The Gangmasters and Labour Abuse Authority
(Complaints and Misconduct) Regulations 2017

PART 6

INVESTIGATIONS AND SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS

Appeals against information notices

47.—(1) A person on whom an information notice is served may appeal against the notice to the First-tier Tribunal on the ground that the notice is not in accordance with the law.

(2) If the Tribunal considers that the notice is not in accordance with the law—

- (a) it must quash the notice; and
- (b) it may give directions to the Commission in relation to the service of a further information notice.
