The Police (Amendment) Regulations 2015

Amendments to the Police Regulations 2003

5. After regulation 28, insert—

“28A. Entitlement to pay when on adjusted duties

The Secretary of State shall determine the reduction in entitlement to pay of a member of a police force during periods when that member is carrying out adjusted duties in accordance with a determination under regulation 22(1)(h), and in making such a determination the Secretary of State may confer on the chief officer discretion to allow a member of a police force to receive more pay than that specified in the determination.”.
