2019 No. 450

The Trade Remedies (Dumping and Subsidisation) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019

PART 1

Introductory

Meaning of “negligible” in relation to subsidised imports

5.—(1) For the purpose of these Regulations, whether or not the volume of subsidised imports is negligible, in respect of an exporting country or territory that is not a developing country or territory, is determined in accordance with paragraph (2), and in respect of an exporting country or territory that is a developing country or territory, is determined in accordance with paragraph (3).

(2) The volume of subsidised imports is negligible where the exporting country or territory that is not a developing country or territory accounts for less than 3 per cent. of imports of the like goods imported into the United Kingdom, except where the exporting countries or territories individually account for less than 3 per cent. of imports of the like goods imported into the United Kingdom but collectively account for more than 7 per cent. of imports of the like goods imported into the United Kingdom.

(3) The volume of subsidised imports is negligible where the exporting country or territory is a developing country or territory and imports from such a country or territory account for less than 4 per cent. of imports of the like goods imported into the United Kingdom, except where the developing countries or territories individually accounts for less than 4 per cent. of imports of the like goods imported into the United Kingdom, but collectively account for more than 9 per cent. of imports of the like goods imported into the United Kingdom.
