Prohibition on providing certain services relating to [^{F2}non-government controlled Ukrainian territory]

54.—(1) A person must not provide—

- (a) services relating to a relevant infrastructure sector in [^{F3}non-government controlled Ukrainian territory]; or
- (b) services relating to tourism in [^{F3}non-government controlled Ukrainian territory].

(2) Paragraph (1) is subject to Part 7 (Exceptions and licences).

(3) A person who contravenes the prohibition in paragraph (1) commits an offence, but—

- (a) it is a defence for a person charged with the offence in paragraph (1)(a) (“P”) to show that P did not know and had no reasonable cause to suspect that P was providing services relating to a relevant infrastructure sector in [^{F4}non-government controlled Ukrainian territory];
- (b) it is a defence for a person charged with the offence in paragraph (1)(b) (“P”) to show that P did not know and had no reasonable cause to suspect that P was providing services relating to tourism in [^{F4}non-government controlled Ukrainian territory].

(4) In this regulation—

“services relating to a relevant infrastructure sector in [^{F5}non-government controlled Ukrainian territory]” means technical assistance, brokering, construction or engineering services directly relating to infrastructure in [^{F5}non-government controlled Ukrainian territory] in any of the following sectors—

- (a) transport;
- (b) telecommunications;
- (c) energy;
- (d) the prospection, exploration and production of oil, gas and mineral resources;

“technical assistance” means the provision of technical support or any other technical service.
