   (a) immediately before the transfer date is employed by the BSA within NHS Protect; and
   (b) has been notified in writing by the BSA before the transfer date that they are to be transferred to the employment of the Authority on the transfer date.

   (6) Where a person to whom paragraph (1) applies has objected to the transfer of that person’s contract of employment to the Authority as described in paragraph (5), this article operates so as to terminate that person’s contract of employment with the BSA on the transfer date.

(7) At any meeting of the Authority the chairperson or, in the chairperson’s absence, the vice-chairperson (if there is one and the vice-chairperson is present) is to preside.

(8) If the chairperson and any vice-chairperson are absent, such other non-officer member present as the other members present choose for the purpose is to preside.

(9) Every question at a meeting is to be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and competent to vote on the question and, in the case of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting is to have a second or casting vote.

(10) No business is to be transacted at any meeting unless at least three of the members or one third of the membership, whichever is the greater number (the chairperson being included for this purpose in the reckoning), is present.

(11) Minutes of the proceedings of a meeting must be prepared recording the names of the members present at that meeting, and signed at the next ensuing meeting by the person presiding at that next meeting.

Disability of chairperson and members in proceedings on account of pecuniary interest

14.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, if the chairperson or a member has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any contract, proposed contract or other matter and is present at any meeting of the Authority to which the contract, proposed contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, the chairperson or that member must at the meeting and as soon as practicable after its commencement, disclose that interest and must not take part in the consideration or discussion of the contract, proposed contract or other matter or vote on any question with respect to it.

(2) The Secretary of State may, subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate to impose, remove any disability imposed by this paragraph in any case in which it appears to the Secretary of State to be in the interests of the health service that the disability should be removed.

(3) The Authority may, by standing orders made under paragraph 12(2), provide for the exclusion of the chairperson or a member from a meeting of the Authority while any contract, proposed contract or other matter in which the chairperson or that member has a pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, is under consideration.

(4) Any remuneration, compensation or allowances payable to the chairperson or a member by virtue of paragraph 2 to Schedule 6 of the NHS Act (pay and allowances) is not to be treated as a pecuniary interest for the purpose of this paragraph.

(5) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (6), the chairperson or member (in this paragraph, the “appointee”) is to be treated for the purpose of this paragraph as having an indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter if—

(a) the appointee, or a nominee of the appointee, is a director of a company or other body with which the contract was made or is proposed to be made or which has a direct pecuniary interest in the other matter under consideration; or
(b) the appointee is a business partner of, or is in the employment of, a person with whom the contract was made or is proposed to be made or who has a direct pecuniary interest in the other matter under consideration, and in the case of two persons living together as a couple (whether or not they are spouses or civil partners) the interest of one is, if known to the other, to be deemed for the purpose of this paragraph to be an interest of the other.

(6) An appointee is not to be treated as having a pecuniary interest in any contract, proposed contract or other matter by reason only—

(a) of the appointee’s membership of a company or other body if the appointee has no beneficial interest in any securities of that company or other body; or

(b) of an interest in any company, body or person with which the appointee is connected as mentioned in sub-paragraph (5) which is so remote or insignificant that it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to influence the appointee in the consideration or discussion of, or voting on, any question with respect to that contract, proposed contract or other matter.

(7) Where an appointee has an indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, proposed contract or other matter by reason only of a beneficial interest in securities of a company or other body, and

(a) the total nominal value of those securities does not exceed £5,000 or one-hundredth of the total nominal value of the issued share capital of the company or body, whichever is the lesser; and

(b) if the share capital is of more than one class, the total nominal value of shares of any one class in which the appointee has a beneficial interest does not exceed one-hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class, this paragraph does not prohibit the appointee from taking part in the consideration or discussion of the contract, proposed contract or other matter, or from voting on any question with respect to it but in such circumstances the appointee must nonetheless disclose the appointee’s interest.

(8) This paragraph applies to a committee or sub-committee as it applies to the Authority and applies to a member of any such committee or sub-committee (whether or not the member of the committee or sub-committee is also a member of the Authority) as it applies to a member of the Authority.

(9) In this paragraph—

“securities” means—

(a) shares or debentures, whether or not constituting a charge on the assets of a company or other body, or rights or interests in any share or such debenture; or

(b) rights (whether actual or contingent) in respect of money lent to, or deposited with, any building society or society, other than a society registered as a credit union, which is—

(i) a registered society within the meaning given by section 1(1) of the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014(44); or

(ii) a society registered or deemed to be registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969(45);

“shares” means shares in the share capital of a company or other body or the stock of a company or other body.

SCHEDULE 3

Abolition of the Authority

Abolition of the Authority and Interpretation of this Schedule

1.—(1) The Authority is to be abolished on the abolition date.
   (2) In this Schedule, except in sub-paragraph (3), “liabilities” do not include criminal liabilities.
   (3) This Schedule does not apply to transfer, or provide for continuity in relation to, criminal liabilities of the Authority or proceedings arising from such liabilities.

Provision for the transfer of officers upon abolition of the Authority

2.—(1) This paragraph applies to any person who immediately before the abolition date is employed by the Authority.
   (2) Any person to whom sub-paragraph (1) applies is, on the abolition date, transferred to the employment of the Secretary of State.
   (3) The contract of employment of a person whose employment transfers to the Secretary of State under sub-paragraph (2)—
      (a) is not terminated by the transfer; and
      (b) has effect from the abolition date as if originally made between that person and the Secretary of State.
   (4) Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (3)—
      (a) all the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the Authority under, or in connection with, the contract of employment of any person whose employment transfers under paragraph (2), are to transfer to the Secretary of State on the abolition date; and
      (b) any act or omission before the abolition date of or in relation to the Authority, in respect of that person or that person’s contract of employment, is deemed to have been an act or omission of or in relation to the Secretary of State.
   (5) Sub-paragraphs (2) to (4) do not operate to transfer the contract of employment of a person to whom sub-paragraph (1) applies, or any rights, powers, duties and liabilities under, or in connection with that contract, if, before the abolition date, that person informs the Authority or the Secretary of State that the person objects to becoming employed by the Secretary of State.
   (6) Where a person to whom sub-paragraph (1) applies has objected to the transfer of that person’s contract of employment to the Secretary of State as described in sub-paragraph (5), this paragraph... operates so as to terminate that person’s contract of employment with the Authority on the abolition date.

(7) Subject to sub-paragraph (8), a person whose contract of employment is terminated in accordance with sub-paragraph (6) is not to be treated, for any purpose, as having been dismissed by the Authority.

(8) Where the transfer involves or would involve a substantial change in working conditions to the material detriment of a person whose employment is or would have transferred under sub-paragraph (2), that person may treat the contract of employment as having been terminated, and that person is to be treated for any purpose as having been dismissed by the employer.

(9) No damages are to be payable by an employer as a result of a dismissal falling within sub-paragraph (8) in respect of any failure by the employer to pay wages to a person in respect of a notice period which the person has failed to work.

(10) Sub-paragraphs (2), (3) and (5) to (8) are without prejudice to any right of a person arising apart from this Schedule to terminate that person’s contract of employment without notice in acceptance of a repudiatory breach of contract by the employer.

(11) Subject to sub-paragraphs (12) and (14), any purported variation of a contract of employment to which this paragraph applies is void if the sole or principal reason for the variation of that contract is the transfer.

(12) Sub-paragraph (11) does not prevent a variation of the contract if—

(a) the sole or principal reason for the variation is an economic, technical, or organisational reason entailing changes in the workforce, provided that the employer and employee agree that variation; or

(b) the terms of that contract of employment permit the employer to make such a variation.

(13) Where a contract of employment, which is transferred by sub-paragraph (2), incorporates provisions of collective agreements as may be agreed from time to time, sub-paragraph (4) does not transfer any rights, powers, duties and liabilities in relation to any provision of a collective agreement if the following conditions are met—

(a) the provision of the collective agreement is agreed after the date of the transfer; and

(b) the Secretary of State is not a participant in the collective bargaining for that provision.

(14) Sub-paragraph (11) does not apply in respect of a variation of the contract of employment in so far as it varies a term or condition incorporated from a collective agreement, provided that—

(a) the variation of the contract takes effect on a date more than one year after the date of the transfer; and

(b) following that variation, the rights and obligations in the employee’s contract, when considered together, are no less favourable to the employee than those which applied immediately before the variation.

(15) Records of the Authority relating to the employment of its officers whose contracts of employment are to transfer to the Secretary of State pursuant to article 13 and this Schedule are to transfer to the Secretary of State on the transfer date.

(16) The following provisions apply only for purposes of giving effect to a transfer under sub-paragraph (2), as read with sub-paragraphs (3) and (4), and are subject to sub-paragraphs (5) to (14), and paragraphs 3 and 4—

(a) anything (including legal proceedings) which, immediately before the transfer date, is in the process of being done by, or in relation to, the Authority in connection with the employment of persons whose employment transfers under sub-paragraph (2) is deemed to have effect as if done by, or in relation to, the Secretary of State, and may be continued by, or in relation to, the Secretary of State;

(c) any form supplied by the Authority in connection with the employment of persons whose employment transfers under sub-paragraph (2) continues to be valid until it is varied or revoked by the Secretary of State and as if any reference in that form to the Authority (in respect of that employment) were a reference to the Secretary of State;

(d) any reference to the Authority in any contract, arrangement, agreement, instrument or other document in connection with the employment of persons whose employment transfers under sub-paragraph (2) is to be treated as a reference to the Secretary of State.

Dismissal of employee because of transfer

3.—(1) Where a person whose contract of employment is transferred by this Schedule is dismissed by the Secretary of State, that person is to be treated, for the purposes of Part 10 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (unfair dismissal) as having been unfairly dismissed if the sole or principal reason for the dismissal is the transfer itself.

(2) This sub-paragraph applies where the sole or principal reason for a person’s dismissal is an economic, technical or organisational reason entailing changes in the workforce of the Secretary of State after the transfer.

(3) Where sub-paragraph (2) applies, sub-paragraph (1) does not apply and, without prejudice to section 98(4) of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (test of fair dismissal), for the purposes of sections 98(1) (reason for dismissal) and 135 (the right to a redundancy payment) of that Act—

(a) the dismissal is to be regarded as having been for redundancy where section 98(2)(c) of that Act applies; or

(b) in any other case, the dismissal is to be regarded as having been for a substantial reason of a kind such as to justify the dismissal of an employee holding the position that the employee held.

(4) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to a dismissal of an employee if the application of section 94 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (right not to be unfairly dismissed) to that dismissal is excluded by or under any provision of that Act, the Employment Tribunals Act 1996 or the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992.

Pensions

4.—(1) Paragraph 2(1) to (4) does not apply—

(a) to so much of a person’s contract of employment or collective agreement as relates to an occupational pension scheme within the meaning of section 1(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (categories of pension schemes); and

(b) to any rights, powers, duties or liabilities under or in connection with any such contract or subsisting by virtue of any such agreement and relating to such a scheme or otherwise arising in connection with that person’s employment and relating to such a scheme.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order establishes in relation to England, with effect on 1st November 2017, a special health authority to be known as the NHS Counter Fraud Authority, pursuant to section 28 of the National Health Service Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”). The new Authority is to exercise counter fraud functions of the Secretary of State in relation to the health service. Such functions were exercised by the NHS Business Services Authority (“the BSA”) until 1st November 2017: the NHS Business Services Authority (Awdurod Gwasanaethau Busnes y GIG) (Establishment and Constitution) (Amendment) Order 2017, which is to come into force on 1st November 2017 removes these functions from the BSA’s statutory remit. Provision is also made in the NHS Counter Fraud Authority (Investigatory Powers and Other Miscellaneous Amendments) Order 2017 in respect of various powers and functions that the new Authority is to hold, in place of the BSA, for the purposes of exercising the Secretary of State’s counter fraud functions in relation to the health service in England. That further Order also comes into force on 1st November 2017.

In Part 2 of this Order, articles 3 and 4 provide, respectively, for the new authority’s establishment and its functions, which are to be exercised subject to and in accordance with Directions given by the Secretary of State (which will be accessible via the Government public sector information website, GOV.UK, at www.gov.uk or on request from the Department of Health Correspondence Unit, Richmond House, 79 Whitehall, London SW1A 2NS). Article 4 introduces Schedule 1, which provides for delegation of the Secretary of State’s powers set out in Part 10 of the 2006 Act to require production of documents in the exercise of his counter fraud functions.

Article 5 sets out constitutional requirements, including provision for membership of the Authority and offices which must be held during the transitional period. The transitional period is provided for in article 2 (interpretation) to last until immediately before 1st November 2018. Article 6 introduces Schedule 2, which makes further provision in respect of the Authority’s composition and governance, including the conduct of Authority’s business. Schedule 2 also includes a number of restrictions in respect of persons who may hold the office of chairperson or non-officer member.

In Part 3 of this Order, article 8 makes provision for the transfer to the new Authority of certain staff members of the BSA working within the BSA’s division (“NHS Protect”) which, prior to 1st November 2017, exercised the Secretary of State’s counter fraud functions in relation to England. NHS Protect was established and maintained by the BSA on the direction of the Secretary of State in relation to England only, the most recent directions having been given in 2016 under section 7 of the 2006 Act. Article 8 also makes supplementary provision in relation to the staff transfers, including provision for the transfer of staff records and as to continuity, in particular, at paragraphs (3), (4), (11) and (16). The position of staff not wishing to transfer is provided for at paragraphs (5) to (7).

Articles 9 to 11 make provision for the transfer of: property and associated rights and liabilities; records, data, etc, not otherwise covered; and liabilities (other than criminal liabilities) arising from the Secretary of State’s counter fraud functions previously discharged by the BSA which are to be conferred by this Order on the new Authority. Article 12 makes supplementary provision in relation to the transfers in articles 9 to 11, including provision for continuity.

In Part 4 of this Order, article 13 introduces Schedule 3, which makes provision required by section 28A of the 2006 Act for the abolition of the new Authority on 31st October 2020. Section 28A requires provision to be made as to the transfer of staff, property and liabilities from the new Authority upon its abolition, and section 70 of that Act requires the Secretary of State to deal with all liabilities other than criminal liabilities by transferring them to specified bodies or persons. Schedule 3 provides for transfers of staff, property and liabilities (other than criminal liabilities) to transfer to the Secretary of State. (Section 28A permits the life of the Authority to be extended by Order requiring approval of both Houses of Parliament. Provision in Schedule 3 as to the transfers of staff, property, and liabilities may also be amended by order subject to annulment by resolution of either House of Parliament if needed.)

In Part 5 of this Order, article 14 provides for the revocation of Regulations (SI 2008/1148) delegating to the BSA and certain senior officers powers of the Secretary of State to require production of documents under Part 10 of the 2006 Act. These Regulations are effectively replaced by the provisions of Schedule 1. Schedule 1 includes directions to the Authority as to the exercise of functions under Part 10 of the 2006 Act, and other provision as to the designation of officers empowered to authorise senior officers to exercise powers to require production of documents under that Part, as well as provision for the process for authorising such senior officers.

No impact assessment has been prepared in respect of this Order as no impact on the costs of charities, voluntary organisations or businesses is envisaged.
