(2) 2005 c. 4.

Overriding objective

1.1.—(1) These Rules have the overriding objective of enabling the court to deal with a case justly and at proportionate cost, having regard to the principles contained in the Act.

- (2) The court will seek to give effect to the overriding objective when it—
 - (a) exercises any power under the Rules; or
 - (b) interprets any rule or practice direction.
- (3) Dealing with a case justly and at proportionate cost includes, so far as is practicable—
 - (a) ensuring that it is dealt with expeditiously and fairly;
 - (b) ensuring that P’s interests and position are properly considered;
 - (c) dealing with the case in ways which are proportionate to the nature, importance and complexity of the issues;
 - (d) ensuring that the parties are on an equal footing;
 - (e) saving expense;
 - (f) allotting to it an appropriate share of the court’s resources, while taking account of the need to allot resources to other cases; and
 - (g) enforcing compliance with rules, practice directions and orders.

Participation of P

1.2.—(1) The court must in each case, on its own initiative or on the application of any person, consider whether it should make one or more of the directions in paragraph (2), having regard to—

- (a) the nature and extent of the information before the court;
 - (b) the issues raised in the case;
 - (c) whether a matter is contentious; and
 - (d) whether P has been notified in accordance with the provisions of Part 7 and what, if anything, P has said or done in response to such notification.
- (2) The directions are that—
- (a) P should be joined as a party;
 - (b) P’s participation should be secured by the appointment of an accredited legal representative to represent P in the proceedings and to discharge such other functions as the court may direct;
 - (c) P’s participation should be secured by the appointment of a representative whose function shall be to provide the court with information as to the matters set out in section 4(6) of the Act and to discharge such other functions as the court may direct;
 - (d) P should have the opportunity to address (directly or indirectly) the judge determining the application and, if so directed, the circumstances in which that should occur;
 - (e) P’s interests and position can properly be secured without any direction under subparagraphs (a) to (d) being made or by the making of an alternative direction meeting the overriding objective.

(3) Any appointment or directions made pursuant to paragraph (2)(b) to (e) may be made for such period or periods as the court thinks fit.

(4) Unless P has capacity to conduct the proceedings, an order joining P as a party shall only take effect—

- (a) on the appointment of a litigation friend on P’s behalf; or

(b) if the court so directs, on or after the appointment of an accredited legal representative.

(5) If the court has directed that P should be joined as a party but such joinder does not occur because no litigation friend or accredited legal representative is appointed, the court shall record in a judgment or order—

(a) the fact that no such appointment was made; and

(b) the reasons given for that appointment not being made.

(6) A practice direction may make additional or supplementary provision in respect of any of the matters set out in this rule.

(The appointment of litigation friends, accredited legal representatives and representatives under paragraph (2)(c) is dealt with under Part 17.)

(“Accredited legal representative” is defined in rule 2.1.)

- (m) making use of technology;
- (n) giving directions to ensure that the case proceeds quickly and efficiently;
- (o) considering whether any hearing should be heard in public; and
- (p) considering whether any document relating to proceedings should be a public document and, if so, whether and to what extent it should be redacted.

(Rule 16.2(2) deals with the requirements of general disclosure.)

- (b) a practice direction; or
- (c) the court.

Applications without notice

10.5.—(1) This rule applies where the court has dealt with an application which was made without notice having been given to any person.

(2) Where the court makes an order, whether granting or dismissing the application, the applicant must, as soon as practicable or within such period as the court may direct, serve the documents mentioned in paragraph (3) on—

- (a) anyone named as a respondent in the application notice (if not otherwise a party to the proceedings);
- (b) every party to the proceedings; and
- (c) any other person, as the court may direct.

(3) The documents referred to in paragraph (2) are—

- (a) a copy of the application notice;
- (b) the court's order; and
- (c) any evidence filed in support of the application.

(Rule 13.4 provides for reconsideration of orders made without a hearing or without notice to a person.)

Security for costs

10.6.—(1) A respondent to any application may apply for security for the respondent's costs of the proceedings.

- (2) An application for security for costs must be supported by written evidence.
- (3) Where the court makes an order for security for costs, it must—
 - (a) determine the amount of security; and
 - (b) direct—
 - (i) the manner in which; and
 - (ii) the time within which,

the security must be given.

Conditions to be satisfied

- 10.7.—(1) The court may make an order for security for costs under rule 10.6—
- (a) if it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, that it is just to make such an order; and
 - (b) if—
 - (i) one or more of the conditions in paragraph (2) applies; or
 - (ii) an enactment permits the court to require security for costs.
- (2) The conditions are—
- (a) the applicant is—
 - (i) resident out of the jurisdiction; but
 - (ii) not resident in a Brussels Contracting State, a State bound by the Lugano Convention or a Regulation State, as defined in section 1(3) of the Civil Jurisdiction and Judgments Act 1982⁽¹⁵⁾;
 - (b) the applicant is a company or other body (whether incorporated inside or outside Great Britain) and there is reason to believe that it will be unable to pay the respondent's costs if ordered to do so;
 - (c) the applicant has changed address since proceedings were commenced with a view to avoiding the consequences of the litigation;
 - (d) the applicant failed to give an address, or gave an incorrect address, in the application form commencing the proceedings;
 - (e) the applicant is acting as a nominal applicant and there is reason to believe that the applicant will be unable to pay the respondent's costs if ordered to do so;
 - (f) the applicant has taken steps in relation to the applicant's assets that would make it difficult to enforce an order for costs against the applicant.

Security for costs other than from the applicant

- 10.8.—(1) The respondent may seek an order against a person other than the applicant, and the court may make an order for security for costs against that person, if—
- (a) it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, that it is just to make such an order; and
 - (b) one or more of the conditions in paragraph (2) applies.
- (2) The conditions are that the person—

- (a) has assigned the right to the substantive matter to the applicant with a view to avoiding the possibility of a costs order being made against the person; or
 - (b) has contributed or agreed to contribute to the applicant's costs in return for a share of any money or property which the applicant may recover or be awarded in the proceedings; and
- is a person against whom a costs order may be made.
- (Rule 19.12 makes provision about costs orders against non-parties.)

Security for costs of an appeal

- 10.9.—(1) The court may order security for costs of an appeal against—
- (a) an appellant;
 - (b) a respondent who also appeals, on the same grounds as it may order security for costs against an applicant under rule 10.6.

(2) The court may also make an order under paragraph (1) where the appellant or the respondent who also appeals is a limited company and there is reason to believe it will be unable to pay the costs of the other parties to the appeal should its appeal be unsuccessful.

Orders for interim remedies

- 10.10.—(1) The court may grant the following interim remedies—
- (a) an interim injunction;
 - (b) an interim declaration; or
 - (c) any other interim order it considers appropriate.

Making an admission

14.1.—(1) Without prejudice to the ability to make an admission in any other way, a party may admit the truth of the whole or part of another party’s case by giving notice in writing.

(2) The court may allow a party to amend or withdraw an admission.

Evidence

Power of court to control evidence

14.2. The court may—

- (a) control the evidence by giving directions as to—
 - (i) the issues on which it requires evidence;

 - (iii) the way in which the evidence is to be placed before the court;
- (b) use its power under this rule to exclude evidence that would otherwise be admissible;
- (c) allow or limit cross-examination;
- (d) admit such evidence, whether written or oral, as it thinks fit; and
- (e) admit, accept and act upon such information, whether oral or written, from P, any protected party or any person who lacks competence to give evidence, as the court considers sufficient, although not given on oath and whether or not it would be admissible in a court of law apart from this rule.

Evidence of witnesses – general rule

14.3.—(1) The general rule is that any fact which needs to be proved by evidence of a witness is to be proved—

- (a) where there is a final hearing, by the witness’s oral evidence; or
- (b) at any other hearing, or if there is no hearing, by the witness’s evidence in writing.

(2) Where a witness is called to give oral evidence under paragraph (1)(a), the witness statement of that witness shall stand as his or her evidence in chief unless the court directs otherwise.

(3) A witness giving oral evidence at the final hearing may, if the court permits—

- (a) amplify his or her witness statement; and
- (b) give evidence in relation to new matters which have arisen since the witness statement was made.

(4) The court may so permit only if it considers that there is good reason not to confine the evidence of the witness to the contents of the witness statement.

(5) This rule is subject to—

- (a) any provision to the contrary in these Rules or elsewhere; or
- (b) any order or direction of the court.

Written evidence – general rule

14.4. A party may not rely on written evidence unless—

- (a) it has been filed in accordance with these Rules or a practice direction;
- (b) it is expressly permitted by these Rules or a practice direction; or
- (c) the court gives permission.

Evidence by video link or other means

14.5. The court may allow a witness to give evidence through a video link or by other communication technology.

Service of witness statements for use at final hearing

14.6.—(1) A witness statement is a written statement by a person which contains the evidence which that person would be allowed to give orally.

(2) The court will give directions about the service of any witness statement upon which a party intends to rely at the final hearing.

(3) The court may give directions as to the order in which witness statements are to be served. (Rules 5.2 and 14.7 require witness statements to be verified by a statement of truth.)

Form of witness statement

14.7. A witness statement must contain a statement of truth and comply with the requirements set out in the relevant practice direction.

Witness summaries

14.8.—(1) A party who wishes to file a witness statement for use at the final hearing, but is unable to do so, may apply without notice to be permitted to file a witness summary instead.

(2) A witness summary is a summary of—

- (a) the evidence, if known, which would otherwise be included in a witness statement; or
- (b) if the evidence is not known, the matters about which the party filing the witness summary proposes to question the witness.

(3) Unless the court directs otherwise, a witness summary must include the name and address of the intended witness.

(4) Unless the court directs otherwise, a witness summary must be filed within the period in which a witness statement would have had to be filed.

(5) Where a party files a witness summary, so far as practicable, rules 14.3(3)(a) (amplifying witness statements) and 14.6 (service of witness statements for use at final hearing) shall apply to the summary.

Affidavit evidence

14.9. Evidence must be given by affidavit instead of or in addition to a witness statement if this is required by the court, a provision contained in any rule, a practice direction or any other enactment.

Form of affidavit

14.10. An affidavit must comply with the requirements set out in the relevant practice direction.

Affidavit made outside the jurisdiction

14.11. A person may make an affidavit outside the jurisdiction in accordance with—

- (b) the law of the place where that person makes the affidavit.

- (a) the name and address of the applicant and the applicant’s solicitor, if any;
- (b) the name, address and occupation of the proposed witness;
- (c) particulars of any document which the proposed witness is to be required to produce; and
- (d) the grounds on which the application is made.

(3) The general rule is that a witness summons is binding if it is served at least 7 days before the date on which the witness is required to attend before the court, and the requirements of paragraph (6) have been complied with.

(4) The court may direct that a witness summons shall be binding although it will be served less than 7 days before the date on which the witness is required to attend before the court.

(5) Unless the court directs otherwise, a witness summons is to be served by the person making the application.

(6) At the time of service the witness must be offered or paid—

- (a) a sum reasonably sufficient to cover the witness’s expenses in travelling to and from the court; and
- (b) such sum by way of compensation for loss of time as may be specified in the relevant practice direction.

(7) The court may order that the witness is to be paid such general costs as it considers appropriate.

14.14.—(1) Where a party has access to information which is not reasonably available to the other party, the court may direct that party to prepare and file a document recording that information.

Depositions

Evidence by deposition

14.15.—(1) A party may apply for an order for a person to be examined before the hearing takes place.

- (2) A person from whom evidence is to be obtained following an order under this rule is referred to as a “deponent” and the evidence is referred to as a “deposition”.

- (a) a circuit judge or a district judge, whether or not nominated as a judge of the court;
 - (b) an examiner of the court; or
 - (c) such other person as the court appoints.
- (4) The order may require the production of any document which the court considers is necessary for the purposes of the examination.
- (5) The order will state the date, time and place of the examination.
- (6) At the time of service of the order, the deponent must be offered or paid—
- (a) a sum reasonably sufficient to cover the deponent’s expenses in travelling to and from the place of examination; and
 - (b) such sum by way of compensation for loss of time as may be specified in the relevant practice direction.
- (7) Where the court makes an order for a deposition to be taken, it may also order the party who obtained the order to file a witness statement or witness summary in relation to the evidence to be given by the person to be examined.

Conduct of examination

- 14.16.—(1) Subject to any directions contained in the order for examination, the examination must be conducted in the same way as if the witness were giving evidence at a final hearing.
- (2) If all the parties are present, the examiner may conduct the examination of a person not named in the order for examination if all the parties and the person to be examined consent.

- 14.17.—(1) An examiner of the court may charge a fee for the examination and need not send the deposition to the court until the fee is paid, unless the court directs otherwise.
- (2) The examiner’s fees and expenses must be paid by the party who obtained the order for examination.
- (3) If the fees and expenses due to an examiner are not paid within a reasonable time, the examiner may report that fact to the court.
- (4) The court may order the party who obtained the order for examination to deposit in the court office a specified sum in respect of the examiner’s fees and, where it does so, the examiner shall not be asked to act until the sum has been deposited.
- (5) An order under this rule does not affect any decision as to the person who is ultimately to bear the costs of the examination.

Examiners of the court

- 14.18.—(1) The Lord Chancellor shall appoint persons to be examiners of the court.

(2) The persons appointed shall be barristers or solicitor-advocates who have been practising for a period of not less than 3 years.

(3) The Lord Chancellor may revoke an appointment at any time.

(4) In addition to persons appointed in accordance with this rule, examiners appointed under rule 34.15 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 may act as examiners in the court.

a certificate of that person's failure or refusal, signed by the examiner, must be filed by the party requiring the deposition.

(2) On the certificate being filed, the party requiring the deposition may apply to the court for an order requiring that person to attend or to be sworn or to answer any question or produce any document, as the case may be.

(3) An application for an order under this rule may be made without notice.

(4) The court may order the person against whom an order is sought or made under this rule to pay any costs resulting from that person's failure or refusal.

- (b) contempt in the face of the court;
- (c) committal for interference with the due administration of justice;
- (d) committal for making a false statement of truth; and
- (e) sequestration to enforce a judgment, order or undertaking.

(2) So far as applicable, and with the necessary modifications, this Part applies in relation to an order requiring a person—

- (a) guilty of contempt of court; or

(b) punishable by virtue of any enactment as if that person had been guilty of contempt of the High Court, to pay a fine or to give security for good behaviour, as it applies in relation to an order of committal.

Saving for other powers

21.2.—(1) This Part is concerned only with procedure and does not itself confer upon the court the power to make an order for—

- (a) committal;
- (b) sequestration; or
- (c) the imposition of a fine in respect of contempt.

(2) Nothing in this Part affects the power of the court to make an order requiring a person—

- (a) guilty of contempt of court; or
- (b) punishable by virtue of any enactment as if that person had been guilty of contempt of the High Court, to pay a fine or to give security for good behaviour.

(3) Nothing in this Part affects any statutory or inherent power of the court to make a committal order on its own initiative against a person guilty of contempt of court.

Interpretation

- (a) “applicant” means a person making—
 - (i) an application for permission to make a committal application;

SECTION 2 – COMMITTAL FOR BREACH OF A JUDGMENT, ORDER OR UNDERTAKING TO DO OR ABSTAIN FROM DOING AN ACT

Enforcement of judgment, order or undertaking to do or abstain from doing an act

21.4.—(1) If a person—

- (a) required by a judgment or order of the court to do an act does not do it within the time fixed by the judgment or order; or
- (b) disobeys a judgment or order not to do an act, then, subject to the Debtors Acts 1869 and 1878 and to the provisions of these Rules, the judgment or order may be enforced by an order for committal.

(2) If the time fixed by the judgment or order for doing an act has been varied by a subsequent order, or agreement of the parties under rule 3.7(4), then references in paragraph (1)(a) to the time fixed are references to the time fixed by that subsequent order or agreement.

(3) If the person referred to in paragraph (1) is a company or other corporation, the committal order may be made against any director or other officer of that company or corporation.

(4) So far as applicable, and with the necessary modification, this Section applies to undertakings given by a party as it applies to judgments or orders.

Requirement for service of a copy judgment or order and time for service

21.5.—(1) Unless the court dispenses with service under rule 21.8 a judgment or order may not be enforced under rule 21.4 unless a copy of it has been served on the person required to do or not to do the act in question, and in the case of a judgment or order requiring a person to do an act—

- (a) the copy has been served before the end of the time fixed for doing the act, together with a copy of any order fixing that time;
- (b) where the time has been varied by a subsequent order or agreement, a copy of that subsequent order or agreement has also been served; and
- (c) where the judgment or order was made pursuant to an earlier judgment or order requiring the act to be done, a copy of the earlier judgment or order has also been served.

(2) Where the person referred to in paragraph (1) is a company or other corporation, a copy of the judgment or order must also be served on a director or officer of the company or corporation before the end of the time fixed for doing the act.

(3) Copies of the judgment or order and any orders or agreements fixing or varying the time for doing an act must be served in accordance with rule 21.6 or 21.7, or in accordance with an order for alternative service made under rule 21.8(2)(b).

Method of service – copies of judgments or orders

21.6. Subject to rules 21.7 and 21.8, copies of judgments or orders and any orders or agreements fixing or varying the time for doing an act must be served personally.

Method of service – copies of undertakings

21.7.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) and rule 21.8, a copy of any document recording an undertaking will be delivered by the court to the person who gave the undertaking by—

- (a) handing to that person a copy of the document before that person leaves the court building;
- (b) posting a copy to that person at the residence or place of business of that person where this is known; or
- (c) posting a copy to that person’s solicitor.

(2) If delivery cannot be effected in accordance with paragraph (1), the court officer must deliver a copy of the document to the party for whose benefit the undertaking was given and that party must serve it personally on the person who gave the undertaking as soon as practicable.

(3) Where the person referred to in paragraph (1) is a company or other corporation, a copy of the document must also be served on a director or officer of the company or corporation.

Dispensation with personal service

21.8.—(1) In the case of a judgment or order requiring a person not to do an act, the court may dispense with service of a copy of the judgment or order in accordance with rules 21.5 to 21.7 if it is satisfied that the person has had notice of it by—

- (a) being present when the judgment or order was given or made; or
- (b) being in attendance at court where notice of the order or judgment was displayed; or

- (c) being notified of its terms by telephone, email or otherwise.
- (2) In the case of any judgment or order the court may—
 - (a) dispense with service under rules 21.5 to 21.7 if the court thinks it just to do so; or
 - (b) make an order in respect of service by an alternative method or at an alternative place.

Requirement for a penal notice on judgments and orders

21.9.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a judgment or order to do or not to do an act may not be enforced under rule 21.4 unless there is prominently displayed, on the front of the copy of the judgment or order served in accordance with this Section, a warning to the person required to do or not to do the act in question that disobedience to the order would be a contempt of court punishable by imprisonment, a fine or sequestration of assets.

(2) An undertaking to do or not to do an act which is contained in a judgment or order may be enforced under rule 21.4 notwithstanding that the judgment or order does not contain the warning described in paragraph (1).

(Paragraphs 2.1 to 2.3 of Practice Direction 21A contain provision about penal notices and warnings in relation to undertakings.)

How to make the committal application

21.10.—(1) A committal application is made by an application notice under Part 10 in the proceedings in which the judgment or order was made or the undertaking was given.

(2) Where the committal application is made against a person who is not an existing party to the proceedings, it is made against that person by an application notice under Part 10.

- (3) The application notice must—
 - (a) set out in full the grounds on which the committal application is made and must identify, separately and numerically, each alleged act of contempt including, if known, the date of each of the alleged acts; and
 - (b) be supported by one or more affidavits containing all the evidence relied upon.
- (4) Subject to paragraph (5), the application notice and the evidence in support must be served personally on the respondent.
- (5) The court may—
 - (a) dispense with service under paragraph (4) if it considers it just to do so; or
 - (b) make an order in respect of service by an alternative method or at an alternative place.

Committal for breach of a solicitor's undertaking

21.11.—(1) This rule applies where an order for committal is sought in respect of a breach by a solicitor of an undertaking given by the solicitor to the court in connection with proceedings before the court.

(2) The applicant must obtain permission from the court before making a committal application under this rule.

- (3) The application for permission must be made by filing an application notice under Part 10.
- (4) The application for permission must be supported by an affidavit setting out—

 - (b) the grounds on which the committal order is sought.
- (5) The application for permission may be made without notice.

(6) Rules 10.5 and 13.4 do not apply.

SECTION 3 – CONTEMPT IN THE FACE OF THE COURT

Contempt in the face of the court

SECTION 4 – COMMITTAL FOR INTERFERENCE WITH THE DUE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

Scope

21.13.—(1) This Section regulates committal applications in relation to interference with the due administration of justice in connection with proceedings in the Court of Protection, except where the contempt is committed in the face of the court or consists of disobedience to an order of the court or a breach of an undertaking to the court.

(2) A committal application under this Section may not be made without the permission of the court.

(The procedure for applying for permission to make a committal application is set out in rule 21.15.)
(Rules 21.16(3) and (4) make provision for cases in which both this Section and Section 5 (Committal for making a false statement of truth) may be relevant.)

Court to which application for permission under this Section is to be made

21.14.—(1) Where contempt of court is committed in connection with any proceedings in the Court of Protection, the application for permission may only be made to a Tier 3 Judge.

(2) Where contempt of court is committed otherwise than in connection with any proceedings, Part 81 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 applies.

Application for permission

21.15.—(1) The application for permission to make a committal application must be made by an application notice under Part 10, and the application notice must include or be accompanied by—

- (b) may file and serve evidence.

(4) The court will consider the application for permission at an oral hearing, unless it considers that such a hearing is not appropriate.

(5) If the respondent intends to appear at the oral hearing referred to in paragraph (4), the respondent must give 7 days’ notice in writing of such intention to the court and any other party and at the same time provide a written summary of the submissions which the respondent proposes to make.

(6) Where permission to proceed is given, the court may give such directions as it thinks fit.

SECTION 5 – COMMITTAL FOR MAKING A FALSE STATEMENT OF TRUTH

Scope and interaction with other Sections of this Part

21.16.—(1) This Section contains rules about committal applications in relation to making, or causing to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth, without an honest belief in its truth.

(2) Where the committal relates only to a false statement of truth, this Section applies.

(3) Where the committal application relates to both—

(a) a false statement of truth; and

(b) breach of a judgment, order or undertaking to do or abstain from doing an act, then Section 2 (Committal for breach of a judgment, order or undertaking to do or abstain from doing an act) applies, but subject to paragraph (4).

(4) To the extent that a committal application referred to in paragraph (3) relates to a false statement of truth—

(a) the applicant must obtain the permission of the court in accordance with rule 21.17; or

(b) the court may direct that the matter be referred to the Attorney General with a request that the Attorney General consider whether to bring proceedings for contempt of court.

SECTION 6 – WRIT OF SEQUESTRATION TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT, ORDER OR UNDERTAKING

Scope

21.18. This Section contains rules about applications for a writ of sequestration to enforce a judgment, order or undertaking.

Writ of sequestration to enforce a judgment, order or undertaking

21.19.—(1) If—

(a) a person required by a judgment or order to do an act does not do it within the time fixed by the judgment or order; or

(b) a person disobeys a judgment or order not to do an act,

then, subject to the provisions of these Rules and if the court permits, the judgment or order may be enforced by a writ of sequestration against the property of that person.

(2) If the time fixed by the judgment or order for doing an act has been varied by a subsequent order, or agreement of the parties under rule 3.7(4), references in paragraph (1)(a) to the time fixed are references to the time fixed by that subsequent order or agreement.

(3) If the person referred to in paragraph (1) is a company or other corporation, the writ of sequestration may in addition be issued against the property of any director or other officer of that company or corporation.

(4) So far as applicable, and with the necessary modifications, this Section applies to undertakings given by a party as it applies to judgments or orders.

Requirement for service of a copy of the judgment or order and time for service

21.20.—(1) Unless the court dispenses with service under rule 21.23, a judgment or order may not be enforced by writ of sequestration unless a copy of it has been served on the person required to do or not to do the act in question, and in the case of a judgment or order requiring a person to act—

- (a) the copy has been served before the end of the time fixed for doing the act, together with a copy of any order fixing that time;
- (b) where the time for doing the act has been varied by a subsequent order or agreement, a copy of that order or agreement has also been served; and
- (c) where the judgment or order was made pursuant to an earlier judgment or order requiring the act to be done, a copy of the earlier judgment or order has also been served.

(2) Where the person referred to in paragraph (1) is a company or other corporation, a copy of the judgment or order must also be served on a director or other officer of the company or corporation before the end of the time fixed for doing the act.

(3) Copies of the judgment or order and any orders or agreements fixing or varying the time for doing an act must be served in accordance with rule 21.21 or 21.22, or in accordance with an order for alternative service made under rule 21.23(2)(b).

- (b) posting a copy to that person at the residence or place of business of that person where this is known; or

(3) Where the person referred to in paragraph (1) is a company or other corporation, a copy of the judgment or order must also be served on a director or officer of the company or corporation.

Dispensation with personal service

21.23.—(1) In the case of a judgment or order requiring a person to do or not to do an act, the court may dispense with service of a copy of the judgment or order in accordance with rules 21.20 to 21.22 if it is satisfied that the person has had notice of it by—

- (a) being present when the judgment or order was made;
 - (b) being in attendance at court where notice of the order or judgment was displayed; or
 - (c) being notified of its terms by telephone, email or otherwise.
- (2) In the case of any judgment or order the court may—
- (a) dispense with service under rules 21.20 to 21.22 if the court thinks it just to do so; or
 - (b) make an order in respect of service by an alternative method or at an alternative place.

Requirement for a penal notice on judgments and orders

21.24.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a judgment or order to do or not to do an act may not be enforced by a writ of sequestration unless there is prominently displayed, on the front of the copy of the judgment or order served in accordance with this Section, a warning to the person required to do or not to do the act in question that disobedience to the order would be a contempt of court punishable by imprisonment, a fine or sequestration of assets.

(2) An undertaking to do or not to do an act which is contained in a judgment or order may be enforced by a writ of sequestration notwithstanding that the judgment or order does not contain the warning described in paragraph (1).

(Paragraphs 2.1 to 2.3 of Practice Direction 21A contain provision about penal notices and warnings in relation to undertakings.)

How to make an application for permission to issue a writ of sequestration

21.25.—(1) An application for permission to issue a writ of sequestration must be made to a Tier 3 Judge.

(2) An application for permission to issue a writ of sequestration must be made by filing an application notice under Part 10.

- (b) be supported by one or more affidavits containing all the evidence relied upon.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), the application notice and the evidence in support must be served personally on the respondent.

(5) The court may—

- (a) dispense with service under paragraph (4) if it considers it just to do so; or
- (b) make an order in respect of service by an alternative method or at an alternative place.

Form of writ of sequestration

21.26. A writ of sequestration must be in Form No. 67 as set out in either Practice Direction 5A supporting the Family Procedure Rules 2010 or Practice Direction 4 supporting the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 (or in a form containing corresponding provision).

SECTION 7 – GENERAL RULES ABOUT COMMITTAL APPLICATIONS, ORDERS FOR COMMITTAL AND WRITS OF SEQUESTRATION

Hearing for committal order or writ of sequestration to be in public

21.27.—(1) Notwithstanding rule 4.1 (general rule – hearing to be in private), when determining an application for committal or application for sequestration the court will hold the hearing in public unless it directs otherwise.

(3) The court may require or permit any party or other person (other than the respondent) to give oral evidence at the hearing.

(4) The court may give directions requiring the attendance for cross-examination of a witness who has given written evidence.

21.29.—(1) The court making the committal order may also order that the execution of the order will be suspended for such period or on such terms and conditions as the court may specify.

(2) Unless the court otherwise directs, the applicant must serve on the respondent a copy of any order made under paragraph (1).

21.30.—(1) If a committal order is made, the order will be for the issue of a warrant of committal.

(2) Unless the court orders otherwise—

- (5) As soon as practicable and in any event within 21 days of the date on which the request is filed, the Public Guardian must notify the donor of the power that the request has been so filed.
- (6) The notice under paragraph (4) must—
- (a) state that the Public Guardian has requested the court’s directions about registration;
 - (b) state that the court will give directions in response to the request unless an application under Part 9 is made to it before the end of the period of 21 days commencing with the date on which the notice is issued; and

- (7) “Notice of objection” means a notice of objection which is made in accordance with paragraph 13(4) of Schedule 4 to the Act.

Disposal of property where P ceases to lack capacity

- 24.5.—(1) This rule applies where P ceases to lack capacity.

EXPLANATORY NOTE*(This note is not part of the Rules)*

These Rules set out the practice and procedure to be followed in the Court of Protection. They revoke the Court of Protection Rules 2007 (S.I. 2007/1744) (the 2007 Rules) and the amendments made to them by the Court of Protection (Amendment) Rules of 2009, 2011, 2015 and 2017 (S.I. 2009/582, S.I. 2011/2753, S.I. 2015/548 and S.I. 2017/187) and replace them with a consolidated set of rules arranged in Parts with separately numbered rules within each Part, following the model of the Civil Procedure Rules, Family Procedure Rules and Criminal Procedure Rules.

In addition to consolidating the 2007 Rules as amended, the Rules adopt a different order, which was piloted over 2016-2017 by a practice direction under the 2007 Rules (the Practice Direction – Case Management Pilot), and introduce some new rules which were also piloted in that practice direction. The overriding objective, which is to be applied whenever the court exercises its powers under the Rules, or interprets any rule or practice direction, is now set out in Part 1, together with rules about the participation of P and the duties of the court, the parties, legal representatives and unrepresented litigants to further the overriding objective. Part 2 contains interpretation and general provisions which previously formed Part 3 of the 2007 Rules as amended. Part 3 contains the rules about the court's powers of case management which previously formed Part 5 of the 2007 Rules, together with rules about dealing with applications, directions and allocation to judiciary which were previously in Part 12 of the 2007 Rules, and the main new rule piloted in the Practice Direction – Case Management Pilot concerning allocation of cases to case management pathways. Part 4 contains the rules about hearings which previously formed Part 13 of the 2007 Rules; Part 5 contains the rules which previously formed Part 4 of the 2007 Rules; Parts 6 to 12 contain the rules which previously formed Parts 6 to 10, 10A and 11 of the 2007 Rules; Part 13 contains various rules previously in Part 12 of the 2007 Rules; and Parts 14 to 20 contain the rules which previously formed Parts 14 to 20 of the 2007 Rules as amended, with some amendments in Part 15 concerning experts which were piloted in the Practice Direction – Case Management Pilot.

Part 21 replaces Part 21 of the 2007 Rules, which concerned enforcement including orders for committal, with a new Part modelled on provision in Civil Procedure Rules and Family Procedure Rules. Part 22 replaces Part 22 of the 2007 Rules (which contained transitory and transitional provision which has no application to the new Rules) with a new Part containing provision about civil restraint orders previously contained in rule 203 of the 2007 Rules. Part 23 contains the rules which previously formed Part 24 of the 2007 Rules; and Part 24 contains the rules which previously formed Part 23 of the 2007 Rules, together with rules about general methods of enforcement previously in Part 21 of the 2007 Rules, and provision for citation and commencement of the new Rules, revocation of the previous Rules and transitional provision which previously formed Part 1 (with the moving of those rules to Part 24 enabling the promotion of the overriding objective to Part 1 of the new Rules).

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
