The Merchant Shipping (Work in Fishing Convention) Regulations 2018

PART 4

Repatriation

Place for return

15.—(1) Where there is a duty on a fishing vessel owner to provide for the repatriation of a fisherman under regulation 14, the fisherman is entitled to repatriation to the destination provided for in the fisherman's work agreement, or such other place as may subsequently be agreed between the fisherman and the fishing vessel owner.

(2) If the fisherman's work agreement does not identify a destination, and there has been no agreement between the fisherman and the fishing vessel owner as to the destination, the fisherman is entitled to repatriation to the fisherman's choice of the following destinations—

- (a) the place at which the fisherman entered into the fisherman's work agreement; or
- (b) the fisherman's country of residence.
