Statement of Claim by Creditor

MALA DOLUMAN

Notes

It is a criminal offence

- for a creditor to produce a statement of claim, account, voucher or other evidence which is false, unless that creditor shows that they neither knew nor had reason to believe that it was false; or
- for a director or other officer of the company who knows or becomes aware that it is false to fail to report it to the postal administrator within one month of acquiring such knowledge.

On conviction either the creditor or such director or other officer of the company may be liable to a fine and/or imprisonment.

PARTICULARS OF EACH DEBT

Notes

A separate set of particulars should be made out in respect of each debt.

 Describe briefly the debt, giving details of its nature, the date when it was incurred and when payment became due.

Attach any documentary evidence of the debt, if available.

- Insert total amount of the debt, showing separately the amount of principal and any interest which is due on the debt as at the due date (see note (e)). Interest may only be claimed if the creditor is entitled to it. Show separately the VAT on the debt and indicate whether the VAT is being claimed back from HM Revenue and Customs.
- Insert the nature and amount of any preference under Schedule 6 to the Insolvency Act 1986 claimed in respect of the debt.
- Specify and give details of the nature of any security held in respect of the debt including—
  - (a) the subjects covered and the date when it was given;
  - (b) the value of the security.

Security is defined in section 248(b) of the Insolvency Act 1986 as meaning "any security (whether heritable or moveable), any floating charge and any right of lien or preference and any right of retention (other than a right of compensation or set off)" and for claims in postal administration procedure security also includes a retention of title agreement, hire purchase agreement, agreement for the hire of goods for more than three months and a conditional sale agreement (see Rule 30).

The creditor should state whether he is surrendering or undertakes to surrender his security; the postal administrator may at any time after 12 weeks from the date on which the company entered postal administration require a creditor to discharge a security or to convey or assign it to him on payment of the value specified by the creditor.

 In calculating the total amount of his claim in an postal administration, a creditor shall deduct the value of any security as estimated by him unless he surrenders it (see note 4). 1. Particulars of debt

2. Amount of debt

- 3. Preference claimed for debt
- 4. Security for debt

5. Total amount of the debt
