PART 9

DEBT RELIEF ORDERS

CHAPTER 5

Objection and revocation

Death of debtor during a moratorium period under a debt relief order

9.20.—(1) This rule applies where a debtor dies during a moratorium period under a debt relief order.

(2) The official receiver must, as soon as reasonably practicable after being informed of the death of the debtor—

- (a) cause a note of the fact and the date of the death to be entered on the individual insolvency register under rule 11.23;
- (b) revoke the debt relief order; and
- (c) deliver a notice of the revocation to—
 - (i) the creditors, and
 - (ii) the personal representatives of the debtor.

(3) The notice of revocation must—

- (a) state the reason for the revocation; and
- (b) specify the date on which the revocation took effect.
