 - (ii) effective procedures to identify, manage, monitor and report any risks to which the person might be exposed, and
 - (iii) adequate internal control mechanisms, including sound administrative, risk management and accounting procedures,
 - (g) any of the directors, or other persons responsible for the management of the person's electronic money and payment services business, is not of good repute,
 - (h) the person does not have a business plan under which appropriate and proportionate systems, resources and procedures will be employed by the person to operate soundly,
 - (i) the person has not taken adequate measures for the purposes of safeguarding electronic money holders' funds in accordance with regulation 20 of EMR 2011,
 - (j) in the case of a person carrying on payment initiation services, the person does not hold professional indemnity insurance, or a comparable guarantee, of the kind mentioned in regulation 6(6)(e) of EMR 2011,
 - (k) the person would constitute a threat to the stability of, or trust in, a payment system by continuing the person's electronic money or payment services business,
 - (l) the cancellation is desirable in order to protect the interests of consumers, or
 - (m) the person's issuance of electronic money or provision of payment services is otherwise unlawful, including where such provision of services is unlawful because the person's registration in a register maintained under regulation 54 or 55 of the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017^{M15} has been cancelled under regulation 60 of those Regulations.
- (2) Regulation 10(4) to (7) of EMR 2011 apply in relation to cancellation under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph as they apply in relation to cancellation under regulation 10(1) of those Regulations.

Transition period

10.—(1) The transition period in relation to a person is a period beginning with [^{F15}IP completion day] and ending with a day determined under this paragraph, or with any earlier day on which the cancellation under paragraph 8 of the person's transitional authorisation takes effect.

(2) In a case where a person has applied under regulation 5 of EMR 2011, on or after the date on which this regulation comes into force, to become an authorised electronic money institution and has not withdrawn the application—

- (a) if the application is granted, the person's transition period ends with the day before the day stated in accordance with regulation 9(5) of EMR 2011 as that on which the authorisation takes effect, and
- (b) if the application is refused, the decision notice under regulation 9(7) of EMR 2011 must state the date on which the person's transition period is to end.

(3) In any other case, the person's transition period ends at the end of the 3 years beginning with the day on which [^{F15}IP completion day] falls.

(4) The person may give notice to the FCA specifying a date (earlier than that determined under sub-paragraph (2) or (3)) on which the person will cease to engage in new business covered by the person's transitional authorisation.

(5) The FCA may by notice to the person require the person to specify a date under sub-paragraph (4) before the end of a period specified in the notice, and if the person does not do so the FCA may itself specify a date on which the person's transitional authorisation will cease to cover new business.

Duty to notify FCA

12C.—(1) A person to whom paragraph 12B or 12L applies must notify the FCA of that fact as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event not later than one month after the person first becomes aware of an obligation to perform a pre-existing contract.

(2) In this Part a “pre-existing contract”, in relation to a person to whom paragraph 12B applies, means a contract—

- (a) which was entered into before the extension period defined in paragraph 12G through branch or agent in the United Kingdom, and
- (b) under which the person is obliged to issue electronic money or to provide payment services.

(3) Notification under sub-paragraph (1) must be made in such manner, and be accompanied by such information, as the FCA may direct.

(4) The FCA is not obliged to include a person to whom paragraph 12B applies on the register maintained under regulation 4 of EMR 2011 until the person notifies the FCA under sub-paragraph (1).

(5) During the extension period defined in paragraph 12G, a person to whom paragraph 12B applies must notify the FCA of any of the matters mentioned in paragraph 6(2)(b) to (d).

Agents

12D. If a notification under paragraph 12C includes information as to the use of an agent who is registered with the home state competent authority, the FCA must include the agent on the register maintained under regulation 4 of EMR 2011.

Permitted services

12E.—(1) This paragraph sets out the permitted services for the purposes of paragraph 12B(4)(a).

(2) The permitted services are—

- (a) where the [F22IP completion day] conditions in paragraph 12B(2) are met, services of the kind mentioned in paragraph 12B(2)(a), but only to the extent that the issue of electronic money, or the provision of payment services, is necessary to enable the person to whom paragraph 12B applies to perform a pre-existing contract [F23or to redeem outstanding electronic money], or
- (b) where the transitional authorisation conditions in paragraph 12B(3) are met, services of the kind mentioned in paragraph 12B(3)(b)(i) or (ii), but only to the extent that the issue of electronic money, or the provision of payment services, is necessary to enable the person to whom paragraph 12B applies to perform a pre-existing contract [F24or to redeem outstanding electronic money].

(3) If a pre-existing contract is varied by agreement for the purpose of complying with regulatory requirements or reducing a risk to the person to whom paragraph 12D applies, but without extending the duration of the contract or materially altering its commercial effect, the contract as varied remains a pre-existing contract.

(4) The FCA may, on an application made before the end of the extension period by a person to whom paragraph 12B applies, approve a plan (a “wind-down plan”) under which new contracts may be entered into for the purposes of the orderly winding down of the person’s business of issuing electronic money or payment services in the United Kingdom.

(5) If a wind-down plan is approved by the FCA, the permitted services include services provided in accordance with the wind-down plan.

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money, Payment Services and Payment Systems (Amendment and Transitional Provisions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. (5) Part 9 of the 2000 Act (hearings and appeals) applies to a reference to the Upper Tribunal under sub-paragraph (4) as it applies (by virtue of Schedule 3 to EMR 2011) in relation to a reference under EMR 2011.

Power to charge fees

12K.—(1) The FCA may make rules providing for the payment to it of fees in connection with the discharge of a function under this Part of this Schedule.

(2) Rules under sub-paragraph (1) may not provide for the payment of a fee greater than an amount equal to the expenses incurred, or expected to be incurred, in the discharge of the function.

(3) Sections 138F to 138O of the 2000 Act (procedural provisions) apply to rules made under sub-paragraph (1) as they apply to rules made by the FCA under the 2000 Act.

Exemption from prohibition

12L.—^{F37}(1) A person to whom this paragraph applies is, subject to sub-paragraph (6), exempt from the prohibitions in regulation 138(1) of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 and in regulation 63(1) of EMR 2011 for a period of five years beginning with the ^{F38}IP completion day], but only to the extent that it is necessary for the person to provide payment services or electronic money services in the United Kingdom to perform a pre-existing contract or to redeem outstanding electronic money.]

(2) This paragraph applies to an EEA authorised electronic money institution exercising its passport rights in the United Kingdom immediately before ^{F38}IP completion day] other than through a branch in the United Kingdom or a UK-based agent.

(3) The FCA may cancel the exemption of a person to whom this paragraph applies, or direct that paragraph 12B is to apply to the person, if it considers that doing so is necessary—

- (a) for the prevention, detection, investigation or prosecution of a criminal offence;
- (b) for the protection of electronic money holders or payment service users; or
- (c) for the protection of trust in, or the stability of, a payment system.

(4) In exercising the power in paragraph (3), the FCA must take into account—

- (a) the person's conduct,
- (b) the practicality of supervision by the FCA,
- (c) the size of the person's undertaking, and
- (d) the nature of the services the person provides.

(5) Paragraph 3 of Schedule 3 to EMR 2011 has effect in relation to the FCA's exercise of its powers under this paragraph.

^{F39}(6) A person to whom paragraph applies is exempt from the prohibition in regulation 138(1) of the Payment Services Regulations 2017 only to the extent that it was providing the payment service in the United Kingdom immediately before ^{F38}IP completion day] in accordance with the exercise of an EEA passport right under Title 5 of Directive (EU) 2015/2366 as in force immediately before ^{F38}IP completion day].]

^{F40}(6) Where a person ("A") to whom this paragraph applies issues electronic money to a person ("B") in pursuance of a pre-existing contract in reliance on the exemption in sub-paragraph (1), A must, as soon as it is reasonably practicable to do so, notify B—

- (a) that A is exempt from the prohibition in regulation 63(1) of EMR 2011 by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) and is not authorised by the FCA under EMR 2011;
- (b) that, as a result of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union—
 - (i) it is possible that B's assets held by A in relation to the performance of the pre-existing contract no longer attract the same protection afforded to them immediately before IP completion day;
 - (ii) it is possible that recourse to an alternative dispute resolution procedure or compensation scheme that was available to B under the pre-existing contract immediately before IP completion day is no longer available;
- (c) in so far as it is practicable to do so, of any changes arising as a result of the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union to—
 - (i) the protection afforded to B's assets held by A in relation to the performance of the pre-existing contract; or
 - (ii) the availability to B of an alternative dispute resolution procedure or compensation scheme under the pre-existing contract.
- (7) If at any time after A has provided B with any information under sub-paragraph (6)—
 - (a) there is, or is likely to be, a material change affecting that information; or
 - (b) it becomes apparent to the applicant that the information is incomplete or contains a material inaccuracy,

A must provide B with details of the change, the complete information or a correction of the inaccuracy (as the case may be) as soon as it is reasonably practicable to do so.

PART 2

Transitional provisions relating to Payment Services Regulations 2017

Interpretation

13. In this Part of this Schedule—

- (a) “PSR 2017” means the Payment Services Regulations 2017,
- (b) “the 2000 Act” means the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000,
- (c) “the FCA” means the Financial Conduct Authority, and
- (d) “EEA authorised payment institution”, “EEA registered account information service provider”, “home state competent authority”, “the money laundering directive”, “passport right”, and “the payment services directive” each has the meaning given by PSR 2017 as those Regulations have effect before the amendments made by Schedule 2.

Transitional authorisation for EEA authorised payment institution etc

14.—(1) This paragraph applies to a person who—

- (a) immediately before [F⁴¹IP completion day] is entitled to provide payment services in the United Kingdom in the exercise of a passport right,
- (b) would (apart from this Part of this Schedule) cease from [F⁴¹IP completion day] to be entitled to provide those services in the United Kingdom, and
- (c) has notified the FCA in accordance with paragraph 15 that the person wishes this paragraph to apply in the person's case.

(2) During the transition period defined in paragraph 22—

- (a) the person is to be taken—
 - (i) in case of a person who is an EEA authorised payment institution immediately before [F⁴¹IP completion day], to be an authorised payment institution whose authorisation under PSR 2017 relates to the payment services mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a) and (b), or
 - (ii) in the case of a person who is an EEA registered account information service provider immediately before [F⁴¹IP completion day], to be a registered account information service provider whose registration under PSR 2017 relates to those payment services, and
- (b) accordingly, references in PSR 2017 to an authorised payment institution or a registered account information service provider are to be read as including a person who is taken by virtue of this paragraph to be an authorised payment institution or a registered account information service provider (as the case may be).

(3) Sub-paragraph (2) is subject to paragraphs 19 and 20.

(4) In the following provisions of this Part of this Schedule, “transitional authorisation” means authorisation by virtue of this paragraph as an authorised payment service provider or registration by virtue of this paragraph as a registered account information service provider.

Continuation of authorisation for limited purposes: Payment Services Regulations 2017

Textual Amendments

F51 Sch. 3 Pts. 3, 4 inserted (1.3.2019) by The Financial Services Contracts \(Transitional and Saving Provision\) \(EU Exit\) Regulations 2019 \(S.I. 2019/405\), regs. 1(2), 10(3)

Interpretation

25. The interpretative provisions in paragraph 13 apply also for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule.

Continued authorisation for limited purposes

26.—(1) This paragraph applies to a person in relation to whom the [^{F52}IP completion day] conditions or the transitional authorisation conditions are satisfied.

- (2) The “[^{F52}IP completion day] conditions”, in relation to a person, are—
- (a) that immediately before [^{F52}IP completion day] the person was providing payment services through a branch or agent in the United Kingdom in the exercise of a passport right—
 - (i) as an EEA authorised payment institution, or
 - (ii) as an EEA registered account information service provider,
 - (b) that immediately after [^{F52}IP completion day] the person is not (apart from under this Part of this Schedule) an authorised payment institution or a registered account information service provider, and
 - (c) that immediately after [^{F52}IP completion day] the person has outstanding obligations under contracts which the person entered into as an EEA authorised payment institution or an EEA registered account information service provider exercising passport rights.
- (3) The “transitional authorisation conditions”, in relation to a person, are—
- (a) that on [^{F52}IP completion day] the person became authorised to provide payment services in the United Kingdom by virtue of paragraph 14,
 - (b) that the person has provided any such services in the United Kingdom either—
 - (i) before [^{F52}IP completion day], in the exercise of a passport right as an EEA authorised payment institution or an EEA registered account information service provider, or
 - (ii) on or after [^{F52}IP completion day], in accordance with paragraph 14, and
 - (c) that immediately after the end of that period the person has outstanding obligations under contracts which the person entered into through branch or agent in the United Kingdom as

Duty to notify FCA

27.—(1) A person to whom paragraph 26 or 36 applies must notify the FCA of that fact as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event not later than one month after the person first becomes aware of an obligation to perform a pre-existing contract.

(2) In this Part of this Schedule a “pre-existing contract”, in relation to a person to whom paragraph 26 applies, means a contract—

(a) which was entered into before the extension period defined in paragraph 31 through an agent or branch in the United Kingdom, and

(b) under which the person is obliged to provide payment services.

(3) Notification under sub-paragraph (1) must be made in such manner, and be accompanied by such information, as the FCA may direct.

(4) The FCA is not obliged to include a person to whom paragraph 26 applies on the register maintained under regulation 4 of PSR 2017 until the person notifies the FCA under sub-paragraph (1).

Changes to legislation: The Electronic Money, Payment Services and Payment Systems (Amendment and Transitional Provisions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

(5) During the extension period defined in paragraph 31, a person to whom paragraph 26 applies must notify the FCA of any of the matters mentioned in paragraph 18(2)(b) to (d).

Agents

28. If a notification under paragraph 27 includes information as to the use of an agent who is registered with the home state competent authority, the FCA must include the agent on the register maintained under regulation 4 of PSR 2017.

Permitted services

29.—(1) This paragraph sets out the permitted services for the purposes of paragraph 26(4)(a).

(2) The permitted services are—

- (a) where the [^{F54}IP completion day] conditions in paragraph 26(2) are met, payment services of the kind mentioned in paragraph 26(2)(a), but only to the extent that the provision of the services is necessary to enable the person to whom paragraph 26 applies to perform a pre-existing contract, or
- (b) where the transitional authorisation conditions in paragraph 26(3) are met, payment services of the kind mentioned in paragraph 26(3)(b)(i) or (ii), but only to the extent that the provision of the services is necessary to enable the person to whom paragraph 12B applies to perform a pre-existing contract.

(3) If a pre-existing contract is varied by agreement for the purpose of complying with regulatory requirements or reducing a risk to the person to whom paragraph 26 applies, but without extending the duration of the contract or materially altering its commercial effect, the contract as varied remains a pre-existing contract.

(4) The FCA may, on an application made before the end of the extension period by a person to whom paragraph 26 applies, approve a plan (a “wind-down plan”) under which new contracts may be entered into for the purposes of the orderly winding down of the person’s business of providing payment services in the United Kingdom.

(5) If a wind-down plan is approved by the FCA, the permitted services include services provided in accordance with the wind-down plan.

(6) A person providing permitted services in accordance with this paragraph must, when required by the FCA, provide the FCA with such evidence as the FCA may reasonably require to demonstrate the person’s compliance with the law of the person’s home state implementing Article 10 of the payment services directive (safeguarding).

Extension period

31.—(1) The extension period in relation to a person begins—

- (a) where the [^{F56}IP completion day] conditions are met, with the day on which [^{F56}IP completion day] falls, and
- (b) where the transitional authorisation conditions are met, with the end of the transition period defined by paragraph 22.

(2) The extension period in relation to a person ends with the earliest of the following—

- (a) the day before the date stated in accordance with regulation 9(6) of PSR 2017 (or that provision as applied by regulation 15 of those Regulations) as the date on which the person's authorisation as a payment institution or registration as an account information service provider (otherwise than by virtue of this Schedule) takes effect;
- (b) the day on which the transfer to another person of the person's business of providing payment services in the United Kingdom takes effect;
- (c) in a case where the person has notified the FCA under paragraph 27(1), the day determined by the FCA under paragraph 29(2);
- (d) in a case where the person has not notified the FCA under paragraph 27(1), the time when all the person's obligations under relevant contracts have been discharged;
- (e) the day on which any cancellation under paragraph 33 takes effect;
- (f) the day the person ceases to be authorised by its home state competent authority;
- (g) the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the extension period began.

[^{F57}(3) “Relevant contract”, in relation to a person to whom paragraph 26 applies, means a contract—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers in section 8(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular under paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g) of section 8(2)) arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. Regulation 2 and Schedule 1 amend primary legislation relating to payment systems.

Regulation 3(1) and Schedule 2 amend subordinate legislation relating to electronic money and payment services.

Regulation 3(2) and Schedule 3 makes provision for persons who before exit day are authorised to issue electronic money or provide payment services in the United Kingdom to continue to do so during a transition period if they notify the Financial Conduct Authority of their intention to do so. An impact assessment of the effect that this instrument, and certain other instruments made by HM Treasury under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, will have on the costs of business, the voluntary sector and the public sector is available from HM Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ and is published alongside this instrument at www.legislation.gov.uk.

Changes to legislation:

The Electronic Money, Payment Services and Payment Systems (Amendment and Transitional Provisions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations.
