- (a) paragraph (2) does not apply, and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(b) T's average pensionable pay is determined in accordance with rule G1 (pensionable pay and average pensionable pay) of the 1992 Scheme.

(4) Where T's pensionable pay derived from service under this scheme at the time when T's average pensionable pay is determined for any purposes of the 1992 Scheme under Schedule 7 to the 2013 Act (final salary link) is lower than the pensionable pay for any year after the transition date, the pensionable pay for the year of service before the reduction in pensionable pay is to be regarded for the purposes of Schedule 7 as the pensionable pay derived from service under the 1992 Scheme.

(5) The definition of pensionable pay derived from service under this scheme in regulation 17 is modified for the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2) and (4) by the omission of paragraph (1)(d) of that regulation and in a case where the member of the 1992 Scheme is being paid an allowance or supplement within the meaning of paragraph (9) of rule G1 (pensionable pay and average pensionable pay) which the employer would have treated as pensionable pay under that Scheme were the member still entitled to reckon pensionable service in that Scheme, that amount is included in pensionable pay for the purposes of determining T's average pensionable pay under the 1992 Scheme.

(2) The requirement in paragraph (1) that T has remained in pensionable service under this scheme is satisfied where T has been or is treated as an active member of this scheme.

(3) In determining whether T qualifies under the 1992 Scheme for retirement benefits (other than an award on ill-health retirement or to a deferred pension), T's pensionable service under the 1992 Scheme terminates when T's pensionable service under this scheme terminates.

(4) For the purposes of calculating the pension under rule B1A of the 1992 Scheme and for the commutation under rule B7 (commutation – general provision) of that Scheme, pensionable service under this scheme is reckonable under rule F2 (current service) of that Scheme as 2015 pensionable service.

(5) Where T had elected to pay periodical contributions for increased benefits under rule G6 (election to purchase increased benefits) of the 1992 Scheme, these continue to be payable as if T continued in pensionable service under the 1992 Scheme until T leaves pensionable service under the 2015 Scheme.

(6) If after the transition date T returns to work following a period of maternity or adoption leave and is entitled to elect to pay pension contributions under rule G2A (optional pension contributions during maternity and adoption leave) of the 1992 Scheme in respect of that period, the election may only be made in respect of the period before the transition date.

(7) Where this paragraph applies and T is entitled to an ordinary pension under rule B1 (ordinary pension) of the 1992 Scheme or a short service award under rule B2 (short service award) of that Scheme, T's ordinary pension, or short service award, as the case may be, is calculated in accordance with Part 2A of Schedule 2 of the 1992 Scheme and Part 1 and Part 2 of Schedule 2 to that Scheme do not apply.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make transitional provisions for a member of the Firefighters’ Pension Scheme 1992 (the 1992 Scheme) and a member of the New Firefighters’ Pension Scheme 2006 (NFPS) who are no longer able to remain active members of those Schemes following the transitional provisions in Schedule 2 to the Firefighters’ Pension Scheme (England) Regulations 2014 (2014 Regulations).

The amendments to Schedule 2 to the 2014 Regulations provide for the ill-health benefits and survivorship benefits in relation to an active member of the Firefighters’ Pension Scheme (England) 2015 who is treated as an “active member” of the 1992 Scheme and the NFPS for this purpose. The amendments provide when a member of these Schemes is treated as “active” and when treated as a deferred member. Consequential amendments are made for these purposes to the NFPS and the 1992 Scheme.

The amendments to the Schedule also make consequential amendments in connection with the Schedule 7 to the Public Service Pensions Act 2013 (final salary link). Further amendments are made in connection with this to the definitions of “pensionable pay” and “final pensionable pay” in the NFPS and to the definition of “pensionable pay” and “average pensionable pay” in the 1992 Scheme.
