Deemed recognition pursuant to Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation

13.—(1) The Bank of England may before [F³IP completion day] determine that the applicant is to be taken, on and after [F³IP completion day], to be recognised pursuant to Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation if each of the following conditions are met.

(2) The first condition is that the Treasury has made regulations in respect of the country in which the applicant is established in accordance with regulation 14.

(3) The second condition is that the applicant is—

- (a) authorised in the country in which it is established, and
- (b) subject to effective supervision and enforcement ensuring full compliance with the prudential requirements applicable in that country.

(4) The third condition is that the Bank of England has established co-operation arrangements with the competent authority responsible for supervising the applicant in accordance with regulation 16.

(5) The fourth condition is that the applicant is not established or authorised in a country that is considered, by the Commission in accordance with Directive (EU) 2015/849 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2015 on the prevention of the use of the financial system for the purposes of money laundering or terrorist financing^{MI}, as having strategic deficiencies in its national anti-money laundering and counter financing of terrorism regime that poses significant threats to the financial system of the European Union.

[F⁴(5A) The fifth condition is that the applicant has not been determined as systemically important or likely to become systemically important in accordance with regulation 13A and is therefore a Tier 1 CCP.]

(6) A determination under paragraph (1) must only be made in respect of the services or activities linked to clearing and must specify the services or activities which the applicant is to be taken to be recognised to provide or perform including the classes of financial instruments in respect of which the applicant is to be taken to be recognised.

(7) Where the Bank of England makes a determination under paragraph (1), the applicant in respect of which the determination is made is to be taken to be recognised pursuant to Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation in accordance with that decision.

[^{F5}Determination of systemic importance

13A.—(1) The Bank of England must determine whether the applicant is systemically important or likely to become systemically important for the financial stability of the United Kingdom (a “Tier 2 CCP”) by taking into account all of the following criteria—

- (a) the nature, size and complexity of the applicant’s business in the United Kingdom, and outside the United Kingdom to the extent that its business may have a systemic impact on the United Kingdom, including—
 - (i) the value in aggregate terms and in pounds sterling of transactions cleared by the applicant, or the aggregate exposure of the applicant engaged in clearing activities to its clearing members and, to the extent the information is available, their clients and indirect clients established in the United Kingdom, including where they have been identified by the PRA as other systemically important institutions (O-SIIs) in accordance with regulation 29 of the Capital Requirements (Capital Buffers and Macro-prudential Measures) Regulations 2014; and
 - (ii) the risk profile of the applicant in terms of, amongst other things, legal, operational and business risk;
- (b) the effect that the failure of, or a disruption to, the applicant would have on—
 - (i) financial markets, including the liquidity of the markets served;
 - (ii) financial institutions;
 - (iii) the broader financial system; or
 - (iv) the financial stability of the United Kingdom;
- (c) the applicant’s clearing membership structure including, to the extent the information is available, the structure of its clearing members’ network of clients and indirect clients, established in the United Kingdom;
- (d) the extent to which alternative clearing services provided by other central counterparties exist for clearing members and, to the extent the information is available, their clients and indirect clients established in the United Kingdom;
- (e) the applicant’s relationships, interdependencies, or other interactions with other financial market infrastructures, other financial institutions and the broader financial system to the extent that it is likely to have an impact on the financial stability of the United Kingdom.

(2) Without prejudice to the outcome of determination under regulation 13, the Bank of England must, after conducting the assessment in accordance with paragraph (1), inform the applicant whether it is considered to be a Tier 1 or Tier 2 CCP.

(3) On and after IP completion day, an assessment under this regulation is to be taken as having been carried out in accordance with Article 25.2a of the EMIR Regulation.

Conditions for Tier 2 CCPs

13B.—(1) Where the Bank of England determines that the applicant is a Tier 2 CCP in accordance with regulation 13A, it may only determine that the central counterparty should be taken to be recognised pursuant to Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation to provide certain clearing services or activities where, in addition to meeting the conditions in paragraphs (2) to (5) of regulation 13, each of the following conditions are met.

(2) The first condition is that the applicant complies with the requirements set out in Article 16 and in Titles IV and V of the EMIR Regulation, as it has effect in EU law as amended from time to time (taking into account, in accordance with regulation 13C, the extent to which the applicant's compliance with those requirements is satisfied by compliance with comparable requirements applicable in that third country).

(3) The second condition is that the applicant has provided the Bank of England with—

- (a) a written statement, signed by its legal representatives, expressing the unconditional consent of the applicant to—
- (i) provide within the time specified in a request by the Bank of England, any documents, records or information and data held by the applicant at the time the request is served, and
 - (ii) allow the Bank of England to access any of the applicant's business premises;
- (b) a reasoned legal opinion by an independent legal expert confirming that the consent expressed is valid and enforceable under the relevant applicable laws.

(4) The third condition is that the applicant has implemented all the necessary measures and established all necessary procedures to ensure the effective compliance with the conditions set out in paragraphs (2) and (3).

Cooperation arrangements between the Bank of England and the competent authorities of third countries before [^{F10}IP completion day]

16.—(1) Where the Treasury has made regulations under regulation 14, the Bank of England must take such steps as it considers appropriate to establish co-operation arrangements with the relevant competent authority of the third country in respect of which the regulations have been made.

[^{F11}(2) Such arrangements are to specify such matters as the Bank of England considers appropriate, and may include—

- (a) the mechanism for the exchange of information between the Bank of England and the competent authority, including access to all information requested by the Bank of England regarding central counterparties authorised in that third country, such as significant changes to risk models and parameters, extension of central counterparty activities and services, changes in the clients account structure and in the use of payment systems that substantially affect the United Kingdom;
- (b) the mechanism for prompt notification to the Bank of England where the competent authority deems a central counterparty it is supervising to be in breach of the conditions of its authorisation or of other law to which it is subject;
- (c) the mechanism for prompt notification to the Bank of England by the competent authority where a central counterparty it is supervising has been granted the right to provide clearing services to clearing members or clients established in the United Kingdom;
- (d) the procedures concerning the coordination of supervisory activities;
- (e) the procedures necessary for the effective monitoring of regulatory and supervisory developments in a third country;
- (f) the procedures for third-country authorities to assure the effective enforcement of decisions adopted by the Bank of England;
- (g) the procedures for third-country authorities to inform the Bank of England promptly of any emergency situations relating to the recognised central counterparty, including developments in financial markets, which may have an adverse effect on market liquidity and the stability of the financial systems of the United Kingdom and the procedures and contingency measures to address such situations.]

19.—(1) A central counterparty is, on or after [^{F16}IP completion day], to cease to be taken to be recognised pursuant to Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation in accordance with regulation 17 where any of the following conditions are met.

(2) The first condition is that the central counterparty ceases to be—

- (a) authorised in accordance with Article 17 of the EMIR Regulation;
- (b) recognised in accordance with Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation; or
- (c) a central counterparty to which Article 89.4 of the EMIR Regulation applies, unless that central counterparty has been subsequently recognised in accordance with Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation.

(3) In paragraph (2), references to the “EMIR Regulation” are to be read as references to that regulation as it has effect in EU law as amended from time to time.

(4) The second condition is that the Bank of England directs that the central counterparty is to cease to be taken to be recognised pursuant to Article 25 of the EMIR Regulation in accordance with regulation 17.

(5) The third condition is that, in the case of a central counterparty who has submitted an application under regulation 12 or Article 25.4 of the EMIR Regulation—

- (a) the central counterparty withdraws their application; or
- (b) the application is determined by the Bank of England.

(6) The fourth condition is that, in the case of a central counterparty which has not submitted an application under regulation 12, the period of 6 months beginning with [^{F16}IP completion day] expires without the central counterparty having submitted an application under Article 25.4 of the EMIR Regulation during that period.

(7) A direction may only be given under paragraph (4) where—

- (a) the Bank of England considers that there would otherwise be an adverse effect on financial stability in the United Kingdom;
- (b) the central counterparty has not made use of the recognition within the period of twelve months beginning with [^{F16}IP completion day], has expressly renounced the recognition or has provided no services or performed no activity for the preceding six months; or

- (c) in the case of a central counterparty who has submitted an application under regulation 12 or Article 25.4 of the EMIR Regulation, the central counterparty has made false statements in relation to the application or has sought to obtain recognition by any other irregular means.
