- (3) Omit Section 1.
- (4) For the heading to Section 2 substitute “AREAS FREE OF NON-EXOTIC DISEASES”.
- (5) In Section 2, before Article 3, insert—

“Article 2a

Non-exotic disease-free status for a constituent GB territory

1. The appropriate authority for a constituent GB territory may declare that territory free of one or more of the non-exotic diseases listed in Annex 1A to Regulation 1251/2008 if—

- (a) the conditions in paragraph 2 and, where applicable, paragraph 3 are met; and

- (b) the requirements for surveillance, buffer zones, sampling and diagnostic methods set out in Decision (EU) 2015/1554 have been met.

2. The first condition is that—

- (a) none of the species susceptible to the disease in question are present in the constituent GB territory;
- (b) the pathogen is known not to be able to survive in the constituent GB territory and its water source; or
- (c) the conditions in Part 1 of Annex 5 to Directive 2006/88/EC are met.

3. Where adjoining constituent GB territories or water catchment areas shared with a neighbouring constituent GB territory are not declared disease-free, the second condition is that appropriate buffer zones have been established to protect the disease-free territory from passive introduction of the disease.

Article 2b

Non-exotic disease-free status for a zone or compartment

1. The appropriate authority may declare a zone or compartment free of one or more of the non-exotic diseases listed in Annex 1A to Regulation 1251/2008 if—

- (a) the condition in paragraph 2 is met; and
- (b) the requirements for surveillance, buffer zones, sampling and diagnostic methods set out in Decision (EU) 2015/1554 have been met.

2. The first condition is that—

- (a) none of the species susceptible to the disease in question are present in the zone or compartment;
- (b) the pathogen is known not to be able to survive in the zone or compartment and, where relevant, its water source; or
- (c) the conditions in Part 2 of Annex 5 to Directive 2006/88/EC are met.

Article 2c

Maintenance of non-exotic disease-free status

Where a constituent GB territory is declared free from one or more non-exotic diseases listed in Annex 1A to Regulation 1251/2008 in accordance with Article 2a, the appropriate authority may discontinue targeted surveillance and maintain its disease-free status provided that the conditions conducive to clinical expression of the disease in question exist.

However, for disease-free zones or compartments in a constituent GB territory not declared disease-free, and in all cases where conditions are not conducive to clinical expression of the disease in question, targeted surveillance shall be continued in accordance with the methods provided for in Decision 2015/1554, but at a level commensurate with the degree of risk.

Article 2d

Suspension and restoration of disease-free status

1. Where the appropriate authority has reason to believe that any of the conditions for maintaining disease-free status are no longer met in respect of their constituent GB territory, zone or compartment, the appropriate authority must apply the provisions of Part 4 of the Aquatic Animal Health Regulations.

2. Where the epizootic investigation required by Part 4 of the Aquatic Animal Health Regulations confirms that the conditions for maintaining disease-free status are still met, the disease-free status of the constituent GB territory, zone or compartment may be restored.

3. Where the epizootic investigation confirms a significant likelihood that infection has occurred, the disease-free status of the constituent GB territory, zone or compartment must be withdrawn. The requirements laid down in Annex 5 to Directive 2006/88/EC must be complied with before disease-free status is restored.

SECTION 2A

AREAS FREE OF EXOTIC DISEASE

Article 2e

Exotic disease-free status

1. The appropriate authority for a constituent GB territory may declare that territory, or a zone or compartment thereof, free of one or more of the exotic diseases listed in Annex 1A to Regulation 1251/2008 if the condition in paragraph 2 is met.

2. The condition is that—

- (a) none of the species susceptible to the disease in question are present in the constituent GB territory, zone or compartment;
- (b) the pathogen is known not to be able to survive in the constituent GB territory, zone or compartment and its water source;
- (c) susceptible species are present, but there has not been any observed occurrence of the disease in the constituent GB territory, zone or compartment for at least ten years; or
- (d) the last known occurrence was within the last ten years, but targeted surveillance has not detected the disease on a farm, or in a mollusc farming area, that rears any of the susceptible species.

Article 2f

Suspension and restoration of exotic disease-free status

1. Where the appropriate authority has reason to believe that the condition for maintaining exotic disease-free status is no longer met in respect of their constituent GB territory, zone or compartment, the appropriate authority must undertake an investigation.

2. Where the investigation required by paragraph 1 confirms that the condition for maintaining exotic disease-free status is still met, the disease-free status of the constituent GB territory, zone or compartment may be restored.

3. Where the investigation confirms a significant likelihood that infection has occurred, the exotic disease-free status of the constituent GB territory, zone or compartment must be withdrawn until the condition in Article 2e(2) is once again met.”.

(6) Omit Articles 3 and 4.

(7) For Article 5 substitute—

“Article 5

Savings for declarations of disease-free status made before IP completion day

1. Subject to paragraph 2, declarations of disease-free status made before IP completion day which are listed in Part C of Annex 1 are to be treated as if—

- (a) references to Great Britain were to the relevant constituent GB territory; and
- (b) they had been made in accordance with Article 2a or 2b (as the case may be).

2. Paragraph 1 does not apply where, following IP completion day, disease-free status has been withdrawn in relation to any of the areas listed in Part C of Annex 1 in accordance with Article 2d.

3. The Internet-based information pages required by Article 10 are to be considered to be the definitive list of constituent GB territories, zones and compartments which are declared to be disease-free..”.

(8) Omit Section 3.

(9) In the heading to Section 4, omit “OBLIGATIONS FOR REPORTS AND”.

(10) Omit Article 9.

(11) For Article 10 substitute—

“Article 10

Internet-based information pages

The appropriate authority must establish and keep up-to-date Internet-based information pages in order to make publicly available the list of constituent GB territories, zones or compartments declared to be disease-free..”.

(12) Omit Sections 5 and 6.

(13) In Annex 1—

- (a) omit Parts A and B;
- (b) in Part C, for the table and the heading to that table substitute—

“Declarations of disease-free status prior to IP completion day

- (4) After Article 2 insert—

“Article 2a

Surveillance and eradication programmes

1. Where a constituent GB territory is not known to be infected and is not declared free of one or more of the non-exotic diseases listed in Annex 1A to Regulation 1251/2008, the appropriate authority may establish a surveillance programme for achieving disease-free status for one or more of those diseases.
2. A surveillance programme established in accordance with paragraph 1 must include specific requirements for surveillance, sampling and diagnostics as provided for in Annex 1.
3. Where a constituent GB territory is known to be infected by one or more of the non-exotic diseases listed in Annex 1A to Regulation 1251/2008, the appropriate authority may establish an eradication programme for achieving disease-free status.
4. A programme established in accordance with paragraph 1 or 3 must contain—
 - (a) a description of the epidemiological situation of the disease before the date of commencement of the programme;
 - (b) an analysis of the estimated costs and the anticipated benefits of the programme;

- (c) the likely duration of the programme and the objective to be attained by the completion date of the programme;
 - (d) a description and demarcation of the geographical and administrative area in which the programme is to be applied.”.
- (5) In Article 3—
 - (a) for “Member States” substitute “The appropriate authority”;
 - (b) for “Member State” substitute “constituent GB territory,”.
- (6) In Article 4, for “Member States” substitute “The appropriate authority”.
- (7) Article 5—
 - (a) in the heading, for “Member States” substitute “constituent GB territories”;
