Case management conference etc.

54.—(1) Where it appears to the Tribunal that any proceedings would be facilitated by holding a case management conference or pre-hearing review the Tribunal may, on the request of a party or of its own initiative, give directions for such a conference or review to be held.

(2) Unless the Tribunal otherwise directs, a case management conference is to be held as soon as practicable after the service of the reply or the expiry of the time for the filing of the reply if none is served.

(3) The purpose of a first case management conference or pre-hearing review is to give directions for the efficient conduct of the proceedings including—

- (b) to clarify the forms of order sought by the parties, their arguments of fact and law and the points at issue between them;

- (f) to facilitate the settlement of the proceedings; and
- (g) to determine whether the parties should be given permission to adduce expert evidence and, if so, to what extent.

(4) Where it appears to the Tribunal that any proceedings would be facilitated by holding a subsequent case management conference, the Tribunal may, on the request of a party or of its own initiative, give directions for such a conference to be held.

(5) The Tribunal may authorise the President or a chairman to carry out on its behalf a case management conference, pre-hearing review or any other preparatory measure relating to the organisation or disposal of the proceedings.

(3) The Tribunal may require any witness to give evidence on oath or affirmation or, if in writing, by way of affidavit.

(4) The Tribunal may allow a witness to give evidence through a video link or by other means.

(5) The Tribunal may dispense with the need to call a witness to give oral evidence if a witness statement or expert report has been submitted in respect of that witness.

(6) The Tribunal may limit cross-examination of witnesses to any extent or in any manner it considers appropriate.

Summoning or citing of witnesses

56.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Tribunal may, at any time, at the request of any party, issue a summons (or in relation to proceedings taking place in Scotland, a citation) in any form, requiring any person wherever that person may be in the United Kingdom to do one or both of the following—

(2) A request by a party for the issue of a summons or citation under this rule shall state with reasons—

- (a) upon which facts the witness is to be questioned; and
- (b) the documents or material required to be produced.

(3) No person may be required to attend in compliance with a summons or citation under this rule unless the person—

- (a) has been given at least seven days' notice of the hearing; and
- (b) is offered or paid such sum as would be recoverable by that witness in respect of attendance in proceedings before the Senior Courts of England and Wales, the Court of Session or the Court of Judicature of Northern Ireland, as appropriate according to any determination of the Tribunal under rule 18.

(4) The Tribunal may make the summoning or citation of a witness in accordance with paragraph (1) conditional upon the deposit with the Registrar of a sum determined by the Tribunal as sufficient to cover—

- (a) the costs of the summons or citation;
- (b) the sum referred to in paragraph (3)(b).

(5) The Tribunal may direct a party to serve on its behalf a summons issued under this rule and pay the sum referred to in paragraph (3)(b).

Failure to comply with directions

57.—(1) If any party fails to comply with any direction given in accordance with these Rules, the Tribunal may, if it considers that the justice of the case so requires, order that—

- (a) the requirements of the direction be waived;
- (b) the failure be remedied;
- (c) such party be debarred from taking any further part in the proceedings without the permission of the Tribunal;
- (d) such party (or its representative) be subject to an order for any costs the Tribunal sees fit.

(2) Before making an order under paragraph (1)(c) or (d), the Tribunal shall give the party (or its representative) the opportunity to make submissions as to why the order should not be made.
