

---

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2015 No. 398

The Offshore Installations (Offshore Safety Directive) (Safety Case etc.) Regulations 2015

Review of safety case

- 23.—(1) A duty holder must thoroughly review a current safety case—
- (a) no more than five years after the date on which the safety case was first accepted by the competent authority under regulation 17 or 18; and
  - (b) at suitable intervals not exceeding five years following the first review mentioned in subparagraph (a).
- (2) In addition to the thorough review under paragraph (1), a duty holder must thoroughly review the current safety case if directed to do so by the competent authority.
- (3) The duty holder must send a summary, including the results, of each such review to the competent authority—
- (a) where the review is conducted at the direction of the competent authority, within the period specified by the competent authority in that direction; or
  - (b) in all other cases, within 28 days of its conclusion.
- (4) The period specified by the competent authority for the purposes of paragraph (3)(a) must be a period of at least 28 days starting on the date of the direction.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Offshore Installations (Offshore Safety Directive) (Safety Case etc.) Regulations 2015, Section 23.