2020 No. 757

The Town and Country Planning (Use Classes)
(Amendment) (England) Regulations 2020

Revocation, transitional, savings and consequential provision

4. If prior to the commencement of the material period, a relevant planning application was submitted, or was deemed to be submitted, to the local planning authority which referred to uses or use classes which applied in relation to England and were specified in the Schedule to the Use Classes Order on 31st August 2020, that application must be determined by reference to those uses or use classes.
