

SCHEDULE 6

Operational obligations of notified bodies, recognised third party organisations and user inspectorates

3. A notified body, recognised third party organisation or user inspectorate must perform its activities taking due account of the size of an undertaking, the sector in which it operates, its structure, the degree of complexity of the product technology in question and the mass or serial nature of the production process.