16.—(1) The national board must make an appropriate contribution out of the national fund to the relevant local policing body in respect of the pay, pension or allowances payable by the body to or in respect of a member of the national board (other than the national secretary where he or she is not a member of a police force).

(2) In paragraph (1), “appropriate contribution” means such contribution as may be agreed between the national board and the relevant local policing body, or in default of agreement, as may be determined by the Secretary of State.

(3) Regulations made under the following provisions are to have effect in relation to the national chair and the national secretary (where the national secretary is a member of a police force) as provided by paragraph (4)—

- (a) section 50 of the Police Act 1996⁽¹⁾, in so far as they relate to leave, pay and allowances, and
- (b) the Police Pensions Act 1976⁽²⁾ or the Public Service Pensions Act 2013⁽³⁾ (in its application to members of a police force in England and Wales), except in so far as they relate to compulsory retirement on account of age.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), the Regulations mentioned in paragraph (3) are to have effect as if the national chair and the national secretary held the rank of chief inspector in the metropolitan police; but nothing in this paragraph transfers any rights or liabilities to the local policing body maintaining that force.

(5) Any London weighting or London allowance or supplement provided for under the Regulations mentioned in paragraph (3) is to not apply in the case of an officer mentioned in that paragraph unless it would apply to that person apart from paragraph (4).

 - (c) subject to paragraph (5), repay any voluntary subscriptions paid by M before the date of the notification under sub-paragraph (a) within 3 months from that date.
- (5) The requirement in paragraph (4)(c) does not apply where, following the notification under paragraph (4)(a), M waives his or her entitlement under paragraph (4)(c) in writing.
- (6) Where the Federation has repaid voluntary subscriptions to M under paragraph (4)(c), that repayment does not affect M’s entitlement to any benefits, facilities or services that result from payment of those voluntary subscriptions.
