Majesty's Treasury

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order relates to paragraph 10 of Schedule 4 to the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 (c. 33) (“the 2013 Act”), which requires the Payment Systems Regulator (“the Regulator”) established under the 2013 Act to pay to the Treasury the amounts it receives by way of penalties imposed under section 73 of the 2013 Act. The Regulator must make the payment after deducting its enforcement costs.

The Payment Services (Amendment) Regulations 2015 (S.I. 2015/422) (“the 2015 Regulations”) amend the Payment Services Regulations 2009 (S.I. 2009/209) (“the 2009 Regulations”) so as to transfer to the Regulator the functions of conducting investigations into, and enforcing, compliance with the requirements of regulation 97 of the 2009 Regulations relating to access to payment systems. The 2015 Regulations also amend the 2009 Regulations such that financial penalties received by the Regulator under regulation 105 of those Regulations are to be treated as penalties received by the Regulator under section 73 of the 2013 Act.

This Order supplements the definition of the Regulator’s enforcement costs in paragraph 10 of Schedule 4 to the 2013 Act.

Article 2 has the effect that expenses incurred in connection with powers of the Regulator to enforce compliance under the Competition Act 1998 (c. 41), the Enterprise Act 2002 (c. 40), the 2013 Act and the 2009 Regulations are to be included in the Regulator’s enforcement costs and so to be deducted from the penalty receipts paid to the Treasury.

Article 3 has the effect that expenses incurred by the Regulator in connection with the investigation of, or (in England and Wales or Northern Ireland) prosecution of, certain offences under the Competition Act 1998, the Enterprise Act 2002 and the 2009 Regulations are to be included in the Regulator’s enforcement costs and so to be deducted from the penalty receipts paid to the Treasury.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the costs of business or the voluntary sector is foreseen.
