- 1.1 This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Home Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.
- 1.2 This memorandum contains information for the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments.

2. Purpose of the instrument

- 2.1 This Order amends Schedule 2 to the Terrorism Act 2000 (“the Act”) by adding “al-Ashtar Brigades (Saraya al-Ashtar) (The Wa’ad Allah Brigades) (Islamic Allah Brigades) (Imam al-Mahdi Brigades) (al-Haydariyah Brigades)”, “al-Mukhtar Brigades (Saraya al-Mukhtar)”, “Hasam (Harakat Sawa’d Misr) (Harakat Hasm) (Hasm)” and “Liwa al-Thawra” to the list of proscribed organisations “concerned in terrorism”.
- 2.2 This Order amends Schedule 2 to the Terrorism Act 2000 (“the Act”) by removing “Hezb-e Islami Gulbuddin” from the list of proscribed organisations in Schedule 2, so that the organisation is no longer proscribed as an organisation “concerned in terrorism”.

3. Matters of special interest to Parliament

Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

- 3.1 This Order comes into force on the day after it is made and accordingly breaches the 21 day convention. Any significant delay between the making and coming into force of the instrument would alert the organisations to their impending proscriptions and may result in pre-emptive action by the organisations’ members designed to circumvent the provisions of TACT and/or the criminal law.

Other matters of interest to the House of Commons

- 3.2 Disregarding minor or consequential changes, the territorial application of this instrument includes Scotland and Northern Ireland.

4. Legislative Context

- 4.1 Section 3 of the Act provides a power to proscribe, by order, an organisation which commits or participates in acts of terrorism, prepares for, promotes or encourages terrorism or is otherwise concerned in terrorism. Section 21 of the Terrorism Act 2006 amended the grounds for proscription in section 3 of the Act to include organisations which unlawfully glorify the commission or preparation of acts of terrorism. Section 3 also allows the Secretary of State, by order, to remove an organisation from the list of proscribed organisations in Schedule 2 to the Act, or amend the Schedule in some other way. Twenty one Orders have been laid previously, in 2001, 2002, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 (2), 2010, 2011, 2012 (2), 2013 (2), 2014 (3), 2015 (2) and 2016 (3).

- 4.2 The Secretary of State has regard to several factors in deciding, as a matter of discretion, whether or not to proscribe an organisation. These are:
- the nature and scale of the organisation's activities;
 - the specific threat that it poses to the UK;
 - the specific threat that it poses to British nationals overseas;
 - the extent of the organisation's presence in the UK; and
 - the need to support international partners in the fight against terrorism.
- 4.3 An organisation is proscribed in the UK as soon as the order comes into force. It is a criminal offence for a person to belong to, or invite support for, a proscribed organisation. It is also a criminal offence to arrange a meeting to support a proscribed organisation; or to wear clothing or carry articles in public which arouse reasonable suspicion that an individual is a member or supporter of a proscribed organisation.
- 4.4 A proscribed organisation, or any person affected by the proscription of the organisation, may apply to the Secretary of State for deproscription and, if the Secretary of State refuses that application, the applicant may appeal to the Proscribed Organisations Appeal Commission.

5. Extent and Territorial Application

- 5.1 The extent of this instrument is the whole of the United Kingdom.
- 5.2 The territorial application of this instrument is the whole of the United Kingdom.

6. European Convention on Human Rights

- 6.1 The Home Secretary, Amber Rudd, has made the following statement regarding Human Rights:
