HOUSING, ENGLAND

The Housing and Planning Act 2016 (Banning Order Offences)
Regulations 2018

Made - - - - 22nd February 2018

Coming into force - - 6th April 2018

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 14(3) of the Housing and Planning Act 2016(a), makes the following Regulations.

In accordance with section 214(2)(b) of the Housing and Planning Act 2016, a draft of this instrument was laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation, commencement and application

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Housing and Planning Act 2016 (Banning Order Offences) Regulations 2018.

(2) These Regulations come into force on 6th April 2018.

(3) These Regulations apply only in relation to offences committed after these Regulations come into force.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“associated person” has the meaning given by section 178 of the Housing Act 1996(b); and “tenant”, in relation to housing, includes a person who has a licence to occupy housing.

Banning order offences

3. The following offences are banning order offences(c)—

(a) an offence listed in any of items 1 to 5 of the Schedule, unless the sentence imposed on the person convicted of the offence (“the offender”) is an absolute discharge or a conditional discharge;

(b) an offence listed in item 6 of the Schedule;

(c) an offence listed in any of items 7 to 14 of the Schedule if—

(a) 2016 c. 22.

(b) 1996 c. 52; section 178 was amended by the Civil Partnership Act 2004 (c. 33), Schedule 8, paragraph 61(2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) and the Adoption and Children Act 2002 (c. 38) Schedule 3, paragraphs 90, 91 and 92.

(c) Under section 15(1) of the Housing and Planning Act 2016, a local housing authority in England may apply to the First-tier Tribunal for a banning order against a person who has been convicted of a banning order offence.

- (i) the offence was committed against or in collusion with a tenant occupying any housing (or another person occupying that housing with the tenant) or the offence was committed at or in relation to that housing;
- (ii) at the time the offence was committed, the offender was the residential landlord or property agent of that housing or an officer of a body corporate who was the residential landlord or property agent of that housing; and
- (iii) the offender was sentenced for the offence in the Crown Court.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Part 2 of the Housing and Planning Act 2016 (c. 22) (“the Act”) makes provision for the imposition of banning orders. Section 15 of the Act confers power on local housing authorities in England to apply to the First-tier Tribunal for a banning order against a person who has been convicted of a banning order offence. Section 16 confers power on the First-tier Tribunal to make a banning order against that person if that person was a residential landlord or property agent at the time the offence was committed. Section 14 defines “banning order” and “banning order offence” for the purposes of Part 2 of the Act (rogue landlords and property agents in England). Section 14(3) confers power on the Secretary of State to make regulations specifying the description of what constitutes a “banning order offence”. Regulation 3 and the Schedule to these Regulations specify those offences.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sectors is foreseen.
