EXITING THE EUROPEAN UNION AGRICULTURE

The Common Organisation of the Markets in Agricultural Products and Common Agricultural Policy
(Miscellaneous Amendments) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019

Made - - - - 4th April 2019

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8 of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ^{M1}, makes the following Regulations.

There has been consultation through representative bodies as required by Article 9 of Regulation (EC) No 178/2002 of the European Parliament and of the Council laying down the general principles and requirements of food law, establishing the European Food Safety Authority and laying down procedures in matters of food safety ^{M2}.

In accordance with paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 7 to the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, a draft of this instrument has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

“Article 99a

Appeals

1. The following may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal (the “FTT”) against a decision of the Secretary of State to approve an application made under Article 94 for protection of a name as a designation of origin or geographical indication:

- (a) a person who submitted a statement in accordance with Article 98;
- (b) a person marketing a product that is, or may be, affected by the registration of the designation of origin or geographical indication.

2. The following may appeal to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State to reject an application made under Article 94 for protection of a name as a designation of origin or geographical indication:

- (a) the person who submitted the application for protection;
- (b) a person marketing a product that is, or may be, affected by the decision not to register the designation of origin or geographical indication.

Status: This version of this Instrument contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Common Organisation of the Markets in Agricultural Products and Common Agricultural Policy (Miscellaneous Amendments) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019. (See end of Document for details)

[^{F4}2A. The following may appeal to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State to approve an application made under Article 105 for an amendment to a product specification of a protected designation of origin or of a protected geographical indication—

- (a) the person who submitted an application under Article 105 which is the subject of the appeal;
- (b) a person marketing a product that is, or may be, affected by the decision to approve the application.

2B. The following may appeal to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State to reject an application made under Article 105 for an amendment to a product specification of a protected designation of origin or of a protected geographical indication—

- (a) the person who submitted an application under Article 105 which is the subject of the appeal;
- (b) a person marketing a product that is, or may be, affected by the decision to reject the application.

2C. The following may appeal to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State (either on the Secretary of States' own initiative or following a request) under Article 106 to cancel the protection of a designation of origin or geographical indication—

- (a) the person who made a request for cancellation under Article 106 which is the subject of the appeal, if applicable;
- (b) a person marketing a product that is, or may be, affected by the decision of the Secretary of State to cancel.

2D. The following may appeal to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State, following a request under Article 106, not to cancel the protection of a designation of origin or geographical indication—

- (a) the person who made the request for cancellation under Article 106;
- (b) a person marketing a product that is, or may be, affected by the decision of the Secretary of State not to cancel.]

3. In determining an appeal under [^{F5}paragraph 1, 2, 2A, 2B, 2C or 2D] the FTT:

- (a) must consider the decision appealed against afresh, and
- (b) may take into account evidence that was not available to the Secretary of State.

4. The FTT may:

- (a) dismiss the appeal,
- (b) if it allows an appeal made under paragraph 1:
 - (i) quash the decision and direct the Secretary of State to reject the application and (if appropriate) restore the register; or
 - (ii) remit the matter to the Secretary of State with a direction to repeat the scrutiny of the application and (if appropriate) to restore the register in the meantime; or
- (c) if it allows an appeal made under paragraph 2:
 - (i) quash the decision and direct the Secretary of State to approve the application and register the designation of origin or geographical indication; or

Status: This version of this Instrument contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Common Organisation of the Markets in Agricultural Products and Common Agricultural Policy (Miscellaneous Amendments) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) remit the matter to the Secretary of State with a direction to repeat the scrutiny of the application.
- [^{F6}(d) if it allows an appeal made under paragraph 2A—
 - (i) quash the decision and direct the Secretary of State to reject the application and (if appropriate) restore the register; or
 - (ii) remit the matter to the Secretary of State with a direction to repeat the consideration of the application for amendment and (if appropriate) to restore the register in the meantime;
- (e) if it allows an appeal made under paragraph 2B—
 - (i) quash the decision and direct the Secretary of State to approve the application; or
 - (ii) remit the matter to the Secretary of State with a direction to repeat the consideration of the application for amendment;
- (f) if it allows an appeal made under paragraph 2C—
 - (i) quash the decision and direct the Secretary of State to reverse the cancellation and (if appropriate) restore the register; or
 - (ii) remit the matter to the Secretary of State with a direction to repeat the consideration of the cancellation and (if appropriate) to restore the register in the meantime;
- (g) if it allows an appeal made under paragraph 2D—
 - (i) quash the decision and direct the Secretary of State to cancel the protection of designation of origin or geographical indication; or
 - (ii) remit the matter to the Secretary of State with a direction to repeal the consideration of the cancellation.]

5. The Secretary of State may consider a decision mentioned in [^{F7}paragraph 1, 2, 2A, 2B, 2C or 2D] afresh if evidence becomes available to the Secretary of State after making the original decision that was not available to the Secretary of State at the time of the original decision.

6. Paragraph 5 applies even though an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of the original decision.

7. Where the Secretary of State decides to consider an original decision afresh in a case where an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of that decision, the appeal to the FTT is suspended until such time as the Secretary of State has made a fresh decision in relation to the matter.

8. If the Secretary of State makes the same decision again, the appeal to the FTT restarts. If the Secretary of State makes a different decision, the appeal to the FTT ceases unless the FTT directs otherwise.

[^{F8}9. An appeal made under paragraph 1, 2A or 2C does not prevent an entry recorded on the register provided for in Article 104 by the Secretary of State following that decision from having effect.

Status: This version of this Instrument contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Common Organisation of the Markets in Agricultural Products and Common Agricultural Policy (Miscellaneous Amendments) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019. (See end of Document for details)

10. The entry referred to in paragraph 9 continues to have effect, despite the appeal, unless the appeal is allowed by the FTT and—

- (a) in a case where the FTT quashes the Secretary of State’s decision and directs the Secretary of State to restore the register, that action has been taken;
- (b) in a case where the FTT remits the matter to the Secretary of State for reconsideration and fresh decision, the relevant entry ceases to have effect as a result of consequent action taken in relation to the entry in the register following the fresh decision taken by the Secretary of State.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8(1) of, and paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 to, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular under section 8(2)(a), (b), (d) and (g)) arising from the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union. These Regulations make amendments to Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council establishing a common organisation of the markets in agricultural products (Regulation (EU) 1308/2013), in particular in relation to provisions concerning recognition of producer organisations, protected designations of origin and geographical indications and contracts in relation to agricultural products, and to Regulation (EU) No 510/2014 laying down the trade arrangements applicable to certain goods resulting from the processing of agricultural products.

They also make amendments to Regulation (EU) No. 566/2008 concerning the marketing of beef, Regulation (EU) No. 543/2011 concerning marketing of fruit and vegetables and Regulation (EU) No. 1295/2008 concerning the import of hops.

They also make amendments to Regulation (EU) No. 1306/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the financing, management and monitoring of the common agricultural policy, conferring legislative functions in relation to customs procedures and checks relating to protected designations of origin, geographical indications and protected traditional terms.

Part 4 makes amendments to The Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (General Regulatory Chamber) Rules 2009 (S.I. 2009/1976) in consequence of amendments made to Regulation (EU) 1308/2013.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
