any stage of the hearing;
- (c) may require a party to identify—
 - (i) which witnesses that party wants to give evidence in person,
 - (ii) the order in which that party wants those witnesses to give their evidence,
 - (iii) whether that party requires an order compelling the attendance of a witness,
 - (iv) what arrangements are desirable to facilitate the giving of evidence by a witness,

(a) 1999 c. 23; sections 33BA and 33BB are inserted by section 104 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25), with effect from a date to be appointed.

(b) OJ L 280, 26.10.2010, p.1.

- (v) what arrangements are desirable to facilitate the participation of any other person, including the defendant,
 - (vi) what written evidence that party intends to introduce,
 - (vii) what other material, if any, that person intends to make available to the court in the presentation of the case, and
 - (viii) whether that party intends to raise any point of law that could affect the conduct of the trial or appeal; and
- (d) may limit—
- (i) the examination, cross-examination or re-examination of a witness, and
 - (ii) the duration of any stage of the hearing.

Duty of court officer

3.12. The court officer must—

- (a) where a person is entitled or required to attend a hearing, give as much notice as reasonably practicable to—
 - (i) that person, and
 - (ii) that person's custodian (if any);
- (b) where the court gives directions, promptly make a record available to the parties.

[Note. See also rule 5.7 (Supply to a party of information or documents from records or case materials).]

PREPARATION FOR TRIAL IN THE CROWN COURT

Pre-trial hearings: general rules

3.13.—(1) The Crown Court—

- (a) may, and in some cases must, conduct a preparatory hearing where rule 3.14 applies;
- (b) must conduct a plea and trial preparation hearing;
- (c) may conduct a further pre-trial case management hearing (and if necessary more than one such hearing) only where—
 - (i) the court anticipates a guilty plea,
 - (ii) it is necessary to conduct such a hearing in order to give directions for an effective trial, or
 - (iii) such a hearing is required to set ground rules for the conduct of the questioning of a witness or defendant.

(2) A pre-trial case management hearing—

- (a) must be in public, as a general rule, but all or part of the hearing may be in private if the court so directs; and
- (b) must be recorded, in accordance with rule 5.5 (Recording and transcription of proceedings in the Crown Court).

(3) Where the court determines a pre-trial application in private, it must announce its decision in public.

[Note. See also the general rules in the first section of this Part (rules 3.1 to 3.12) and the other rules in this section.]

The Practice Direction lists the circumstances in which a further pre-trial case management hearing is likely to be needed in order to give directions for an effective trial.

There are rules relevant to applications which may be made at a pre-trial hearing in Part 6 (Reporting, etc. restrictions), Part 14 (Bail and custody time limits), Part 15 (Disclosure), Part 17 (Witness summonses, warrants and orders), Part 18 (Measures to assist a witness or defendant to give evidence), Part 19 (Expert evidence), Part 20 (Hearsay evidence), Part 21 (Evidence of bad character), Part 22 (Evidence of a complainant's previous sexual behaviour) and Part 23 (Restriction on cross-examination by a defendant).

On an application to which Part 14 (Bail and custody time limits) applies, rule 14.2 (exercise of court's powers under that Part) may require the defendant's presence, which may be by live link. Where rule 14.10 applies (Consideration of bail in a murder case), the court officer must arrange for the Crown Court to consider bail within 2 business days of the first hearing in the magistrates' court.

Under section 40 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(a), a pre-trial ruling about the admissibility of evidence or any other question of law is binding unless it later appears to the court in the interests of justice to discharge or vary that ruling.]

Preparatory hearing

3.14.—(1) This rule applies where the Crown Court—

- (a) can order a preparatory hearing, under—
 - (i) section 7 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987(b) (cases of serious or complex fraud), or
 - (ii) section 29 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(c) (other complex, serious or lengthy cases);
- (b) must order such a hearing, to determine an application for a trial without a jury, under—
 - (i) section 44 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(d) (danger of jury tampering), or
 - (ii) section 17 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004(e) (trial of sample counts by jury, and others by judge alone);
- (c) must order such a hearing, under section 29 of the 1996 Act, where section 29(1B) or (1C) applies (cases in which a terrorism offence is charged, or other serious cases with a terrorist connection).

(2) The court may decide whether to order a preparatory hearing—

- (a) on an application or on its own initiative;
- (b) at a hearing (in public or in private), or without a hearing;
- (c) in a party's absence, if that party—
 - (i) applied for the order, or
 - (ii) has had at least 14 days in which to make representations.

[Note. See also section 45(2) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and section 18(1) of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004.

At a preparatory hearing, the court may—

- (a) 1996 c. 25.
 - (b) 1987 c. 38; section 7 is amended by paragraph 30 of Schedule 9 to the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), sections 72 and 80 of, paragraph 2 of Schedule 3 to, and Schedule 5 to, the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25) and sections 45 and 310 of, and paragraphs 52 and 53 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).
 - (c) 1996 c. 25; section 29 is amended by sections 45, 309 and 310 of, and paragraphs 65 and 66 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and section 16 of the Terrorism Act 2006 (c. 11).
 - (d) 2003 c. 44.
 - (e) 2004 c. 28.

- (a) require the prosecution to set out its case in a written statement, to arrange its evidence in a form that will be easiest for the jury (if there is one) to understand, to prepare a list of agreed facts, and to amend the case statement following representations from the defence (section 9(4) of the 1987 Act, section 31(4) of the 1996 Act); and
- (b) require the defence to give notice of any objection to the prosecution case statement, and to give notice stating the extent of agreement with the prosecution as to documents and other matters and the reason for any disagreement (section 9(5) of the 1987 Act, section 31(6), (7), (9) of the 1996 Act).

Under section 10 of the 1987 Act(a), and under section 34 of the 1996 Act(b), if either party later departs from the case or objections disclosed by that party, then the court, or another party, may comment on that, and the court may draw such inferences as appear proper.]

Application for preparatory hearing

- 3.15.—(1) A party who wants the court to order a preparatory hearing must—
- (a) apply in writing—
 - (i) as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event
 - (ii) not more than 14 days after the defendant pleads not guilty;
 - (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party.
- (2) The applicant must—
- (a) if relevant, explain what legislation requires the court to order a preparatory hearing;
 - (b) otherwise, explain—
 - (i) what makes the case complex or serious, or makes the trial likely to be long,
 - (ii) why a substantial benefit will accrue from a preparatory hearing, and
 - (iii) why the court’s ordinary powers of case management are not adequate.
- (3) A prosecutor who wants the court to order a trial without a jury must explain—
- (a) where the prosecutor alleges a danger of jury tampering—
 - (i) what evidence there is of a real and present danger that jury tampering would take place,
 - (ii) what steps, if any, reasonably might be taken to prevent jury tampering, and
 - (iii) why, notwithstanding such steps, the likelihood of jury tampering is so substantial as to make it necessary in the interests of justice to order such a trial; or
 - (b) where the prosecutor proposes trial without a jury on some counts on the indictment—
 - (i) why a trial by jury involving all the counts would be impracticable,
 - (ii) how the counts proposed for jury trial can be regarded as samples of the others, and
 - (iii) why it would be in the interests of justice to order such a trial.

Application for non-jury trial containing information withheld from a defendant

- 3.16.—(1) This rule applies where—
- (a) the prosecutor applies for an order for a trial without a jury because of a danger of jury tampering; and

- (b) the application includes information that the prosecutor thinks ought not be revealed to a defendant.
- (2) The prosecutor must—
 - (a) omit that information from the part of the application that is served on that defendant;
 - (b) mark the other part to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and
 - (c) in that other part, explain why the prosecutor has withheld that information from that defendant.
- (3) The hearing of an application to which this rule applies—
 - (a) must be in private, unless the court otherwise directs; and
 - (b) if the court so directs, may be, wholly or in part, in the absence of a defendant from whom information has been withheld.
- (4) At the hearing of an application to which this rule applies—
 - (a) the general rule is that the court will receive, in the following sequence—
 - (i) representations first by the prosecutor and then by each defendant, in all the parties' presence, and then
 - (ii) further representations by the prosecutor, in the absence of a defendant from whom information has been withheld; but
 - (b) the court may direct other arrangements for the hearing.
- (5) Where, on an application to which this rule applies, the court orders a trial without a jury—
 - (a) the general rule is that the trial will be before a judge other than the judge who made the order; but
 - (b) the court may direct other arrangements.

Representations in response to application for preparatory hearing

- 3.17.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to make representations about—
- (a) an application for a preparatory hearing;

 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party;

- (3) Where representations include information that the person making them thinks ought not be revealed to another party, that person must—
- (a) omit that information from the representations served on that other party;
 - (b) mark the information to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and
 - (c) with that information include an explanation of why it has been withheld from that other party.
- (4) Representations against an application for an order must explain why the conditions for making it are not met.

Commencement of preparatory hearing

[Note. See section 8 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987(a) and section 30 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(b).]

 - (b) amending an indictment in any other respect.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise directs, the court officer must endorse any paper copy of each affected indictment made for the court with—
- (a) a note of the court’s order; and
 - (b) the date of that order.

Application for indication of sentence

- 3.23.—(1) This rule applies where a defendant wants the Crown Court to give an indication of the maximum sentence that would be passed if a guilty plea were entered when the indication is sought.
- (2) Such a defendant must—
- (a) apply in writing as soon as practicable; and

- (3) Where a count is placed before the defendant in writing, the court must summarise its gist aloud.
- (4) In respect of each count in the indictment—
- (a) if the defendant declines to enter a plea, the court must treat that as a not guilty plea unless rule 25.11 applies (Defendant unfit to plead);
 - (b) if the defendant pleads not guilty to the offence charged by that count but guilty to another offence of which the court could convict on that count—
 - (i) if the prosecutor and the court accept that plea, the court must treat the plea as one of guilty of that other offence, but
 - (ii) otherwise, the court must treat the plea as one of not guilty;
 - (c) if the defendant pleads a previous acquittal or conviction of the offence charged by that count—
 - (i) the defendant must identify that acquittal or conviction in writing, explaining the basis of that plea, and

(c) to hear a trial in private, for example for reasons of national security.

Under section 9(1) of the Contempt of Court Act 1981(a), it is a contempt of court without the court's permission to—

- (a) use in court, or bring into court for use, a device for recording sound;
- (b) publish a recording of legal proceedings made by means of such a device; or
- (c) use any such recording in contravention of any condition on which permission was granted.

Under section 41 of the Criminal Justice Act 1925(b), it is an offence to take or attempt to take a photograph, or with a view to publication to make or attempt to make a portrait or sketch, of any judge, juror, witness or party, in the courtroom, or in the building or in the precincts of the building in which the court is held, or while that person is entering or leaving the courtroom, building or precincts; or to publish such a photograph, portrait or sketch.

Section 32 of the Crime and Courts Act 2013(c) (Enabling the making, and use, of films and other recordings of proceedings) allows for exceptions to be made to the prohibitions imposed by section 9 of the 1981 Act and section 41 of the 1925 Act.

By reason of sections 15 and 45 of the Senior Courts Act 1981(d), the Court of Appeal and the Crown Court each has an inherent power to deal with a person for contempt of court for disrupting the proceedings. Under section 12 of the Contempt of Court Act 1981(e), a magistrates' court has a similar power.

- (f) where the application is for a reporting direction under section 46 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(b) (Power to restrict reports about certain adult witnesses in criminal proceedings), explain—

When this Part applies

7.1.—(1) This Part applies in a magistrates' court where—

- (a) a prosecutor wants the court to issue a summons or warrant under section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a);
- (b) a prosecutor with the power to do so issues—
 - (i) a written charge and requisition, or
 - (ii) a written charge and single justice procedure notice under section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(b);
- (c) a person who is in custody is charged with an offence.

(2) In this Part, 'authorised prosecutor' means a prosecutor authorised under section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 to issue a written charge and requisition or single justice procedure notice.

[Note. Under section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, on receiving a formal statement (described in that section as an 'information') alleging that someone has committed an offence, the court may issue—

- (a) a summons requiring that person to attend court; or*
- (b) a warrant for that person's arrest, if—*
 - (i) the alleged offence must or may be tried in the Crown Court,*
 - (ii) the alleged offence is punishable with imprisonment, or*
 - (iii) the person's address cannot be established sufficiently clearly to serve a summons or requisition.*

The powers of the court to which this Part applies may be exercised by a single justice of the peace.

Under section 29 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, a prosecutor authorised under that section may issue a written charge alleging that someone has committed an offence, and either—

- (a) a requisition requiring that person to attend court; or*

It is further amended by paragraphs 7 and 8 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), with effect from a date to be appointed.

(b) 2003 c. 44; section 29 has been brought into force for certain purposes only (see S.I. 2007/1999, 2008/1424, 2009/2879, 2010/3005, 2011/2188, 2012/825 and 2014/633). It was amended by section 50 of, and paragraph 130 of Schedule 4 to, the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11), section 59 of, and paragraph 196 of Schedule 4 to, the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (c. 15), section 15 of, and paragraph 187 of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22), S.I. 2014/834 and section 46 of the Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015 (c. 2).

(b) a notice that the single justice procedure under section 16A of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a) and rule 24.9 of these Rules applies.

Section 30 of the 2003 Act(b) contains other provisions about written charges, requisitions and single justice procedure notices.

A person detained under a power of arrest may be charged if the custody officer decides that there is sufficient evidence to do so. See sections 37 and 38 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984(c).]

Information and written charge

7.2.—(1) A prosecutor who wants the court to issue a summons must—

(2) A prosecutor who wants the court to issue a warrant must—

- (a) serve on the court officer—
 - (i) an information in writing, or

(4) A single document may contain—

- (a) more than one information; or

- (a) a prosecutor must serve an information on the court officer or present it to the court; or
- (b) an authorised prosecutor must issue a written charge,

not more than 6 months after the offence alleged.

(6) Where an offence can be tried in the Crown Court then—

- (a) a prosecutor must serve an information on the court officer or present it to the court; or
- (b) an authorised prosecutor must issue a written charge,

within any time limit that applies to that offence.

[Note. In some legislation, including the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, serving an information on the court officer or presenting it to the court is described as 'laying' that information.

(b) 2003 c. 44; section 30 has been brought into force for certain purposes only (see S.I. 2007/1999, 2008/1424, 2009/2879, 2010/3005, 2011/2188, 2012/825 and 2014/633). Section 38 was amended by section 108(5) of, and paragraph 53 of Schedule 13 to, the Children Act 1989 (c. 41), section 59 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), sections 24, 28 and 168(2) of, and paragraph 54 of Schedule 10 to, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), section 57 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (c. 43), section 5 of, and paragraph 44 of Schedule 32 and paragraph 5 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), section 23 of, and paragraphs 1 and 3 of Schedule 1 to, the Drugs Act 2005 (c. 17) and paragraph 34 of Schedule 11 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10).

The time limits for serving or presenting an information and for issuing a written charge are prescribed by section 127 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a) and section 30(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(b).

Part 46 (Representatives) contains rules allowing a member, officer or employee of a prosecutor, on the prosecutor's behalf, to—

- (a) serve on the court officer or present to the court an information; or*
- (b) issue a written charge and requisition.*

See Part 3 for the court's general powers of case management, including power to consider applications and give directions for (among other things) the amendment of an information or charge and for separate trials.

See also Part 32 (Breach, revocation and amendment of community and other orders). Rule 32.2(2) (Application by responsible officer) applies rules 7.2 to 7.4 to the procedure with which that rule deals.

The Practice Direction sets out forms of information for use in connection with this rule.]

Allegation of offence in information or charge

7.3.—(1) An allegation of an offence in an information or charge must contain—

- (a) a statement of the offence that—
 - (i) describes the offence in ordinary language, and
 - (ii) identifies any legislation that creates it; and
- (b) such particulars of the conduct constituting the commission of the offence as to make clear what the prosecutor alleges against the defendant.

(2) More than one incident of the commission of the offence may be included in the allegation if those incidents taken together amount to a course of conduct having regard to the time, place or purpose of commission.

Summons, warrant and requisition

7.4.—(1) The court may issue or withdraw a summons or warrant—

- (a) without giving the parties an opportunity to make representations; and

 - (ii) the written charge; and
 - (b) serve a copy of each on the court officer.
- (8) Unless it would be inconsistent with other legislation, a replacement summons or requisition may be issued without a fresh information or written charge where the one replaced—

 - (b) is shown not to have been received by the addressee.
- (9) A summons or requisition issued to a defendant under 18 may require that defendant’s parent or guardian to attend the court with the defendant, or a separate summons or requisition may be issued for that purpose.

[Note. Part 13 contains other rules about warrants.]

Section 47 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(a) and section 30(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 make special provision about time limits under other legislation for the issue and service of a summons or requisition, where service by post is not successful.

Section 34A of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933(b) allows, and in some cases requires, the court to summon the parent or guardian of a defendant under 18.]

Exercise of magistrates' court's powers

9.2.—(1) This rule applies to the exercise of the powers to which rules 9.6 to 9.14 apply.

(2) The general rule is that the court must exercise its powers at a hearing in public, but it may exercise any power it has to—

- (a) withhold information from the public; or
- (b) order a hearing in private.

(3) The general rule is that the court must exercise its powers in the defendant's presence, but it may exercise the powers to which the following rules apply in the defendant's absence on the conditions specified—

- (a) where rule 9.8 (Adult defendant: request for plea), rule 9.9 (Adult defendant: guilty plea) or rule 9.13 (Young defendant) applies, if—
 - (i) the defendant is represented, and
 - (ii) the defendant's disorderly conduct makes his or her presence in the courtroom impracticable;
- (b) where rule 9.10 (Adult defendant: not guilty plea) or rule 9.11 (Adult defendant: allocation for magistrates' court trial) applies, if—
 - (i) the defendant is represented and waives the right to be present, or
 - (ii) the defendant's disorderly conduct makes his or her presence in the courtroom impracticable.

(4) The court may exercise its power to adjourn—

- (a) if either party asks; or
- (b) on its own initiative.

(5) Where the court on the same occasion deals with two or more offences alleged against the same defendant, the court must deal with those offences in the following sequence—

- (a) any to which rule 9.6 applies (Prosecutor's notice requiring Crown Court trial);
- (b) any to which rule 9.7 applies (sending for Crown Court trial, without allocation there), in this sequence—
 - (i) any the court must send for trial, then
 - (ii) any the court can send for trial; and
- (c) any to which rule 9.14 applies (Allocation and sending for Crown Court trial).

(6) Where the court on the same occasion deals with two or more defendants charged jointly with an offence that can be tried in the Crown Court then in the following sequence—

- (a) the court must explain, in terms each defendant can understand (with help, if necessary), that if the court sends one of them to the Crown Court for trial then the court must send for trial in the Crown Court, too, any other of them—
 - (i) who is charged with the same offence as the defendant sent for trial, or with an offence which the court decides is related to that offence,

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 17E was inserted by paragraphs 1 and 3 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). Section 18 was amended by section 59 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 9 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48), section 68 of, and paragraph 6 of Schedule 8 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), section 49 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25), and paragraphs 1 and 4 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). Section 24D was inserted by paragraphs 1 and 10 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

- (ii) who does not wish to plead guilty to each offence with which he or she is charged, and
- (iii) (if that other defendant is under 18, and the court would not otherwise have sent him or her for Crown Court trial) where the court decides that sending is necessary in the interests of justice even if the court by then has decided to allocate that other defendant for magistrates' court trial; and

- (b) the court may ask the defendants questions to help it decide in what order to deal with them.
- (7) After following paragraph (5), if it applies, where the court on the same occasion—
- (a) deals with two or more defendants charged jointly with an offence that can be tried in the Crown Court;
 - (b) allocates any of them to a magistrates' court for trial; and
 - (c) then sends another one of them to the Crown Court for trial, the court must deal again with each one whom, on that occasion, it has allocated for magistrates' court trial.

[Note. See sections 50A, 51, 51A and 52 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(a) and sections 17A, 17B, 17C, 18, 23, 24A, 24B and 24C of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(b).

Under sections 57A to 57E of the 1998 Act(c), the court may require a defendant to attend by live link a hearing to which this Part applies.

Where a defendant waives the right to be present then the court may nonetheless require his or her attendance by summons or warrant: see section 26 of the 1980 Act(d).

Under section 52A of the 1998 Act(e), reporting restrictions apply to the proceedings to which rules 9.6 to 9.14 apply.

Part 46 contains rules allowing a representative to act on a defendant's behalf for the purposes of these Rules.

Part 3 contains rules about the court's powers of case management.]

SENDING WITHOUT ALLOCATION FOR CROWN COURT TRIAL

Prosecutor's notice requiring Crown Court trial

9.6.—(1) This rule applies where a prosecutor with power to do so requires a magistrates' court to send for trial in the Crown Court—

- (a) a case of serious or complex fraud; or
 - (b) a case which will involve a child witness.
- (2) The prosecutor must serve written notice of that requirement—
- (a) on the magistrates' court officer and on the defendant; and
 - (b) before trial in a magistrates' court begins under Part 24 (Trial and sentence in a magistrates' court).
- (3) The notice must identify—
- (a) the power on which the prosecutor relies; and
 - (b) the Crown Court centre at which the prosecutor wants the trial to take place.

(a) 1976 c. 63; section 5 was amended by section 65 of, and Schedule 12 to, the Criminal Law Act 1977 (c. 45), section 60 of the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48), paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), paragraph 53 of Schedule 9 to the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (c. 6), section 129(1) of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001 (c. 16), paragraph 182 of Schedule 8 to the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39), paragraph 48 of Schedule 3, paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 36, and Parts 2, 4 and 12 of Schedule 37 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and section 208 of, and paragraphs 33 and 35 of Schedule 21 to, the Legal Services Act 2007 (c. 27).

 - (b) may change the centre identified before the case is sent for trial.

[Note. Under section 51B of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(a), the Director of Public Prosecutions or a Secretary of State may require the court to send a case for trial in the Crown Court if, in that prosecutor’s opinion, the evidence of the offence charged—

- (a) is sufficient for the person charged to be put on trial for the offence; and*
- (b) reveals a case of fraud of such seriousness or complexity that it is appropriate that the management of the case should without delay be taken over by the Crown Court.*

Under section 51C of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(b), the Director of Public Prosecutions may require the court to send for trial in the Crown Court a case involving one of certain specified violent or sexual offences if, in the Director’s opinion—

- (b) a child would be called as a witness at the trial; and*
- (c) for the purpose of avoiding any prejudice to the welfare of the child, the case should be taken over and proceeded with without delay by the Crown Court.*

‘Child’ for these purposes is defined by section 51C(7) of the 1998 Act.]

Sending for Crown Court trial

9.7.—(1) This rule applies where a magistrates’ court must, or can, send a defendant to the Crown Court for trial without first allocating the case for trial there.

- (2) The court must read the allegation of the offence to the defendant.
- (3) The court must explain, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—
 - (a) the allegation, unless it is self-explanatory;
 - (b) that the offence is one for which the court, as appropriate—
 - (i) must send the defendant to the Crown Court for trial because the offence is one which can only be tried there or because the court for some other reason is required to send that offence for trial,
 - (ii) may send the defendant to the Crown Court for trial if the magistrates’ court decides that the offence is related to one already sent for trial there, or
 - (iii) (where the offence is low-value shoplifting and the defendant is 18 or over) must send the defendant to the Crown Court for trial if the defendant wants to be tried there;
 - (c) that reporting restrictions apply, which the defendant may ask the court to vary or remove.
- (4) In the following sequence, the court must then—
 - (a) invite the prosecutor to—
 - (i) identify the court’s power to send the defendant to the Crown Court for trial for the offence, and

(a) 1998 c. 37; section 51B was inserted by paragraphs 15 and 18 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and amended by section 50 of, and paragraph 69 of Schedule 4 to, the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11) and paragraphs 46 and 48 of Schedule 5 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10).

- (ii) make representations about any ancillary matters, including bail and directions for the management of the case in the Crown Court;
 - (b) invite the defendant to make representations about—
 - (i) the court’s power to send the defendant to the Crown Court, and
 - (ii) any ancillary matters;
 - (c) (where the offence is low-value shoplifting and the defendant is 18 or over) offer the defendant the opportunity to require trial in the Crown Court; and
 - (d) decide whether or not to send the defendant to the Crown Court for trial.
- (5) If the court sends the defendant to the Crown Court for trial, it must—
- (a) ask whether the defendant intends to plead guilty in the Crown Court and—
 - (i) if the answer is ‘yes’, make arrangements for the Crown Court to take the defendant’s plea as soon as possible, or
 - (ii) if the defendant does not answer, or the answer is ‘no’, make arrangements for a case management hearing in the Crown Court; and
 - (b) give any other ancillary directions.

[Note. See sections 51, 51A and 51E of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(a), and sections 22A and 24A of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(b).

ALLOCATION FOR MAGISTRATES’ COURT OR CROWN COURT TRIAL

Adult defendant: request for plea

- 9.8.—(1) This rule applies where—
- (a) the defendant is 18 or over; and

- (2) The court must read the allegation of the offence to the defendant.
- (3) The court must explain, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—
- (a) the allegation, unless it is self-explanatory;
 - (b) that the offence is one which can be tried in a magistrates’ court or in the Crown Court;
 - (c) that the court is about to ask whether the defendant intends to plead guilty;
 - (d) that if the answer is ‘yes’, then the court must treat that as a guilty plea and must sentence the defendant, or commit the defendant to the Crown Court for sentence;
 - (e) that if the defendant does not answer, or the answer is ‘no’, then—
 - (i) the court must decide whether to allocate the case to a magistrates’ court or to the Crown Court for trial,
 - (ii) the value involved may require the court to order trial in a magistrates’ court (where the offence is one to which section 22 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(c) applies), and

(a) 1998 c. 37; section 51 was substituted, and sections 51A and 51E inserted, by paragraphs 15 and 18 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). - (iii) if the court allocates the case to a magistrates' court for trial, the defendant can nonetheless require trial in the Crown Court (unless the offence is one to which section 22 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 applies and the value involved requires magistrates' court trial); and
 - (f) that reporting restrictions apply, which the defendant may ask the court to vary or remove.
- (4) The court must then ask whether the defendant intends to plead guilty.

[Note. See section 17A of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a).

For the circumstances in which a magistrates' court may (and in some cases must) commit a defendant to the Crown Court for sentence after that defendant has indicated an intention to plead guilty where this rule applies, see sections 4 and 6 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(b).

- (a) rule 9.8 applies; and
- (b) the defendant—

 - (ii) gives no indication of intended plea.

(2) In the following sequence, the court must then—

- (a) where the offence is one to which section 22 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 applies, explain in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary) that—
 - (i) if the court decides that the value involved clearly is less than £5,000, the court must order trial in a magistrates' court,
 - (ii) if the court decides that it is not clear whether that value is more or less than £5,000, then the court will ask whether the defendant agrees to be tried in a magistrates' court, and
 - (iii) if the answer to that question is 'yes', then the court must order such a trial and if the defendant is convicted then the maximum sentence is limited;
- (b) invite the prosecutor to—

- (d) where the offence is one to which section 22 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 applies—
 - (i) if it is not clear whether the value involved is more or less than £5,000, ask whether the defendant agrees to be tried in a magistrates' court,
 - (ii) if the defendant's answer to that question is 'yes', or if that value clearly is less than £5,000, order a trial in a magistrates' court,
 - (iii) if the defendant does not answer that question, or the answer is 'no', or if that value clearly is more than £5,000, apply paragraph (2)(e);
- (e) exercise its power to allocate the case for trial, taking into account—
 - (i) the adequacy of a magistrates' court's sentencing powers,
 - (ii) any representations by the parties, and
 - (iii) any allocation guidelines issued by the Sentencing Council.

[Note. See sections 17A, 18, 19, 22 and 24A of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a).]

Under section 22 of the 1980 Act, some offences, which otherwise could be tried in a magistrates' court or in the Crown Court, must be tried in a magistrates' court in the circumstances described in this rule.

The convictions of which the court may take account are those specified by section 19 of the 1980 Act.

The Sentencing Council may issue allocation guidelines under section 122 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009(b).]

Adult defendant: allocation for magistrates' court trial

9.11.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) rule 9.10 applies; and
- (b) the court allocates the case to a magistrates' court for trial.

(2) The court must explain, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary) that—

- (a) the court considers the case more suitable for trial in a magistrates' court than in the Crown Court;
- (b) if the defendant is convicted at a magistrates' court trial, then in some circumstances the court may commit the defendant to the Crown Court for sentence;
- (c) if the defendant does not agree to a magistrates' court trial, then the court must send the defendant to the Crown Court for trial; and
- (d) before deciding whether to accept magistrates' court trial, the defendant may ask the court for an indication of whether a custodial or non-custodial sentence is more likely in the event of a guilty plea at such a trial, but the court need not give such an indication.

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 18 was amended by section 59 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 9 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48), section 68 of, and paragraph 6 of Schedule 8 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), section 49 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25), and paragraphs 1 and 4 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). Section 19 was substituted by paragraphs 1 and 5 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and amended by sections 144, 177 and 178 of, and paragraph 4 of Schedule 17, paragraph 80 of Schedule 21 and Part 5 of Schedule 23 to, the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25).

(b) 2009 c. 25.

(3) If the defendant asks for such an indication of sentence and the court gives such an indication—

- (a) the court must then ask again whether the defendant intends to plead guilty;
- (b) if, in answer to that question, the defendant indicates an intention to plead guilty, then the court must exercise its power to deal with the case—
 - (i) as if the defendant had just pleaded guilty to an offence that can be tried only in a magistrates' court, and
 - (ii) in accordance with rule 24.11 (Procedure if the court convicts);
- (c) if, in answer to that question, the defendant indicates an intention to plead not guilty, or gives no indication of intended plea, in the following sequence the court must then—
 - (i) ask whether the defendant agrees to trial in a magistrates' court,
 - (ii) if the defendant's answer to that question is 'yes', order such a trial,
 - (iii) if the defendant does not answer that question, or the answer is 'no', apply rule 9.14.

(4) If the defendant asks for an indication of sentence but the court gives none, or if the defendant does not ask for such an indication, in the following sequence the court must then—

- (a) ask whether the defendant agrees to trial in a magistrates' court;
- (b) if the defendant's answer to that question is 'yes', order such a trial;
- (c) if the defendant does not answer that question, or the answer is 'no', apply rule 9.14.

[Note. See section 20 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a).

For the circumstances in which a magistrates' court may (and in some cases must) commit a defendant to the Crown Court for sentence after that defendant has been convicted at a magistrates' court trial, see sections 3, 3A, 3C, and 6 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(b).

For the circumstances in which an indication of sentence to which this rule applies restricts the sentencing powers of a court, see section 20A of the 1980 Act(c).]

Adult defendant: prosecutor's application for Crown Court trial

9.12.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) rule 9.11 applies;
- (b) the defendant agrees to trial in a magistrates' court; but
- (c) the prosecutor wants the court to exercise its power to send the defendant to the Crown Court for trial instead.

(2) The prosecutor must—

- (a) apply before trial in a magistrates' court begins under Part 24 (Trial and sentence in a magistrates' court); and
- (b) notify—
 - (i) the defendant, and
 - (ii) the magistrates' court officer.

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 20 was amended by section 100 of, and paragraph 25 of Schedule 11 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), paragraph 63 of Schedule 9 to the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (c. 6) and paragraphs 1 and 6 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(b) 2000 c. 6; sections 3 and 6 were amended, and sections 3A and 3C inserted, by paragraphs 21, 22A, 23 and 28 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). Section 3A was amended by section 53 of, and paragraphs 1 and 9 of Schedule 13 to, the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4) and paragraphs 7 and 8 of Schedule 21 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10). Section 3C was amended by paragraphs 7 and 9 of Schedule 21 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10). Section 6 was further amended by paragraphs 90 and 91 of Schedule 32, and Parts 7 and 9 of Schedule 37, to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(c) 1980 c. 43; section 20A was inserted by paragraphs 1 and 6 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(3) The court must determine an application to which this rule applies before it deals with any other pre-trial application.

[Note. See sections 8A and 25 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a). Under section 25(2B), the court may grant an application to which this rule applies only if it is satisfied that the sentence which a magistrates' court would have power to impose would be inadequate.]

Young defendant

9.13.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) the defendant is under 18; and
- (b) the court must decide whether to send the defendant for Crown Court trial instead of ordering trial in a youth court.

(2) The court must read the allegation of the offence to the defendant.

(3) The court must explain, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—

- (a) the allegation, unless it is self-explanatory;
- (b) that the offence is one which can be tried in the Crown Court instead of in a youth court;
- (c) that the court is about to ask whether the defendant intends to plead guilty;
- (d) that if the answer is 'yes', then the court must treat that as a guilty plea and must sentence the defendant, or commit the defendant to the Crown Court for sentence;
- (e) that if the defendant does not answer, or the answer is 'no', then the court must decide whether to send the defendant for Crown Court trial instead of ordering trial in a youth court; and
- (f) that reporting restrictions apply, which the defendant may ask the court to vary or remove.

(4) The court must then ask whether the defendant intends to plead guilty.

(5) If the defendant's answer to that question is 'yes', the court must exercise its power to deal with the case—

- (a) as if the defendant had just pleaded guilty at a trial in a youth court; and
- (b) in accordance with rule 24.11 (Procedure if the court convicts).

(6) If the defendant does not answer that question, or the answer is 'no', in the following sequence the court must then—

- (a) invite the prosecutor to make representations about whether Crown Court or youth court trial is more appropriate;
- (b) invite the defendant to make such representations;
- (c) exercise its power to allocate the case for trial, taking into account—
 - (i) the offence and the circumstances of the offence,
 - (ii) the suitability of a youth court's sentencing powers,
 - (iii) where the defendant is jointly charged with an adult, whether it is necessary in the interests of justice for them to be tried together in the Crown Court, and
 - (iv) any representations by the parties.

[Note. See section 24A of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(b).]

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 8A was inserted by section 45 of, and Schedule 3 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39) and amended by SI 2006/2493 and paragraphs 12 and 14 of Schedule 5 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10). (b) 1980 c. 43; section 24A was inserted by paragraphs 1 and 10 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

For the circumstances in which a magistrates' court may (and in some cases must) commit a defendant who is under 18 to the Crown Court for sentence after that defendant has indicated a guilty plea, see sections 3B, 3C, 4A and 6 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(a).]

9.14.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) under rule 9.10 or rule 9.13, the court allocates the case to the Crown Court for trial;
- (b) under rule 9.11, the defendant does not agree to trial in a magistrates' court; or
- (c) under rule 9.12, the court grants the prosecutor's application for Crown Court trial.

(2) In the following sequence, the court must—

- (a) invite the prosecutor to make representations about any ancillary matters, including bail and directions for the management of the case in the Crown Court;
- (b) invite the defendant to make any such representations; and
- (c) exercise its powers to—

- (b) the prosecutor serves on the defendant copies of the documents containing the evidence on which the prosecution case relies.

(2) The prosecutor must at the same time serve copies of those documents on the Crown Court officer.

Service of indictment

10.1.—(1) The prosecutor must serve a draft indictment on the Crown Court officer not more than 28 days after—

- (a) service on the defendant and on the Crown Court officer of copies of the documents containing the evidence on which the charge or charges are based, in a case where the defendant is sent for trial;
 - (b) a High Court judge gives permission to serve a draft indictment;

- (3) Unless the Crown Court otherwise directs, the court officer must—

 - (i) a note to identify it as the indictment served under this rule, and
 - (ii) the date on which the draft indictment was served on the court officer; and
 - (b) serve a copy of the indictment on all parties.

[Note. In some other legislation, serving a draft indictment on the Crown Court officer is described as “preferring a bill of indictment”. Under section 2(1) of the Administration of Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1933, a draft indictment (“bill of indictment”) becomes an indictment when it is so served (“preferred”).]

See Part 3 for the court’s general powers of case management, including power to consider applications and give directions for (among other things) the amendment of an indictment and for separate trials under section 5 of the Indictments Act 1915.

Section 5 was amended by section 12 of, and paragraph 8 of Schedule 2 to, the Bail Act 1976 (c. 63), section 31 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985 (c. 23) and section 331 of, and paragraph 40 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

A magistrates' court may send a defendant for trial in the Crown Court under section 51 or 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(a). Under section 51D of that Act(b) the magistrates' court must notify the Crown Court of the offence or offences for which the defendant is sent for trial. Paragraph 1 of Schedule 3 to that Act(c), and the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (Service of Prosecution Evidence) Regulations 2005(d), deal with the service of prosecution evidence in a case sent for trial. See Part 9 for the procedure on allocation and sending for trial.

The procedure for applying for the permission of a High Court judge to serve a draft indictment is in rules 6 to 10 of the Indictments (Procedure) Rules 1971(e). See also the Practice Direction.

The Court of Appeal may order a retrial under section 8 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968(f) (on a defendant's appeal against conviction) or under section 77 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(g) (on a prosecutor's application for the retrial of a serious offence after acquittal). Section 8 of the 1968 Act and section 84 of the 2003 Act require the arraignment of a defendant within 2 months. See also rules 27.6 and 39.14.

With effect from 30th August 2013, Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 abolished committal for trial under section 6 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(h), and transfer for trial under section 4 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987(i) (serious fraud cases) or under section 53 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991(j) (certain cases involving children).]

- (e) the court office for the court that issued it.

(2) A warrant for detention or imprisonment must contain a record of any decision by the court under—

- (a) section 91 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012(a) (remands of children otherwise than on bail), including in particular—
 - (i) whether the defendant must be detained in local authority accommodation or youth detention accommodation,
 - (ii) the local authority designated by the court,

(3) A warrant that contains an error is not invalid, as long as—

- (a) it was issued in respect of a lawful decision by the court; and
- (b) it contains enough information to identify that decision.

[Note. See sections 93(7) and 102(5) of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012. Under section 91 of the Act, instead of granting bail to a defendant under 18 the court may—

- (a) remand him or her to local authority accommodation and, after consulting with that authority, impose on the defendant a condition that the court could impose if granting bail; or
- (b) remand him or her to youth detention accommodation, if the defendant is at least 12 years old and the other conditions, about the offence and the defendant, prescribed by the Act are met.

It is further amended by paragraphs 58 and 63 of Part II of Schedule 7 to the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (c. 43) and Part 7 of Schedule 37 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), with effect from dates to be appointed.

Under section 80 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, the court may decide that any money found on the defendant must not be applied towards payment of the sum for which a warrant is issued under section 76 of that Act (enforcement of sums adjudged to be paid).

See section 82(6) of the 1980 Act. Under section 82(1) and (4), the court may only issue a warrant for the defendant's imprisonment for non-payment of a sum due where it finds that the prescribed conditions are met.

Bail condition to be enforced in another European Union member State

14.16.—(1) This rule applies where the court can impose as a condition of bail pending trial a requirement—

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 119 was amended by section 77 of, and paragraph 55 of Schedule 14 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48).

(b) 1980 c. 43; section 120 was amended by section 55 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) and section 62 of, and paragraphs 45 and 56 of Schedule 13 to, the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15).

- (a) with which the defendant must comply while in another European Union member State; and
 - (b) which that other member State can monitor and enforce.
- (2) The court—
- (a) must not exercise its power to impose such a requirement until the court has decided what, if any, condition or conditions of bail to impose while the defendant is in England and Wales;
 - (b) subject to that, may exercise its power to make a request for the other member State to monitor and enforce that requirement.
- (3) Where the court makes such a request, the court officer must—
- (a) issue a certificate requesting the monitoring and enforcement of the defendant’s compliance with that requirement, in the form required by EU Council Framework Decision 2009/829/JHA;
 - (b) serve on the relevant authority of the other member State—

 - (c) report to the court—
 - (i) any request for further information returned by the competent authority in the other member State, and
 - (ii) that authority’s decision.
- (4) Where the competent authority in the other member State agrees to monitor and enforce the requirement—
- (a) the court—

 - (b) the court officer must immediately serve notice on that authority if—
 - (i) legal proceedings are brought in relation to the requirement being monitored and enforced
 - (ii) the court decides to vary or revoke that requirement, or to issue a warrant for the defendant’s arrest; and
 - (c) the court officer must promptly report to the court any information and any request received from that authority.

[Note. See regulations 77 to 84 of the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014(a).

Where a defendant is to live or stay in another European Union member State pending trial in England and Wales, the court may grant bail subject to a requirement to be monitored and enforced by the competent authority in that other state. The types of requirement that can be monitored and enforced are set out in Article 8 of EU Council Framework Decision 2009/829/JHA. A list of those requirements is at the end of this Part.

(a) S.I. 2014/3141.

Under regulation 80 of the 2014 Regulations, where the conditions listed in that regulation are met the court may withdraw a request for the competent authority in another member State to monitor and enforce the defendant's compliance with a requirement.]

Enforcement of measure imposed in another European Union member State

14.17.—(1) This rule applies where the Lord Chancellor serves on the court officer a certificate requesting the monitoring and enforcement of a defendant's compliance with a supervision measure imposed by an authority in another European Union member State.

- (2) The court officer must arrange for the court to consider the request—
- (a) as a general rule—
 - (i) within 20 business days of the date on which the Lord Chancellor received it from the requesting authority, or
 - (ii) within 40 business days of that date, if legal proceedings in relation to the supervision measure are brought within the first 20 business days;
 - (b) exceptionally, later than that, but in such a case the court officer must immediately serve on the requesting authority—
 - (i) an explanation for the delay, and
 - (ii) an indication of when the court's decision is expected.
- (3) On consideration of the request by the court, the court officer must—
- (a) without delay serve on the requesting authority—
 - (i) notice of any further information required by the court, and
 - (ii) subject to any such requirement and any response, notice of the court's decision; and
 - (b) where the court agrees to monitor the supervision measure, serve notice of the court's decision on any supervisor specified by the court.
- (4) Where the court agrees to monitor the supervision measure—
- (a) the court officer must immediately serve notice on the requesting authority if there is reported to the court—
 - (i) a breach of the measure, or
 - (ii) any other event that might cause the requesting authority to review its decision;
 - (b) the court officer must without delay serve notice on the requesting authority if—
 - (i) legal proceedings are brought in relation to the decision to monitor compliance with the bail condition,
 - (ii) there is reported to the court a change of the defendant's residence, or
 - (iii) the court decides (where it can) to stop monitoring the defendant's compliance with the measure.

[Note. See regulations 85 to 94 of the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014.

Where the Lord Chancellor receives a request for the monitoring and enforcement in England and Wales of a supervision measure ordered in another European Union member State, a magistrates' court to which the request is given must monitor and enforce that measure unless one of the specified grounds for refusal applies. The grounds for refusal are listed at the end of this Part.

Under regulation 91 of the 2014 Regulations, the defendant may be arrested for breach of the measure and subsequently detained by the court for up to 28 days (or 21 days, in the case of a defendant who is under 18).

Under regulation 90 of the 2014 Regulations, the magistrates' court may cease the monitoring and enforcement where the requesting authority takes no further decision in response to notice of a breach of the measure. Under regulation 93, the court ceases to be responsible for the monitoring and enforcement of the measure where regulation 90 applies and in the other cases listed in regulation 93.]

CUSTODY TIME LIMITS

Application to extend a custody time limit

14.18.—(1) This rule applies where the prosecutor gives notice of application to extend a custody time limit.

(2) The court officer must arrange for the court to hear that application as soon as practicable after the expiry of—

- (a) 5 days from the giving of notice, in the Crown Court; or
- (b) 2 days from the giving of notice, in a magistrates' court.

(3) The court may shorten a time limit under this rule.

[Note. See regulation 7 of the Prosecution of Offences (Custody Time Limits) Regulations 1987(a).

Under regulations 4 and 5 of the 1987 Regulations(b), unless the court extends the time limit the maximum period during which the defendant may be in pre-trial custody is—

- (a) in a case which can be tried only in a magistrates' court, 56 days pending the beginning of the trial;
- (b) in a magistrates' court, in a case which can be tried either in that court or in the Crown Court—
 - (i) 70 days, pending the beginning of a trial in the magistrates' court, or
 - (ii) 56 days, pending the beginning of a trial in the magistrates' court, if the court decides on such a trial during that period;
- (c) in the Crown Court, pending the beginning of the trial, 182 days from the sending of the defendant for trial, less any period or periods during which the defendant was in custody in the magistrates' court.

Under section 22(3) of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985(c), the court cannot extend a custody time limit which has expired, and must not extend such a time limit unless satisfied—

- (a) that the need for the extension is due to—
 - (i) the illness or absence of the accused, a necessary witness, a judge or a magistrate,
 - (ii) a postponement which is occasioned by the ordering by the court of separate trials in the case of two or more defendants or two or more offences, or
 - (iii) some other good and sufficient cause; and
- (b) that the prosecution has acted with all due diligence and expedition.]

Summary of the general entitlement to bail and of the exceptions

The court must consider bail whenever it can order the defendant's detention pending trial or sentencing, or in an extradition case, and whether an application is made or not. Under section 4 of the Bail Act 1976(b), the general rule, subject to exceptions, is that a defendant must be granted

(a) 1985 c. 23; section 22(7) and (8) was amended by section 43 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37).
 (b) 1976 c. 63; section 4 was amended by section 154 of, and paragraph 145 of Schedule 7 to, the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (c. 43), section 168 of, and paragraphs 32 and 33 of Schedule 10 to, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), section 58 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (c. 43), sections 198 and 220 of, and Schedule 4 to, the Extradition Act 2003 (c. 41), section 304 of, and paragraphs 20 and 22 of Schedule 32 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), section 42 of, and paragraph 34 of Schedule 13 to, the Police and Justice Act 2006 (c. 48), sections 6 and 148 of, and paragraphs 23 and 102 of Schedule 4 and Part 1 of Schedule 28 to, the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4) and paragraph 19 of Schedule 7, and Schedule 8, to the Policing and Crime Act 2009 (c. 26).

bail. Under Part IIA of Schedule 1 to the Act(a), if the court decides not to grant the defendant bail then at each subsequent hearing the court must consider whether to grant bail.

Section 3 of the Bail Act 1976(b) allows the court, before granting bail, to require a surety or security to secure the defendant's surrender to custody; and allows the court, on granting bail, to impose such requirements as appear to the court to be necessary—

- (a) to secure that the defendant surrenders to custody;*
- (b) to secure that the defendant does not commit an offence while on bail;*
- (c) to secure that the defendant does not interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice whether in relation to the defendant or any other person;*
- (d) for the defendant's own protection or, if a child or young person, for the defendant's welfare or in the defendant's own interests;*
- (e) to secure the defendant's availability for the purpose of enabling enquiries or a report to be made to assist the court in dealing with the defendant for the offence;*
- (f) to secure that before the time appointed for surrender to custody the defendant attends an interview with a legal representative.*

Under section 3 of the Bail Act 1976, a person granted bail in criminal proceedings is under a duty to surrender to custody as required by that bail. Under section 6 of the Act, such a person who fails without reasonable cause so to surrender commits an offence and, under section 7, may be arrested.

Exceptions to the general right to bail are listed in Schedule 1 to the Bail Act 1976(c). They differ according to the category of offence concerned. Under section 4(2B) of the 1976 Act(d), in an extradition case there is no general right to bail where the defendant is alleged to have been convicted in the territory requesting extradition.

Under Part I of Schedule 1 to the 1976 Act, where the offence is punishable with imprisonment, and is not one that can be tried only in a magistrates' court, or in an extradition case—

- (a) the defendant need not be granted bail if the court is satisfied that—*
 - (i) there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would fail to surrender to custody, would commit an offence, or would interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice,*
 - (ii) there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would commit an offence by engaging in conduct that would, or would be likely to, cause physical or mental injury to an associated person*

(d) 1976 c. 63; section 4(2B) was inserted by section 198 of the Extradition Act 2003 (c. 41) and amended by paragraph 34 of Schedule 13 to the Police and Justice Act 2006 (c. 48).

(within the meaning of section 33 of the Family Law Act 1996), or cause that person to fear injury,

- (iii) the defendant should be kept in custody for his or her own protection or welfare, or*
- (iv) it has not been practicable, for want of time since the institution of the proceedings, to obtain sufficient information for the court to take the decisions required;*
- (b) the defendant need not be granted bail if it appears to the court that the defendant was on bail at the time of the offence (this exception does not apply in an extradition case);*
- (c) the defendant need not be granted bail if, having been released on bail in the case on a previous occasion, the defendant since has been arrested for breach of bail;*
- (d) the defendant need not be granted bail if in custody pursuant to a sentence;*
- (e) the defendant need not be granted bail if it appears to the court that it would be impracticable to complete enquiries or a report for which the case is to be adjourned without keeping the defendant in custody;*
- (f) the defendant may not be granted bail if charged with murder, unless the court is of the opinion that there is no significant risk of the defendant committing an offence while on bail that would, or would be likely to, cause physical or mental injury to some other person;*
- (g) the defendant in an extradition case need not be granted bail if he or she was on bail on the date of the alleged offence and that offence is not one that could be tried only in a magistrates' court if it were committed in England or Wales.*

Exceptions (a)(i), (b) and (c) do not apply where—

- (a) the defendant is 18 or over;*
- (b) the defendant has not been convicted of an offence in those proceedings; and*
- (c) it appears to the court that there is no real prospect that the defendant will be sentenced to a custodial sentence in those proceedings.*

In deciding whether an exception to the right to bail applies the court must have regard to any relevant consideration, including—

- (a) the nature and seriousness of the offence, and the probable method of dealing with the defendant for it;*
- (b) the character, antecedents, associations and community ties of the defendant;*
- (c) the defendant's record of fulfilling obligations imposed under previous grants of bail; and*
- (d) except where the case is adjourned for enquires or a report, the strength of the evidence of the defendant having committed the offence.*

Under Part IA of Schedule 1 to the 1976 Act, where the offence is punishable with imprisonment, and is one that can be tried only in a magistrates' court—

- (a) the defendant need not be granted bail if it appears to the court that—*
 - (i) having previously been granted bail in criminal proceedings, the defendant has failed to surrender as required and, in view of that failure, the court believes that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would fail to surrender to custody, or*
 - (ii) the defendant was on bail on the date of the offence and the court is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would commit an offence while on bail;*
- (b) the defendant need not be granted bail if the court is satisfied that—*
 - (i) there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would commit an offence while on bail by engaging in conduct that would, or would be likely to, cause physical or mental injury to some other person, or cause some other person to fear such injury,*

- (ii) the defendant should be kept in custody for his or her own protection or welfare, or
- (iii) it has not been practicable, for want of time since the institution of the proceedings, to obtain sufficient information for the court to take the decisions required;
- (c) the defendant need not be granted bail if in custody pursuant to a sentence;
- (d) the defendant need not be granted bail if, having been released on bail in the case on a previous occasion, the defendant since has been arrested for breach of bail, and the court is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would fail to surrender to custody, would commit an offence, or would interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice.

Exceptions (a) and (d) do not apply where—

- (a) the defendant is 18 or over;
- (b) the defendant has not been convicted of an offence in those proceedings; and
- (c) it appears to the court that there is no real prospect that the defendant will be sentenced to a custodial sentence in those proceedings.

Under Part II of Schedule 1 to the 1976 Act, where the offence is not punishable with imprisonment—

- (a) the defendant need not be granted bail if it appears to the court that having previously been granted bail in criminal proceedings, the defendant has failed to surrender as required and, in view of that failure, the court believes that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would fail to surrender to custody;
- (b) the defendant need not be granted bail if the court is satisfied that the defendant should be kept in custody for his or her own protection or welfare;
- (c) the defendant need not be granted bail if in custody pursuant to a sentence;
- (d) the defendant need not be granted bail if, having been released on bail in the case on a previous occasion, the defendant since has been arrested for breach of bail, and the court is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would fail to surrender to custody, would commit an offence, or would interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice;
- (e) the defendant need not be granted bail if, having been released on bail in the case on a previous occasion, the defendant since has been arrested for breach of bail, and the court is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released on bail (with or without conditions), the defendant would commit an offence while on bail by engaging in conduct that would, or would be likely to, cause physical or mental injury to an associated person (within the meaning of section 33 of the Family Law Act 1996), or to cause that person to fear such injury.

Exceptions (a) and (d) apply only where—

- (a) the defendant is under 18; and
- (b) the defendant has been convicted in those proceedings.

Further exceptions to the general right to bail are set out in section 25 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994(a), under which a defendant charged with murder, attempted murder, manslaughter, rape or another sexual offence specified in that section, and who has been previously convicted of such an offence, may be granted bail only if there are exceptional circumstances which justify it.

(a) 1994 c. 33; section 25 was amended by section 56 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37), paragraph 160 of Schedule 9 to the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (c. 6), paragraph 32 of Schedule 6 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (c. 42), paragraph 67 of Schedule 32 and Schedule 37 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44), article 16 of S.I. 2008/1779, paragraph 3 of Schedule 17, and Schedule 23, to the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25) and paragraph 33 of Schedule 11 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10).

Requirements that may be monitored and enforced in another European Union member State

Under Article 8(1) of EU Council Framework Decision 2009/829/JHA of 23rd October, 2009, on the application of the principle of mutual recognition to decisions on supervision measures as an alternative to provisional detention, the following are the requirements that may be monitored and enforced in a European Union member State ('the monitoring State') other than the state in which they were imposed as a condition of bail—

Under Article 8(2) of the Framework Decision, other measures that a monitoring State may be prepared to monitor may include—

- (a) an obligation not to engage in specified activities in relation to the offence or offences allegedly committed, which may include involvement in a specified profession or field of employment;*
- (b) an obligation not to drive a vehicle;*
- (c) an obligation to deposit a certain sum of money or to give another type of guarantee, which may either be provided through a specified number of instalments or entirely at once;*
- (d) an obligation to undergo therapeutic treatment or treatment for addiction; or*
- (e) an obligation to avoid contact with specific objects in relation to the offence or offences allegedly committed.*

Grounds for refusing to monitor and enforce a supervision measure imposed in another European Union member State

Under Schedule 6 to the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014(a), the grounds for refusal are—

- (a) the certificate requesting monitoring under the Framework Decision—*
 - (i) is incomplete or obviously does not correspond to the decision on supervision measures, and*
 - (ii) is not completed or corrected within a period specified by the court;*
- (b) where the defendant subject to the decision on supervision measures is lawfully and ordinarily resident in England and Wales, the defendant has not consented to return there with a view to the supervision measures being monitored there under the Framework Decision;*
- (c) where the defendant subject to the decision on supervision measures is not lawfully and ordinarily resident in England and Wales, the defendant—*
 - (i) has not asked for a request to be made for monitoring of the supervision measures under the Framework Decision by a competent authority in in England and Wales, or*

(a) S.I. 2014/3141.

- (ii) has asked for such a request to be made but has not given adequate reasons as to why it should be made;
- (d) the certificate includes measures other than those referred to in Article 8 of the Framework Decision (see the list above);
- (e) recognition of the decision on supervision measures would contravene the principle of ne bis in idem;
- (f) the decision on supervision measures was based on conduct that would not constitute an offence under the law of England and Wales if it occurred there (with the exception of some specified categories of offence);
- (g) the decision was based on conduct where, under the law of England and Wales—
 - (i) the criminal prosecution of the conduct would be statute-barred, and
 - (ii) the conduct falls within the jurisdiction of England and Wales;
- (h) the decision on supervision measures was based on conduct by a defendant who was under the age of 10 when the conduct took place;
- (i) the conduct on which the decision on supervision measures was based is such that—
 - (i) if there was a breach of the supervision measures, and
 - (ii) a warrant was issued by the issuing State for the arrest of the defendant subject to the decisionthe defendant would have to be discharged at an extradition hearing under the Extradition Act 2003;
- (j) it appears that the decision on supervision measures was in fact made for the purpose of punishing the defendant on account of the defendant's race, ethnic origin, religion, nationality, language, gender, sexual orientation or political opinions.

[Note. See section 3 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 and paragraph 10 of the Code of Practice accompanying the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Code of Practice) Order 2015(b).]

Prosecutor's application for public interest ruling

15.3.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) without a court order, the prosecutor would have to disclose material; and
- (b) the prosecutor wants the court to decide whether it would be in the public interest to disclose it.

(2) The prosecutor must—

- (a) apply in writing for such a decision; and
- (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer,
 - (ii) any person who the prosecutor thinks would be directly affected by disclosure of the material, and
 - (iii) the defendant, but only to the extent that serving it on the defendant would not disclose what the prosecutor thinks ought not be disclosed.

(3) The application must—

- (a) describe the material, and explain why the prosecutor thinks that—
 - (i) it is material that the prosecutor would have to disclose,
 - (ii) it would not be in the public interest to disclose that material, and
 - (iii) no measure such as the prosecutor's admission of any fact, or disclosure by summary, extract or edited copy, adequately would protect both the public interest and the defendant's right to a fair trial;
- (b) omit from any part of the application that is served on the defendant anything that would disclose what the prosecutor thinks ought not be disclosed (in which case, paragraph (4) of this rule applies); and
- (c) explain why, if no part of the application is served on the defendant.

(4) Where the prosecutor serves only part of the application on the defendant, the prosecutor must—

(5) Unless already done, the court may direct the prosecutor to serve an application on—

- (a) the defendant;
- (b) any other person who the court considers would be directly affected by the disclosure of the material.

(b) S.I. 2015/861.

- (6) The court must determine the application at a hearing which—
 - (a) must be in private, unless the court otherwise directs; and
 - (b) if the court so directs, may take place, wholly or in part, in the defendant’s absence.
- (7) At a hearing at which the defendant is present—
 - (a) the general rule is that the court must consider, in the following sequence—
 - (i) representations first by the prosecutor and any other person served with the application, and then by the defendant, in the presence of them all, and then
 - (ii) further representations by the prosecutor and any such other person in the defendant’s absence; but
 - (b) the court may direct other arrangements for the hearing.
- (8) The court may only determine the application if satisfied that it has been able to take adequate account of—
 - (a) such rights of confidentiality as apply to the material; and
 - (b) the defendant’s right to a fair trial.
- (9) Unless the court otherwise directs, the court officer—
 - (a) must not give notice to anyone other than the prosecutor—
 - (i) of the hearing of an application under this rule, unless the prosecutor served the application on that person, or
 - (ii) of the court’s decision on the application;
 - (b) may—
 - (i) keep a written application or representations, or
 - (ii) arrange for the whole or any part to be kept by some other appropriate person, subject to any conditions that the court may impose.

[Note. The court’s power to order that it is not in the public interest to disclose material is provided for by sections 3(6), 7(6) (where the investigation began between 1st April, 1997 and 3rd April, 2005) and 7A(8) (where the investigation began on or after 4th April, 2005) of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(a).

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of application for use in connection with this rule.

Under section 8 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(a), a defendant may apply for prosecution disclosure only if the defendant has given a defence statement.]

Review of public interest ruling

15.6.—(1) This rule applies where the court has ordered that it is not in the public interest to disclose material that the prosecutor otherwise would have to disclose, and—

- (a) the court officer; and
 - (b) the defendant, unless to do so would in effect reveal something that either thinks ought not be disclosed.
- (5) The court may direct—
- (a) the prosecutor to serve any such application on any person who the court considers would be directly affected if that material were disclosed;
 - (b) the prosecutor and any such person to serve any representations on the defendant.

Summary of disclosure requirements of Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996

The Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 came into force on 1st April, 1997. It does not apply where the investigation began before that date. With effect from 4th April, 2005, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 made changes to the 1996 Act that do not apply where the investigation began before that date.

In some circumstances, the prosecutor may be required to disclose material to which the 1996 Act does not apply: see sections 1 and 21(a).

Part I of the 1996 Act contains sections 1 to 21A. Part II, which contains sections 22 to 27, requires an investigator to record information relevant to an investigation that is obtained during its course. See also the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Code of Practice) (No. 2) Order 1997(b), the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Code of Practice) Order 2005(c) and the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Code of Practice) Order 2015(d) issued under sections 23 to 25 of the 1996 Act.

Prosecution disclosure

Where the investigation began between 1st April, 1997, and 3rd April, 2005, sections 3 and 7 of the 1996 Act require the prosecutor—

- (a) to disclose material not previously disclosed that in the prosecutor’s opinion might undermine the case for the prosecution against the defendant—
 - (i) in a magistrates’ court, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the defendant pleads not guilty, and
 - (ii) in the Crown Court, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the case is committed or transferred for trial, or after the evidence is served where the case is sent for trial; and
- (b) as soon as is reasonably practicable after service of the defence statement, to disclose material not previously disclosed that might be reasonably expected to assist the defendant’s case as disclosed by that defence statement; or in either event
- (c) if there is no such material, then to give the defendant a written statement to that effect.

Where the investigation began on or after 4th April, 2005, sections 3 and 7A of the 1996 Act(e) require the prosecutor—

- (a) to disclose prosecution material not previously disclosed that might reasonably be considered capable of undermining the case for the prosecution against the defendant or of assisting the case for the defendant—

(a) 1996 c. 25; section 1 was amended by section 119 of, and paragraph 125 of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37), paragraph 66 of Schedule 3 and Part 4 of Schedule 37 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and paragraph 37 of Schedule 17 to the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22). It was amended in respect of certain proceedings only by section 119 of, and paragraph 125(a) of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37). It is further amended by section 9 of the Sexual Offences (Protected Material) Act 1997 (c. 39), with effect from a date to be appointed. Section 21 was amended by paragraph 66 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(b) S.I. 1997/1033; this Order was revoked by S.I. 2005/985.

(c) S.I. 2005/985.

(d) S.I. 2015/861.

(e) 1996 c. 25; section 3 was amended by section 82 of, and paragraph 7 of Schedule 4 to, the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 (c. 23) and section 32 and section 331 of, and paragraphs 20 and 21 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). Section 7A was inserted by section 37 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

- (i) in a magistrates' court, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the defendant pleads not guilty, or
- (ii) in the Crown Court, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the case is committed or transferred for trial, or after the evidence is served where the case is sent for trial, or after a count is added to the indictment; and in either case
- (b) if there is no such material, then to give the defendant a written statement to that effect; and after that
- (c) in either court, to disclose any such material—
 - (i) whenever there is any, until the court reaches its verdict or the prosecutor decides not to proceed with the case, and
 - (ii) in particular, after the service of the defence statement.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1996 Act define material, and prescribe how it must be disclosed.

In some circumstances, disclosure is prohibited by section 17 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000.

The prosecutor must not disclose material that the court orders it would not be in the public interest to disclose: see sections 3(6), 7(6) and 7A(8) of the 1996 Act.

Sections 12 and 13 of the 1996 Act prescribe the time for prosecution disclosure. Under paragraph 10 of the Code of Practice accompanying the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Code of Practice) Order 2015, in a magistrates' court the prosecutor must disclose any material due to be disclosed at the hearing where a not guilty plea is entered, or as soon as possible following a formal indication from the accused or representative that a not guilty plea will be entered at that hearing.

See also sections 1, 4 and 10 of the 1996 Act.

Defence disclosure

Under section 5 of the 1996 Act(a), in the Crown Court the defendant must give a defence statement. Under section 6 of the Act, in a magistrates' court the defendant may give such a statement but need not do so.

Under section 6C of the 1996 Act(b), in the Crown Court and in magistrates' courts the defendant must give a defence witness notice indicating whether he or she intends to call any witnesses (other than him or herself) and, if so, identifying them.

The time for service of a defence statement is prescribed by section 12 of the 1996 Act(c) and by the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Defence Disclosure Time Limits) Regulations 2011(d). It is—

- (a) in a magistrates' court, not more than 14 days after the prosecutor—
 - (i) discloses material under section 3 of the 1996 Act, or
 - (ii) serves notice that there is no such material to disclose;
- (b) in the Crown Court, not more than 28 days after either of those events, if the prosecution evidence has been served on the defendant.

The requirements for the content of a defence statement are set out in—

(a) 1996 c. 25; section 5 was amended by section 33 of, and paragraph 66 of Schedule 3, paragraphs 20 and 23 of Schedule 36 and Parts 3 and 4 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). It was further amended by section 119 of, and paragraph 126 of Schedule 8 to, the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37) in respect of certain proceedings only.

(b) 1996 c. 25; section 6C was inserted by section 34 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(c) 1996 c. 25; section 12 was amended by sections 331 of, and paragraphs 20 and 28 of Schedule 36 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(d) S.I. 2011/209.

- (a) section 5 of the 1996 Act, where the investigation began between 1st April, 1997 and 3rd April, 2005;
- (b) section 6A of the 1996 Act(a), where the investigation began on or after 4th April, 2005. See also section 6E of the Act(b).

Where the investigation began between 1st April, 1997 and 3rd April, 2005, the defence statement must—

- (a) set out in general terms the nature of the defence;
- (b) indicate the matters on which the defendant takes issue with the prosecutor, and, in respect of each, explain why;
- (c) if the defence statement discloses an alibi, give particulars, including—
 - (i) the name and address of any witness whom the defendant believes can give evidence in support (that is, evidence that the defendant was in a place, at a time, inconsistent with having committed the offence),
 - (ii) where the defendant does not know the name or address, any information that might help identify or find that witness.

Where the investigation began on or after 4th April, 2005, the defence statement must—

- (a) set out the nature of the defence, including any particular defences on which the defendant intends to rely;
- (b) indicate the matters of fact on which the defendant takes issue with the prosecutor, and, in respect of each, explain why;
- (c) set out particulars of the matters of fact on which the defendant intends to rely for the purposes of the defence;
- (d) indicate any point of law that the defendant wants to raise, including any point about the admissibility of evidence or about abuse of process, and any authority relied on; and
- (e) if the defence statement discloses an alibi, give particulars, including—
 - (i) the name, address and date of birth of any witness whom the defendant believes can give evidence in support (that is, evidence that the defendant was in a place, at a time, inconsistent with having committed the offence),
 - (ii) where the defendant does not know any of those details, any information that might help identify or find that witness.

The time for service of a defence witness notice is prescribed by section 12 of the 1996 Act and by the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (Defence Disclosure Time Limits) Regulations 2011. The time limits are the same as those for a defence statement.

A defence witness notice that identifies any proposed defence witness (other than the defendant) must—

- (a) give the name, address and date of birth of each such witness, or as many of those details as are known to the defendant when the notice is given;
- (b) provide any information in the defendant's possession which might be of material assistance in identifying or finding any such witness in whose case any of the details mentioned in paragraph (a) are not known to the defendant when the notice is given; and
- (c) amend any earlier such notice, if the defendant—
 - (i) decides to call a person not included in an earlier notice as a proposed witness,
 - (ii) decides not to call a person so included, or

(a) 1996 c. 25; section 6A was inserted by section 33 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and amended by section 60 of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4).

(b) 1996 c. 25; section 6E was inserted by section 36 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

- (iii) discovers any information which the defendant would have had to include in an earlier notice, if then aware of it.

Under section 11 of the 1996 Act(a), if a defendant—

- (a) fails to disclose what the Act requires;
- (b) fails to do so within the time prescribed;
- (c) at trial, relies on a defence, or facts, not mentioned in the defence statement;
- (d) at trial, introduces alibi evidence without having given in the defence statement—
 - (i) particulars of the alibi, or
 - (ii) the details of the alibi witness, or witnesses, required by the Act; or
- (e) at trial, calls a witness not identified in a defence witness notice, then the court or another party at trial may comment on that, and the court may draw such inferences as appear proper in deciding whether the defendant is guilty.

Under section 6E(2) of the 1996 Act, if before trial in the Crown Court it seems to the court that section 11 may apply, then the court must warn the defendant.

16.2. The statement must contain—

- (a) at the beginning—
 - (i) the witness’ name, and
 - (ii) the witness’ age, if under 18;

- (d) the witness' signature.

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of written statement for use in connection with this rule.]

- (b) the exhibit must be labelled or marked correspondingly, and the label or mark signed by the maker of the statement.

Written witness statement in evidence

16.4.—(1) A party who wants to introduce in evidence a written witness statement must—

- (a) before the hearing at which that party wants to introduce it, serve a copy of the statement on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party; and
- (b) at or before that hearing, serve on the court officer the statement or an authenticated copy.
- (2) If that party relies on only part of the statement, that party must mark the copy in such a way as to make that clear.
- (3) A prosecutor must serve on a defendant, with the copy of the statement, a notice—
 - (a) of the right to object to the introduction of the statement in evidence instead of the witness giving evidence in person;
 - (b) of the time limit for objecting under this rule; and
 - (c) that if the defendant does not object in time, the court—
 - (i) can nonetheless require the witness to give evidence in person, but
 - (ii) may decide not to do so.
- (4) A party served with a written witness statement who objects to its introduction in evidence must—
 - (a) serve notice of the objection on—
 - (i) the party who served it, and
 - (ii) the court officer; and
 - (b) serve the notice of objection not more than 7 days after service of the statement unless—
 - (i) the court extends that time limit, before or after the statement was served,
 - (ii) rule 24.8 (Written guilty plea: special rules) applies, in which case the time limit is the later of 7 days after service of the statement or 7 days before the hearing date, or
 - (iii) rule 24.9 (Single justice procedure: special rules) applies, in which case the time limit is 21 days after service of the statement.
- (5) The court may exercise its power to require the witness to give evidence in person—
 - (a) on application by any party; or
 - (b) on its own initiative.

(6) A party entitled to receive a copy of a statement may waive that entitlement by so informing—

- (a) the party who would have served it; and
- (b) the court.

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of written witness statement and a form of notice for use in connection with this rule.]

Under section 9(2A) of the Criminal Justice Act 1967(a), Criminal Procedure Rules may prescribe the period within which a party served with a written witness statement must object to its introduction in evidence, subject to a minimum period of 7 days from its service.

Under section 133 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(b), where a statement in a document is admissible as evidence in criminal proceedings, the statement may be proved by producing either (a) the document, or (b) (whether or not the document exists) a copy of the document or of the material part of it, authenticated in whatever way the court may approve. By section 134 of the 2003 Act, ‘document’ means anything in which information of any description is recorded.]

17.2.—(1) The court may issue or withdraw a witness summons, warrant or order with or without a hearing.

(2) A hearing under this Part must be in private unless the court otherwise directs.

(5) This rule does not apply to an application for an order to produce in evidence a copy of an entry in a banker's book.

[Note. Under section 2A of the Criminal Procedure (Attendance of Witnesses) Act 1965(c), a witness summons to produce a document or thing issued by the Crown Court may require the witness to produce it for inspection by the applicant before producing it in evidence.]

Application for summons to produce a document, etc.: court's assessment of relevance and confidentiality

17.6.—(1) This rule applies where a person served with an application for a witness summons requiring the proposed witness to produce in evidence a document or thing objects to its production on the ground that—

- (a) it is not likely to be material evidence; or
- (b) even if it is likely to be material evidence, the duties or rights, including rights of confidentiality, of the proposed witness or of any person to whom the document or thing relates, outweigh the reasons for issuing a summons.

(2) The court may require the proposed witness to make the document or thing available for the objection to be assessed.

(3) The court may invite—

- (a) the proposed witness or any representative of the proposed witness; or
- (b) a person to whom the document or thing relates or any representative of such a person, to help the court assess the objection.

Application to withdraw a summons, warrant or order

17.7.—(1) The court may withdraw a witness summons, warrant or order if one of the following applies for it to be withdrawn—

- (a) the party who applied for it, on the ground that it no longer is needed;
- (b) the witness, on the grounds that—
 - (i) he was not aware of any application for it, and
 - (ii) he cannot give or produce evidence likely to be material evidence, or
 - (iii) even if he can, his duties or rights, including rights of confidentiality, or those of any person to whom the evidence relates, outweigh the reasons for the issue of the summons, warrant or order; or
- (c) any person to whom the proposed evidence relates, on the grounds that—
 - (i) he was not aware of any application for it, and
 - (ii) that evidence is not likely to be material evidence, or
 - (iii) even if it is, his duties or rights, including rights of confidentiality, or those of the witness, outweigh the reasons for the issue of the summons, warrant or order.

(2) A person applying under the rule must—

- (a) apply in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so, explaining why he wants the summons, warrant or order to be withdrawn; and
- (b) serve the application on the court officer and as appropriate on—
 - (i) the witness,
 - (ii) the party who applied for the summons, warrant or order, and
 - (iii) any other person who he knows was served with the application for the summons, warrant or order.

(3) Rule 17.6 applies to an application under this rule that concerns a document or thing to be produced in evidence.

[Note. See sections 2B, 2C and 2E of the Criminal Procedure (Attendance of Witnesses) Act 1965(a) for the Crown Court's powers to withdraw a witness summons, including the power to order costs.]

Court's power to vary requirements under this Part

17.8.—(1) The court may—

- (a) shorten or extend (even after it has expired) a time limit under this Part; and
- (b) where a rule or direction requires an application under this Part to be in writing, allow that application to be made orally instead.

(2) Someone who wants the court to allow an application to be made orally under paragraph (1)(b) of this rule must—

- (a) give as much notice as the urgency of his application permits to those on whom he would otherwise have served an application in writing; and
- (b) in doing so explain the reasons for the application and for wanting the court to consider it orally.

[Note. See sections 20(5), 33A(8) and 33BB(4) of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 and sections 51(8) and 52(7) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(a).]

Court's power to vary requirements under this Part

- 18.5.—(1) The court may—
- (a) shorten or extend (even after it has expired) a time limit under this Part; and
 - (b) allow an application or representations to be made in a different form to one set out in the Practice Direction, or to be made orally.
- (2) A person who wants an extension of time must—
- (a) apply when serving the application or representations for which it is needed; and
 - (b) explain the delay.

Custody of documents

- 18.6. Unless the court otherwise directs, the court officer may—
- (a) keep a written application or representations; or
 - (b) arrange for the whole or any part to be kept by some other appropriate person, subject to any conditions that the court may impose.

Declaration by intermediary

- 18.7.—(1) This rule applies where—
- (a) a video recorded interview with a witness is conducted through an intermediary;
 - (b) the court directs the examination of a witness or defendant through an intermediary.
- (2) An intermediary must make a declaration—
- (a) before such an interview begins;
 - (b) before the examination begins (even if such an interview with the witness was conducted through the same intermediary).
- (3) The declaration must be in these terms—
- “I solemnly, sincerely and truly declare [or I swear by Almighty God] that I will well and faithfully communicate questions and answers and make true explanation of all matters and things as shall be required of me according to the best of my skill and understanding.”

SPECIAL MEASURES DIRECTIONS

Exercise of court's powers

- 18.8. The court may decide whether to give, vary or discharge a special measures direction—
- (a) at a hearing, in public or in private, or without a hearing;
 - (b) in a party's absence, if that party—
 - (i) applied for the direction, variation or discharge, or
 - (ii) has had at least 14 days in which to make representations.

(a) 2003 c. 44.

Special measures direction for a young witness

18.9.—(1) This rule applies where, under section 21 or section 22 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(a), the primary rule requires the court to give a direction for a special measure to assist a child witness or a qualifying witness—

- (a) on an application, if one is made; or
- (b) on the court's own initiative, in any other case.

(2) A party who wants to introduce the evidence of such a witness must as soon as reasonably practicable—

- (a) notify the court that the witness is eligible for assistance;
- (b) provide the court with any information that the court may need to assess the witness' views, if the witness does not want the primary rule to apply; and
- (c) serve any video recorded evidence on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party.

[Note. Under sections 21 and 22 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, a 'child witness' is one who is under 18, and a 'qualifying witness' is one who was a child witness when interviewed.

Under those sections, the 'primary rule' requires the court to give a direction—

- (a) for the evidence of a child witness or of a qualifying witness to be admitted—
 - (i) by means of a video recording of an interview with the witness, in the place of examination-in-chief, and
 - (ii) after that, by live link; or
- (b) if one or both of those measures is not taken, for the witness while giving evidence to be screened from seeing the defendant.

The primary rule always applies unless—

- (a) the witness does not want it to apply, and the court is satisfied that to omit a measure usually required by that rule would not diminish the quality of the witness' evidence; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that to direct one of the measures usually required by that rule would not be likely to maximise, so far as practicable, the quality of the witness' evidence.]

Content of application for a special measures direction

18.10. An applicant for a special measures direction must—

- (a) explain how the witness is eligible for assistance;
- (b) explain why special measures would be likely to improve the quality of the witness' evidence;
- (c) propose the measure or measures that in the applicant's opinion would be likely to maximise, so far as practicable, the quality of that evidence;
- (d) report any views that the witness has expressed about—
 - (i) his or her eligibility for assistance,
 - (ii) the likelihood that special measures would improve the quality of his or her evidence, and
 - (iii) the measure or measures proposed by the applicant;

(a) 1999 c. 23; sections 21 and 22 were amended by sections 98, 100 and 178 of, and Part 3 of Schedule 23 to, the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25).

- (e) in a case in which a child witness or a qualifying witness does not want the primary rule to apply, provide any information that the court may need to assess the witness' views;
- (f) in a case in which the applicant proposes that the witness should give evidence by live link—
 - (i) identify someone to accompany the witness while the witness gives evidence,
 - (ii) name that person, if possible, and
 - (iii) explain why that person would be an appropriate companion for the witness, including the witness' own views;
- (g) in a case in which the applicant proposes the admission of video recorded evidence, identify—
 - (i) the date and duration of the recording,
 - (ii) which part the applicant wants the court to admit as evidence, if the applicant does not want the court to admit all of it;
- (h) attach any other material on which the applicant relies; and
- (i) if the applicant wants a hearing, ask for one, and explain why it is needed.

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of application for use in connection with this rule.]

Application to vary or discharge a special measures direction

18.11.—(1) A party who wants the court to vary or discharge a special measures direction must—

- (a) apply in writing, as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so; and
 - (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party.
- (2) The applicant must—
- (a) explain what material circumstances have changed since the direction was given (or last varied, if applicable);
 - (b) explain why the direction should be varied or discharged; and
 - (c) ask for a hearing, if the applicant wants one, and explain why it is needed.

[Note. Under section 20 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, the court can vary or discharge a special measures direction—

- (a) on application, if there has been a material change of circumstances; or*
- (b) on the court's own initiative.]*

Application containing information withheld from another party

18.12.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) an applicant serves an application for a special measures direction, or for its variation or discharge; and
 - (b) the application includes information that the applicant thinks ought not be revealed to another party.
- (2) The applicant must—
- (a) omit that information from the part of the application that is served on that other party;
 - (b) mark the other part to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and

- (c) in that other part, explain why the applicant has withheld that information from that other party.
- (3) Any hearing of an application to which this rule applies—
 - (a) must be in private, unless the court otherwise directs; and
 - (b) if the court so directs, may be, wholly or in part, in the absence of a party from whom information has been withheld.
- (4) At any hearing of an application to which this rule applies—
 - (a) the general rule is that the court must consider, in the following sequence—
 - (i) representations first by the applicant and then by each other party, in all the parties' presence, and then
 - (ii) further representations by the applicant, in the absence of a party from whom information has been withheld; but
 - (b) the court may direct other arrangements for the hearing.

[Note. See section 20 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999.]

Representations in response

- 18.13.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to make representations about—
- (a) an application for a special measures direction;
 - (b) an application for the variation or discharge of such a direction; or
 - (c) a direction, variation or discharge that the court proposes on its own initiative.
- (2) Such a party must—
- (a) serve the representations on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party;
 - (b) do so not more than 14 days after, as applicable—
 - (i) service of the application, or
 - (ii) notice of the direction, variation or discharge that the court proposes; and
 - (c) ask for a hearing, if that party wants one, and explain why it is needed.
- (3) Where representations include information that the person making them thinks ought not be revealed to another party, that person must—
- (a) omit that information from the representations served on that other party;
 - (b) mark the information to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and
 - (c) with that information include an explanation of why it has been withheld from that other party.
- (4) Representations against a special measures direction must explain, as appropriate—
- (a) why the witness is not eligible for assistance;
 - (b) if the witness is eligible for assistance, why—
 - (i) no special measure would be likely to improve the quality of the witness' evidence,
 - (ii) the proposed measure or measures would not be likely to maximise, so far as practicable, the quality of the witness' evidence, or
 - (iii) the proposed measure or measures might tend to inhibit the effective testing of that evidence;
 - (c) in a case in which the admission of video recorded evidence is proposed, why it would not be in the interests of justice for the recording, or part of it, to be admitted as evidence.

(5) Representations against the variation or discharge of a special measures direction must explain why it should not be varied or discharged.

[Note. Under sections 21 and 22 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, where the witness is a child witness or a qualifying witness the special measures that the court usually must direct must be treated as likely to maximise, so far as practicable, the quality of the witness' evidence, irrespective of representations to the contrary.]

18.14. The court may decide whether to give, vary or discharge a defendant's evidence direction—

[Note. See sections 33A(7) and 33BB of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999.]

(3) Representations against a direction, variation or discharge must explain why the conditions prescribed by the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 are not met.

WITNESS ANONYMITY ORDERS

Exercise of court’s powers

18.18.—(1) The court may decide whether to make, vary or discharge a witness anonymity order—

- (a) at a hearing (which must be in private, unless the court otherwise directs), or without a hearing (unless any party asks for one);

(2) The court must not exercise its power to make, vary or discharge a witness anonymity order, or to refuse to do so—

[Note. The rules in this Section do not apply to an application for a special measures direction allowing a witness to give evidence by live link: as to which, see rules 18.8 to 18.13.]

Exercise of court's powers

- 18.23. The court may decide whether to give or discharge a live link direction—
- (a) at a hearing, in public or in private, or without a hearing;

Representations in response

18.26.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to make representations about an application for a live link direction or for the discharge of such a direction.

- (2) Such a party must—
- (a) serve the representations on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party;
 - (b) do so not more than 14 days after service of the application; and—
 - (c) ask for a hearing, if that party wants one, and explain why it is needed.
- (3) Representations against a direction or discharge must explain, as applicable, why the conditions prescribed by the Criminal Justice Act 1988 or the Criminal Justice Act 2003 are not met.

Summary of eligibility for measures to which this Part applies

Special measures direction

Under section 16 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(c), a witness is eligible for the assistance of a special measures direction given under section 19 of that Act if—

- (a) the witness is under 18; or
- (b) the witness has—
 - (i) a mental disorder, or a significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning, or
 - (ii) a physical disability or disorderand the court considers that the completeness, coherence and accuracy (the ‘quality’) of evidence given by the witness is likely to be diminished by reason of those circumstances.

(a) 1988 c. 33; section 32(4) was amended by article 3 of, and paragraphs 24 and 26 of the Schedule to S.I. 2004/2035.
(b) 2003 c. 44.
(c) 1999 c. 23.

Under section 17 of the 1999(a) Act, a witness is eligible for such assistance if—

- (a) the court is satisfied that the quality of evidence given by the witness is likely to be diminished because of his or her fear or distress in connection with giving evidence, taking account particularly of—*
 - (i) the circumstances of the offence,*
 - (ii) the witness' age, social and cultural background, ethnic origins, domestic and employment circumstances, religious beliefs or political opinions,*
 - (iii) any behaviour towards the witness on the part of the defendant, the defendant's family or associates, or any other potential defendant or witness, and*
 - (iv) the witness' own views;*
- (b) the witness is the complainant in respect of a sexual offence, and has not declined such assistance; or*
- (c) the offence is one of a list of offences involving weapons, and the witness has not declined such assistance.*

Section 28 of the 1999 Act (video recorded cross-examination or re-examination) is not yet in force. With that exception, all the special measures listed in rule 18.1 potentially are available where the witness is eligible for assistance under section 16 of the Act. Those numbered (i) to (v) are available where the witness is eligible for assistance under section 17.

As a general rule, but with exceptions, the court must give a special measures direction—

- (a) under section 21 or 22 of the 1999 Act(b), where the witness—*
 - (i) is under 18, or*
 - (ii) was under that age when interviewedwhether or not an application for a direction is made;*
- (b) under section 22A of the 1999 Act(c), where an application is made in the Crown Court for the evidence of a witness who is the complainant of a sexual offence to be admitted by means of a video recording of an interview with the witness in the place of examination-in-chief.*

Defendant's evidence direction

Under section 33A of the 1999 Act(d), the court can allow a defendant to give evidence by live link, or (when the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 comes into force) under section 33BA(e) can allow a defendant to give evidence through an intermediary, if—

- (a) the defendant—*
 - (i) is under 18, and the defendant's ability to participate effectively as a witness giving oral evidence is compromised by his or her level of intellectual ability or social functioning; or*
 - (ii) suffers from a mental disorder or some other significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning and cannot participate effectively as a witness giving oral evidence for that reason;*
- (b) the use of a live link—*

(a) 1999 c. 23; section 17 was amended by section 99 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25) and paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Schedule to S.I. 2013/554. It is further amended by section 46 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (c. 30), with effect from a date to be appointed.

(b) 1999 c. 23; sections 21 and 22 were amended by sections 98, 100 and 178 of, and Part 3 of Schedule 23 to, the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25).

(c) 1999 c. 23; section 22A was inserted by section 101 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25).

(d) 1999 c. 23; section 33A was inserted by section 47 of the Police and Justice Act 2006 (c. 48).

(e) 1999 c. 23; section 33BA is inserted by section 104 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25), with effect from a date to be appointed.

- (i) would enable the defendant to participate more effectively, and
- (ii) is in the interests of justice;
- (c) the examination of the defendant through an intermediary is necessary to ensure that the defendant receives a fair trial.

Witness anonymity order

Under section 86 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009(a), a witness anonymity order is an order that specifies measures to be taken to ensure that the identity of a witness is not disclosed, such as withholding the witness’ name from materials disclosed to a party to the proceedings, the use of a pseudonym, the screening of the witness from view, the modulation of the witness’ voice, and the prohibition of questions that might reveal his or her identity. Before making such an order, the court must—

- (a) be satisfied that three conditions prescribed by the Act are met (section 88 of the 2009 Act); and
- (b) have regard to considerations specified by the Act (section 89 of the 2009 Act).

Live link direction

When this Part applies

19.1.—(1) This Part applies where a party wants to introduce expert opinion evidence.

(2) A reference to an ‘expert’ in this Part is a reference to a person who is required to give or prepare expert evidence for the purpose of criminal proceedings, including evidence required to determine fitness to plead or for the purpose of sentencing.

Those Acts contain requirements about the qualification of medical experts.]

Expert’s duty to the court

19.2.—(1) An expert must help the court to achieve the overriding objective—

- (a) by giving opinion which is—
 - (i) objective and unbiased, and
 - (ii) within the expert’s area or areas of expertise; and
- (b) by actively assisting the court in fulfilling its duty of case management under rule 3.2, in particular by—
 - (i) complying with directions made by the court, and
 - (ii) at once informing the court of any significant failure (by the expert or another) to take any step required by such a direction.

(2) This duty overrides any obligation to the person from whom the expert receives instructions or by whom the expert is paid.

(3) This duty includes obligations—

- (a) to define the expert’s area or areas of expertise—
 - (i) in the expert’s report, and
 - (ii) when giving evidence in person;
- (b) when giving evidence in person, to draw the court’s attention to any question to which the answer would be outside the expert’s area or areas of expertise; and
- (c) to inform all parties and the court if the expert’s opinion changes from that contained in a report served as evidence or given in a statement.

Introduction of expert evidence

19.3.—(1) A party who wants another party to admit as fact a summary of an expert’s conclusions must serve that summary—

- (a) on the court officer and on each party from whom that admission is sought;
- (b) as soon as practicable after the defendant whom it affects pleads not guilty.

(2) A party on whom such a summary is served must—

- (a) serve a response stating—
 - (i) which, if any, of the expert’s conclusions are admitted as fact, and

(a) 1964 c. 84; section 4 was substituted, together with section 4A, for section 4 as originally enacted, by section 2 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity and Unfitness to Plead) Act 1991 (c. 25), and amended by section 22 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (c. 28).

- (3) A party who wants to introduce expert evidence otherwise than as admitted fact must—
 - (a) serve a report by the expert which complies with rule 19.4 (Content of expert’s report) on—

 - (ii) each other party;
 - (b) serve the report as soon as practicable, and in any event with any application in support of which that party relies on that evidence;
 - (c) serve with the report notice of anything of which the party serving it is aware which might reasonably be thought capable of detracting substantially from the credibility of that expert;
 - (d) if another party so requires, give that party a copy of, or a reasonable opportunity to inspect—
 - (i) a record of any examination, measurement, test or experiment on which the expert’s findings and opinion are based, or that were carried out in the course of reaching those findings and opinion, and
 - (ii) anything on which any such examination, measurement, test or experiment was carried out.
- (4) Unless the parties otherwise agree or the court directs, a party may not—
 - (a) introduce expert evidence if that party has not complied with paragraph (3);
 - (b) introduce in evidence an expert report if the expert does not give evidence in person.

[Note. A party who accepts another party’s expert’s conclusions may admit them as fact under section 10 of the Criminal Justice Act 1967(a).

Under section 81 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984(b), and under section 20(3) of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(c), Criminal Procedure Rules may require the disclosure of expert evidence before it is introduced as part of a party’s case and prohibit its introduction without the court’s permission, if it was not disclosed as required.

Under section 30 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988(d), an expert report is admissible in evidence whether or not the person who made it gives oral evidence, but if that person does not give oral evidence then the report is admissible only with the court’s permission.]

Content of expert’s report

- 19.4. Where rule 19.3(3) applies, an expert’s report must—
- (a) give details of the expert’s qualifications, relevant experience and accreditation;

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of notice for use in connection with this rule.

See also rule 21.5 (reasons for decisions must be given in public).

If notice is not given as this rule requires, then under section 111(4) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 the court may take the failure into account in exercising its powers to order costs.]

GENERAL RULES

When this Part applies

23.1. This Part applies where—

- (a) a defendant may not cross-examine in person a witness because of section 34 or section 35 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(b) (Complainants in proceedings for sexual offences; Child complainants and other child witnesses);
- (b) the court can prohibit a defendant from cross-examining in person a witness under section 36 of that Act(c) (Direction prohibiting accused from cross-examining particular witness).

[Note. Under section 34 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, no defendant charged with a sexual offence may cross-examine in person a witness who is the complainant, either—

- (a) in connection with that offence; or*

(a) 1999 c. 23; section 20(6) was amended by paragraph 384(a) of Schedule 8 to the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39).
 (b) 1999 c. 23; section 35 was amended by sections 139 and 140 of, and paragraph 41 of Schedule 6 and Schedule 7 to, the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (c. 42), section 148 of, and paragraphs 35 and 36 of Schedule 26 to, the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4) and section 105 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25).
 (c) 1999 c. 23.

- (b) in connection with any other offence (of whatever nature) with which that defendant is charged in the proceedings.

Under section 35 of the 1999 Act, no defendant charged with an offence listed in that section may cross-examine in person a protected witness, either—

- (a) in connection with that offence; or
- (b) in connection with any other offence (of whatever nature) with which that defendant is charged in the proceedings.

A 'protected witness' is one who—

- (a) either is the complainant or is alleged to have been a witness to the commission of the offence; and
- (b) either is a child, within the meaning of section 35, or is due to be cross-examined after giving evidence in chief—
 - (i) by means of a video recording made when the witness was a child, or
 - (ii) in any other way when the witness was a child.

Under section 36 of the 1999 Act, where neither section 34 nor section 35 applies the court may give a direction prohibiting the defendant from cross-examining, or further cross-examining, in person a witness, on application by the prosecutor or on the court's own initiative. See also rules 23.3 to 23.7.]

Appointment of advocate to cross-examine witness

23.2.—(1) This rule applies where a defendant may not cross-examine in person a witness in consequence of—

- (a) the prohibition imposed by section 34 or section 35 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999; or
- (b) a prohibition imposed by the court under section 36 of the 1999 Act.

(2) The court must, as soon as practicable, explain in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—

- (a) the prohibition and its effect;
- (b) that the defendant is entitled to arrange for a lawyer with a right of audience in the court to cross-examine the witness on his or her behalf;
- (c) that the defendant must notify the court officer of the identity of any such lawyer, with details of how to contact that person, by no later than a date set by the court;
- (d) that if the defendant does not want to make such arrangements, or if the defendant gives no such notice by that date, then—
 - (i) the court must decide whether it is necessary in the interests of justice to appoint such a lawyer to cross-examine the witness for the defendant, and
 - (ii) if the court decides that that is necessary, the court will appoint a lawyer chosen by the court.

(3) Having given those explanations, the court must—

- (a) ask whether the defendant wants to arrange for a lawyer to cross-examine the witness, and set a date by when the defendant must notify the court officer of the identity of that lawyer if the answer to that question is 'yes';
- (b) if the answer to that question is 'no', or if by the date set the defendant has given no such notice—
 - (i) decide whether it is necessary in the interests of justice for the witness to be cross-examined by an advocate appointed to represent the defendant's interests, and
 - (ii) if the court decides that that is necessary, give directions for the appointment of such an advocate.

- (4) Where an advocate is appointed by the court—
 - (a) the directions that the court gives under paragraph (3)(b)(ii) must provide for the material to be supplied to that advocate, including by whom and when it must be supplied; and
 - (b) the appointment terminates at the conclusion of the cross-examination of the witness.
- (5) The court may give the explanations and ask the questions required by this rule—
 - (a) at a hearing, in public or in private; or
 - (b) without a hearing, by written notice to the defendant.
- (6) The court may extend (even after it has expired) the time limit that it sets under paragraph (3)(a)—
 - (a) on application by the defendant; or
 - (b) on its own initiative.

[Note. See section 38 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(a). Under section 38(8) the references in that section to a 'legal representative' are to a representative who is an advocate within the meaning of rule 2.2.]

APPLICATION TO PROHIBIT CROSS-EXAMINATION

Exercise of court's powers

23.3.—(1) The court may decide whether to impose or discharge a prohibition against cross-examination under section 36 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999—

- (a) at a hearing, in public or in private, or without a hearing;
- (b) in a party's absence, if that party—
 - (i) applied for the prohibition or discharge, or
 - (ii) has had at least 14 days in which to make representations.

(2) The court must announce, at a hearing in public before the witness gives evidence, the reasons for a decision—

- (a) to impose or discharge such a prohibition; or
- (b) to refuse to do so.

[Note. See section 37 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(b).]

- (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer,
 - (ii) the defendant who is the subject of the application, and
 - (iii) any other defendant, unless the court otherwise directs.

(3) The application must—

 (b) 1999 c. 23; section 37 was amended by section 109 of, and paragraph 384(e) of Schedule 8 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39).

- (a) report any views that the witness has expressed about whether he or she is content to be cross-examined by the defendant in person;
- (b) identify—
 - (i) the nature of the questions likely to be asked, having regard to the issues in the case,
 - (ii) any relevant behaviour of the defendant at any stage of the case, generally and in relation to the witness,
 - (iii) any relationship, of any nature, between the witness and the defendant,
 - (iv) any other defendant in the case who is subject to such a prohibition in respect of the witness, and
 - (v) any special measures direction made in respect of the witness, or for which an application has been made;
- (c) explain why the quality of evidence given by the witness on cross-examination—
 - (i) is likely to be diminished if no such prohibition is imposed, and
 - (ii) would be likely to be improved if it were imposed; and
- (d) explain why it would not be contrary to the interests of justice to impose the prohibition.

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of application for use in connection with this rule.]

Application to discharge prohibition imposed by the court

23.5.—(1) A party who wants the court to discharge a prohibition against cross-examination which the court imposed under section 36 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 must—

- (a) apply in writing, as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so; and
 - (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party.
- (2) The applicant must—
- (a) explain what material circumstances have changed since the prohibition was imposed; and
 - (b) ask for a hearing, if the applicant wants one, and explain why it is needed.

[Note. Under section 37 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, the court can discharge a prohibition against cross-examination which it has imposed—

- (a) on application, if there has been a material change of circumstances; or*
- (b) on its own initiative.*

The Practice Direction sets out a form of application for use in connection with this rule.]

Application containing information withheld from another party

23.6.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) an applicant serves an application for the court to impose a prohibition against cross-examination, or for the discharge of such a prohibition; and
 - (b) the application includes information that the applicant thinks ought not be revealed to another party.
- (2) The applicant must—
- (a) omit that information from the part of the application that is served on that other party;

- (b) mark the other part to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and
 - (c) in that other part, explain why the applicant has withheld that information from that other party.
- (3) Any hearing of an application to which this rule applies—
- (a) must be in private, unless the court otherwise directs; and
 - (b) if the court so directs, may be, wholly or in part, in the absence of a party from whom information has been withheld.
- (4) At any hearing of an application to which this rule applies—
- (a) the general rule is that the court must consider, in the following sequence—
 - (i) representations first by the applicant and then by each other party, in all the parties' presence, and then
 - (ii) further representations by the applicant, in the absence of a party from whom information has been withheld; but
 - (b) the court may direct other arrangements for the hearing.

[Note. See section 37 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999.]

Representations in response

- 23.7.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to make representations about—

 - (i) service of the application, or
 - (ii) notice of the prohibition or discharge that the court proposes; and
 - (c) ask for a hearing, if that party wants one, and explain why it is needed.
- (3) Representations against a prohibition must explain in what respect the conditions for imposing it are not met.
- (4) Representations against the discharge of a prohibition must explain why it should not be discharged.
- (5) Where representations include information that the person making them thinks ought not be revealed to another party, that person must—
- (a) omit that information from the representations served on that other party;
 - (b) mark the information to show that, unless the court otherwise directs, it is only for the court; and

When this Part applies

- 24.1.—(1) This Part applies in a magistrates' court where—
- (a) the court tries a case;
 - (b) the defendant pleads guilty;
 - (c) under section 14 or section 16E of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a), the defendant makes a statutory declaration of not having found out about the case until after the trial began;
 - (d) under section 142 of the 1980 Act(b), the court can—
 - (i) set aside a conviction, or

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 14 was amended by section 109 of, and paragraph 205 of Schedule 8 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39). Section 16E was inserted by section 48 of the Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015 (c. 2).

(b) 1980 c. 43; section 142 was amended by sections 26 and 29 of, and Schedule 3 to, the Criminal Appeal Act 1995 (c. 35).

- (ii) vary or rescind a costs order, or an order to which Part 31 applies (Behaviour orders).
- (2) Where the defendant is under 18, in this Part—
- (a) a reference to convicting the defendant includes a reference to finding the defendant guilty of an offence; and
 - (b) a reference to sentence includes a reference to an order made on a finding of guilt.

[Note. A magistrates' court's powers to try an allegation of an offence are contained in section 2 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a). In relation to a defendant under 18, they are contained in sections 45, 46 and 48 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933(b).

See also section 18 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1963(c), section 47 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(d) and section 9 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(e).

The exercise of the court's powers is affected by—

- (a) the classification of the offence (and the general rule, subject to exceptions, is that a magistrates' court must try—
 - (i) an offence classified as one that can be tried only in a magistrates' court (in other legislation, described as triable only summarily), and
 - (ii) an offence classified as one that can be tried either in a magistrates' court or in the Crown Court (in other legislation, described as triable either way) that has been allocated for trial in a magistrates' court); and
- (b) the defendant's age (and the general rule, subject to exceptions, is that an allegation of an offence against a defendant under 18 must be tried in a magistrates' court sitting as a youth court, irrespective of the classification of the offence and without allocation for trial there).

General rules

24.2.—(1) Where this Part applies—

- (a) the general rule is that the hearing must be in public; but
- (b) the court may exercise any power it has to—
 - (i) impose reporting restrictions,
 - (ii) withhold information from the public, or
 - (iii) order a hearing in private; and
- (c) unless the court otherwise directs, only the following may attend a hearing in a youth court—

 - (ii) a defendant's parents, guardian or other supporting adult,
 - (iii) a witness,
 - (iv) anyone else directly concerned in the case, and
 - (v) a representative of a news-gathering or reporting organisation.

(2) Unless already done, the justices' legal adviser or the court must—

- (a) read the allegation of the offence to the defendant;
- (b) explain, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—
 - (i) the allegation, and
 - (ii) what the procedure at the hearing will be;
- (c) ask whether the defendant has been advised about the potential effect on sentence of a guilty plea;
- (d) ask whether the defendant pleads guilty or not guilty; and
- (e) take the defendant's plea.

(3) The court may adjourn the hearing—

- (a) at any stage, to the same or to another magistrates' court; or
- (b) to a youth court, where the court is not itself a youth court and the defendant is under 18.

(4) Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this rule do not apply where the court tries a case under rule 24.9 (Single justice procedure: special rules).

[Note. See sections 10, 16A, 27A, 29 and 121 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a) and sections 46 and 47 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933.

Where the case has been allocated for trial in a magistrates' court, part of the procedure under rule 24.2(2) will have taken place.

Part 6 contains rules about reporting, etc. restrictions. For a list of the court's powers to impose reporting and access restrictions, see the note to rule 6.1.

Under section 34A of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933(b), the court—

- (a) may require the defendant's parents or guardian to attend court with the defendant, where the defendant is under 18; and*
- (b) must do so, where the defendant is under 16,*

unless satisfied that that would be unreasonable.

Part 7 contains rules about (among other things) the issue of a summons to a parent or guardian.

Part 46 (Representatives) contains rules allowing a parent, guardian or other supporting adult to help a defendant under 18.]

Procedure on plea of not guilty

24.3.—(1) This rule applies—

(a) if the defendant has—

- (i) entered a plea of not guilty, or
- (ii) not entered a plea; or

(b) if, in either case, it appears to the court that there may be grounds for making a hospital order without convicting the defendant.

(2) If a not guilty plea was taken on a previous occasion, the justices' legal adviser or the court must ask the defendant to confirm that plea.

(3) In the following sequence—

(a) the prosecutor may summarise the prosecution case, identifying the relevant law and facts;

(b) the prosecutor must introduce the evidence on which the prosecution case relies;

(c) at the conclusion of the prosecution case, on the defendant's application or on its own initiative, the court—

- (i) may acquit on the ground that the prosecution evidence is insufficient for any reasonable court properly to convict, but
- (ii) must not do so unless the prosecutor has had an opportunity to make representations;

(d) the justices' legal adviser or the court must explain, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—

- (i) the right to give evidence, and
- (ii) the potential effect of not doing so at all, or of refusing to answer a question while doing so;

(e) the defendant may introduce evidence;

(f) a party may introduce further evidence if it is then admissible (for example, because it is in rebuttal of evidence already introduced);

(g) the prosecutor may make final representations in support of the prosecution case, where—

- (i) the defendant is represented by a legal representative, or
- (ii) whether represented or not, the defendant has introduced evidence other than his or her own; and

(h) the defendant may make final representations in support of the defence case.

(4) Where a party wants to introduce evidence or make representations after that party's opportunity to do so under paragraph (3), the court—

(a) may refuse to receive any such evidence or representations; and

(b) must not receive any such evidence or representations after it has announced its verdict.

(5) If the court—

(a) convicts the defendant; or

(b) makes a hospital order instead of doing so, it must give sufficient reasons to explain its decision.

(6) If the court acquits the defendant, it may—

- (a) give an explanation of its decision; and
- (b) exercise any power it has to make—
 - (i) a behaviour order,
 - (ii) a costs order.

[Note. See section 9 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a).

Under section 37(3) of the Mental Health Act 1983(b), if the court is satisfied that the defendant did the act or made the omission alleged, then it may make a hospital order without convicting the defendant.

Under section 35 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994(c), the court may draw such inferences as appear proper from a defendant's failure to give evidence, or refusal without good cause to answer a question while doing so. The procedure set out in rule 37.3(3)(d) is prescribed by that section.

The admissibility of evidence that a party introduces is governed by rules of evidence.

Section 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1865(d) and section 3 of the Criminal Evidence Act 1898(e) restrict the circumstances in which the prosecutor may make final representations without the court's permission.

See rule 24.11 for the procedure if the court convicts the defendant.

Part 31 contains rules about behaviour orders.]

Evidence of a witness in person

24.4.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to introduce evidence by calling a witness to give that evidence in person.

(2) Unless the court otherwise directs—

- (a) a witness waiting to give evidence must not wait inside the courtroom, unless that witness is—
 - (i) a party, or
 - (ii) an expert witness;
- (b) a witness who gives evidence in the courtroom must do so from the place provided for that purpose; and
- (c) a witness' address must not be announced unless it is relevant to an issue in the case.

(3) Unless other legislation otherwise provides, before giving evidence a witness must take an oath or affirm.

(4) In the following sequence—

- (a) the party who calls a witness must ask questions in examination-in-chief;
- (b) every other party may ask questions in cross-examination;
- (c) the party who called the witness may ask questions in re-examination.

(5) If other legislation so permits, at any time while giving evidence a witness may refer to a record of that witness' recollection of events.

Section 28 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1963(d) provides that in a youth court, and where a witness in any court is under 18, an oath must include the words 'I promise' in place of the words 'I swear'. Under sections 55 and 56 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, a person may give evidence without taking an oath, or making an affirmation, where that person (i) is under 14 or (ii) has an insufficient appreciation of the solemnity of the occasion and of the particular responsibility to tell the truth which is involved in taking an oath.

- (a) the defendant is charged with a sexual offence against the witness;
- (b) the defendant is charged with a sexual offence, or one of certain other offences, and the witness is a child; or
- (c) the court prohibits the defendant from cross-examining the witness.

Part 23 contains rules relevant to restrictions on cross-examination.

Under section 139 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(g), a witness may refresh his or her memory by referring to a record made before the hearing, either contained in a document made or verified by the witness, or in the transcript of a sound recording, if—

[Note. See section 10 of the Criminal Justice Act 1967(c). The admissibility of evidence that a party introduces is governed by rules of evidence.]

Procedure on plea of guilty

24.7.—(1) This rule applies if—

- (2) The defendant must apply to do so—
- (a) as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the reasons for doing so; and

- (a) the court officer; and
 - (b) the prosecutor.
- (4) The application must—
- (a) explain why it would be unjust not to allow the defendant to withdraw the guilty plea;
 - (b) identify—
 - (i) any witness that the defendant wants to call, and

 - (c) say whether the defendant waives legal professional privilege, giving any relevant name and date.

Procedure if the court convicts

- 24.11.—(1) This rule applies if the court convicts the defendant.
- (2) The court—
- (a) may exercise its power to require—
 - (i) a statement of the defendant's assets and other financial circumstances,
 - (ii) a pre-sentence report; and
 - (b) may (and in some circumstances must) remit the defendant to a youth court for sentence where—
 - (i) the defendant is under 18, and
 - (ii) the convicting court is not itself a youth court.
- (3) The prosecutor must—
- (a) summarise the prosecution case, if the sentencing court has not heard evidence;
 - (b) identify any offence to be taken into consideration in sentencing;
 - (c) provide information relevant to sentence, including any statement of the effect of the offence on the victim, the victim's family or others; and

- (d) where it is likely to assist the court, identify any other matter relevant to sentence, including—
 - (i) the legislation applicable,
 - (ii) any sentencing guidelines, or guideline cases,
 - (iii) aggravating and mitigating features affecting the defendant’s culpability and the harm which the offence caused, was intended to cause or might foreseeably have caused, and
 - (iv) the effect of such of the information listed in paragraph (2)(a) as the court may need to take into account.
- (4) The defendant must provide details of financial circumstances—
 - (a) in any form required by the court officer;
 - (b) by any date directed by the court or by the court officer.
- (5) Where the defendant pleads guilty but wants to be sentenced on a different basis to that disclosed by the prosecution case—
 - (a) the defendant must set out that basis in writing, identifying what is in dispute;
 - (b) the court may invite the parties to make representations about whether the dispute is material to sentence; and
 - (c) if the court decides that it is a material dispute, the court must—
 - (i) invite such further representations or evidence as it may require, and
 - (ii) decide the dispute.
- (6) Where the court has power to order the endorsement of the defendant’s driving record, or power to order the defendant to be disqualified from driving—
 - (a) if other legislation so permits, a defendant who wants the court not to exercise that power must introduce the evidence or information on which the defendant relies;
 - (b) the prosecutor may introduce evidence; and
 - (c) the parties may make representations about that evidence or information.
- (7) Before the court passes sentence—
 - (a) the court must—
 - (i) give the defendant an opportunity to make representations and introduce evidence relevant to sentence, and
 - (ii) where the defendant is under 18, give the defendant’s parents, guardian or other supporting adult, if present, such an opportunity as well; and
 - (b) the justices’ legal adviser or the court must elicit any further information relevant to sentence that the court may require.

 - (b) 4 weeks at a time.
- (9) When the court has taken into account all the evidence, information and any report available, the court must—
 - (a) as a general rule, pass sentence there and then;
 - (b) when passing sentence, explain the reasons for deciding on that sentence, unless neither the defendant nor any member of the public, including any reporter, is present;
 - (c) when passing sentence, explain to the defendant its effect, the consequences of failing to comply with any order or pay any fine, and any power that the court has to vary or review the sentence, unless—
 - (i) the defendant is absent, or

- (ii) the defendant's ill-health or disorderly conduct makes such an explanation impracticable;
 - (d) give any such explanation in terms the defendant, if present, can understand (with help, if necessary); and
 - (e) consider exercising any power it has to make a costs or other order.
- (10) Despite the general rule—
- (a) the court must adjourn the hearing if the defendant is absent, the case started with a summons, requisition or single justice procedure notice, and either—
 - (i) the court considers passing a custodial sentence (where it can do so), or
 - (ii) the court considers imposing a disqualification (unless it has already adjourned the hearing to give the defendant an opportunity to attend);
 - (b) the court may exercise any power it has to—
 - (i) commit the defendant to the Crown Court for sentence (and in some cases it must do so), or
 - (ii) defer sentence for up to 6 months.

[Note. See sections 9, 10 and 11 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a), and sections 143, 158, 164, 172 and 174 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(b).

Under section 11(3A) of the 1980 Act, a custodial sentence passed in the defendant's absence does not take effect until the defendant is brought before the court.

Under section 162 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(d), the court may require a defendant who is an individual to provide a statement of assets and other financial circumstances if the defendant—

- (a) serves notice of guilty plea, where rule 24.8 (Written guilty plea: special rules) applies; or
- (b) is convicted.

Under section 20A of the Criminal Justice Act 1991(e), it is an offence for a defendant knowingly or recklessly to make a false or incomplete statement of assets or other financial circumstances, or to fail to provide such a statement, in response to a request by a court officer on behalf of the court.

Under section 156 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(a), the general rule (subject to exceptions) is that the court must obtain and consider a pre-sentence report—

- (a) where it is considering a custodial sentence or a community sentence;*
- (b) where it thinks the defendant may pose a significant risk of causing serious harm to the public by further offending.*

Under section 159 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(b), where the court obtains a written pre-sentence report about a defendant who is under 18, it may direct that information in it must be withheld, if it would be likely to create a risk of significant harm to the defendant.

For the circumstances in which a magistrates' court may (and in some cases must) remit the defendant to a youth court for sentence, see section 8 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(c).

The Sentencing Council may issue sentencing guidelines under section 120 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009(d).

For the circumstances in which a court may (and in some cases must) order the endorsement of a defendant's driving record, or the disqualification of a defendant from driving, see sections 34, 35 and 44 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988(e). Under that legislation, in some circumstances the court has discretion not to make such an order. See also rule 29.1.

The evidence that may be introduced is subject to rules of evidence.

In addition to the specific powers to which this rule applies, the court has a general power to adjourn a trial: see rule 24.2.

Under section 174(4) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(f), Criminal Procedure Rules may prescribe cases in which there do not apply the court's usual duties to give reasons and explanations. Written notice of the effect of some sentences is required by rule 28.2 (Notice of requirements of suspended sentence or community, etc. order), rule 28.3 (Notification requirements) and rule 30.2 (notice of fine or other financial order).

For the circumstances in which a magistrates' court may (and in some cases must) commit a defendant to the Crown Court for sentence, see sections 3, 3A, 3B, 3C, 4, 4A and 6 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(g).

Procedure where a party is absent

24.12.—(1) This rule—

- (a) applies where a party is absent; but
- (b) does not apply where—
 - (i) the defendant has served a notice of guilty plea under rule 24.8 (Written guilty plea: special rules), or
 - (ii) the court tries a case under rule 24.9 (Single justice procedure: special rules).

(2) Where the prosecutor is absent, the court may—

- (a) if it has received evidence, deal with the case as if the prosecutor were present; and
- (b) in any other case—
 - (i) enquire into the reasons for the prosecutor's absence, and
 - (ii) if satisfied there is no good reason, exercise its power to dismiss the allegation.

(3) Where the defendant is absent—

- (a) the general rule is that the court must proceed as if the defendant—

- (b) the general rule does not apply if the defendant is under 18;
- (c) the general rule is subject to the court being satisfied that—
 - (i) any summons or requisition was served on the defendant a reasonable time before the hearing, or
 - (ii) in a case in which the hearing has been adjourned, the defendant had reasonable notice of where and when it would resume;
- (d) the general rule is subject also to rule 24.11(10)(a) (restrictions on passing sentence in the defendant's absence).

(4) Where the defendant is absent, the court—

- (a) must exercise its power to issue a warrant for the defendant's arrest, if it passes a custodial sentence; and

Under section 27 of the 1980 Act, where a magistrates' court dismisses an allegation of an offence classified as one that can be tried either in a magistrates' court or in the Crown Court (in other legislation, described as triable either way), that dismissal has the same effect as an acquittal in the Crown Court.

Under section 11 of the 1980 Act, the court may pass a custodial sentence in the defendant's absence if the case started with the defendant's arrest and charge (and not with a summons or

Under section 25 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988, where the court does not know a defendant's sex or date of birth, then on convicting the defendant of an offence involving obligatory or discretionary disqualification, the court must order the defendant to provide that information.

Under Part 5, the magistrates' court officer must record details of a case and of the court's decisions.]

Statutory declaration of ignorance of proceedings

24.17.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) the case started with—
 - (i) an information and summons,
 - (ii) a written charge and requisition, or
 - (iii) a written charge and single justice procedure notice; and
- (b) under section 14 or section 16E of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(b), the defendant makes a statutory declaration of not having found out about the case until after the trial began.

(2) The defendant must—

- (a) serve such a declaration on the court officer—
 - (i) not more than 21 days after the date of finding out about the case, or
 - (ii) with an explanation for the delay, if serving it more than 21 days after that date;
- (b) serve with the declaration one of the following, as appropriate, if the case began with a written charge and single justice procedure notice—
 - (i) a notice under rule 24.9(4)(a) (notice of guilty plea), with any representations that the defendant wants the court to consider and a statement of the defendant's assets and other financial circumstances, as required by that rule,
 - (ii) a notice under rule 24.9(4)(b) (notice of intention to plead guilty at a hearing before a court comprising more than one justice), or
 - (iii) a notice under rule 24.9(4)(c) (notice of intention to plead not guilty).

(3) The court may extend that time limit, even after it has expired—

- (a) at a hearing, in public or in private; or
- (b) without a hearing.

(4) Where the defendant serves such a declaration, in time or with an extension of time in which to do so, and the case began with a summons or requisition—

- (a) the court must treat the summons or requisition and all subsequent proceedings as void (but not the information or written charge with which the case began);
- (b) if the defendant is present when the declaration is served, the rules in this Part apply as if the defendant had been required to attend the court on that occasion;
- (c) if the defendant is absent when the declaration is served—
 - (i) the rules in Part 7 apply (Starting a prosecution in a magistrates' court) as if the prosecutor had just served an information in the same terms as the original information or written charge;

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 10 was amended by section 59 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 9 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48), section 68 of, and paragraph 6 of Schedule 8 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53) and section 47 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37).

(b) 1980 c. 43; section 14 was amended by section 109 of, and paragraph 205 of Schedule 8 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39). Section 16E was inserted by section 48 of the Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015 (c. 2).

- (ii) the court may exercise its power to issue a summons in accordance with those rules; and
 - (iii) except for rule 24.8 (Written guilty plea: special rules), the rules in this Part then apply.
- (5) Where the defendant serves such a declaration, in time or with an extension of time in which to do so, and the case began with a single justice procedure notice—
- (a) the court must treat the single justice procedure notice and all subsequent proceedings as void (but not the written charge with which the case began);
 - (b) rule 24.9 (Single justice procedure: special rules) applies as if the defendant had served the notice required by paragraph (2)(b) of this rule within the time allowed by rule 24.9(4); and
 - (c) where that notice is under rule 24.9(4)(b) (notice of intention to plead guilty at a hearing before a court comprising more than one justice) or under rule 24.9(4)(c) (notice of intention to plead not guilty), then—
 - (i) if the defendant is present when the declaration is served, the rules in this Part apply as if the defendant had been required to attend the court on that occasion,
 - (ii) if the defendant is absent when the declaration is served, paragraph (6) of this rule applies.
- (6) Where this paragraph applies, the court must exercise its power to issue a summons and—
- (a) the rules in Part 7 apply (Starting a prosecution in a magistrates' court) as if the prosecutor had just served an information in the same terms as the written charge;
 - (b) except for rule 24.8 (Written guilty plea: special rules) and rule 24.9 (Single justice procedure: special rules), the rules in this Part apply.

[Note. Under sections 14 and 16E of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, proceedings which begin with a summons, requisition or single justice procedure notice will become void if the defendant, at any time during or after the trial, makes a statutory declaration that he or she did not know of them until a date after the trial began.]

Under section 14(3) or section 16E(9) of the 1980 Act, the court which decides whether or not to extend the time limit for serving a declaration under this rule may comprise a single justice.

The Practice Direction sets out a form of declaration for use in connection with this rule.]

Setting aside a conviction or varying a costs etc. order

24.18.—(1) This rule applies where under section 142 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a), the court can—

- (a) set aside a conviction, or
 - (b) vary or rescind—
 - (i) a costs order, or
 - (ii) an order to which Part 31 applies (Behaviour orders).
- (2) The court may exercise its power—
- (a) on application by a party, or on its own initiative;
 - (b) at a hearing, in public or in private, or without a hearing.
- (3) The court must not exercise its power in a party's absence unless—
- (a) the court makes a decision proposed by that party;
 - (b) the court makes a decision to which that party has agreed in writing; or

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 142 was amended by sections 26 and 29 of, and Schedule 3 to, the Criminal Appeal Act 1995 (c. 35).

- (c) that party has had an opportunity to make representations at a hearing (whether or not that party in fact attends).
- (4) A party who wants the court to exercise its power must—
 - (a) apply in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after the conviction or order that that party wants the court to set aside, vary or rescind;
 - (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party; and
 - (c) in the application—
 - (i) explain why, as appropriate, the conviction should be set aside, or the order varied or rescinded,
 - (ii) specify any variation of the order that the applicant proposes,
 - (iii) identify any witness that the defendant wants to call, and any other proposed evidence,
 - (iv) say whether the defendant waives legal professional privilege, giving any relevant name and date, and
 - (v) if the application is late, explain why.
- (5) The court may—
 - (a) extend (even after it has expired) the time limit under paragraph (4), unless the court’s power to set aside the conviction, or vary the order, can no longer be exercised;
 - (b) allow an application to be made orally.

[Note. Under section 142 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980—

- (a) where a defendant is convicted by a magistrates’ court, the court may order that the case should be heard again by different justices; and*
- (b) the court may vary or rescind an order which it has made when dealing with a convicted defendant,* if in either case it appears to the court to be in the interests of justice to do so.

The power cannot be exercised if the Crown Court or the High Court has determined an appeal about that conviction or order.

When this Part applies

25.1. This Part applies in the Crown Court where—

- (a) the court tries a case; or
- (b) the defendant pleads guilty.

[Note. The Crown Court’s powers to try an allegation of an offence are contained in sections 45 and 46 of the Senior Courts Act 1981(a).]

The exercise of the court’s powers is affected by—

- (a) the classification of the offence (and the general rule, subject to exceptions, is that the Crown Court must try—
 - (i) an offence classified as one that can be tried only in the Crown Court (in other legislation, described as triable only on indictment), and
 - (ii) an offence classified as one that can be tried either in a magistrates’ court or in the Crown Court (in other legislation, described as triable either way) that has been allocated for trial in the Crown Court); and
- (b) the defendant’s age (and the general rule is that an allegation of an offence against a defendant under 18 must be tried in a magistrates’ court sitting as a youth court, irrespective of the classification of the offence and without allocation for trial there, unless the offence is—
 - (i) one of homicide,
 - (ii) one for which a convicted adult could be imprisoned for 14 years or more,
 - (iii) one of certain specified offences involving firearms, or
 - (iv) one of certain specified sexual offences).

See sections 17 and 24 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(b) and section 51A of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(c).

(a) 1981 c. 54.
(b) 1980 c. 43; section 24 was amended by paragraph 47 of Schedule 14 to the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48), sections 17, 68 and 101 of, and paragraph 6 of Schedule 8 and Schedule 13 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), paragraph 40 of Schedule 10, and Schedule 11, to the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), sections 47 and 119 of, and paragraph 40 of Schedule 8, to the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c. 37), paragraph 64 of Schedule 9 to the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (c. 6), section 42 of, and paragraphs 1 and 9 of Schedule 3, and Part 4 of Schedule 37, to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and sections 49 and 65 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 and Schedule 5 to, the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 (c. 38).
(c) 1998 c. 37; section 51A was inserted by paragraphs 15 and 18 of Schedule 3 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44) and amended by section 49 of, and paragraph 5 of Schedule 1 to, the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 (c. 38) and paragraph 6 of Schedule 21 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10).
(d) 1933 c. 12; section 34A was inserted by section 56 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53) and amended by section 107 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 5 to, the Local Government Act 2000 (c. 22).

- (a) may require the defendant's parents or guardian to attend court with the defendant, where the defendant is under 18; and
- (b) must do so, where the defendant is under 16,

unless satisfied that that would be unreasonable. Part 46 (Representatives) contains rules allowing a parent, guardian or other supporting adult to help a defendant under 18.]

General powers and requirements

25.2.—(1) Where this Part applies, the general rule is that—

 - (ii) withhold information from the public during a public hearing, or
 - (iii) order a trial in private;

 - (i) the defendant has a legal representative,

(2) The court may adjourn the trial at any stage.

[Note. See section 83 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(b). Section 83(3) applies to a defendant if—

- (a) representation was made available to the defendant for the purposes of the proceedings under Part 1 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 but was withdrawn because of the defendant's conduct or because it appeared that the defendant's financial resources were such that he or she was not eligible for such representation;
- (b) the defendant applied for such representation and the application was refused because it appeared that the defendant's financial resources were such that he or she was not eligible for such representation; or
- (c) having been informed of the right to apply for such representation and having had the opportunity to do so, the defendant refused or failed to apply.

Part 6 contains rules about reporting, etc. restrictions. For a list of the court's powers to impose reporting and access restrictions, see the note to rule 6.1.]

- (b) that has not been determined before the trial begins.

(2) The application is subject to any other rule that applies to it (for example, as to the time and form in which the application must be made).

(3) Unless the court otherwise directs, the application must be made, and the court's decision announced, in the absence of the jury (if there is one).

[Note. See also rule 3.13 (Pre-trial hearings).]

Procedure on plea of guilty

25.4.—(1) This rule applies if—

- (a) the defendant pleads guilty to an offence; and
- (b) the court is satisfied that the plea represents a clear acknowledgement of guilt.

(2) The court need not receive evidence unless rule 25.16(4) applies (determination of facts for sentencing).

[Note. See also rule 3.24 (Arraigning the defendant on the indictment).]

Application to vacate a guilty plea

25.5.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants the court to vacate a guilty plea.

(2) Such a party must—

- (a) apply in writing—
 - (i) as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so, and
 - (ii) in any event, before the final disposal of the case, by sentence or otherwise; and
- (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) the prosecutor.

(3) Unless the court otherwise directs, the application must—

- (a) explain why it would be unjust for the guilty plea to remain unchanged;
- (b) indicate what, if any, evidence the applicant wishes to call;
- (c) identify any proposed witness; and
- (d) indicate whether legal professional privilege is waived, specifying any material name and date.

Selecting the jury

25.6.—(1) This rule—

- (a) applies where—
 - (i) the defendant pleads not guilty,
 - (ii) the defendant declines to enter a plea and the court treats that as a not guilty plea, or
 - (iii) the court determines that the defendant is not fit to be tried;
- (b) does not apply where—
 - (i) the court orders a trial without a jury because of a danger of jury tampering or where jury tampering appears to have taken place, or

- (ii) the court tries without a jury counts on an indictment after a trial of sample counts with a jury.
- (2) The court must select a jury to try the case from the panel, or part of the panel, of jurors summoned by the Lord Chancellor to attend at that time and place.
- (3) Where it appears that too few jurors to constitute a jury will be available from among those so summoned, the court—
- (a) may exercise its own power to summon others in the court room, or in the vicinity, up to the number likely to be required, and add their names to the panel summoned by the Lord Chancellor; but
 - (b) must inform the parties, if they are absent when the court exercises that power.
- (4) The court must select the jury by drawing at random each juror’s name from among those so summoned and—
- (a) announcing each name so drawn; or
 - (b) announcing an identifying number assigned by the court officer to that person, where the court is satisfied that that is necessary.
- (5) If too few jurors to constitute a jury are available from the panel after all their names have been drawn, the court may—
- (a) exercise its own power to summon others in the court room, or in the vicinity, up to the number required; and
 - (b) announce—
 - (i) the name of each person so summoned, or
 - (ii) an identifying number assigned by the court officer to that person, where the court is satisfied that that is necessary.
- (6) The jury the court selects—
- (a) must comprise no fewer than 12 jurors;
 - (b) may comprise as many as 14 jurors to begin with, where the court expects the trial to last for more than 4 weeks.
- (7) Where the court selects a jury comprising more than 12 jurors, the court must explain to them that—
- (a) the purpose of selecting more than 12 jurors to begin with is to fill any vacancy or vacancies caused by the discharge of any of the first 12 before the prosecution evidence begins;
 - (b) any such vacancy or vacancies will be filled by the extra jurors in order of their selection from the panel;
 - (c) the court will discharge any extra juror or jurors remaining by no later than the beginning of the prosecution evidence; and
 - (d) any juror who is discharged for that reason then will be available to be selected for service on another jury, during the period for which that juror has been summoned.
- (8) Each of the 12 or more jurors the court selects—
- (a) must take an oath or affirm; and
 - (b) becomes a full jury member until discharged.
- (9) The oath or affirmation must be in these terms, or in any corresponding terms that the juror declares to be binding on him or her—

“I swear by Almighty God [or I do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm] that I will faithfully try the defendant and give a true verdict according to the evidence.”

[Note. See sections 2, 5, 6, and 11 of the Juries Act 1974(a). See also rule 38.7 (Discharging jurors).

Under sections 44 and 46 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(b), the court may try a case without a jury where there is a danger of jury tampering, or where jury tampering appears to have taken place. Under section 17 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004(c), the court may try sample counts with a jury and other counts without a jury. Part 3 (preparation for trial in the Crown Court) contains rules about an application for such a trial.

Sections 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of the Oaths Act 1978(d) provide for the taking of oaths and the making of affirmations, and for the words that must be used.

Part 26 contains other rules about jurors.]

Discharging jurors

25.7.—(1) The court may exercise its power to discharge a juror at any time—

- (a) after the juror completes the oath or affirmation; and
- (b) before the court discharges the jury.

(2) No later than the beginning of the prosecution evidence, if the jury then comprises more than 12 jurors the court must discharge any in excess of 12 in reverse order of their selection from the panel.

(3) The court may exercise its power to discharge the jury at any time—

- (a) after each juror has completed the oath or affirmation; and
- (b) before the jury has delivered its verdict on each offence charged in the indictment.

(4) The court must exercise its power to discharge the jury when, in respect of each offence charged in the indictment, either—

- (a) the jury has delivered its verdict on that offence; or
- (b) the court has discharged the jury from reaching a verdict.

[Note. See sections 16 and 18 of the Juries Act 1974(e).]

Objecting to jurors

25.8.—(1) A party who objects to the panel of jurors must serve notice explaining the objection on the court officer and on the other party before the first juror's name or number is drawn.

(2) A party who objects to the selection of an individual juror must—

- (a) tell the court of the objection—
 - (i) after the juror's name or number is announced, and
 - (ii) before the juror completes the oath or affirmation; and
- (b) explain the objection.

(3) A prosecutor who exercises the prosecution right without giving reasons to prevent the court selecting an individual juror must announce the exercise of that right before the juror completes the oath or affirmation.

(e) 1974 c. 23; section 16 was amended by sections 121 and 170 of, and Schedule 16 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (c. 33).

- (4) The court must determine an objection under paragraph (1) or (2)—
 - (a) at a hearing, in public or in private; and
 - (b) in the absence of the jurors, unless the court otherwise directs.

[Note. See section 29 of the Juries Act 1825(a) and section 12 of the Juries Act 1974(b).]

Procedure on plea of not guilty

25.9.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) the defendant pleads not guilty; or
- (b) the defendant declines to enter a plea and the court treats that as a not guilty plea.

(2) In the following sequence—

- (a) where there is a jury, the court must—
 - (i) inform the jurors of each offence charged in the indictment to which the defendant pleads not guilty, and
 - (ii) explain to the jurors that it is their duty, after hearing the evidence, to decide whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of each offence;
- (b) the prosecutor may summarise the prosecution case;
- (c) the prosecutor must introduce the evidence on which the prosecution case relies;
- (d) subject to paragraph (3), at the end of the prosecution evidence, on the defendant's application or on its own initiative, the court—
 - (i) may direct the jury (if there is one) to acquit on the ground that the prosecution evidence is insufficient for any reasonable court properly to convict, but
 - (ii) must not do so unless the prosecutor has had an opportunity to make representations;
- (e) subject to paragraph (4), at the end of the prosecution evidence, the court must ask whether the defendant intends to give evidence in person and, if the answer is 'no', then the court must satisfy itself that there has been explained to the defendant, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—
 - (i) the right to give evidence in person, and
 - (ii) that if the defendant does not give evidence in person, or refuses to answer a question while giving evidence, the court may draw such inferences as seem proper;
- (f) the defendant may summarise the defence case, if he or she intends to call at least one witness other than him or herself to give evidence in person about the facts of the case;
- (g) in this order (or in a different order, if the court so directs) the defendant may—
 - (i) give evidence in person,
 - (ii) call another witness, or witnesses, to give evidence in person, and
 - (iii) introduce any other evidence;
- (h) a party may introduce further evidence if it is then admissible (for example, because it is in rebuttal of evidence already introduced);
- (i) the prosecutor may make final representations, where—
 - (i) the defendant has a legal representative,
 - (ii) the defendant has called at least one witness, other than the defendant him or herself, to give evidence in person about the facts of the case, or
 - (iii) the court so permits; and

(a) 1825 c. 50; section 29 was amended by section 40 of, and paragraph 3 of Schedule 4 to, the Courts Act 1971 (c. 23). There are other amendments not relevant to this rule.

(b) 1974 c. 23; section 12 was amended by section 170 of, and Schedule 16 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (c. 33).

(j) the defendant may make final representations.

(3) Paragraph (2)(d) does not apply in relation to a charge of murder, manslaughter, attempted murder, or causing harm contrary to section 18 or 20 of the Offences against the Person Act 1861(a) until the court has heard all the evidence (including any defence evidence), where the defendant is charged with—

- (a) any of those offences; and
- (b) an offence of causing or allowing a child or vulnerable adult to die or to suffer serious physical harm, contrary to section 5 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004(b).

(4) Paragraph (2)(e) does not apply where it appears to the court that, taking account of all the circumstances, the defendant's physical or mental condition makes it undesirable for the defendant to give evidence in person.

(5) Where there is more than one defendant, this rule applies to each in the order their names appear in the indictment, or in an order directed by the court.

(6) Unless the jury (if there is one) has retired to consider its verdict, the court may allow a party to introduce evidence, or make representations, after that party's opportunity to do so under paragraph (2).

(7) Unless the jury has already reached a verdict on a count, the court may exercise its power to—

- (a) discharge the jury from reaching a verdict on that count;
- (b) direct the jury to acquit the defendant on that count; or
- (c) invite the jury to convict the defendant, if the defendant pleads guilty to the offence charged by that count.

[Note. See also rule 3.24 (Arraigning the defendant on the indictment).

The admissibility of evidence that a party introduces is governed by rules of evidence.

Under section 35 of the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994(c), the court may draw such inferences as appear proper from a defendant's failure to give evidence, or refusal without good cause to answer a question while doing so. The procedure set out in rule 25.9(2)(e) and (4) is prescribed by that section.

Section 2 of the Criminal Evidence Act 1898(d) restricts the circumstances in which the defendant may summarise the defence case before introducing evidence.

Section 79 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984(e) requires a defendant who wishes to give evidence in person to do so before calling any other witness, unless the court otherwise permits.

Section 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1865(f) and section 3 of the Criminal Evidence Act 1898(g) restrict the circumstances in which the prosecutor may make final representations without the court's permission. See also section 1 of the Criminal Procedure (Right of Reply) Act 1964(h).

The procedure set out in rule 25.9(3) is prescribed by sections 6 and 6A of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004(a).

Under section 17 of the Criminal Justice Act 1967(b), the court may direct the jury to acquit where the prosecutor offers no evidence.

See rule 25.14 for the procedure on taking the verdict and rule 25.16 for the procedure if the court convicts the defendant.]

Defendant unfit to plead

25.10.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) it appears to the court, on application or on its own initiative, that the defendant may not be fit to be tried; and
- (b) the defendant has not by then been acquitted of each offence charged by the indictment.

(2) The court—

- (a) must exercise its power to decide, without a jury, whether the defendant is fit to be tried;
- (b) may postpone the exercise of that power until immediately before the opening of the defence case.

(3) Where the court determines that the defendant is not fit to be tried—

- (a) the court must exercise its power to appoint a person to put the case for the defence, taking account of all the circumstances and in particular—
 - (i) the willingness and suitability (including the qualifications and experience) of that person,
 - (ii) the nature and complexity of the case,
 - (iii) any advantage of continuity of representation, and
 - (iv) the defendant’s wishes and needs;
- (b) the court must select a jury, if none has been selected yet; and
- (c) rule 25.9 (Procedure on plea of not guilty) applies, if the steps it lists have not already been taken, except that—
 - (i) everything which that rule requires to be done by the defendant may be done instead by the person appointed to put the case for the defence,
 - (ii) under rule 25.9(2)(a), the court must explain to the jurors that their duty is to decide whether or not the defendant did the act or made the omission charged as an offence, not whether the defendant is guilty of that offence, and
 - (iii) rule 25.9(2)(e) does not apply (warning of consequences of defendant not giving evidence).

[Note. See sections 4 and 4A of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964(c).

Under section 4 of the 1964 Act, the court must not determine the defendant’s fitness to be tried except on the evidence of two or more registered medical practitioners, at least one of whom is approved as having special experience in the diagnosis or treatment of mental disorder. Under section 4A, if satisfied that the defendant did the act or made the omission charged as an offence the jury must make a finding to that effect, and if not so satisfied must acquit the defendant.]

(b) 1967 c. 80; section 17 was amended by paragraph 42 of Schedule 36 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(c) 1964 c. 84; sections 4 and 4A were substituted for section 4 as originally enacted by section 2 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity and Unfitness to Plead) Act 1991 (c. 25), and amended by section 22 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (c. 28).

Evidence of a witness in person

25.11.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to introduce evidence by calling a witness to give that evidence in person.

(2) Unless the court otherwise directs—

- (a) a witness waiting to give evidence must not wait inside the courtroom, unless that witness is—
 - (i) a party, or
 - (ii) an expert witness;
- (b) a witness who gives evidence in the courtroom must do so from the place provided for that purpose; and
- (c) a witness' address—
 - (i) must not be given in public unless the address is relevant to an issue in the case,
 - (ii) may be given in writing to the court, parties and jury.

(3) Unless other legislation otherwise provides, before giving evidence a witness must take an oath or affirm.

(4) In the following sequence—

- (a) the party who calls a witness may ask questions in examination-in-chief;
- (b) if the witness gives evidence for the prosecution—
 - (i) the defendant, if there is only one, may ask questions in cross-examination, or
 - (ii) subject to the court's directions, each defendant, if there is more than one, may ask such questions, in the order their names appear in the indictment or as directed by the court;
- (c) if the witness gives evidence for a defendant—
 - (i) subject to the court's directions, each other defendant, if there is more than one, may ask questions in cross-examination, in the order their names appear in the indictment or as directed by the court, and
 - (ii) the prosecutor may ask such questions;
- (d) the party who called the witness may ask questions in re-examination arising out of any cross-examination.

(5) If other legislation so permits, at any time while giving evidence a witness may refer to a record of that witness' recollection of events.

(6) The court may—

- (a) ask a witness questions; and in particular
- (b) where the defendant is not represented, ask a witness any question necessary in the defendant's interests.

[Note. Section 53 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(a) provides that everyone is competent to give evidence in criminal proceedings unless unable to understand questions put or give intelligible answers. See also section 1 of the Criminal Evidence Act 1898(b).]

Sections 1, 3, 5 and 6 of the Oaths Act 1978(c) provide for the taking of oaths and the making of affirmations, and for the words that must be used. Section 28 of the Children and Young Persons

(a) 1999 c. 23.

(b) 1898 c. 36; section 1 was amended by section 1 of the Criminal Evidence Act 1979 (c. 16), section 78 of, and Schedule 16 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48), sections 80(9) and 119(2) of, and Schedule 7 to, the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (c. 60), sections 31 and 168 of, and paragraph 2 of Schedule 10, and Schedule 11 to, the Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 (c. 33), section 67 of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 4, and Schedule 6 to, the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 (c. 23) and sections 331 and 332 of, and paragraph 80 of Schedule 36, and Part 5 of Schedule 37 to, the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44).

(c) 1978 c. 19.

Act 1963(a) provides that in a youth court, and where a witness in any court is under 18, an oath must include the words 'I promise' in place of the words 'I swear'. Under sections 55 and 56 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999, a person may give evidence without taking an oath, or making an affirmation, where that person (i) is under 14 or (ii) has an insufficient appreciation of the solemnity of the occasion and of the particular responsibility to tell the truth which is involved in taking an oath.

The questions that may be put to a witness—

- (a) by a party are governed by rules of evidence, for example—
 - (i) the rule that a question must be relevant to what is in issue,
 - (ii) the rule that the party who calls a witness must not ask that witness a leading question about what is in dispute, and
 - (iii) the rule that a party who calls a witness may contradict that witness only in limited circumstances (see section 3 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1865)(b);
- (b) by the court are in its discretion, but that is subject to—
 - (i) rules of evidence, and
 - (ii) rule 1.3 (the application by the court of the overriding objective).

Under sections 34, 35 and 36 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(c), a defendant who is not represented may not cross-examine a witness where—

- (a) the defendant is charged with a sexual offence against the witness;
- (b) the defendant is charged with a sexual offence, or one of certain other offences, and the witness is a child; or
- (c) the court prohibits the defendant from cross-examining the witness.

Part 23 contains rules relevant to restrictions on cross-examination.

Under section 139 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(d), a witness may refresh his or her memory by referring to a record made earlier, either contained in a document made or verified by the witness, or in the transcript of a sound recording, if—

- (a) the witness states that it records his or her recollection of events at that earlier time; and
- (b) that recollection is likely to have been significantly better when the record was made than by the time the witness gives evidence in person.

In some circumstances, a witness may give evidence in accordance with special measures directed by the court under section 19 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999(e), or by live link under section 32 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988(f) or section 51 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003. Part 18 contains relevant rules.]

Evidence of a witness in writing

25.12.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to introduce in evidence the written statement of a witness to which applies—

- (a) 1963 c. 37; section 28 was amended by section 2 of the Oaths Act 1978 (c. 19) and section 100 of, and paragraph 40 of Schedule 11 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53).
 - (b) 1865 c. 18.

 - (f) 1988 c. 33; section 32 was amended by section 55 of the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), section 29 of, and paragraph 16 of Schedule 2 to, the Criminal Appeal Act 1995 (c. 35), section 62 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (c. 25), section 67 of, and Schedule 6 and paragraph 3 of Schedule 7 to, the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 (c. 23) and paragraphs 24 and 26 of the Schedule to S.I. 2004/2035.

- (a) Part 16 (Written witness statements);
 - (b) Part 19 (Expert evidence); or
 - (c) Part 20 (Hearsay evidence).
- (2) If the court admits such evidence—
- (a) the court and the jury (if there is one) must read the statement;
 - (b) the gist of the statement must be summarised aloud; and
 - (c) unless the court otherwise directs, if any member of the public, including any reporter, is present, each relevant part of the statement must be read or summarised aloud.

[Note. See Parts 16, 19 and 20, and the other legislation to which those Parts apply. The admissibility of evidence that a party introduces is governed by rules of evidence.]

A written witness statement to which Part 16 applies may only be introduced in evidence if there has been no objection within the time limit to which rule 16.4 refers.

An expert report to which Part 19 applies may only be introduced in evidence if it has been served in accordance with rule 19.3.

Rule 20.3 provides for opposing the introduction of hearsay evidence, including such evidence in a document.

Where a witness gives evidence in person, a previous written statement by that witness may be admissible as evidence under section 119 (Inconsistent statements) or under section 120 (Other previous statements of witnesses) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.]

Evidence by admission

- 25.13.—(1) This rule applies where—
- (a) a party introduces in evidence a fact admitted by another party; or
 - (b) parties jointly admit a fact.
- (2) Unless the court otherwise directs, a written record must be made of the admission.

[Note. See section 10 of the Criminal Justice Act 1967(a). The admissibility of evidence that a party introduces is governed by rules of evidence.]

Directions to the jury and taking the verdict

- 25.14.—(1) This rule applies where there is a jury.
- (2) The court must give the jury directions about the relevant law at any time at which to do so will assist jurors to evaluate the evidence.
- (3) After following the sequence in rule 25.9 (Procedure on plea of not guilty), the court must—
- (a) summarise for the jury, to such extent as is necessary, the evidence relevant to the issues they must decide;
 - (b) give the jury such questions, if any, as the court invites jurors to answer in coming to a verdict;
 - (c) direct the jury to retire to consider its verdict;
 - (d) if necessary, recall the jury to answer jurors' questions;
 - (e) if appropriate, recall the jury to give directions for a verdict by a majority; and
 - (f) recall the jury when it informs the court that it has reached a verdict.
- (4) The court may give the jury directions, questions or other assistance in writing.

(a) 1967 c. 80.

(5) When the court recalls the jury to deliver its verdict, the court must ask the foreman chosen by the jury, in respect of each count—

- (a) whether the jury has reached a verdict on which all the jurors agree;
- (b) if so, whether that verdict is guilty or not guilty;
- (c) if not, where the jury has deliberated for at least 2 hours and if the court decides to invite a majority verdict, then—
 - (i) whether at least 10 (of 11 or 12 jurors), or 9 (of 10 jurors), agreed on a verdict,
 - (ii) if so, is that verdict guilty or not guilty, and
 - (iii) if (and only if) such a verdict is guilty, how many jurors agreed to that verdict and how many disagreed.

(6) Where evidence has been given that the defendant was insane, so as not to be responsible for the act or omission charged as the offence, then under paragraph (4)(b) the court must ask whether the jury's verdict is guilty, not guilty, or not guilty by reason of insanity.

[Note. Under section 17 of the Juries Act 1974(a), the court may accept the verdict of a majority, as long as the jury has had at least 2 hours for deliberation.]

Under section 6 of the Criminal Law Act 1967, the jury may convict a defendant of an offence other than one charged by the indictment if that offence is proved by the evidence.

The verdict to which rule 25.14(5) refers is provided for by section 2 of the Trial of Lunatics Act 1883(b). The evidence required before such a verdict may be reached is prescribed by section 1 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity and Unfitness to Plead) Act 1991(c).]

Conviction or acquittal without a jury

- (a) the court tries the case without a jury; and
- (b) after following the sequence in rule 25.9 (Procedure on plea of not guilty).

(2) In respect of each count, the court must give reasons for its decision to convict or acquit.

[Note. Under sections 44 and 46 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(d), the court may try a case without a jury where there is a danger of jury tampering, or where jury tampering appears to have taken place. Under section 17 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004(e), the court may try sample counts with a jury and other counts without a jury. Part 3 (preparation for trial in the Crown Court) contains rules about an application for such a trial.]

Procedure if the court convicts

25.16.—(1) This rule applies where, in respect of any count in the indictment—

- (a) the defendant pleads guilty; or
- (b) the court convicts the defendant.

(2) The court may exercise its power—

- (a) if the defendant is an individual—
 - (i) to require a pre-sentence report,
 - (ii) to request a medical report,

(a) 1974 c. 23.

(b) 1883 c. 38; section 2 was amended by section 17 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Criminal Lunatics Act 1884 (c. 64) and sections 1 and 8 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964 (c. 84).

(c) 1991 c. 25.

(d) 2003 c. 44.

(e) 2004 c. 28.

- (iii) to require a statement of the defendant's assets and other financial circumstances;
 - (b) if the defendant is a corporation, to require such information as the court directs about the defendant's corporate structure and financial resources;
 - (c) to adjourn sentence pending—
 - (i) receipt of any such report, statement or information,
 - (ii) the verdict in a related case.
- (3) The prosecutor must—
- (a) summarise the prosecution case, if the sentencing court has not heard evidence;
 - (b) identify in writing any offence that the prosecutor proposes should be taken into consideration in sentencing;
 - (c) provide information relevant to sentence, including—
 - (i) any previous conviction of the defendant, and the circumstances where relevant,
 - (ii) any statement of the effect of the offence on the victim, the victim's family or others; and
 - (d) identify any other matter relevant to sentence, including—
 - (i) the legislation applicable,
 - (ii) any sentencing guidelines, or guideline cases,
 - (iii) aggravating and mitigating features affecting the defendant's culpability and the harm which the offence caused, was intended to cause or might foreseeably have caused, and
 - (iv) the effect of such of the information listed in paragraph (2) as the court may need to take into account.
- (4) Where the defendant pleads guilty, the court may give directions for determining the facts on the basis of which sentence must be passed if—
- (a) the defendant wants to be sentenced on a basis agreed with the prosecutor; or
 - (b) in the absence of such agreement, the defendant wants to be sentenced on the basis of different facts to those disclosed by the prosecution case.
- (5) Where the court has power to order the endorsement of the defendant's driving record, or power to order the defendant to be disqualified from driving—
- (a) if other legislation so permits, a defendant who wants the court not to exercise that power must introduce the evidence or information on which the defendant relies;

 - (b) when passing sentence—
 - (i) explain the reasons,
 - (ii) explain to the defendant its effect, the consequences of failing to comply with any order or pay any fine, and any power that the court has to vary or review the sentence, unless the defendant is absent or the defendant's ill-health or disorderly conduct makes such an explanation impracticable, and

(iii) give any such explanation in terms the defendant, if present, can understand (with help, if necessary); and

(c) deal with confiscation, costs and any behaviour order.

(8) The general rule is subject to the court's power to defer sentence for up to 6 months.

[Note. See sections 143, 158, 164, 172 and 174 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(a).

Under sections 57D and 57E of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(b), the court may require a defendant to attend a sentencing hearing by live link.

Under section 156 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(c), the general rule (subject to exceptions) is that the court must obtain and consider a pre-sentence report—

(a) where it is considering a custodial sentence or a community sentence;

(b) where it thinks the defendant may pose a significant risk of causing serious harm to the public by further offending.

Under section 159 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(d), where the court obtains a written pre-sentence report about a defendant who is under 18, it may direct that information in it must be withheld, if it would be likely to create a risk of significant harm to the defendant.

Rule 28.8 of these Rules applies to requests for medical reports.

Under section 162 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(e), the court may require a defendant who is an individual to provide a statement of assets and other financial circumstances if the defendant is convicted.

Under section 20A of the Criminal Justice Act 1991(f), it is an offence for a defendant knowingly or recklessly to make a false or incomplete statement of assets or other financial circumstances, or to fail to provide such a statement, in response to a request by a court officer on behalf of the court.

The Sentencing Council may issue sentencing guidelines under section 120 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009(g).

For the circumstances in which a court may (and in some cases must) order the endorsement of a defendant's driving record, or the disqualification of a defendant from driving, see sections 34, 35 and 44 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988(h). Under that legislation, in some circumstances the court has discretion not to make such an order. See also rule 29.1.

- (b) after attending as required, when selected under rule 25.6—
 - (i) is not available, or
 - (ii) is unfit for jury service by reason of drink or drugs

(2) Where jurors provide information under this rule, the court may postpone the selection of the jury to try a case to allow each juror an opportunity to review and amend that information before that selection.

(3) Using that information, the court may exercise its power to excuse a juror from selection as a member of the jury to try a case, but the court must not—

Reasons for not following usual sentencing requirements

28.1.—(1) This rule applies where the court decides—

- (a) not to follow a relevant sentencing guideline;
- (b) not to make, where it could—
 - (i) a reparation order (unless it passes a custodial or community sentence),
 - (ii) a compensation order,
 - (iii) a slavery and trafficking reparation order, or
 - (iv) a travel restriction order;
- (c) not to order, where it could—
 - (i) that a suspended sentence of imprisonment is to take effect,
 - (ii) the endorsement of the defendant's driving record, or
 - (iii) the defendant's disqualification from driving, for the usual minimum period or at all;
- (d) to pass a lesser sentence than it otherwise would have passed because the defendant has assisted, or has agreed to assist, an investigator or prosecutor in relation to an offence.

(2) The court must explain why it has so decided, when it explains the sentence that it has passed.

(3) Where paragraph (1)(d) applies, the court must arrange for such an explanation to be given to the defendant and to the prosecutor in writing, if the court thinks that it would not be in the public interest to explain in public.

[Note. See section 174 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(a); section 73(8) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(b); section 130(3) of the 2000 Act(c); section 8(7) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015(d); section 33(2) of the Criminal Justice and Police Act 2001(e); paragraph 8(3) of Schedule 12 to the 2003 Act(f); section 47(1) of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988(g); and section 73 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005(h).

For the duty to explain the sentence the court has passed, see section 174(1) of the 2003 Act and rules 24.11(9) (procedure where a magistrates' court convicts) and 25.16(7) (procedure where the Crown Court convicts).

Under section 125 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009(a), the court when sentencing must follow any relevant sentencing guideline unless satisfied that to do so would be contrary to the interests of justice.

For the circumstances in which the court may make—

- (a) a reparation or compensation order, see sections 73(b) and 130(c) of the 2000 Act;*
- (b) a slavery and trafficking reparation order, see section 8 of the 2015 Act;*

 - (iii) the requirement or requirements imposed; and
- (d) the person affected, where the court imposes a requirement—
 - (i) for the protection of that person from the defendant, or

(3) If the court imposes an electronic monitoring requirement, the monitor of which is not the responsible officer, the court officer must—

Variation of sentence

28.4.—(1) This rule—

- (a) applies where a magistrates' court or the Crown Court can vary or rescind a sentence or order, other than an order to which rule 24.18 applies (Setting aside a conviction or varying a costs etc. order); and
- (b) authorises the Crown Court, in addition to its other powers, to do so within the period of 56 days beginning with another defendant's acquittal or sentencing where—
 - (i) defendants are tried separately in the Crown Court on the same or related facts alleged in one or more indictments, and
 - (ii) one is sentenced before another is acquitted or sentenced.

(2) The court may exercise its power—

- (a) on application by a party, or on its own initiative;
- (b) at a hearing, in public or in private, or without a hearing.

(3) A party who wants the court to exercise that power must—

- (a) apply in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after—
 - (i) the sentence or order that that party wants the court to vary or rescind, or
 - (ii) where paragraph (1)(b) applies, the other defendant's acquittal or sentencing;
- (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) each other party; and
- (c) in the application—
 - (i) explain why the sentence should be varied or rescinded,
 - (ii) specify the variation that the applicant proposes, and
 - (iii) if the application is late, explain why.

(4) The court must not exercise its power in the defendant's absence unless—

 - (b) allow an application to be made orally.

[Note. Under section 142 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(a), in some cases a magistrates’ court can vary or rescind a sentence or other order that it has imposed or made, if that appears to be in the interests of justice. The power cannot be exercised if the Crown Court or the High Court has determined an appeal about that sentence or order. See also rule 24.18 (Setting aside a conviction or varying a costs etc. order), which governs the exercise by a magistrates’ court of the power conferred by section 142 of the 1980 Act in the circumstances to which that rule applies.

Under section 155 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(b), the Crown Court can vary or rescind a sentence or other order that it has imposed or made. The power cannot be exercised—

- (a) after the period of 56 days beginning with the sentence or order (but see the note below); or

Section 56 of the Crime (International Co-operation) Act 2003 sets out the conditions for recognition in the United Kingdom of a foreign driving disqualification, and provides that section 57 of the Act applies where they are met. Under section 57, the appropriate Minister may, and in some cases must, give the person concerned notice that he or she is disqualified in the UK, too, and for what period.

Under section 59 of the 2003 Act, that person may appeal to a magistrates' court. If the court is satisfied that section 57 of the Act does not apply in that person's case, the court must allow the appeal and notify the Minister. Otherwise, it must dismiss the appeal.

The time limit for appeal under section 59 of the 2003 Act is the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the Minister gives the notice under section 57. That period may be neither extended nor shortened.

Under section 60 of the 2003 Act, the court may suspend the disqualification, on such terms as it thinks fit.

Under section 63 of the 2003 Act(a), it is an offence for a person to whom the Minister gives a notice under section 57 not to surrender any licence that he or she holds, within the same period as for an appeal.]

- (d) in proceedings for a genital mutilation offence, under paragraph 3 of Schedule 2 to the Female Genital Mutilation Act 2003(f) (female genital mutilation protection orders).

In the circumstances set out in the Criminal Justice (European Protection Order) Regulations 2014(g), which give effect to Directive 2011/99/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13th December, 2011, on the European protection order—

- (a) a magistrates’ court, and in some cases the Crown Court, may make a European protection order to supplement a protection measure ordered by a court in England and Wales, where the protected person has decided to reside or stay in another European Union member State or is already residing or staying there (see also rule 31.9); and
- (b) a magistrates’ court may make a restraining order to give effect in England and Wales to a European protection order made by a competent authority in another European Union member State (see also rule 31.10).

Section 1(2) of the Civil Evidence Act 1995 defines hearsay as meaning “a statement made otherwise than by a person while giving oral evidence in the proceedings which is tendered as evidence of the matters stated”. Section 13 of that Act defines a statement as meaning “any representation of fact or opinion, however made”.]

Behaviour orders: general rules

31.2.—(1) The court must not make a behaviour order unless the person to whom it is directed has had an opportunity—

- (a) to consider—
 - (i) what order is proposed and why, and
 - (ii) the evidence in support; and
- (b) to make representations at a hearing (whether or not that person in fact attends).

(2) That restriction does not apply to making—

- (a) an interim behaviour order, but unless other legislation otherwise provides such an order has no effect unless the person to whom it is directed—
 - (i) is present when it is made, or
 - (ii) is handed a document recording the order not more than 7 days after it is made;

(a) 2003 c. 42; section 103A was inserted by paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 5 to the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (c. 12).

(b) 2007 c. 27; section 21 was amended by section 48 of the Serious Crime Act 2015 (c. 9).

(c) 2014 c. 12.

(d) 2015 c. 30; section 14 comes into force on a date to be appointed.

(e) 1997 c. 40; section 5A was inserted by section 12(5) of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (c. 28).

(f) 2003 c. 31; Schedule 2 was inserted by section 73 of the Serious Crime Act 2015 (c. 9).

(g) S.I. 2014/3300.

- (b) a restraining order that gives effect to a European protection order, where rule 31.10 applies (Giving effect to a European protection order made in another EU member State).

(3) Where the court decides not to make, where it could—

- (a) a football banning order; or
- (b) a parenting order, after a person under 16 is convicted of an offence, the court must announce, at a hearing in public, the reasons for its decision.

(4) Where the court makes an order which imposes one or more of the prohibitions or restrictions listed in rule 31.9(1), the court must arrange for someone to explain to the person who benefits from that protection—

- (a) that that person may apply for a European protection order, if he or she decides to reside or stay in another European Union member State;
- (b) the basic conditions for making such an application; and
- (c) that it is advisable to make any such application before leaving the United Kingdom.

[Note. The Acts listed in the note to rule 31.1 impose requirements specific to each different type of behaviour order. Not all allow the court to make an interim behaviour order.]

See section 14A(3) of the Football Spectators Act 1989(a), section 9(1) of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 and regulation 7 of the Criminal Justice (European Protection Order) Regulations 2014.]

Application for behaviour order and notice of terms of proposed order: special rules

31.3.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) a prosecutor wants the court to make—
 - (i) an anti-social behaviour order (but this rule does not apply to an application for an interim anti-social behaviour order),
 - (ii) a serious crime prevention order, or
 - (iii) a criminal behaviour order; or
- (b) a prosecutor proposes, on the prosecutor’s initiative or at the court’s request a sexual harm prevention order, if the defendant is convicted.

(2) Where paragraph (1)(a) applies, the prosecutor must serve a notice of intention to apply for such an order on—

- (a) the court officer;
- (b) the defendant against whom the prosecutor wants the court to make the order; and
- (c) any person on whom the order would be likely to have a significant adverse effect, as soon as practicable (without waiting for the verdict).

(3) A notice under paragraph (2) must—

- (a) summarise the relevant facts;
- (b) identify the evidence on which the prosecutor relies in support;
- (c) attach any written statement that the prosecutor has not already served; and
- (d) specify the order that the prosecutor wants the court to make.

(4) A defendant served with a notice under paragraph (2) must—

- (a) serve written notice of any evidence on which the defendant relies on—

(a) 1989 c. 37; section 14A was substituted, together with sections 14 and 14B–14J, for the existing sections 14–17, by section 1 of, and paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 1 to, the Football (Disorder) Act 2000 (c. 25).

- (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) the prosecutor,
- as soon as practicable (without waiting for the verdict); and
- (b) in the notice, identify that evidence and attach any written statement that has not already been served.
- (5) Where paragraph (1)(b) applies, the prosecutor must—
- (a) serve a draft order on the court officer and on the defendant not less than 2 business days before the hearing at which the order may be made;
 - (b) in a case in which a sexual harm prevention order is proposed, in the draft order specify those prohibitions which the prosecutor proposes as necessary for the purpose of—
 - (i) protecting the public or any particular members of the public from sexual harm from the defendant, or
 - (ii) protecting children or vulnerable adults generally, or any particular children or vulnerable adults, from sexual harm from the defendant outside the United Kingdom.
- (6) Where the prosecutor wants the court to make an anti-social behaviour order or a criminal behaviour order, the rules about special measures directions in Part 18 (Measures to assist a witness or defendant to give evidence) apply, but—
- (a) the prosecutor must apply when serving a notice under paragraph (2); and
 - (b) the time limits in rule 18.3(a) do not apply.

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of notice for use in connection with this rule.

Under section 8 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 a serious crime prevention order may be made only on an application by the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Director of the Serious Fraud Office. See also paragraphs 2, 7 and 13 of Schedule 2 to the 2007 Act.

Section 107 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003(a) describes the content and effect of a sexual offences prevention order.

Under section 11 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998(b), on an application for an anti-social behaviour order the court may give a special measures direction under the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999. Under section 31 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014(c) the court may give such a direction on an application for a criminal behaviour order.

If a party relies on hearsay evidence, see also rules 31.6, 31.7, and 31.8.]

Evidence to assist the court: special rules

- 31.4.—(1) This rule applies where the court can make on its own initiative—
- (a) a football banning order;
 - (b) a restraining order; or
 - (c) an anti-social behaviour order.
- (2) A party who wants the court to take account of evidence not already introduced must—
- (a) serve notice in writing on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) every other party,
 as soon as practicable (without waiting for the verdict); and

(a) 2003 c. 42.

(b) 1998 c. 37; section 11 was inserted by section 143 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (c. 15) and amended by paragraph 72 of Schedule 21 and Part 3 of Schedule 23 to the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (c. 25).

(c) 2014 c. 12.

- (b) in the notice, identify that evidence; and
- (c) attach any written statement containing such evidence.

[Note. If a party relies on hearsay evidence, see also rules 31.6, 31.7, and 31.8.]

Application to vary or revoke behaviour order

31.5.—(1) The court may vary or revoke a behaviour order if—

- (a) the legislation under which it is made allows the court to do so; and
- (b) one of the following applies—
 - (i) the prosecutor,
 - (ii) the person to whom the order is directed,
 - (iii) any other person protected or affected by the order,
 - (iv) the relevant authority or responsible officer,
 - (v) the relevant Chief Officer of Police,
 - (vi) the Director of Public Prosecutions, or
 - (vii) the Director of the Serious Fraud Office.

(2) A person applying under this rule must—

- (a) apply in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so, explaining—
 - (i) what material circumstances have changed since the order was made, and
 - (ii) why the order should be varied or revoked as a result; and
- (b) serve the application on—
 - (i) the court officer,
 - (ii) as appropriate, the prosecutor or defendant, and
 - (iii) any other person listed in paragraph (1)(b), if the court so directs.

(3) A party who wants the court to take account of any particular evidence before making its decision must, as soon as practicable—

- (a) serve notice in writing on—
 - (i) the court officer,
 - (ii) as appropriate, the prosecutor or defendant, and
 - (iii) any other person listed in paragraph (1)(b) on whom the court directed the application to be served; and
- (b) in that notice identify the evidence and attach any written statement that has not already been served.

(4) The court may decide an application under this rule with or without a hearing.

(5) But the court must not—

- (a) dismiss an application under this rule unless the applicant has had an opportunity to make representations at a hearing (whether or not the applicant in fact attends); or
- (b) allow an application under this rule unless everyone required to be served, by this rule or by the court, has had at least 14 days in which to make representations, including representations about whether there should be a hearing.

(6) The court officer must—

- (a) serve the application on any person, if the court so directs; and
- (b) give notice of any hearing to—
 - (i) the applicant, and
 - (ii) any person required to be served, by this rule or by the court.

[Note. The legislation that gives the court power to make a behaviour order may limit the circumstances in which it may be varied or revoked and may require a hearing. Under section 22E of the Serious Crime Act 2007(a), where a person already subject to a serious crime prevention order is charged with a serious offence or with an offence of failing to comply with the order, the court may vary the order so that it continues in effect until that prosecution concludes.

If a party relies on hearsay evidence, see also rules 31.6, 31.7 and 31.8.]

Notice of hearsay evidence

31.6.—(1) A party who wants to introduce hearsay evidence must—

- (a) serve a notice in writing on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) every other party directly affected; and
- (b) in that notice—
 - (i) explain that it is a notice of hearsay evidence,
 - (ii) identify that evidence,
 - (iii) identify the person who made the statement which is hearsay, or explain why if that person is not identified, and
 - (iv) explain why that person will not be called to give oral evidence.

(2) A party may serve one notice under this rule in respect of more than one notice and more than one witness.

[Note. For the time within which to serve a notice of hearsay evidence, see rule 31.3(2) to (4), rule 31.4(2) and rule 31.5(3). See also the requirement in section 2 of the Civil Evidence Act 1995 for reasonable and practicable notice of a proposal to introduce hearsay evidence.

Rules 31.6, 31.7 and 31.8 broadly correspond with rules 3, 4 and 5 of the Magistrates' Courts (Hearsay Evidence in Civil Proceedings) Rules 1999(b), which apply in civil proceedings in magistrates' courts. Rule 3 of the 1999 Rules however includes a time limit, which may be varied by the court, or a justices' clerk, of 21 days before the date fixed for the hearing, for service of a hearsay notice.]

Cross-examination of maker of hearsay statement

31.7.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants the court's permission to cross-examine a person who made a statement which another party wants to introduce as hearsay.

(a) 2007 c. 27; section 22E was inserted by section 49 of the Serious Crime Act 2015 (c. 9).

(b) S.I. 1999/681, amended by S.I. 2005/617.

- (b) allow an application under this rule unless everyone served with the application has had at least 7 days in which to make representations, including representations about whether there should be a hearing.

[Note. See also section 3 of the Civil Evidence Act 1995.]

Credibility and consistency of maker of hearsay statement

31.8.—(1) This rule applies where a party wants to challenge the credibility or consistency of a person who made a statement which another party wants to introduce as hearsay.

(2) The party who wants to challenge the credibility or consistency of that person must—

- (a) serve a written notice of intention to do so on—
 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) the party who served the notice of hearsay evidencenot more than 7 days after service of that hearsay evidence notice; and
- (b) in the notice, identify any statement or other material on which that party relies.

(3) The party who served the hearsay notice—

 - (i) the court officer, and
 - (ii) every party on whom the hearsay notice was servednot more than 7 days after service of the notice under paragraph (2).

[Note. Section 5(2) of the Civil Evidence Act 1995 describes the procedure for challenging the credibility of the maker of a statement of which hearsay evidence is introduced. See also section 6 of that Act. The 1995 Act does not allow the introduction of evidence of a previous inconsistent statement otherwise than in accordance with sections 5, 6 and 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1865(a).]

European protection order to be given effect in another EU member State

31.9.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) a person benefits from the protection of one or more of the following prohibitions or restrictions imposed on another person by an order of a court in England and Wales when dealing with a criminal cause or matter—
 - (i) a prohibition from entering certain localities, places or defined areas where the protected person resides or visits,
 - (ii) a prohibition or restriction of contact with the protected person by any means (including by telephone, post, facsimile transmission or electronic mail),
 - (iii) a prohibition or restriction preventing the other person from approaching the protected person whether at all or to within a particular distance; and either
- (b) that protected person wants the Crown Court or a magistrates' court to make a European protection order to supplement such an order; or
- (c) the court varies or revokes such a prohibition or restriction in such an order and correspondingly amends or revokes a European protection order already made.

(2) Such a protected person—

(a) 1865 c. 18; section 6 was amended by section 10 of the Decimal Currency Act 1969 (c. 19), section 90 of, and paragraph 3 of Schedule 13 to, the Access to Justice Act 1999 (c. 22), section 109 of, and paragraph 47 of Schedule 8 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39) and paragraph 79 of Schedule 36 and Schedule 37 to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c. 44). It is further amended by section 119 of, and Schedule 7 to, the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (c. 60), with effect from a date to be appointed.

- (b) in any other case, must apply in writing to a magistrates' court and serve the application on the court officer.

(3) The application must—

- (a) identify the prohibition or restriction that the European protection order would supplement;
- (b) identify the date, if any, on which that prohibition or restriction will expire;
- (c) specify the European Union member State in which the applicant has decided to reside or stay, or in which he or she already is residing or staying;
- (d) indicate the length of the period for which the applicant intends to reside or stay in that member State;
- (e) explain why the applicant needs the protection of that measure while residing or staying in that member State; and
- (f) include any other information of which the applicant wants the court to take account.

(4) Where the court makes or amends a European protection order, the court officer must—

- (a) issue an order in the form required by Directive 2011/99/EU;
- (b) serve on the competent authority of the European Union member State in which the protected person has decided to reside or stay—
 - (i) a copy of that form, and
 - (ii) a copy of the form translated into an official language of that member State, or into an official language of the European Union if that member State has declared that it will accept a translation in that language.

(5) Where the court revokes a European protection order, the court officer must without delay so inform that authority.

(6) Where the court refuses to make a European protection order, the court officer must arrange for the protected person to be informed of any available avenue of appeal or review against the court's decision.

[Note. See regulations 3 to 10 of the Criminal Justice (European Protection Order) Regulations 2014(a). Under regulation 5, an application by a protected person to which this rule applies may be made to an authority in another European Union member State and transferred to the Lord Chancellor for submission to a magistrates' court.

The Practice Direction sets out a form of application for use in connection with this rule.]

Giving effect to a European protection order made in another EU member State

31.10.—(1) This rule applies where the Lord Chancellor serves on the court officer—

- (a) arrange for the court to consider the request;
- (b) serve on the requesting authority—
 - (i) notice of any further information required by the court, and

(a) S.I. 2014/3300.

- (ii) subject to any such requirement and any response, notice of the court’s decision;
- (c) where the court gives effect to the European protection order—
 - (i) include in the notice served on the requesting authority the terms of the restraining order made by the court,
 - (ii) serve notice of those terms, and of the potential legal consequences of breaching them, on the person restrained by the order made by the court and on the person protected by that order, and
 - (iii) serve notice on the Lord Chancellor of any breach of the restraining order which is reported to the court;
- (d) where the court refuses to give effect to the European protection order—
 - (i) include in the notice served on the requesting authority the grounds for the refusal,
 - (ii) where appropriate, inform the protected person, or any representative or guardian of that person, of the possibility of applying for a comparable order under the law of England and Wales, and
 - (iii) arrange for that person, representative or guardian to be informed of any available avenue of appeal or review against the court’s decision.

(3) In the case of a notice to which paragraph (1) refers, the court officer must, as soon as possible, arrange for the court to act on that notice.

(4) Unless the court otherwise directs, the court officer must omit from any notice served on a person against whom a restraining order may be, or has been, made the address or contact details of the person who is the object of the European protection order.

[Note. See regulations 11 to 19 of the Criminal Justice (European Protection Order) Regulations 2014.

Where the Lord Chancellor receives a request to give effect in England and Wales to a European protection order, a magistrates’ court to which the request is given must give effect to that order by making a restraining order under section 5 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997(a), as adapted by regulation 13 of the 2014 Regulations, unless one of the specified grounds for refusal applies. The grounds for refusal are—

- (a) the European protection order—
 - (i) is incomplete, and
 - (ii) is not completed within a period specified by the court;
- (b) the requirements set out in Article 5 of Directive 2011/99/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13th December, 2011, on the European protection order have not been met;
- (c) the protection measure on the basis of which the European protection order was issued was based on conduct that would not constitute an offence under the law of England and Wales if it occurred there;
- (d) the person causing danger (within the meaning of the 2014 Regulations and the Directive) benefits from an immunity under the law of England and Wales which makes it impossible to give effect to the European protection order under the Regulations;
- (e) the protection measure on the basis of which the European protection order was issued was based on conduct where, under the law of England and Wales—
 - (i) the criminal prosecution of the conduct would be statute-barred, and
 - (ii) the conduct falls within the jurisdiction of England and Wales;

(a) 1997 c. 40; section 5 was amended by sections 12 and 58 of, and paragraph 43 of Schedule 10 and 11 to, the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 (c. 28) and by section 125 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (c. 15).

- (f) giving effect to the European protection order would contravene the principle of ne bis in idem;
- (g) the protection measure on the basis of which the European protection order was issued was based on conduct by a defendant who was under the age of 10 when the conduct took place;
- (h) the protection measure on the basis of which the European protection order was issued relates to a criminal offence which, under the law of England and Wales, is regarded as having been committed wholly, or for a major or essential part, within its territory.

Under regulation 17 of the 2014 Regulations, the magistrates’ court may vary a restraining order which gives effect to a European protection order if that protection order is modified. Under regulation 18 of those Regulations, the magistrates’ court must discharge such a restraining order on notice that the European protection order to which it gives effect has been revoked or withdrawn.]

Court’s power to vary requirements under this Part

31.11. Unless other legislation otherwise provides, the court may—

- (a) shorten a time limit or extend it (even after it has expired);
- (b) allow a notice or application to be given in a different form, or presented orally.

Interpretation

33.1. In this Part:

- ‘document’ means anything in which information of any description is recorded;
- ‘hearsay evidence’ means evidence consisting of hearsay within the meaning of section 1(2) of the Civil Evidence Act 1995(a);
- ‘restraint proceedings’ means proceedings under sections 42 and 58(2) and (3) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002(b);
- ‘receivership proceedings’ means proceedings under sections 48, 49, 50, 51, 54(4), 59(2) and (3), 62 and 63 of the 2002 Act(c);

(a) 1995 c. 38.

(b) 2002 c. 29; section 42 was amended by sections 74(2) and 92 of, and paragraphs 1 and 23 of Schedule 8, and Schedule 14 to, the Serious Crime Act 2007 (c. 27). Section 58(2) was amended by section 62(3) of, and paragraphs 142 and 143 of Schedule 13 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15).

(c) 2002 c. 29; section 49 was amended by section 82(1) of the Serious Crime Act (c. 27). Section 59(2) was amended by section 62(3) of, and paragraphs 142 and 144 of Schedule 13 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15). Section 62 was amended by section 74 of, and paragraphs 1 and 29 of Schedule 8 to, the Serious Crime Act 2007 (c. 27)

‘witness statement’ means a written statement signed by a person which contains the evidence, and only that evidence, which that person would be allowed to give orally; and words and expressions used have the same meaning as in Part 2 of the 2002 Act.

Calculation of time

33.2.—(1) This rule shows how to calculate any period of time for doing any act which is specified by this Part for the purposes of any proceedings under Part 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 or by an order of the Crown Court in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings.

(2) A period of time expressed as a number of days shall be computed as clear days.

(3) In this rule ‘clear days’ means that in computing the number of days—

(a) the day on which the period begins; and

(b) if the end of the period is defined by reference to an event, the day on which that event occurs, are not included.

(4) Where the specified period is 5 days or less and includes a day which is not a business day that day does not count.

Court office closed

33.3. When the period specified by this Part, or by an order of the Crown Court under Part 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, for doing any act at the court office falls on a day on which the office is closed, that act shall be in time if done on the next day on which the court office is open.

Application for registration of Scottish or Northern Ireland order

33.4.—(1) This rule applies to an application for registration of an order under article 6 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (Enforcement in different parts of the United Kingdom) Order 2002(a).

(2) The application may be made without notice.

(3) The application must be in writing and may be supported by a witness statement which must—

(a) exhibit the order or a certified copy of the order; and

(b) to the best of the witness’s ability, give full details of the realisable property located in England and Wales in respect of which the order was made and specify the person holding that realisable property.

(4) If the court registers the order, the applicant must serve notice of the registration on—

(a) any person who holds realisable property to which the order applies; and

(b) any other person whom the applicant knows to be affected by the order.

(5) The permission of the Crown Court under rule 33.10 (Service outside the jurisdiction) is not required to serve the notice outside England and Wales.

Application to vary or set aside registration

33.5.—(1) An application to vary or set aside registration of an order under article 6 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (Enforcement in different parts of the United Kingdom) Order 2002 may be made to the Crown Court by—

(a) any person who holds realisable property to which the order applies; and

and section 63 was amended by section 74 of, and paragraphs 1 and 30 of Schedule 8 to, the Serious Crime Act 2007 (c. 27).

(a) S.I. 2002/3133.

- (b) any other person affected by the order.
- (2) The application must be in writing and may be supported by a witness statement.
- (3) The application and any witness statement must be lodged with the Crown Court.
- (4) The application must be served on the person who applied for registration at least 7 days before the date fixed by the court for hearing the application, unless the Crown Court specifies a shorter period.
- (5) No property in England and Wales may be realised in pursuance of the order before the Crown Court has decided the application.

Register of orders

33.6.—(1) The Crown Court must keep, under the direction of the Lord Chancellor, a register of the orders registered under article 6 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (Enforcement in different parts of the United Kingdom) Order 2002.

(2) The register must include details of any variation or setting aside of a registration under rule 33.5 and of any execution issued on a registered order.

(3) If the person who applied for registration of an order which is subsequently registered notifies the Crown Court that the court which made the order has varied or discharged the order, details of the variation or discharge, as the case may be, must be entered in the register.

Statements of truth

33.7.—(1) Any witness statement required to be served by this Part must be verified by a statement of truth contained in the witness statement.

(2) A statement of truth is a declaration by the person making the witness statement to the effect that the witness statement is true to the best of his knowledge and belief and that he made the statement knowing that, if it were tendered in evidence, he would be liable to prosecution if he wilfully stated in it anything which he knew to be false or did not believe to be true.

(3) The statement of truth must be signed by the person making the witness statement.

(4) If the person making the witness statement fails to verify the witness statement by a statement of truth, the Crown Court may direct that it shall not be admissible as evidence.

Use of witness statements for other purposes

33.8.—(1) Except as provided by this rule, a witness statement served in proceedings under Part 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 may be used only for the purpose of the proceedings in which it is served.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply if and to the extent that—

- (a) the witness gives consent in writing to some other use of it;
- (b) the Crown Court gives permission for some other use; or
- (c) the witness statement has been put in evidence at a hearing held in public.

Service of documents

33.9.—(1) Rule 49.1 (Notice required to accompany process served outside the United Kingdom and translations) shall not apply in restraint proceedings and receivership proceedings.

(2) An order made in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings may be enforced against the defendant or any other person affected by it notwithstanding that service of a copy of the order has not been effected in accordance with Part 4 if the Crown Court is satisfied that the person had notice of the order by being present when the order was made.

Service outside the jurisdiction

33.10.—(1) Where this Part requires a document to be served on someone who is outside England and Wales, it may be served outside England and Wales with the permission of the Crown Court.

(2) Where a document is to be served outside England and Wales it may be served by any method permitted by the law of the country in which it is to be served.

(3) Nothing in this rule or in any court order shall authorise or require any person to do anything in the country where the document is to be served which is against the law of that country.

(4) Where this Part requires a document to be served a certain period of time before the date of a hearing and the recipient does not appear at the hearing, the hearing must not take place unless the Crown Court is satisfied that the document has been duly served.

Certificates of service

33.11.—(1) Where this Part requires that the applicant for an order in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings serve a document on another person, the applicant must lodge a certificate of service with the Crown Court within 7 days of service of the document.

(2) The certificate must state—

- (a) the method of service;
- (b) the date of service; and
- (c) if the document is served under rule 4.9 (Service by another method), such other information as the court may require when making the order permitting service by that method.

(3) Where a document is to be served by the Crown Court in restraint proceedings and receivership proceedings and the court is unable to serve it, the court must send a notice of non-service stating the method attempted to the party who requested service.

External requests and orders

33.12.—(1) The rules in this Part and in Part 42 (Appeal to the Court of Appeal in confiscation and related proceedings) apply with the necessary modifications to proceedings under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (External Requests and Orders) Order 2005^(a) in the same way that they apply to corresponding proceedings under Part 2 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002^(b).

(2) This table shows how provisions of the 2005 Order correspond with provisions of the 2002 Act.

CONFISCATION PROCEEDINGS

Statements in connection with confiscation orders

33.13.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) the court can make a confiscation order; and
- (b) the prosecutor asks the court to make such an order, or the court decides to make such an order on its own initiative.

(2) Within such periods as the court directs—

- (a) if the court so orders, the defendant must give such information, in such manner, as the court directs;
- (b) the prosecutor must serve a statement of information relevant to confiscation on the court officer and the defendant;
- (c) if the court so directs—
 - (i) the defendant must serve a response notice on the court officer and the prosecutor, and
 - (ii) the parties must identify what is in dispute.

(3) Where it appears to the court that a person other than the defendant holds, or may hold, an interest in property held by the defendant which property is likely to be realised or otherwise used to satisfy a confiscation order—

- (a) the court must not determine the extent of the defendant's interest in that property unless that other person has had a reasonable opportunity to make representations; and
- (b) the court may order that other person to give such information, in such manner and within such a period, as the court directs.

(4) The court may—

- (a) shorten or extend a time limit which it has set;
- (b) vary, discharge or supplement an order which it has made;
- (c) postpone confiscation proceedings without a hearing.

(5) A prosecutor's statement of information must—

- (a) identify the maker of the statement and show its date;
- (b) identify the defendant in respect of whom it is served;
- (c) specify the conviction which gives the court power to make the confiscation order, or each conviction if more than one;
- (d) if the prosecutor believes the defendant to have a criminal lifestyle, include such matters as the prosecutor believes to be relevant in connection with deciding—
 - (i) whether the defendant has such a lifestyle,
 - (ii) whether the defendant has benefited from his or her general criminal conduct,
 - (iii) the defendant's benefit from that conduct, and
 - (iv) whether the court should or should not make such assumptions about the defendant's property as legislation permits;
- (e) if the prosecutor does not believe the defendant to have a criminal lifestyle, include such matters as the prosecutor believes to be relevant in connection with deciding—
 - (i) whether the defendant has benefited from his or her particular criminal conduct, and

- (ii) the defendant's benefit from that conduct;
- (f) in any case, include such matters as the prosecutor believes to be relevant in connection with deciding—
 - (i) whether to make a determination about the extent of the defendant's interest in property in which another person holds, or may hold, an interest, and
 - (ii) what determination to make, if the court decides to make one.
- (6) A defendant's response notice must—
 - (a) indicate the extent to which the defendant accepts the allegations made in the prosecutor's statement of information; and
 - (b) so far as the defendant does not accept an allegation, give particulars of any matters on which the defendant relies, in any manner directed by the court.

(7) The court must satisfy itself that there has been explained to the defendant, in terms the defendant can understand (with help, if necessary)—

- (a) that if the defendant accepts to any extent an allegation in a prosecutor's statement of information, then the court may treat that as conclusive for the purposes of deciding whether the defendant has benefited from general or particular criminal conduct, and if so by how much;
- (b) that if the defendant fails in any respect to comply with a direction to serve a response notice, then the court may treat that as acceptance of each allegation to which the defendant has not replied, except the allegation that the defendant has benefited from general or particular criminal conduct; and
- (c) that if the defendant fails without reasonable excuse to comply with an order to give information, then the court may draw such inference as it believes is appropriate.

[Note. Under section 6 of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002(a), where a defendant is convicted of an offence the Crown Court must (with some exceptions)—

- (a) decide whether the defendant has 'a criminal lifestyle', within the meaning of the Act, or has benefited from particular criminal conduct;
- (b) decide the 'recoverable amount', within the meaning of the Act; and
- (c) make a confiscation order requiring the defendant to pay that amount.

Under section 14 of the 2002 Act(b), unless exceptional circumstances apply the court may postpone confiscation proceedings for a maximum of 2 years from the date of conviction, or until the end of a period of 3 months following the determination of an appeal by the defendant against conviction, if that is later.

Under section 16 of the 2002 Act(c), where the Crown Court is considering confiscation the prosecutor must give the court a statement of information which the prosecutor believes to be relevant to what the court must decide, within such period as the court directs. Under section 17 of the Act(d), where the prosecutor gives such a statement the court may order the defendant to respond and, if the defendant does not do so, then the court may treat the defendant as accepting the prosecutor's allegations. Under section 18(e), for the purpose of obtaining information to help it in carrying out its functions the court may at any time order the defendant to give it information specified in the order and, if the defendant does not do so, then the court may draw such inference as it believes appropriate. Under section 18A(a), for the purpose of obtaining information to help it to determine the extent of the defendant's interest in property the court may at any time order a person who the court thinks may hold an interest in that property to give it information specified in the order and, if that person does not do so, then the court may draw such inference as it believes appropriate.

Under section 27 of the 2002 Act(b), special provisions apply where the defendant absconds.

Under section 97 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005(c), the Secretary of State may by order provide for confiscation orders to be made by magistrates' courts.]

- (a) the issues on which it requires evidence;

(2) The court may use its power under this rule to exclude evidence that would otherwise be admissible.

(3) The court may limit cross-examination in restraint proceedings and receivership proceedings.

Evidence of witnesses

33.37.—(1) The general rule is that, unless the Crown Court orders otherwise, any fact which needs to be proved in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings by the evidence of a witness is to be proved by their evidence in writing.

(2) Where evidence is to be given in writing under this rule, any party may apply to the Crown Court for permission to cross-examine the person giving the evidence.

(3) If the Crown Court gives permission under paragraph (2) but the person in question does not attend as required by the order, his evidence may not be used unless the court gives permission.

- (a) state the name and judicial title of the person who made it;
- (b) bear the date on which it is made; and
- (c) be sealed by the Crown Court.

(2) The Crown Court may place the seal on the order—

- (a) by hand; or
- (b) by printing a facsimile of the seal on the order whether electronically or otherwise.

(3) A document purporting to bear the court's seal shall be admissible in evidence without further proof.

Consent orders

33.42.—(1) This rule applies where all the parties to restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings agree the terms in which an order should be made.

(2) Any party may apply for a judgment or order in the terms agreed.

(3) The Crown Court may deal with an application under paragraph (2) without a hearing.

(4) Where this rule applies—

- (a) the order which is agreed by the parties must be drawn up in the terms agreed;
- (b) it must be expressed as being 'By Consent'; and
- (c) it must be signed by the legal representative acting for each of the parties to whom the order relates or by the party if he is a litigant in person.

(5) Where an application is made under this rule, then the requirements of any other rule as to the procedure for making an application do not apply.

Slips and omissions

33.43.—(1) The Crown Court may at any time correct an accidental slip or omission in an order made in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings.

(2) A party may apply for a correction without notice.

Supply of documents from court records

33.44.—(1) No document relating to restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings may be supplied from the records of the Crown Court for any person to inspect or copy unless the Crown Court grants permission.

(2) An application for permission under paragraph (1) must be made on notice to the parties to the proceedings.

(2) The judge presiding at the proceedings for the offence may be supplied from the records of the Crown Court with documents relating to restraint proceedings and any receivership proceedings.

(3) Such documents must not otherwise be disclosed in the proceedings for the offence.

Preparation of documents

33.46.—(1) Every order in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings must be drawn up by the Crown Court unless—

- (a) the Crown Court orders a party to draw it up;
- (b) a party, with the permission of the Crown Court, agrees to draw it up; or
- (c) the order is made by consent under rule 33.42.

(2) The Crown Court may direct that—

- (b) before an order is drawn up by the Crown Court, the parties must lodge an agreed statement of its terms.

(3) Where an order is to be drawn up by a party—

- (a) he must lodge it with the Crown Court no later than 7 days after the date on which the court ordered or permitted him to draw it up so that it can be sealed by the Crown Court; and
- (b) if he fails to lodge it within that period, any other party may draw it up and lodge it.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall require the Crown Court to accept a document which is illegible, has not been duly authorised, or is unsatisfactory for some other similar reason.

Order for costs

33.47.—(1) This rule applies where the Crown Court is deciding whether to make an order for costs in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings.

(2) The court has discretion as to—

- (a) whether costs are payable by one party to another;
- (b) the amount of those costs; and
- (c) when they are to be paid.

(3) If the court decides to make an order about costs—

- (a) the general rule is that the unsuccessful party must be ordered to pay the costs of the successful party; but
- (b) the court may make a different order.

(4) In deciding what order (if any) to make about costs, the court must have regard to all of the circumstances, including—

- (a) the conduct of all the parties; and
- (b) whether a party has succeeded on part of an application, even if he has not been wholly successful.

(5) The orders which the court may make include an order that a party must pay—

- (a) a proportion of another party's costs;
- (b) a stated amount in respect of another party's costs;
- (c) costs from or until a certain date only;
- (d) costs incurred before proceedings have begun;

- (e) costs relating to particular steps taken in the proceedings;
- (f) costs relating only to a distinct part of the proceedings; and
- (g) interest on costs from or until a certain date, including a date before the making of an order.

(6) Where the court would otherwise consider making an order under paragraph (5)(f), it must instead, if practicable, make an order under paragraph (5)(a) or (c).

(7) Where the court has ordered a party to pay costs, it may order an amount to be paid on account before the costs are assessed.

[Note. See section 52 of the Senior Courts Act 1981(a).]

Assessment of costs

33.48.—(1) Where the Crown Court has made an order for costs in restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings it may either—

- (a) make an assessment of the costs itself; or
- (b) order assessment of the costs under rule 45.11.

(2) In either case, the Crown Court or the assessing authority, as the case may be, must—

- (a) only allow costs which are proportionate to the matters in issue; and
- (b) resolve any doubt which it may have as to whether the costs were reasonably incurred or reasonable and proportionate in favour of the paying party.

(3) The Crown Court or the assessing authority, as the case may be, is to have regard to all the circumstances in deciding whether costs were proportionately or reasonably incurred or proportionate and reasonable in amount.

(4) In particular, the Crown Court or the assessing authority must give effect to any orders which have already been made.

(5) The Crown Court or the assessing authority must also have regard to—

- (a) the conduct of all the parties, including in particular, conduct before, as well as during, the proceedings;
- (b) the amount or value of the property involved;
- (c) the importance of the matter to all the parties;
- (d) the particular complexity of the matter or the difficulty or novelty of the questions raised;
- (e) the skill, effort, specialised knowledge and responsibility involved;
- (f) the time spent on the application; and
- (g) the place where and the circumstances in which work or any part of it was done.

Time for complying with an order for costs

33.49. A party to restraint proceedings or receivership proceedings must comply with an order for the payment of costs within 14 days of—

- (a) the date of the order if it states the amount of those costs;
- (b) if the amount of those costs is decided later under rule 45.11, the date of the assessing authority's decision; or
- (c) in either case, such later date as the Crown Court may specify.

(a) 1981 c. 54; section 52 was amended by section 31 of, and Part II of Schedule 1 to, the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985 (c. 23), section 4 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 (c. 41), article 3 and paragraphs 11 and 12(a) of the Schedule to S.I. 2004/2035 and section 59 of, and paragraph 26 of Schedule 11 to, the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4). The Act's title was amended by section 59(5) of, and paragraph 1 of Schedule 11 to, the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4).

Application of costs rules

33.50. Rules 33.47, 33.48 and 33.49 do not apply to the assessment of costs in proceedings to the extent that section 11 of the Access to Justice Act 1999(a) applies and provisions made under that Act make different provision.

not more than 21 days later.

(3) The Crown Court must treat the reference as the appeal notice if the appellant does not serve an appeal notice.

Application to introduce further evidence

34.7.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) a party wants to introduce evidence which was not introduced by either party in the magistrates' court; and
- (b) one of these Parts applies—
 - (i) Part 18 (Measures to assist a witness or defendant to give evidence),
 - (ii) Part 20 (Hearsay evidence),
 - (iii) Part 21 (Evidence of bad character), or
 - (iv) Part 22 (Evidence of a complainant's previous sexual behaviour).

(2) Such a party must serve the notice or application to introduce evidence required by that Part not more than 14 days after service of the appeal notice.

[Note. See also Part 16 (Written witness statements) and Part 19 (Expert evidence), which may apply where this Part applies.]

Hearings and decisions

34.8.—(1) The Crown Court as a general rule must hear in public an appeal or reference to which this Part applies, but—

- (a) may order any hearing to be in private; and
- (b) where a hearing is about a public interest ruling, must hold that hearing in private.

(2) The Crown Court officer must give as much notice as reasonably practicable of every hearing to—

- (a) the parties;
- (b) any party's custodian; and
- (c) any other person whom the Crown Court requires to be notified.

(3) The Crown Court officer must serve every decision on—

- (a) the parties;

- (b) any other person whom the Crown Court requires to be served; and
- (c) the magistrates' court officer and any party's custodian, where the decision determines an appeal.

(4) But where a hearing or decision is about a public interest ruling, the Crown Court officer must not—

- (a) give notice of that hearing to; or
- (b) serve that decision on, anyone other than the prosecutor who applied for that ruling, unless the court otherwise directs.

[Note. See also Part 15 (Disclosure).]

Abandoning an appeal

34.9.—(1) The appellant—

- (a) may abandon an appeal without the Crown Court's permission, by serving a notice of abandonment on—
 - (i) the magistrates' court officer,
 - (ii) the Crown Court officer, and
 - (iii) every other party
 before the hearing of the appeal begins; but
- (b) after the hearing of the appeal begins, may only abandon the appeal with the Crown Court's permission.

(2) A notice of abandonment must be signed by or on behalf of the appellant.

(3) Where an appellant who is on bail pending appeal abandons an appeal—

- (a) the appellant must surrender to custody as directed by the magistrates' court officer; and
- (b) any conditions of bail apply until then.

[Note. The Practice Direction sets out a form of notice of abandonment for use in connection with this rule.

Where an appellant abandons an appeal to the Crown Court, both the Crown Court and the magistrates' court have power to make a costs order against that appellant in favour of the respondent: see section 52 of the Senior Courts Act 1981(a) and section 109 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(b). Part 45 contains rules about costs on abandoning an appeal.]

Court's power to vary requirements under this Part

34.10. The Crown Court may—

- (a) shorten or extend (even after it has expired) a time limit under this Part;
- (b) allow an appellant to vary an appeal notice that that appellant has served;
- (c) direct that an appeal notice be served on any person;
- (d) allow an appeal notice or a notice of abandonment to be in a different form to one set out in the Practice Direction, or to be presented orally.

- (a) the general rule is that the Crown Court must comprise—
 - (i) a judge of the High Court, a Circuit judge, a Recorder or a qualifying judge advocate, and
 - (ii) no less than two and no more than four justices of the peace, none of whom took part in the decision under appeal; and
- (b) if the appeal is from a youth court—
 - (i) each justice of the peace must be qualified to sit as a member of a youth court, and
 - (ii) the Crown Court must include a man and a woman; but
- (c) the Crown Court may include only one justice of the peace and need not include both a man and a woman if—
 - (i) the presiding judge decides that otherwise the start of the appeal hearing will be delayed unreasonably, or
 - (ii) one or more of the justices of the peace who started hearing the appeal is absent.

[Note. See sections 73 and 74 of the Senior Courts Act 1981(a), section 45 of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933(b) and section 9 of the Courts Act 2003(c). Preparation of case stated

35.3.—(1) This rule applies where the court decides to state a case for the opinion of the High Court.

(2) The court officer must serve on each party notice of—

 - (ii) the court office for that court.

(9) The court officer must serve the case stated on each party.

[Note. Under section 114 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(a), a magistrates' court need not state a case until the person who applied for it has entered into a recognizance to appeal promptly to the High Court. The Crown Court has a corresponding inherent power.]

Under section 121(6) of the 1980 Act, the magistrates' court which states a case need not include all the members of the court which took the decision questioned.

If an applicant does not renew an application that a judge has refused, including an application for permission to appeal, the Registrar will treat it as if it had been refused by the Court of Appeal.

- (b) it appears to the court that the point is one which the Supreme Court ought to consider.*

If the Court of Appeal gives such a certificate but refuses permission, an appellant may apply for such permission to the Supreme Court.

Under section 36(3) of the Criminal Justice Act 1972 an appellant needs no such permission. The Court of Appeal may refer the point of law to the Supreme Court, or may refuse to do so.

- (a) for applying for permission to appeal under section 33 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968 (28 days) is prescribed by section 34 of that Act(a). Costs orders: general rules

45.2.—(1) The court must not make an order about costs unless each party and any other person directly affected—

- (a) is present; or
- (b) has had an opportunity—
 - (i) to attend, or
 - (ii) to make representations.

(2) The court may make an order about costs—

- (a) at a hearing in public or in private; or
- (b) without a hearing.

(3) In deciding what order, if any, to make about costs, the court must have regard to all the circumstances, including—

- (a) the conduct of all the parties; and
- (b) any costs order already made.

(4) If the court makes an order about costs, it must—

- (a) specify who must, or must not, pay what, to whom; and
- (b) identify the legislation under which the order is made, where there is a choice of powers.

(5) The court must give reasons if it—

- (a) refuses an application for a costs order; or
- (b) rejects representations opposing a costs order.

(6) If the court makes an order for the payment of costs—

- (a) the general rule is that it must be for an amount that is sufficient reasonably to compensate the recipient for costs—
 - (i) actually, reasonably and properly incurred, and
 - (ii) reasonable in amount; but
- (b) the court may order the payment of—
 - (i) a proportion of that amount,
 - (ii) a stated amount less than that amount,
 - (iii) costs from or until a certain date only,
 - (iv) costs relating only to particular steps taken, or
 - (v) costs relating only to a distinct part of the case.

(7) On an assessment of the amount of costs, relevant factors include—

- (a) the conduct of all the parties;
- (b) the particular complexity of the matter or the difficulty or novelty of the questions raised;

(a) 1980 c. 43; section 58 was amended by section 33 of, and paragraph 80 of Schedule 2 to, the Family Law Reform Act 1987 (c. 42); a relevant amendment was made to section 150(1) by paragraph 250 of Schedule 8, and Schedule 10 to, the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39).

(b) 2003 c. 39; Schedule 5 was amended by articles 2, 4, 6, 7 and 8 of S.I. 2006/1737, section 62 of, and paragraphs 148 and 149 of Schedule 13 to, the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15), section 80 of the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4), section 88 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10), section 10 of, and paragraphs 24 and 27 of the Schedule to, the Prevention of Social Housing Fraud Act 2013 (c. 3), section 27 of the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22) and section 56 of the Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015 (c. 2). It is further amended by section 26 of the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22) and paragraph 23 of Schedule 5 to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (c. 30), with effect from dates to be appointed.

- (c) the skill, effort, specialised knowledge and responsibility involved;
- (d) the time spent on the case;
- (e) the place where and the circumstances in which work or any part of it was done; and
- (f) any direction or observations by the court that made the costs order.

(8) If the court orders a party to pay costs to be assessed under rule 45.11, it may order that party to pay an amount on account.

(9) An order for the payment of costs takes effect when the amount is assessed, unless the court exercises any power it has to order otherwise.

[Note. Under the powers to which apply rule 45.8 (Costs resulting from unnecessary or improper act, etc.) and rule 45.9 (Costs against a legal representative), specified conduct must be established for such orders to be made.]

The amount recoverable under a costs order may be affected by the legislation under which the order is made. See, for example, section 16A of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985(a).

Under section 141 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(b) and section 75 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(c), the Crown Court and magistrates' court respectively can allow time for payment, or payment by instalments.]

Court's power to vary requirements

Exercise of court's powers

- (a) at a hearing, which must be in private unless the court otherwise directs; and
- (b) in the presence of the applicant or appellant.

(2) The court must not determine such an application or appeal unless any person served under those rules—

(3) An application to extend the retention period for fingerprints or a DNA profile must explain why that period should be extended.

(4) An application to extend the retention period for a sample must explain why, having regard to the nature and complexity of other material that is evidence in relation to the offence, the sample is likely to be needed in any proceedings for the offence for the purposes of—

Section 63F of the 1984 Act, and paragraph 20B of Schedule 8 to the 2000 Act, provide for the circumstances in which fingerprints and DNA profiles may be retained instead of being destroyed. Section 63R of the 1984 Act and paragraph 20G of Schedule 8 to the 2000 Act provide for the circumstances in which samples taken from a person may be retained instead of being destroyed. Under section 63R(6) of the 1984 Act and paragraph 20G(6) of Schedule 8 to the 2000 Act, a chief officer of police to whom those provisions apply may apply for an order to retain a sample for up to 12 months after the date on which it would otherwise have to be destroyed. Under section 63R(9) and paragraph 20G(9), such an order may be renewed, on one or more occasions, for a further period of not more than 12 months from the end of the period when the order would otherwise cease to have effect.]

- (3) Rule 34.11 (Constitution of the Crown Court) applies on such an appeal.

[Note. Under section 63F(10) of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, and under paragraph 20B(8) of Schedule 8 to the Terrorism Act 2000, the person from whom fingerprints were taken, or from whom a DNA profile derives, may appeal to the Crown Court against an order extending the retention period; and a chief officer of police may appeal to the Crown Court against the refusal of such an order.]

- (v) that the respondent may apologise, if he or she so wishes, and that this may persuade the court to take no further action, and
 - (vi) that the respondent may take legal advice; and
 - (b) allow the respondent a reasonable opportunity to reflect, take advice, explain and, if he or she so wishes, apologise.
- (3) The court may then—
- (a) take no further action in respect of that conduct;
 - (b) enquire into the conduct there and then; or
 - (c) postpone that enquiry (if a magistrates' court, only until later the same day).

[Note. The conduct to which this rule applies is sometimes described as 'criminal' contempt of court.

By reason of sections 15 and 45 of the Senior Courts Act 1981, the Court of Appeal and the Crown Court each has an inherent power to imprison (for a maximum of 2 years), or fine (to an unlimited amount), or both, a respondent for contempt of court for the conduct listed in paragraph (1)(a), (b), (d) or (e). See also section 14 of the Contempt of Court Act 1981(a).

Under section 97(4) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, and under sections 12 and 14 of the Contempt of Court Act 1981, a magistrates' court can imprison (for a maximum of 1 month), or fine (to a maximum of £2,500), or both, a respondent who contravenes a provision listed in paragraph (1)(c) or (d). Section 12(1) of the 1981 Act allows the court to deal with any person who—

- (a) wilfully insults the justice or justices, any witness before or officer of the court or any solicitor or counsel having business in the court, during his or their sitting or attendance in court or in going to or returning from the court; or
- (b) wilfully interrupts the proceedings of the court or otherwise misbehaves in court.

Under section 89 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000(b), no respondent who is under 21 may be imprisoned for contempt of court. Under section 108 of that Act(c), a respondent who is at least 18 but under 21 may be detained if the court is of the opinion that no other method of dealing with him or her is appropriate. Under section 14(2A) of the Contempt of Court Act 1981(d), a respondent who is under 17 may not be ordered to attend an attendance centre.

It is further amended by section 74 of, and paragraphs 160 and 180 of Schedule 7 to, the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (c. 43) with effect from a date to be appointed.
 - (c) 2000 c. 6; section 108 is repealed by sections 74 and 75 of, and paragraphs 160 and 188 of Schedule 7 and Schedule 8 to, the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (c. 43), with effect from a date to be appointed.
 - (d) 1981 c. 49; section 14 was amended by section 65(1) of, and paragraphs 59 and 60 of Schedule 3 to, the Mental Health (Amendment) Act 1982 (c. 51), section 148 of, and paragraph 57 of Schedule 4 to, the Mental Health Act 1983 (c. 20), section 17(3) of, and Parts 1 and V of Schedule 4 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1991 (c. 53), section 65(3) and (4) of, and paragraph 6(5) of Schedule 3 to, the Criminal Justice Act 1993 (c. 36), section 165(1) of, and paragraph 84 of Schedule 9 to, the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (c. 6), section 1(4) of, and paragraph 19 of Schedule 1 to, the Mental Health Act 2007 (c. 12) and section 17 of, and paragraph 52 of Schedule 9 and paragraph 53 of Schedule 10 to, the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22). It is further amended by sections 6(2) and 149 of, and paragraph 25 of Schedule 4 and Part 1 of Schedule 28 to, the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008 (c. 4), with effect from a date to be appointed.

Under section 258 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003(a), a respondent who is imprisoned for contempt of court must be released unconditionally after serving half the term.

Under sections 14, 15 and 16 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012(b), the respondent may receive advice and representation in “proceedings for contempt committed, or alleged to have been committed, by an individual in the face of the court”.

By reason of sections 15 and 45 of the Senior Courts Act 1981, the Court of Appeal and the Crown Court each has an inherent power temporarily to detain a respondent, for example to restore order, when dealing with obstructive, disruptive, insulting or intimidating conduct. Under section 12(2) of the Contempt of Court Act 1981(c), a magistrates’ court can temporarily detain a respondent until later the same day on a contravention of that section.

Part 14 contains rules about bail.]

Review after temporary detention

48.6.—(1) This rule applies in a case in which the court has ordered the respondent’s immediate temporary detention for conduct to which rule 48.5 applies.

(2) The court must review the case—

- (b) if the Court of Appeal or the Crown Court, no later than the next business day.

(3) On the review, the court must—

- (a) unless the respondent is absent, repeat the explanations required by rule 48.5(2)(a); and
- (b) allow the respondent a reasonable opportunity to reflect, take advice, explain and, if he or she so wishes, apologise.

(4) The court may then—

- (a) take no further action in respect of the conduct;
- (b) if a magistrates’ court, enquire into the conduct there and then; or
- (c) if the Court of Appeal or the Crown Court—
 - (i) enquire into the conduct there and then, or
 - (ii) postpone the enquiry, and order the respondent’s release from such detention in the meantime.

Postponement of enquiry

48.7.—(1) This rule applies where the Court of Appeal or the Crown Court postpones the enquiry.

(2) The court must arrange for the preparation of a written statement containing such particulars of the conduct in question as to make clear what the respondent appears to have done.

(3) The court officer must serve on the respondent—

- (a) that written statement;
- (b) notice of where and when the postponed enquiry will take place; and
- (c) a notice that—
 - (i) reminds the respondent that the court can impose imprisonment, or a fine, or both, for contempt of court, and

It is further amended by section 34 of the Police and Justice Act 2006 (c. 4), with effect from a date to be appointed.

48.8.—(1) At an enquiry, the court must—

- (a) ensure that the respondent understands (with help, if necessary) what is alleged, if the enquiry has been postponed from a previous occasion;
- (b) explain what the procedure at the enquiry will be; and
- (c) ask whether the respondent admits the conduct in question.

(2) If the respondent admits the conduct, the court need not receive evidence.

(3) If the respondent does not admit the conduct, the court must consider—

- (a) any statement served under rule 48.7;
- (b) any other evidence of the conduct;
- (c) any evidence introduced by the respondent; and
- (d) any representations by the respondent about the conduct.

(4) If the respondent admits the conduct, or the court finds it proved, the court must—

- (a) before imposing any punishment for contempt of court, give the respondent an opportunity to make representations relevant to punishment;
- (b) explain, in terms the respondent can understand (with help, if necessary)—
 - (i) the reasons for its decision, including its findings of fact, and
 - (ii) the punishment it imposes, and its effect; and
- (c) if a magistrates' court, arrange for the preparation of a written record of those findings.

(5) The court that conducts an enquiry—

- (a) need not include the same member or members as the court that observed the conduct; but
- (b) may do so, unless that would be unfair to the respondent.

CONTEMPT OF COURT BY FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH COURT ORDER, ETC.

Initial procedure on failure to comply with court order, etc.

48.9.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) a party, or other person directly affected, alleges—
 - (i) in the Crown Court, a failure to comply with an order to which applies rule 33.70 (compliance order, restraint order or ancillary order), rule 47.13 (certain investigation orders under the Terrorism Act 2000(a)) or rule 47.22 (certain investigation orders under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002(b)),
 - (ii) in the Court of Appeal or the Crown Court, any other conduct with which that court can deal as a civil contempt of court, or
 - (iii) in the Crown Court or a magistrates' court, unauthorised use of disclosed prosecution material under section 17 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(c);
- (b) the court deals on its own initiative with conduct to which paragraph (1)(a) applies.

(2) Such a party or person must—

(a) 2000 c. 11.
(b) 2002 c. 29.

 - (b) arrange for the service on the respondent of—
 - (i) that written statement, and
 - (ii) notice of where and when the court will consider the allegation (not less than 14 days after service).

[Note. The conduct to which this rule applies is sometimes described as ‘civil’ contempt of court.

By reason of section 45 of the Senior Courts Act 1981(a), the Crown Court has an inherent power to imprison (for a maximum of 2 years), or fine (to an unlimited amount), or both, a respondent for conduct in contempt of court by failing to comply with a court order or an undertaking given to the court.

Under section 18 of the Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996(b)—

- (a) the Crown Court can imprison (for a maximum of 2 years), or fine (to an unlimited amount), or both;
- (b) a magistrates’ court can imprison (for a maximum of 6 months), or fine (to a maximum of £5,000), or both,

a person who uses disclosed prosecution material in contravention of section 17 of that Act. See also rule 15.8.

Under section 89 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, no respondent who is under 21 may be imprisoned for contempt of court. Under section 108 of that Act, a respondent who is at least 18 but under 21 may be detained if the court is of the opinion that no other method of dealing with him or her is appropriate. Under section 14(2A) of the Contempt of Court Act 1981, a respondent who is under 17 may not be ordered to attend an attendance centre.

Under section 258 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003, a respondent who is imprisoned for contempt of court must be released unconditionally after serving half the term.

The Practice Direction sets out a form of application for use in connection with this rule.

The rules in Part 4 require that an application under this rule must be served by handing it to the person accused of contempt of court unless the court otherwise directs.]

 - (b) any other evidence of the conduct;
 - (c) any evidence introduced by the respondent; and

 - (ii) not more than 7 days after service of that application or of the court's written statement, in the case of the respondent.
- (2) Such service is notice of that party's intention to introduce in evidence that written witness statement, or other hearsay, unless that party otherwise indicates when serving it.
- (3) A party entitled to receive such notice may waive that entitlement.

[Note. On an application under rule 48.9, hearsay evidence is admissible under the Civil Evidence Act 1995. Section 1(2) of the 1995 Act(a) defines hearsay as meaning 'a statement made otherwise than by a person while giving oral evidence in the proceedings which is tendered as evidence of the matters stated'. Section 13 of the Act(b) defines a statement as meaning 'any representation of fact or opinion, however made'.

Under section 2 of the 1995 Act(c), a party who wants to introduce hearsay in evidence must give reasonable and practicable notice, in accordance with procedure rules, unless the recipient waives that requirement.]

- (2) Where the Secretary of State serves a copy of such an order on the court officer—
- (a) the general rule is that the court must consider the order no later than the next business day;
 - (b) exceptionally, the court may consider the order later than that, but not more than 5 business days after service.
- (3) The court must not consider the order unless—
- (a) it is satisfied that the chief officer of police for the area in which the evidence is situated has had notice of the order; and
 - (b) that chief officer of police has had an opportunity to make representations, at a hearing if that officer wants.
- (4) The court may consider the order—
- (a) without a hearing; or
 - (b) at a hearing, in public or in private.

[Note. Under sections 20, 21 and 22 of the Crime (International Co-operation) Act 2003, a court nominated by the Secretary of State must consider an order, made by a court or other authority in a country outside the United Kingdom, the purpose of which is to protect evidence in the United Kingdom which may be used in proceedings or an investigation in that other country pending the transfer of that evidence to that country. The court may decide not to give effect to such an order only if—

- (a) were the person whose conduct is in question to be charged with the offence to which the order relates, a previous conviction or acquittal would entitle that person to be discharged; or
- (b) giving effect to the order would be incompatible with a Convention right, within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998.]

Overseas forfeiture orders

49.11.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) the Crown Court can—
 - (i) make a restraint order under article 5 of the Criminal Justice (International Co-operation) Act 1990 (Enforcement of Overseas Forfeiture Orders) Order 2005(b), or

- (c) the Director wants the Crown Court to—

(a) 2003 c. 32.
(b) S.I. 2005/3180.

- (i) make such a restraint order, or
 - (ii) give effect to such a forfeiture order.
- (2) The Director must—
 - (a) apply in writing;
 - (b) serve the application on the court officer; and
 - (c) serve the application on the defendant and on any other person affected by the order, unless the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the application is urgent, or
 - (ii) there are reasonable grounds for believing that to give notice of the application would cause the dissipation of the property which is the subject of the application.
- (3) The application must—
 - (a) identify the property the subject of the application;
 - (b) identify the person who is or who may become the subject of such a forfeiture order;
 - (c) explain how the requirements of the 2005 Order are satisfied, as the case may be—
 - (i) for making a restraint order, or
 - (ii) for giving effect to a forfeiture order;
 - (d) where the application is to give effect to a forfeiture order, include an application to appoint the Director as the enforcement authority; and
 - (e) propose the terms of the Crown Court order.
- (4) If the court allows the application, it must—
 - (a) where it decides to make a restraint order—
 - (i) specify the property the subject of the order,
 - (ii) specify the person or persons who are prohibited from dealing with that property,
 - (iii) specify any exception to that prohibition, and
 - (iv) include any ancillary order that the court believes is appropriate to ensure that the restraint order is effective;
 - (b) where it decides to give effect to a forfeiture order, exercise its power to—
 - (i) direct the registration of the order as an order of the Crown Court,
 - (ii) give directions for notice of the order to be given to any person affected by it, and
 - (iii) appoint the applicant Director as the enforcement authority.
- (5) Paragraph (6) applies where a person affected by an order, or the Director, wants the court to vary or discharge a restraint order or cancel the registration of a forfeiture order.
- (6) Such a person must—
 - (a) apply in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so;
 - (b) serve the application on the court officer and, as applicable—
 - (i) the other party, and
 - (ii) any other person who will or may be affected;
 - (c) explain why it is appropriate, as the case may be—
 - (i) for the restraint order to be varied or discharged, or
 - (ii) for the registration of the forfeiture order to be cancelled;
 - (d) propose the terms of any variation; and
 - (e) ask for a hearing, if one is wanted, and explain why it is needed.
- (7) The court may—
 - (a) consider an application

- (i) at a hearing, which must be in private unless the court otherwise directs, or
 - (ii) without a hearing;
- (b) allow an application to be made orally.

[Note. Under article 19 of the Criminal Justice (International Co-operation) Act 1990 (Enforcement of Overseas Forfeiture Orders) Order 2005, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Director of the Serious Fraud Office the Crown Court may give effect to an order made by a court in a country outside the United Kingdom for the forfeiture and destruction, or other disposal, of any property in respect of which an offence has been committed in that country, or which was used or intended for use in connection with the commission of such an offence (described in the Order as an 'external forfeiture order').

Under article 5 of the 2005 Order, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Director of the Serious Fraud Office the Crown Court may make a restraint order prohibiting any specified person from dealing with property, for the purpose of facilitating the enforcement of such a forfeiture order which has yet to be made.]

Overseas restraint orders

49.12.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) the Crown Court can give effect to an overseas restraint order under regulation 10 of the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014^(a);
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Director of the Serious Fraud Office receives a request from a court or authority in another European Union member State to give effect to such an order; and
- (c) the Director serves on the Crown Court officer—
 - (i) the certificate which accompanied the request for enforcement of the order,
 - (ii) a copy of the order restraining the property to which that certificate relates, and
 - (iii) a copy of an order confiscating the property in respect of which the restraint order was made, or an indication of when such a confiscation order is expected.

(2) On service of those documents on the court officer—

- (a) the general rule is that the Crown Court must consider the order, with a view to its registration, no later than the next business day;
- (b) exceptionally, the court may consider the order later than that, but not more than 5 business days after service.

(3) The court—

- (a) must not consider the order unless the Director—
 - (i) is present, or
 - (ii) has had a reasonable opportunity to make representations;
- (b) subject to that, may consider the order—
 - (i) at a hearing, which must be in private unless the court otherwise directs, or
 - (ii) without a hearing.

(4) If the court decides to give effect to the order, the court must—

- (a) direct its registration as an order of the Crown Court; and
- (b) give directions for notice of the order to be given to any person affected by it.

(5) Paragraph (6) applies where a person affected by the order, or the Director, wants the court to cancel the registration or vary the property to which the order applies.

^(a) S.I. 2014/3141.

- (6) Such a person must—
- (a) apply in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so;
 - (b) serve the application on the court officer and, as applicable—
 - (i) the other party, and
 - (ii) any other person who will or may be affected;
 - (c) explain, as applicable—
 - (i) when the overseas restraint order ceased to have effect in the European Union member State in which it was made,
 - (ii) why continuing to give effect to that order would be impossible as a consequence of an immunity under the law of England and Wales,
 - (iii) why continuing to give effect to that order would be incompatible with a Convention right within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998,
 - (iv) why therefore it is appropriate for the registration to be cancelled or varied;
 - (d) include with the application any evidence in support;
 - (e) propose the terms of any variation; and
 - (f) ask for a hearing, if one is wanted, and explain why it is needed.

[Note. See regulations 8, 9 and 10 of the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014.

An overseas restraint order is an order made by a court or authority in a European Union member State which—

- (a) relates to—
 - (i) criminal proceedings instituted in that state, or
 - (ii) a criminal investigation being carried on there; and
- (b) prohibits dealing with property in England and Wales which the court or authority considers to be property that—
 - (i) has been or is likely to be used for the purposes of criminal conduct, or
 - (ii) is the proceeds of criminal conduct.

Where this rule applies, the Crown Court—

- (a) may decide not to give effect to an overseas restraint order only if that would be—
 - (i) impossible as a consequence of an immunity under the law of England and Wales, or
 - (ii) incompatible with a Convention right within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998;
- (b) may postpone giving effect to an overseas restraint order in respect of any property—
 - (i) in order to avoid prejudicing a criminal investigation which is taking place in the United Kingdom, or
 - (ii) if, under an order made by a court in criminal proceedings in the UK, the property may not be dealt with;
- (c) may cancel a registration, or vary the property to which an order applies, if or to the extent that—
 - (i) any of the circumstances listed in paragraph (a) of this note applies, or
 - (ii) the order has ceased to have effect in the member State in which it was made.

Under regulation 10(6) of the 2014 Regulations, no challenge to the substantive reasons in relation to which an overseas restraint order has been made by an appropriate court or authority in a European Union member State may be considered by the court.

Under regulation 3 of the 2014 Regulations, a reference to the proceeds of criminal conduct includes a reference to—

- (a) any property which wholly or partly, and directly or indirectly, represents the proceeds of an offence (including payments or other rewards in connection with the commission of an offence); and*
- (b) any property which is the equivalent to the full value or part of the value of such property.]*

Overseas confiscation orders

49.13.—(1) This rule applies where—

- (a) the Crown Court can give effect to an overseas confiscation order under regulation 15 of the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014^(a);
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Director of the Serious Fraud Office receives a request from a court or authority in another European Union member State to give effect to such an order; and
- (c) the Director serves on the Crown Court officer—
 - (i) the certificate which accompanied the request for enforcement of the order, and
 - (ii) a copy of the confiscation order to which that certificate relates.

(2) The court—

- (a) must not consider the order unless the Director—
 - (i) is present, or
 - (ii) has had a reasonable opportunity to make representations;
- (b) subject to that, may consider the order—
 - (i) at a hearing, which must be in private unless the court otherwise directs, or
 - (ii) without a hearing.

(3) If the court decides to give effect to the order, the court must—

- (a) direct its registration as an order of the Crown Court; and
- (b) give directions for notice of the order to be given to any person affected by it.

(4) Paragraph (5) applies where a person affected by the order, or the Director, wants the court to cancel the registration or vary the property to which the order applies.

(5) Such a person must—

- (a) apply in writing as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the grounds for doing so;
- (b) serve the application on the court officer and, as applicable—
 - (i) the other party, and
 - (ii) any other person who will or may be affected;
- (c) explain, as applicable—
 - (i) when the overseas confiscation order ceased to have effect in the European Union member State in which it was made,
 - (ii) why continuing to give effect to that order would be statute-barred, provided that the criminal conduct that gave rise to the order falls within the jurisdiction of England and Wales,
 - (iii) why continuing to give effect to that order would be impossible as a consequence of an immunity under the law of England and Wales,

(a) S.I. 2014/3141.

- (iv) why continuing to give effect to that order would be incompatible with a Convention right within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998,
- (v) why therefore it is appropriate for the registration to be cancelled or varied;
- (d) include with the application any evidence in support;
- (e) propose the terms of any variation; and
- (f) ask for a hearing, if one is wanted, and explain why it is needed.

[Note. See regulations 13, 14 and 15 of the Criminal Justice and Data Protection (Protocol No. 36) Regulations 2014(a).

An overseas confiscation order is an order made by a court or authority in a European Union member State for the confiscation of property which is in England and Wales, or is the property of a resident of England and Wales, and which the court or authority considers—

- (a) was used or intended to be used for the purposes of criminal conduct; or*
- (b) is the proceeds of criminal conduct.*

Where this rule applies, the Crown Court—

- (a) may decide not to give effect to an overseas confiscation order only if that would be—*
 - (i) statute-barred, provided that the criminal conduct that gave rise to the order falls within the jurisdiction of England and Wales,*
 - (ii) impossible as a consequence of an immunity under the law of England and Wales, or*
 - (iii) incompatible with a Convention right within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998;*
- (b) may postpone giving effect to an overseas confiscation order in respect of any property—*
 - (i) in order to avoid prejudicing a criminal investigation which is taking place in the United Kingdom,*
 - (ii) where the court considers that there is a risk that the amount recovered through the execution of the order in England and Wales may exceed the amount specified in the order because of the simultaneous execution of the order in more than one member State,*
 - (iii) if, under an order made by a court in criminal proceedings in the UK, the property may not be dealt with, or the property is subject to proceedings for such an order, or*
 - (iv) if a person affected by the order has applied to cancel the registration, or vary the property to which it applies;*
- (c) may cancel a registration, or vary the property to which an order applies, if or to the extent that—*
 - (i) any of the circumstances listed in paragraph (a) of this note applies, or*
 - (ii) the order has ceased to have effect in the member State in which it was made.]*

Under regulation 15(7) of the 2014 Regulations, no challenge to the substantive reasons in relation to which an overseas restraint order has been made by an appropriate court or authority in a European Union member State may be considered by the court.

Regulation 3 of the 2014 Regulations applies also where this rule applies. See the note to rule 49.12.]

- 50.1.—(1) This Part applies to extradition under Part 1 or Part 2 of the Extradition Act 2003(a).
(2) Section 2 of this Part applies to proceedings in a magistrates' court, and in that Section—
(a) rules 50.3 to 50.7, 50.15 and 50.16 apply to extradition under Part 1 of the Act;
(b) rules 50.3, 50.4 and 50.8 to 50.16 apply to extradition under Part 2 of the Act.
(3) Section 3 of this Part applies where—
(a) a party wants to appeal to the High Court against an order by the magistrates' court or by the Secretary of State;
(b) a party to an appeal to the High Court wants to appeal further to the Supreme Court under—
(i) section 32 of the Act (appeal under Part 1 of the Act), or
(ii) section 114 of the Act (appeal under Part 2 of the Act).

[Note. The Extradition Act 2003 provides for the extradition of a person accused or convicted of a crime to the territory within which that person is accused or was convicted.]

Under Part 1 of the Act (sections 1 to 68), the magistrates' court may give effect to a warrant for arrest issued by an authority in a territory designated for the purposes of that Part, including a Member State of the European Union.

Under Part 2 of the Act (sections 69 to 141), the magistrates' court and the Secretary of State may give effect to a request for extradition made under a treaty between the United Kingdom and the requesting territory.

There are rights of appeal to the High Court from decisions of the magistrates' court and of the Secretary of State: see Section 3 of this Part.]

Meaning of 'magistrates' court', 'presenting officer' and 'defendant'

- 50.2. In this Part, and for the purposes of this Part in other rules—
(a) 'magistrates' court' means a District Judge (Magistrates' Courts) exercising the powers to which Section 2 of this Part applies;
(b) 'presenting officer' means an officer of the National Crime Agency, a police officer, a prosecutor or other person representing an authority or territory seeking the extradition of a defendant;
(c) 'defendant' means a person arrested under Part 1 or Part 2 of the Extradition Act 2003.

[Note. Under sections 67 and 139 of the Extradition Act 2003(b), a District Judge (Magistrates' Courts) must be designated for the purposes of the Act to exercise the powers to which Section 2 of this Part applies.]

SECTION 2: EXTRADITION PROCEEDINGS IN A MAGISTRATES' COURT

Exercise of magistrates' court's powers

50.3.—(1) The general rule is that the magistrates' court must exercise its powers at a hearing in public, but that is subject to any power it has to—

- (a) 2003 c. 41.
(b) 2003 c. 41; sections 67 and 139 were amended by section 15 of, and paragraphs 352 and 353 of Schedule 4 to, the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4) and section 42 of, and paragraph 15 of Schedule 13 to, the Police and Justice Act 2006 (c. 48).

- (a) impose reporting restrictions;
- (b) withhold information from the public; or
- (c) order a hearing in private.

(2) The general rule is that the court must exercise its powers in the defendant's presence, but it may do so in the defendant's absence where—

- (a) the court discharges the defendant; or
- (b) the defendant is represented and the defendant's presence is impracticable by reason of his or her—
 - (i) ill health, or
 - (ii) disorderly conduct.

(3) The court may exercise its power to adjourn—

- (a) if either party asks, or on its own initiative; and
- (b) in particular—
 - (i) to allow there to be obtained information that the court requires,
 - (ii) following a provisional arrest under Part 1 of the Extradition Act 2003, pending receipt of the warrant,
 - (iii) following a provisional arrest under Part 2 of the Act, pending receipt of the extradition request,
 - (iv) if the court is informed that the defendant is serving a custodial sentence in the United Kingdom,
 - (v) if it appears to the court that the defendant is not fit to be extradited, unless the court discharges the defendant for that reason,
 - (vi) where a court dealing with a warrant to which Part 1 of the Act applies is informed that another such warrant has been received in the United Kingdom, or
 - (vii) where a court dealing with a warrant to which Part 1 of the Act applies is informed of a request for the temporary transfer of the defendant to the territory to which the defendant's extradition is sought.

(4) The court must exercise its power to adjourn if informed that the defendant has been charged with an offence in the United Kingdom.

(5) The general rule is that, before exercising a power to which this Part applies, the court must give each party an opportunity to make representations, unless that party is absent deliberately.

[Note. See sections 8A, 8B, 9, 21B, 22, 23, 25 and 44 of the Extradition Act 2003(a) (powers in relation to extradition under Part 1 of the Act) and sections 76A, 76B, 77, 88, 89 and 91 of the Act(b) (powers in relation to extradition under Part 2 of the Act).

In each case the appellant needs the High Court's permission to appeal (in the 2003 Act, described as 'leave to appeal').]

Exercise of the High Court's powers

50.17.—(1) The general rule is that the High Court must exercise its powers at a hearing in public, but—

- (a) that is subject to any power the court has to—
 - (i) impose reporting restrictions,
 - (ii) withhold information from the public, or
 - (iii) order a hearing in private;
- (b) despite the general rule, the court may determine without a hearing—
 - (i) an application for permission to appeal to the High Court (but a renewed such application must be determined at a hearing),
 - (ii) an application for permission to appeal from the High Court to the Supreme Court,
 - (iii) an application for permission to reopen a decision under rule 50.27 (Reopening the determination of an appeal), or
 - (iv) an application concerning bail; and
- (c) despite the general rule the court may, without a hearing—
 - (i) give case management directions, or
 - (ii) reject a notice or application and, if applicable, dismiss an application for permission to appeal, where rule 50.31 (Payment of High Court fees) applies and the party who served the notice or application fails to comply with that rule.

(2) If the High Court so directs, a party may attend a hearing by live link.

(3) The general rule is that where the High Court exercises its powers at a hearing it may do so only if the defendant attends, in person or by live link, but, despite the general rule, the court may exercise its powers in the defendant's absence if—

- (a) the defendant waives the right to attend;
- (b) subject to any appeal to the Supreme Court, the result of the court's order would be the discharge of the defendant; or
- (c) the defendant is represented and—
 - (i) the defendant is in custody, or
 - (ii) the defendant's presence is impracticable by reason of his or her ill health or disorderly conduct.

(4) If the High Court gives permission to appeal to the High Court—

- (a) unless the court otherwise directs, the decision indicates that the court gives the appellant permission to appeal on each ground identified by the appeal notice;
- (b) unless the court otherwise directs, the decision indicates that the court finds reasonably arguable each ground on which the court gives permission to appeal; and
- (c) the court must give such directions as are required for the preparation and hearing of the appeal, including a direction as to whether the appeal must be heard by a single judge of the High Court or by a divisional court.

(5) If the High Court decides without a hearing an application for permission to appeal from the High Court to the Supreme Court, the High Court must announce its decision at a hearing in public.

(6) The High Court may—

- (a) shorten a time limit or extend it (even after it has expired), unless that is inconsistent with other legislation;

- (b) allow or require a party to vary or supplement a notice that that party has served;
- (c) direct that a notice or application be served on any person;
- (d) allow a notice or application to be in a different form to one set out in the Practice Direction, or to be presented orally.

(7) A party who wants an extension of time within which to serve a notice or make an application must—

- (a) apply for that extension of time when serving that notice or making that application; and
- (b) give the reasons for the application for an extension of time.

[Note. The time limits for serving an appeal notice are prescribed by the Extradition Act 2003: see rule 50.19.]

Case management in the High Court

50.18.—(1) The High Court and the parties have the same duties and powers as under Part 3 (Case management), subject to paragraph (3).

(2) A master of the High Court, a deputy master, or a court officer nominated for the purpose by the Lord Chief Justice—

- (a) must fulfil the duty of active case management under rule 3.2, and in fulfilling that duty may exercise any of the powers of case management under—
 - (i) rule 3.5 (the court’s general powers of case management),
 - (ii) rule 3.10(3) (requiring a certificate of readiness), and
 - (iii) rule 3.11 (requiring a party to identify intentions and anticipated requirements) subject to the directions of a judge of the High Court; and
- (b) must nominate a case progression officer under rule 3.4.

(3) Rule 3.6 (Application to vary a direction) does not apply to a decision to give or to refuse—

- (a) permission to appeal; or
- (b) permission to reopen a decision under rule 50.27 (Reopening the determination of an appeal).

Service of appeal notice

50.19.—(1) A party who wants to appeal to the High Court must serve an appeal notice on—

- (a) in every case—
 - (i) the High Court officer,
 - (ii) the other party, and
 - (iii) the Director of Public Prosecutions, unless the Director already has the conduct of the proceedings;
- (b) the designated authority which certified the arrest warrant, where Part 1 of the Extradition Act 2003 applies; and
- (c) the Secretary of State, where the appeal is against—
 - (i) an order by the Secretary of State, or
 - (ii) an order by the magistrates’ court sending a case to the Secretary of State.

(2) A defendant who wants to appeal must serve the appeal notice—

- (a) not more than 7 days after the day on which the magistrates’ court makes an order for the defendant’s extradition, starting with that day, where that order is under Part 1 of the Extradition Act 2003;

(b) not more than 14 days after the day on which the Secretary of State informs the defendant of the Secretary of State's decision, starting with that day, where under Part 2 of the Act—

- (i) the magistrates' court sends the case to the Secretary of State for a decision whether to extradite the defendant, or
- (ii) the Secretary of State orders the defendant's extradition.

(3) An authority or territory seeking the defendant's extradition which wants to appeal against an order for the defendant's discharge must serve the appeal notice—

- (a) not more than 7 days after the day on which the magistrates' court makes that order, starting with that day, if the order is under Part 1 of the Extradition Act 2003;
- (b) not more than 14 days after the day on which the magistrates' court makes that order, starting with that day, if the order is under Part 2 of the Act;
- (c) not more than 14 days after the day on which the Secretary of State informs the territory's representative of the Secretary of State's order, starting with that day, where the order is under Part 2 of the Act.

[Note. See sections 26, 28, 103, 105, 108 and 110 of the Extradition Act 2003(a). The time limits for serving an appeal notice are prescribed by those sections. They may be neither shortened nor extended, but—

- (a) if a defendant applies out of time for permission to appeal to the High Court the court must not for that reason refuse to consider the application if the defendant did everything reasonably possible to ensure that the notice was given as soon as it could be; and*
- (b) a defendant may apply out of time for permission to appeal to the High Court on human rights grounds against an order for extradition made by the Secretary of State.*

Under section 3 of the Prosecution of Offences Act 1985(b), the Director of Public Prosecutions may conduct extradition proceedings (but need not do so).]
