The Police (Conduct) Regulations 2020

PART 6

Reflective practice review process

Discussion stage

69.—(1) The reviewer must, following completion of the fact-finding stage, invite the participating officer to attend a reflective practice review discussion.

(2) Such discussion should take place as soon as reasonably practicable.

(3) The discussion must include, in particular—

- (a) a discussion of the practice requiring improvement and related circumstances that have been identified, and
- (b) the identification of key lessons to be learnt by the participating officer, line management or police force concerned, to address the matter and prevent a reoccurrence of the matter.
