

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 3

Compliance notices and stop notices

PART 2

Stop notices

Stop notices

5.—(1) The food authority may serve a stop notice on any person in accordance with this Part in relation to an offence under these Regulations.

(2) A “stop notice” is a notice prohibiting a person from carrying on an activity specified in the notice until the person has taken the steps specified in the notice.

(3) A stop notice may only be served in a case where—

- (a) the person is carrying on the activity; and
- (b) the food authority reasonably believes that the activity as carried on by that person involves or is likely to involve the commission of an offence under these Regulations.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Novel Foods (England) Regulations 2018, Paragraph 5.