

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE VETERINARY SURGEONS AND ANIMAL WELFARE (AMENDMENT) (EU EXIT) REGULATIONS 2019

2019 No. 454

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This Explanatory Memorandum has been prepared by the Department of Environment, Food and Rural Affairs and is laid before Parliament by Act.

2. Purpose of the instrument

- 2.1 This SI makes amendments to the Veterinary Surgeons Act 1966 and the Animal Welfare Act 2006 in order to address deficiencies arising from the United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union.

Explanations

What did any relevant EU law do before exit day?

- 2.2 The relevant parts of the Veterinary Surgeons Act transposed Directives 2005/36/EC and 2013/55/EU, changing the way in which EEA veterinary surgeons could register to practice in the United Kingdom.
- 2.3 Section 29 of the Animal Welfare Act 2006 provides a power to entry in England and Wales in order to check compliance with regulations made under section 12 of the Animal Welfare Act 2006 which implement EU obligations.

Why is it being changed?

- 2.4 Amendments to the Veterinary Surgeons Act are being made because, after exit day, reciprocal arrangements with the EU will cease to exist. In the circumstances, it is no longer considered appropriate to provide more favourable treatment to EEA States.
- 2.5 The amendment to section 29 of the Animal Welfare Act 2006 is necessary to ensure that existing powers of entry remain available after the UK's withdrawal from the European Union.

What will it now do?

- 2.6 After exit day:
- a. Persons with veterinary qualifications obtained in the EEA who wish to register and practice in the UK will need to have a qualification that satisfies the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons (RCVS) that they have the requisite knowledge or skill, or successfully pass a statutory examination set by the RCVS.
 - b. Powers of entry under section 29 of the Animal Welfare Act 2006 will continue to be available in England and Wales, ensuring inspectors can continue to assess compliance with certain regulations made under section 12 of that Act.

Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments.

4. Extent and Territorial Application

4.1 The territorial extent of this instrument is the United Kingdom.

4.2 The territorial application of this instrument is different for each part of the regulation. Part 2 applies to the United Kingdom. Part 3 applies to England and Wales.

5. European Convention on Human Rights

5.1 The Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Rural Affairs and Biosecurity, Lord Gardiner of Kimble, has made the following statement regarding Human Rights:

“In my view the provisions of the Veterinary Surgeons and Animal Welfare (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 are compatible with the Convention rights.”

6. Legislative Context

6.1 The SI makes amendments to the Veterinary Surgeons Act 1966 and the Animal Welfare Act 2006 in order to address deficiencies arising from the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the European Union.

6.2 The Veterinary Surgeons Act 1966, together with the European Recognition of Professional Qualifications Regulations 2015 (SI 2015/2059), transposed Directives 2005/36EC and 2013/55/EU in so far as they applied to the profession of veterinary surgeons. SI 2015/2059 will, on exit day, be amended by the Recognition of Professional Qualifications (Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019. Those regulations contain transitional and saving provisions of relevance to these Regulations (see regulation 4(2) (a) (iii)).

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

7.1 The Veterinary Surgeons Act 1966, together with the European Recognition of Professional Qualifications Regulations 2015 (SI 2015/2059), transpose Directives 2005/36EC and 2013/55/EU in so far as they apply to the veterinary profession in the United Kingdom.

7.2 The purpose of the Directives is to facilitate free movement of persons with professional qualifications in the EU. Implementation of the Directives gave veterinary surgeons with EEA qualifications more favourable access to practice in the United Kingdom than those with qualifications from the rest of the world. When the UK leaves the EU, the EU will no longer recognise UK qualifications. In those circumstances, it is no longer considered appropriate to provide more favourable treatment to EEA States. EEA nationals will still be able to register to practice in the United Kingdom, but will need to satisfy the same conditions as any third country.

- 7.3 These amendments do not affect the rights of those already registered to practice veterinary surgery in the United Kingdom. Transitional arrangements ensure that those who are in the process of registering with the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons on exit day are entitled to have their application (and any related appeal) considered under the rules as they applied before exit day.
- 7.4 This SI also makes a minor amendment to the Animal Welfare Act 2006 to ensure that, where a power of entry currently exists, an inspector can continue to enter premises to assess compliance with regulations under section 12 of the Act in implementation of an EU obligation. The power of entry would not apply in respect of secondary legislation made under section 12 of the Act after exit day.

8. European Union (Withdrawal) Act/Withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

- 8.1 This instrument is being made using the power in section 8 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively or other deficiencies arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. The instrument is also made under paragraph 21 (b) of Schedule 7 of the Act. In accordance with the requirements of that Act, the Minister has made the relevant statements as detailed in Part 2 of the Annex to this Explanatory Memorandum.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 Consolidation is not being done at this time.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 The Scottish, Welsh and Northern Irish administrations have been consulted about these proposed amendments and their views have been taken into account in the drafting of this instrument.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 The Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons will prepare any necessary guidance ahead of the UK leaving the EU on 29 March 2019.

12. Impact

- 12.1 There is no, or no significant, impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies.
- 12.2 There is no, or no significant, impact on the public sector.
- 12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument because this will have a very low/negligible level of impact on business.

13. Regulating small business

- 13.1 The legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

14. Monitoring & review

- 14.1 The approach to monitoring of this legislation is continued dialogue with stakeholders.
- 14.2 As this instrument is made under the EU Withdrawal Act 2018, no review clause is required.

Part 2

Statements required when using enabling powers under the European Union (Withdrawal) 2018 Act

1. Appropriateness statement.

1.1 The Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Rural Affairs and Biosecurity, Lord Gardiner of Kimble, has made the following statement regarding use of legislative powers in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018:

“In my view the Veterinary Surgeons and Animal Welfare (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 does no more than is appropriate”.

1.2 This is the case because the amendment addresses deficiencies in the Veterinary Surgeons Act 1966 and Animal Welfare Act 2006 arising from the United Kingdom’s withdrawal from the European Union.

2. Good reasons

2.1 The Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Rural Affairs and Biosecurity, Lord Gardiner of Kimble has made the following statement regarding the use of legislative powers in the European Union (Withdrawal Act 2018:

“In my view there are good reasons for the provisions in this instrument and I have concluded they are a reasonable course of action”.

2.2 These are that they give the statutory regulator, the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons the power to evaluate whether or not veterinary qualifications from other European countries are of equivalent standards to UK approved veterinary degrees.

3. Equalities

3.1 The Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Rural Affairs and Biosecurity, Lord Gardiner of Kimble, has made the following statement:

“The instrument does not amend, repeal or revoke a provision or provisions in the Equality Act 2006 or the Equality Act 2010 or subordinate legislation made under those Acts”.

3.2 The Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Rural Affairs and Biosecurity, Lord Gardiner of Kimble, has made the following statement regarding use of legislative powers in the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018:
