The Court of Protection Rules 2017

PART 10

APPLICATIONS WITHIN PROCEEDINGS

Interim remedies

Orders for interim remedies

- 10.10.—(1) The court may grant the following interim remedies—
- (a) an interim injunction;
 - (b) an interim declaration; or
 - (c) any other interim order it considers appropriate.
- (2) Unless the court orders otherwise, a person on whom an application form is served under Part 9, or who is given notice of such an application, may not apply for an interim remedy before filing an acknowledgment of service or notification in accordance with Part 9.
- (3) This rule does not limit any other power of the court to grant interim relief.
